Security Concern

Note that Sept. 10 or 11 are the final opportunities for this workshop this year. Please do everything you can to accommodate this date in your calendar.

As there won't be any further make-up sessions at this time, make sure you have coverage in place or folks know you won't be available for these two hours that day, so you can avoid being pulled away. We know how busy you are, and have intentionally designed a short, practical session to respect everyone's workload and schedule.

We have attempted to divide up members of the same team between the two Part 2 sessions to ensure adequate coverage left in your office. But if you have an unresolvable conflict in your calendar at this time on Sept. 11th, please email Sarah Plank to request attending on Sept. 10th instead. We may be able to accommodate a minimal number of people to switch dates if absolutely necessary so that you can have the opportunity to take the training.

We request that you please arrive on time for opening protocol.

We'll look forward to seeing you there!

L@WW Wed LnL: Movement @ Work: How to incorporate Activity in the Workplace - Security Concern
Security Concern

For anyone else interested in building more exercise/activity into the workday, please join me in the Boardroom where I will be connecting to the lunch and learn session described below!

For a while before my mat leave, I was thinking about having a "stop and stretch" group in the office where we could challenge each other to take a short break for some stretches/exercises on a regular basis in the middle of the work day (everyone at their own desk, but at the same time). I think the time has come to make it happen! If you can't make the lunch and learn but would be interested in such a group, please let me know!

URL:https://learning.gov.bc.ca/psp/CHIPSPLM/EMPLOYEE/ELM/c/LM_OD_EMPLLOYEE_FL.LM_ACT_DTLS_FL.?Page=LM_ACT_DTLS_FL&Action=U&LM_ENRLMT_ID=1245037&LM_CI_ID=18430&LM_ACT_ID=12139

Abstract:

Leading public servants through a 1-hour interactive discussion on the benefits of movement and how to counteract sedentary behaviour while in the workplace. This interactive hour will focus on why movement is an essential part of overall health and wellbeing, discuss national guidelines of activity for the public, and explain how public servants can easily incorporate activity into their own workplace. Those involved will be guided through a practical stretching routine that can be done at any workstation and will cater to all levels of fitness. This will focus on the movement/activity component of the Physical Wellness Dimension but will touch on other aspects like sleep hygiene, dietary habits, appropriate tobacco/alcohol use, and the use of regular physician exams.

Facilitators:

- Stephanie Unger, B.Kin, Injury Recovery Specialist - Occupational Health and Rehabilitation
- Kelly Wanless, B.KIN, CDM. Injury Recovery Specialist - Occupational Health and Rehabilitation

This virtual session will be held with two way audio and one way video. Participants will be invited to type questions to the speakers, time permitting, through the instant message and whiteboard functions of Skype. There is a live transcription service that will be provided to anyone who would like to read while participating in the webinar, found within the Learning System as a secondary link option.
