

Supplier Name	Contract Aggregate	Brief Description	Rationale for DA
Steven Point	220,000.00	Contract in relation to matters in the final report of the Missing Women Commission of Inquiry.	Confidentiality - The acquisition is of a privileged nature and an open bidding could be contrary to public interest.
Ghement Statistical Consulting	5,000.00	Contract to analyze the factors contributing in the decline of auto theft in BC.	Not cost effective to run a competitive process; 3 quotes provided.
BC Centre for Elder Advocacy and Support	49,500.00	The contractor will develop a practical online Elder Abuse Prevention & Response toolkit educating victim service and violence against women programs about the specialized response needed to provide services to victims of elder abuse.	The contractor has specialized expertise on serving older adults and it is the only program in BC.
Justin Young	9,400.00	Contract is for a supervised specialized residential placement for a young offender under an Intensive Rehabilitative Custody and Supervision (IRCS) Court Order while under the supervision of Adult Community Corrections.	The contractor was selected due to their previous working relationship with the offender. Other direct award considerations; confidentiality of a young offender, urgency of placement to stabilize the client, contract costs are 100% recovered from the Government of Canada.
ARC Programs LTD	7,900.00	Contract is for one to one support by a Youth Worker to a young offender under an Intensive Rehabilitative Custody and Supervision (IRCS) Court Order while under the supervision of Adult Community Corrections. The contractor will engage the youth in pro-social activities and disengage in negative activities / offending behaviour.	Contractor was selected due to their experience in detailing with troubled youth. Other direct award considerations; confidentiality of a young offender, urgency of placement to stabilize the client, contract costs are 100% recovered from the Government of Canada.
Okanagan Indian Education Resources Society	1,500.00	Contract is for one to one support by a Aboriginal Worker to a young offender under an Intensive Rehabilitative Custody and Supervision (IRCS) Court Order while under the supervision of Adult Community Corrections. The contractor will engage the youth in pro-social activities and disengage in negative activities / offending behaviour.	Contractor was selected due to their previous working relationship with the offender while in Custody. Other direct award considerations; confidentiality of a young offender, urgency of placement to stabilize the client, contract costs are 100% recovered from the Government of Canada.

Contractor required to assist in a prevention project which is focused on reducing avalanche incidents within the mountain snowmobiling community; funded federally.	The program is federally funded; the contractor is the lead provincial agency (not-for-profit) for public avalanche safety programs.
--	--

Canadian Avalanche Centre	689,469.00
---------------------------	------------