The House Leaders are aware of the proposed time of adjournment on Wednesday being 6:25 pm instead of the usual 7:00 pm. Members should remain in their seats until the Speaker, Sergeant-at-Arms and I return. Fifteen minutes has been set aside for briefings followed by another fifteen minutes for questions and discussion.  The purpose of the <small>Security Concern</small> session is to equip Members with the knowledge they need to  <small>Security Concern</small>  Although the focus of this session is the Chamber, other opportunities exist for sessions with Caucus, Assembly and Press Gallery staff and their various locations throughout the parliamentary precinct.

The session will consist of a brief introduction by me; scenarios while the House is sitting by the Sergeant-at-Arms and what Members can expect from Legislative Protective Services during an incident; brief comments from others present including Del Manak, Acting Chief (Victoria Police) and Acting Deputy Chief Watson, Team Leader – Tactical Unit (Victoria Police). This is a closed session and Members' microphones will not be activated. The media will be advised and offered (again) their own separate security briefing.

We hope that this session puts you at ease with the security arrangements currently in place but we keen to hear from you about concerns that you may have and your suggestions to improve your security and those who work for you in the Parliament Buildings. In the meantime, would you kindly inform your Members as to this event on Wednesday.

Sincerely,

Craig James
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly
