Hi Pat:

We met with LPR at the end of January and reviewed priorities; one being the amendment to the LPN regulation. As for timing, the goal is to commence work after house has finished sitting.

Regards,

D

Hi Patricia:

Happy new year!

The Legislative and Professional Regulation (LPR) branch has been working on several new priorities. Amending the LPN regulation, however, continues to be a priority. We are meeting with LPR at the end of the month to look at all the various priorities and timing.

Regards,

D

Hi Debbie,

Not sure if this is still part of your file. If not, perhaps you could advise where to ask. Not trying to be a pest, but we are wondering if there is any new information as to when we could expect the new LPN regulation (which I imagine will include Restricted Activities).

Thanks very much and Happy New Year,
Patricia

Hi Patricia:

Thank you for asking. At this point there has been only preliminary discussions regarding the regulation for LPNs and therefore nothing definite or imminent.

D

Hi Debbie,

I was just wondering if there are any new imminent changes to the HPA, specifically around LPNs, their regulation and restricted activities, and if yes, when we might expect them.

Thanks very much,

Patricia

Hi Patricia:

To keep you in the loop, the Ministry is giving notice today of proposed amendments to the Nurses (Licensed Practical) Regulation. This amendment is a necessary requirement for follow up from last year's agreement that was reached regarding LPNs administering immunizations.

A copy of the proposed amendment in PDF format is attached to this email:

<<Proposed_Amendment_Nurses_(Licensed_Practical)_Reg_2010_10_15.pdf>>

The notice period which commences this morning is required by the Health Professions Act before the proposed amendments may be brought into force. Notice is posted on the Legislation and Professional Regulation website at:

http://www.health.gov.bc.ca/leg/notice/licensed_practical_nursing.html

I would be most happy to connect with you by phone. My contact information is below.

Regards,

Debbie
