Dear Mr. Khangsar:

It is my pleasure to confirm that, effective December 11, 2013, you have been appointed as a member and designated chair of the Multicultural Advisory Council, for a term ending December 31, 2015. I am pleased to enclose your Certificate of Appointment and a copy of the appointing Order in Council.

The Multicultural Advisory Council is a legislated body created to provide advice to the Minister responsible for Multiculturalism on issues related to multiculturalism and anti-racism. The council has an important role in advising government on these issues and supporting this important work.

Board members play a critical role in ensuring that British Columbia's public agencies, boards, trusts and commissions are serving the public interest and advancing overall public policy objectives. They must maintain public confidence in the operation of the organization and focus on achieving short- and long-term success, consistent with the organization's mandate and objectives, in an accountable manner.

Enclosed you will find an Indemnity Form. Please complete and return the form at your earliest convenience and return a scanned copy to: Ingrid.Schmidt@gov.bc.ca or a hard copy to:
