Good afternoon Neil. All responsive records should be forwarded to our office, via Larry Chernoff, today (records were due April 18th). We will process the records and consult with the Office of the Premier (OOP) and Elections BC as appropriate.

In regards to the cabinet submission, please be aware that only the OOP can apply section 12 to records, therefore, we must consult with them. We do have to provide them some information when we send the consultation. There are 2 questions we must answer when sending a consultation in addition to providing some research information (this is to provide cabinet operations staff any helpful information available). Any information you can supply that answers the following would be greatly appreciated:

- 1) is the cabinet submission a draft or is it the final version?
- 2) has the decision been implemented and/or made public?
- 3) research – e.g. date of news release, date RFP issued, internet posting, etc.

Thanks again, have a great afternoon and long weekend. Happy Easter☺

Samara, I'm the analyst in MAG that deals with the policy side of elections-related statutes, including this referendum. The records I have that are responsive to this are as follows:

- Cabinet submission S.12 this will obviously be sec. 12. Do I need to forward you a copy? Given the sensitivity of the issue I would prefer not.
- Emails from Elections BC that estimate costs for conducting the referendum: we should either consult with them or transfer that part of the request to them. Your advice?

Thanks.
