Invitation: "Making Intersectionality work in the B.C. Government" -- Skype meeting
Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the People and Workplace Strategies (PAWS) branch, I would like to invite you to another session of “The Knowledge Bridge: Workplace Support Series”. The goal of this program is to connect you to meaningful content related to working from home during a crisis; practicing physical distancing; managing stress; and balancing professional and personal relationships. Please join our speakers via webinar and podcast over the next few months as we learn how to adapt to these changing times.

On November 3rd, 2020, I am pleased to welcome a group of people who are deeply engaged with intersectionality in the public service: Julia Berry (HLTH), Alfredo Garcia (MIRR), Sarah Hayes (FLNRORD), Keri Laughlin (MIRR), Anika Sparling (FIN) and Alessandra Valoroso (EMBC). Intersectionality is a broad topic, and each of our guests will be sharing their perspectives on this important work taking place within the B.C. government. Their experience and insight around intersectionality will support us in making a difference in our work, the lives of our colleagues, and the services we offer across the province.

In preparation for the session, please make time to view the following videos:

- Motivation for Allyship (5 min): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ptcRfX8Td5E&feature=youtu.be>
- Exploring the Concept of Practicing Allyship (4 min): https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hg7KmSmP_Ow&feature=youtu.be
- Becoming Comfortable with the Uncomfortable (8 min): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ralEqy5vU8k>

Please find the Skype meeting information included at the end of this invitation. If you are unable to connect, these sessions will be recorded and made available on our Knowledge Bridge home page for viewing at a later date.

Knowledge Bridge: Invitation to "Inclusive Talent Acquisition" webinar -- MS Teams session
Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the People and Workplace Strategies (PAWS) branch, I would like to invite you to another session of "The Knowledge Bridge: Workplace Support Series".

On November 24th, 2020, I am pleased to welcome speakers who are champions in their own right when it comes to diversity and inclusion. This session focuses on inclusive talent acquisition, and we'll be covering some foundational knowledge to support you in creating a dynamic workforce. We'll hear from Sam Turcott, Executive Lead, Accessibility Secretariat, who will situate us within a larger framework of what's happening in BC. Nicole Villeneuve, Advisor with the People and Workplace Strategies branch, will speak to the current context within the BC Public Service. Greg Blackburn, Recreation Service Officer, will share some of his lived experience related to recruitment with organization. Rounding out the speakers is Odette Dantzer, Accessibility Lead for the Public Service Agency, who will share some concrete suggestions on how to shift thought and action towards improved inclusive talent acquisition. If you are involved in hiring directly, or on hiring panels, this session is definitely for you!

Please find the MTeams meeting information included at the end of this invitation. If you are unable to connect, sessions are recorded and made available on our Knowledge Bridge home page for viewing at a later date.

Please let me know if you require accommodation (e.g. interpretive
