

MINISTRY OF HEALTH
DECISION BRIEFING NOTE

Cliff # 963105

PREPARED FOR: Graham Whitmarsh, Deputy Minister of Health – FOR DECISION

TITLE: Royal Columbian Hospital (RCH) Redevelopment Status Update

PURPOSE: To outline current challenges in the review of the RCH Redevelopment Project concept plan and confirm strategy for moving forward.

BACKGROUND:

In April 2010, the Fraser Health Authority (FHA) submitted a concept plan for the RCH Redevelopment Project (the project). The Health Authorities Division (HAD) is leading the review and analysis of the project's clinical need, validating the proposed projections and service delivery options to ensure services are appropriate, meet future demand, support high quality care, adhere to best practices and are integrated with provincial programs.

TITLE: Royal Columbian Hospital (RCH) Redevelopment Project

PURPOSE: To provide a status update on the proposed expansion of RCH prior to the meeting with the City of New Westminster at UBCM

BACKGROUND:

RCH is a tertiary hospital providing specialized programs, trauma, cardiac, maternal child and neurosciences. Fraser Health Authority (FHA) advises redevelopment of RCH is required to address the needs of a rapidly growing population and

Sect 13

Sect 13

- In June 2012, the Minister of Health announced the formal start of work on the redevelopment of RCH.
- In April 2013, government announced approval for the business plan for the first phase of redevelopment of RCH.

DISCUSSION:

Redevelopment of RCH will take place in multiple phases over a minimum seven-year period.

- The project will expand and redevelop RCH from a 416-bed to a 675-bed campus.
- The redevelopment will include: new mental health facility, new acute care tower and renovations to the existing Columbia and Health Centre buildings.

Sect 13, Sect 17

- A phasing plan and timeframe for the overall RCH redevelopment will also be developed through the business plan process.
