

Race delayed after racehorse breaks loose, hurdles wall at Hastings Park

BY CHRIS PARRY, VANCOUVER SUN SEPTEMBER 10, 2011

The first race at Hastings Park, Saturday was delayed when Horse No. 6, Mazel Print, broke free at the starting gate and got loose.

Stewards gave chase after the errant horse, but Mazel Print drove on into the track railings, sending a steward and his horse crashing to the ground.

Mazel Print then ran the home straight - the wrong way - and when confronted with a wall, tried to hurdle it, only to crash hard, before running the home straight once more.

The horse was captured after a few minutes without doing further damage, and was then led off the track.

5-1 horse El Nacho went on to win when the delayed race was allowed to begin some ten minutes later. No word on the health of Mazel Print or the fallen steward.
