Hi Andrew,

I've sent you a Release of Information form for this constituent. s22 would like to know the status of her legal documentation that she sent to Ministry of JAG (pg 3-4 of the scan) and is wondering if the Attorney General has done anything with her documents. Looks like it was sent Nov. 26/2013. She is taking issue with the Legacy Meter charges. She has been paying her electricity costs, but has not paid her legacy meter fees and feels she legally does not have to.

Any status update as to the paperwork she sent? Will anyone be responding to it?

Thanks and have a great day,

Rosanne Gerritsen

Dear Minister Anton,

It was a tremendous pleasure to meet you during your recent visit to our Surrey office, on April 16th. I truly hope that there will be another opportunity to meet and discuss the important legal issues facing our province in the future.

Presently, I am seeking some information and guidance pertaining to Bill 14 - Justice Statutes Amendment Act, 2014.

In particular, we note that Sections 1 to 26 will come into force by regulation of the Lieutenant Governor in Council. Is there currently a scheduled or anticipated date for this "regulation of the Lieutenant Governor in Council" to occur such that these sections of the Bill may come into force? Any information or guidance you are able to provide, assuming you are at liberty to do so, would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

MACLEAN LAW

Dear Sir:

Re: Bill 44 - 2012, Civil Resolution Tribunal Act

I read in the newspaper that Bill 44 - 2012, Civil Resolution Tribunal Act, will be passed by the Legislature this session. On reading that bill I noticed that a number of members and temporary members will be appointed to act as tribunal adjudicators.

I am interested in finding out more about how I may go about determining whether an appointment as a member or temporary member of the tribunal may be suitable for me.

Do you have that information or do you know who I should contact to obtain information for such an appointment ?

Thank you for your kind assistance.

Yours truly,

Per: GORDON J. DYKSTRA
