FYI - earlier this week had Gloria forward me registration forms for Tim and suggested other ADMs be registered.

Hi there

Pls see Don's question below.

I assume no issues getting him a pass to the global business forum - which he can exchange with one of our staff when he leaves - so he can get a sense of the proceedings.

Also since his Ministry is focused on film and creative industries, it is important that he get an opportunity to get a better sense of TOIFA. Jane, do we have passes for key Ministry officials?

Would appreciate if you could kindly revert back to me tomorrow. If you could also pls provide a couple of bullets each, re each event - e.g. proceedings (e.g. Global Business Forum has 3 panels..., etc.), key dates, locations/times.

Thanks
Shom

There are two events. Next week we have the Canada-India Global Business Forum with approximately 450 attendees - focused on business connections. In April, it is the film awards. I will get more info on both for you.

As discussed, this should go ASAP to all BC invitees (I have not seen the list) and Indian directors/producers as provided by TOIFA. Hi – just talked to Edwina and she will shoot us some names and phone numbers. If you could help confirm whether people are available it would be VERY helpful.

Here's an email I sent Don Fast that can form part of your "script" and I will call to discuss when we get the names.

You've no doubt heard of the Times of India Film Awards (TOIFA) – a number of events between April 4-6 – and that I am working on this project.

On April 5 TOIFA is holding their Technical Awards at the Convention Centre, 7pm. The BC Govt will probably have access to a very limited number of seats – invite only, no purchase required – and we are putting together a list of appropriate people, related to the film industry, to invite.

Maureen, as discussed, could you please check on Dave's availability for the following TOIFA events:

1. April 5, 7-10pm, Convention Centre. TOIFA's Technical Awards will have about 700 people attending and tickets are not purchased although some tables will be sponsored. The BC Govt has the opportunity of inviting 20 people and our list includes appropriate representatives of the film industry who will benefit from being in attendance and be familiar with the evening's topic. The invitation would not include an accompanying guest.
2. April 6, 6:30pm onwards, BC Place Stadium. TOIFA's Gala Awards will have approx 30,000 people attending and all tickets are purchased. A BC Govt "hosting" program is in the planning stages and we have secured use of the BCPavCo suite to ensure useful networking between Indian and BC business. BC PavCo CEO and Chair are attending with one guest each. If the hosting goes ahead, Dave would be a good "host".

TOIFA Technical Awards:

Venue: Vancouver Convention Centre

Date and Time: April 5, 7:00 PM

Secondly, since most of the invitees are the same invitees for our Film Executives Program, can you tactfully tell them that if their time is limited, they can come at 2:00 PM instead. But we need to know what time they are arriving? Does this complicate matters?

Hi – I've been dealing with Pavco this morning and they needed to know about catering for the suite. I asked them to check with Laura B on what is being provided for other media, if anything, and to be consistent. I confirmed we have no catering plans for govt.

I do need a number and the names of the media using the Pavco suite. Even if you could just give me a number that you've committed that would be good.

Subject: Times of India Film Technical Awards - April 5, 7pm

Hi Ms. Gresham:

I am emailing to see if Mr. Chuck Johnson might be interested and available to attend the TOIFA Technical Awards this Friday, April 5th at 7pm.

The BC Government will have access to a limited number of seats and have tickets that are invite only, no purchase required. We are currently putting together a list of appropriate individuals and wanted to see if he might be interested and available if invited. (sorry to hear that Mr. Ace Fipke is unavailable)

Could you let me know? If yes, can you also forward me his email address and full mailing address?

Thank you for your assistance,

Monica.

1. April 5- Michael Nicholas has the tickets for Dave S22 So, just let me know on Friday whether he is able to attend and we can get them to him.
2. April 6 – we need to confirm the names of those receiving tickets on the floor as part of Pavco's inventory. Then each person picks up their tickets at the Will Call (Gate H by Terry Fox Plaza). Hi Pavan,

As discussed, the email (sample below) went out from the DM's office to the full list attached:

In the morning, could you help make calls to all of these to follow up on the DM's offer of tickets. The last column on the sheet is for RSVPs – some have already been done and marked on the sheet so no need to call these.

We need to confirm the names of those receiving these tickets (which are on the floor). The invitation is non-transferable.

Each person can pick up their tickets at the "Will Call" (Gate H by Terry Fox Plaza). Tickets will be allocated by last name.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Michael

We are up to 42 confirmed but have a few outstanding offers out so expect to be at about 46 or 48 within the next hour or two.

I didn't want to push it right to 50 as there is always a last minute priority request.

Hi Dave

As you know, BC Place is hosting the Bollywood awards April 6. I am holding the BC Place suite and some tickets, assuming that government will want to do some hosting at the event. Do you know what the hosting plans are?

Hi Don

There are two events. Next week we have the Canada-India Global Business Forum with approximately 450 attendees - focused on business connections. In April, it is the film awards. I will get more info on both for you.

Regards
Shom

Hi, Shom.

FYI – I called Lee Valentine, Don Fast's assistant, yesterday and let her know that there are no passes for TOIFA. The government decision was that all public servants and elected officials would be required to purchase their own tickets for TOIFA events. I didn't want Don to think we weren't getting back to him.
