See you soon!

Hello everyone,

I wanted to offer gratitude to everyone who joined us for the last Indigenous Authors Book Club where we were joined by the extraordinary author, Monique Gray Smith.

Our next meeting will take place on May 22nd. We will be discussing 21 Things You May Not Know About the Indian Act by Robert Joseph. I've taken the following description from the abstract on the Greater Victoria Public Library's Catalogue (where they hold 10 copies):

Based on a viral article, 21 Things You May Not Know About the Indian Act is the essential guide to understanding the legal document and its repercussion on generations of Indigenous peoples, written by a leading cultural sensitivity trainer. The Indian Act, after 141 years, continues to shape, control, and constrain the lives and opportunities of Indigenous peoples, and is at the root of many lasting stereotypes. Bob Joseph's book comes at a key time in the reconciliation process, when awareness from both Indigenous and non-Indigenous communities is at a crescendo. Joseph explains how Indigenous peoples can step out from under the Indian Act and return to self-government, self-determination, and self-reliance-and why doing so would result in a better country for every Canadian. He dissects the complex issues around truth and reconciliation, and clearly demonstrates why learning about the Indian Act's cruel, enduring legacy is essential for the country to move toward true reconciliation.

A quick search reveals the book can be found in stock at the following book stores: Bolen's Books, Indigo, Munro's Books, Russell Books.

A reminder that you are welcome to join the gathering whether you have read all, some, or none of the book.

Please don't hesitate to get in touch with any questions you may have, and I look forward to seeing you soon.

With thanks,

Erin
