While completing injectable count on the night of 14/02/04, Eunice discovered that the count for Diphenhydramine 50mg/ml was off by 1. Count sheet showed there should have been 6 vials, but only 5 were present. Medication was not signed out on sign-out sheet. Eunice changed the count to 5 to reflect the correct number of vials present. 4 vials were stored together in one container and all had an expiry date of 2014/03 while 1 vial was stored in a separate container with an expiry date of 2014/10. PDC receipt for Response showed 2 vials of Diphenhydramine 50mg/ml were sent and Lesley Newlands had signed the receipt stating with was received on 14/02/04.
