All timber removed from the said area shall be scaled in accordance with the provisions of the Forest Act and amendments and regulations. A Regional Scaling Manager, Regional Manager or District Manager may at any time during the term of this authority designate in writing the place of scaling of the said timber.

This Certificate does not constitute any acknowledgement that the above lands are owned by the party to whom the mark is issued or that the said party has any rights to the said lands or the timber thereon.

This Certificate does not constitute any authority to cut timber.

It is the responsibility of the holder to locate all legal boundaries pertaining to the above noted lands and to ensure that cutting is confined to those areas. By accepting this Timber Mark the holder agrees to be responsible for all wood returned to this mark.

A Timber Mark is not transferable.

Unless exempted from this requirement, all timber must be hammer indented on each end of each piece on the area of origin, as soon as possible after it is cut and prior to any transportation off the area.

Timber that will be waterborne or subject to export shall not be exempted from 100 percent timber marking.

Before timber can be exported from the province, a permit to export goods must be obtained from External Affairs Canada.

Where logs or log products are sold, the net profit is subject to a 10% tax under the British Columbia Logging Tax Act.

For scaling, marking and documentation requirements contact your nearest local district office in your area.

This timber certificate will be subject to cancellation if these conditions are not met.

Heritage sites may be located on the lands described in this Registered Timber Mark Certificate and are subject to the provisions of the HERITAGE CONSERVATION ACT. The holder, his servants, or workmen causing damage to these sites shall be guilty of an offense under the HERITAGE CONSERVATION ACT and shall be liable to the penalties provided therein. In addition, such violation may render this Registered Timber Mark Certificate liable to suspension and cancellation.

To whom it may concern;

The enclosed is a Timber Mark Certificate that was returned to us with a stamp labeled "No forwarding address".

We tried to look up the new address of the addressee, but no luck.

I am now turning to you in hopes that you may have the new address and if you could please forward the certificate.

Many thanks,

Denise van Ryswyk,
Timber Mark Section,
Timber Policy Branch.
