

Summary of all flashing red lamp and siren permits issued to private ambulances and industrial ambulance companies in British Columbia.

Time frame – September 3, 2007 to September 5, 2014

January 21, 2008 – Permit for one vehicle was issued to Alcan Inc. for an industrial first aid ambulance located at the mine site in Kitimat BC. The vehicle was decommissioned in February 2012. The permit was not renewed nor replaced.

June 22, 2009 – Permit was issued to HSE Integrated Ltd., an Alberta registered ambulance, for the purpose of supporting a multijurisdictional Cancervive cycling event traveling along a designated route through BC. The permit expired on July 31, 2009.

August 18, 2009 – Permit was issued to 0763325 BC Ltd. The permit was issued to two ambulances upon written consent from The Emergency and Health Services Commission. The Permit expired September 30, 2009.

There are currently no valid permits issued in the Province of British Columbia for Private or Industrial Ambulances.