The Proponent hereby acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) It is interested in participating in the forthcoming NRFP and seeks to obtain further information with respect to the specific services identified as Schedule A to this Declaration solely for the good faith purpose of considering whether and how to respond to the NRFP. The Province reserves the right at any time to seek further information from a Proponent with respect to its status or intent as a Proponent, and to disqualify a Proponent who it deems in its sole discretion has participated in the NRFP for an improper purpose or in bad faith.

(ii) The NRFP process is not intended to create and shall not create a formal legally binding bidding process and shall instead be governed by the law applicable to direct commercial negotiations. For greater certainty and without limitation: (a) the NRFP shall not give rise to any "Contract A" based tendering law duties or any other legal obligations arising out of any process contract or collateral contract; and (b) neither the Proponent nor the Province shall have the right to make any claims against the other with respect to the award of a contract, failure to award a contract or failure to honour a proposal or any other claims based on a breach of "Contract A" or other tendering law duties or obligations.

(iii) The NRFP process is intended to identify prospective suppliers for the purposes of negotiating potential agreements. No legal relationship or obligation regarding the procurement of any good or service shall be created between the Proponent and the Province by the NRFP process until the successful negotiation and execution of a written agreement for the acquisition of such goods or services.

(iv) While the pricing information provided in proposals will be non-binding prior to the execution of a written agreement, such information will be assessed during the evaluation of proposals and ranking of the Proponent. Any inaccurate, misleading or incomplete information, including withdrawn or altered pricing, could adversely impact any such evaluation, ranking or contract award.

(v) The Province may disqualify the Proponent or rescind a contract subsequently entered if the Proponent's proposal contains misrepresentations or any other inaccurate, misleading or incomplete information.

(vi) When evaluating proposals, the Province may request further information from the Proponent or third parties in order to verify, clarify or supplement the information provided in the Proponent's proposal. The Province may revisit and re-evaluate the Proponent's proposal or ranking on the basis of any such information.

(vii) The Province will be under no obligation to disqualify or reject a proposal or Proponent that fails to comply with a stated rule or requirement and may allow the Proponent to rectify deficiencies in its proposal at any stage during the NRFP process.

(viii) The Proponent and the Province will bear their own costs associated with or incurred though the NRFP process, including any costs arising out of or incurred in: (a) the preparation and issuance of the NRFP; (b) the preparation and submission of a proposal; and (c) the conduct of evaluations, interviews, demonstrations, discussions, negotiations or any other activities related to the NRFP process.

(ix) The Province's evaluation may include information provided by the Proponent's references and may also consider the Proponent's past performance on previous contracts with the Province and such other reference checks as the Province deems appropriate.

(x) Engaging in any Conflict of Interest activity or breaching the confidentiality provisions of this Declaration may result in the Proponent's disqualification from the NRFP process at the Province's sole discretion.

(xi) The Proponent may not at any time directly or indirectly communicate with the media in relation to the NRFP or any contract awarded pursuant to the NRFP without first obtaining the written permission of the Province.

(xii) The Province shall not return the proposal or any accompanying documentation submitted by the Proponent unless that proposal is formally withdrawn by the Proponent prior to the proposal submission deadline.

(xiii) The Province may amend or cancel the NRFP process or any stage, portion, component or element thereof without liability at any time.

(xiv) This Declaration must be executed and delivered by the Proponent by signing a copy of this Declaration (including a photocopy or faxed copy) and delivering the signed copy to the Province by facsimile at (250) 387-7309, or by delivering by courier or hand the originally signed Declaration to the Province at the following location:

2.2 Confidentiality

The Proponent hereby acknowledges and agrees that:

Any failure of the Designated Persons to comply with the foregoing provisions will be deemed to be a failure of the Proponent and the Proponent will be liable to the Province in respect thereof.

(v) In order to obtain certain background information relevant to the NRFP and to the preparation of proposals, the Proponent may be required to enter into additional non-disclosure arrangements, including non-disclosure arrangements with third-parties. The execution of such non-disclosure arrangements may form a further condition to obtaining relevant background information and to submitting a proposal.

(vi) Information provided by the Proponent in a proposal or otherwise through the NRFP process, even if it is identified as being supplied in confidence, may be disclosed where required by law or if required by order of a court or tribunal.

(vii) The Province is subject to the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act ("FOIPPA") and may be required to disclose Proponent information in their custody or control. Disclosure pursuant to a FOIPPA request is subject to the application of that statute, including the exception and third party notification provisions. For information on FOIPPA see http://www.cio.gov.bc.ca/

(viii) The Proponent will obtain written consents for any personal information contained in its proposal prior to submitting any such information to the Province, and will produce such written consents to the Province upon request.

(ix) The Province may disclose, on a confidential basis, the information contained in the Proponent's proposal or otherwise provided to the Province through the NRFP process, to the Province's advisers retained for the purpose of evaluating or participating in the evaluation of this proposal.

(x) This Declaration will not prevent the Proponent from disclosing Confidential Information required to be disclosed by law or by order of a court or tribunal so long as the Proponent provides the Province with prompt written notice of such requirement and takes steps sufficient to allow the Province an opportunity to object to such disclosure. Any such disclosure will only be to the extent legally required and not for any other purpose.

APPENDIX D1 LDB BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

1.0 About the LDB

1.1 History of the LDB

The LDB is responsible for the importation, distribution, wholesaling and retailing of beverage alcohol in British Columbia (BC) and is the sole importer of liquor into BC. The LDB was created in 1921 as part of the Government Liquor Act, which eliminated prohibition and established a provincial liquor board and government owned liquor stores with a monopoly on the sale of beverage alcohol.

The LDB's business model has been evolving since the LDB was established in 1921. The LDB has increasingly responded to, and initiated, events that have increased the involvement of the private sector in the liquor industry in BC. Listed below are some of the key dates in the history of the LDB and the evolution towards today's mixed public and private sector model:

- 1975 – Rural agency stores were established to allow general stores in small rural communities to sell liquor.
- 1976 – The Government Liquor Act 1921 was replaced by the Liquor Distribution Act (which established the LDB as separate to the Liquor Control and Licensing Branch (LCLB)) and the Liquor Control and Licensing Act (which established the LCLB).
- 1980 – The LDB approved third parties to operate agent stocking warehouses in order to reduce the liquor storage requirements of the LDB. Since 1980, the LDB has not needed to increase its warehouse capacity as agent stocking warehouses have absorbed the additional demand.
- 1985 – Licensee retail stores were instituted, which allowed pubs to operate an attached retail store in which they could sell beer and wine. This same year, and for a limited time thereafter, wineries were allowed to open retail stores at locations other than their production facilities.
- 1992 – A moratorium was re-imposed on new licensee retail store applications.
- 2002 – The moratorium on new licensee retail store applications was lifted for four months and then reinstated. Licensee retail stores were permitted to sell spirits in addition to beer and wine.
- 2003 – The government announced plans to privatize liquor distribution and retailing. These plans were subsequently cancelled.
- 2012 – The moratorium on new licensee retail store applications is still in place.

APPENDIX D1 LDB BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

1.2 Business Profile

Two branches of BC Government share responsibility for the system, both of which are currently overseen by the Ministry of Energy and Mines.

- The Liquor Control and Licensing Branch (LCLB) is responsible for issuing licences for manufacturing and selling liquor. They also supervise the service of liquor in licensed establishments.
- The Liquor Distribution Branch (LDB) is responsible for the importation, distribution, wholesaling and retailing of beverage alcohol in BC.

The LDB was created in 1921 as part of the Government Liquor Act, which eliminated prohibition and established a provincial liquor board and government owned liquor stores with a monopoly on the sale of beverage alcohol.

1.3 Fundamental Assumptions

The LDB provides a valuable source of revenue to the government of British Columbia which helps to fund programs such as health care, education and vital infrastructure. And while government alcohol policy will vary over time as societal norms, expectations and cultural traditions evolve, there are six fundamental assumptions which guide strategic decision making within the LDB:

1. Government will always want to regulate access to beverage alcohol within its jurisdiction
2. Government will want to have a guaranteed revenue stream from the sale of liquor
3. In order to maximize the collection of revenue, government will want to continue to be the wholesaler of record of all beverage alcohol products in British Columbia
4. The role of the private sector in liquor distribution will increase
5. Decisions on the mark-up (taxation) and the prices of products to the consumer are independent of the option chosen.
6. Government will always want the option to reduce or exit its operational involvement in all or part of the liquor distribution system

1.4 Legislation

In 1921, following prohibition, the provincial government enacted the Government Liquor Act which created the Liquor Control Branch (which had the combined responsibilities of the current LDB and LCLB).

APPENDIX D1 LDB BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

In 1976 the Government Liquor Act was replaced by the Liquor Distribution Act (which established the LDB) and the Liquor Control and Licensing Act (established the LCLB).

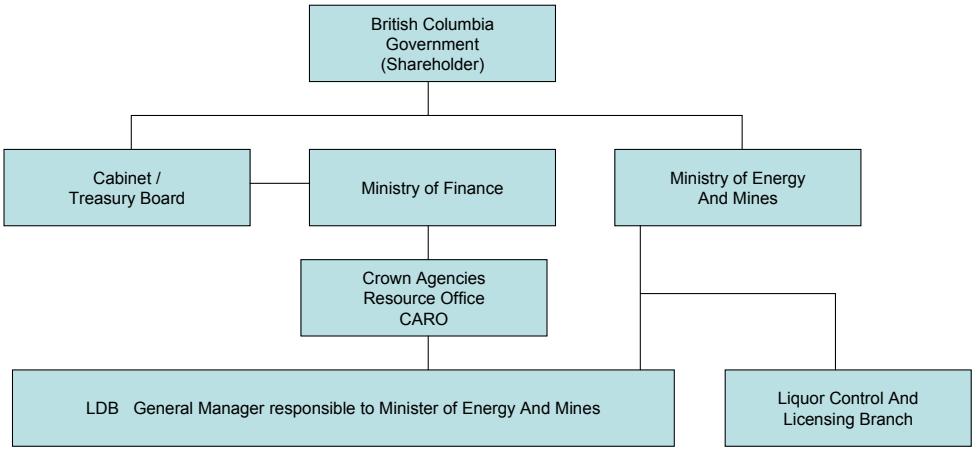
The Liquor Distribution Act provides the LDB with the sole right to purchase beverage alcohol, both in and out of British Columbia, in accordance with the Importation of Intoxicating Liquors Act (Canada). The Liquor Distribution Act specifies that the minister must appoint a General Manager and that the General Manager is responsible for administering the Liquor Distribution Act, including the general control, management and supervision of liquor stores, subject to the orders, directions and supervision of the minister. The Liquor Distribution Act further clarifies the powers of the General Manager and delineates the administration of the LDB and the operation of its liquor stores.

The LCLB is responsible for the licensing, monitoring and enforcement of the Liquor Control and Licensing Act and regulations related to private liquor stores, restaurants, pubs and manufacturers.

In 1992/93 a major amendment to the LDB Act was passed to ensure that government had title to product in the province such that it could collect its mark-up on the product.

1.5 Governance

The LDB has a unique governance structure as it is neither a Crown corporation, nor a government ministry. The LDB is a branch of the BC Government that operates to meet both commercial and policy objectives.



The LDB does not have a Board of Directors, and is managed by the Executive Management Committee (EMC) comprising of the General Manager and representatives from Finance, Retail Services, Legal Services, Human Resources, Information Services, Corporate Policy and Corporate Security.

The General Manager of the LDB reports to the Minister (currently the Minister of Energy and Mines). The LDB is accounted for as a commercial Crown corporation by the BC Government and is consolidated within the BC Government accounts on a modified equity basis.

1.5.1 The LDB's reporting relationships

The illustration below shows the key reporting relationships relevant to the LDB.

Additional information on some of the key organizations is provided below.

1.5.2 Liquor Control and Licensing Branch

The LDB shares responsibility for the liquor industry in BC with the Liquor Control and Licensing Branch (LCLB), the regulator, which issues licences for the manufacturing and selling of liquor, as well as supervising the service of liquor in licensed establishments. Both organizations report to the Ministry of Energy and Mines.

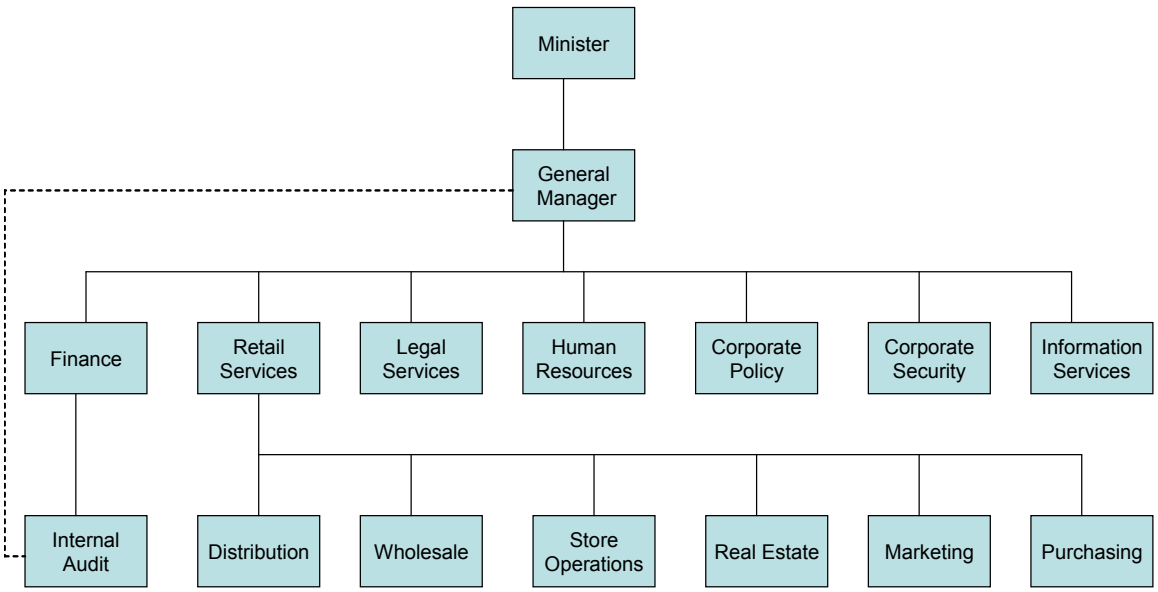
1.5.3 Crown Agencies Resource Office

The Crown Agencies Resource Office (CARO) implements the governance framework for BC's Crown agencies. With lead responsibility for government's Shareholder Expectations Manual and the Crown Agency Accountability System, CARO provides the advice, information, and support necessary to promote good governance, continuous improvement, and accountability for Crown agency results. CARO provides performance oversight for the LDB including review of service plans, and annual reports.

The LDB consults with the Ministry of Finance on any matters that affect the LDB's revenue.

1.5.4 Ministry of Energy and Mines

As the ministry responsible for the LDB, the Minister of Energy and Mines is responsible for overseeing the Government's Letter of Expectations and providing policy direction and oversight to the LDB.



The Government's Letter of Expectations is an agreement between the Shareholder (the Ministry of Energy and Mines acting on behalf of the BC Government) and the LDB on the respective roles and responsibilities of each. The Letter of Expectations serves as the basis of agreement between the Shareholder and the LDB on its corporate mandate, including high performance expectations, public policy and strategic priorities. It is reviewed annually and updated as required, and is the basis for the development of the LDB's service plans and annual reports. The latest edition of the Shareholder's Letter of Expectations for the LDB is dated January 11, 2012.

1.6 Organization of the LDB

As mentioned above, the LDB does not have a Board of Directors. The General Manager of the LDB reports to the Minister of Energy and Mines. The Executive Committee, comprising the General Manager and representatives from Finance, Retail Services, Legal Services, Human Resources, Information Services, Corporate Policy, and Corporate Security, is responsible for day-to-day management of the LDB.

APPENDIX D1 LDB BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

The LDB has 2,900 full time equivalent (FTE) employees. The majority of the LDB's employees (2,559FTEs) are classed as involved in Retail Services. Retail Services for the LDB include operating the government liquor stores, operating the wholesale customer centres, distribution centres and all the administrative operations associated with running a retail and distribution business – real estate, marketing and purchasing.

1.7 Goals and Strategy

The LDB's mandate, as outlined in the Shareholders Letter of Expectations and the vision, mission, values and goals in the 2012/13-2014/15 Service Plan set the strategic context for the LDB and form the basis of its business plans and operations.

1.8 Business Model

The LDB has two major business activities; sales activities and distribution activities, and two major types of customers; retail and wholesale customers.

Sales activities of the LDB encompass the sale of beverage alcohol to all customers in British Columbia (BC), both retail customers (i.e., consumers) and wholesale customers.

Wholesale customers purchase beverage alcohol products from the LDB and then sell the products to consumers (their retail customers). Wholesale customers include Licensee Retail Stores (LRS), Rural Agency Stores (RAS), duty free stores, private wine stores and licensees (restaurants, bars and pubs). Wholesale customers of the LDB can not sell to other wholesale customers (i.e., an LRS can not sell to a licensee).

Retail customers of the LDB purchase beverage alcohol from GLS for consumption.

The LDB's sales channels to retail and wholesale customers are provided in Table 1.1 below.

LDB Sales Channels to Retail Customer	LDB Sales Channels to Wholesale Customers
1. GLS sales to retail customers	1. GLS sales to wholesale customers 2. Wholesale Customer Centre sales 3. Direct Distribution sales

Distribution activities encompass the activities to source and deliver beverage alcohol products to Government Liquor Stores (GLS) and wholesale customers.

APPENDIX D1 LDB BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

While the LDB has overall responsibility for the importation, distribution and sale of beverage alcohol in BC, a mixed public and private sector model has evolved to deliver these services as shown below in Table 1.8.2.

Table 1.8.2 Public and private sector involvement in liquor distribution in BC

Activity	Public Sector (the LDB)	Private Sector
Importation	The LDB is the sole importer of beverage alcohol in BC. All liquor imported into BC is at the request of the LDB and the LDB is the "importer of record". The LDB is responsible for customs clearance for all imported liquor and excise duties for products that stay in the province.	Liquor agents offer non-Canadian liquor products to the LDB at a given price. The LDB issues a "Purchase Order/Requisition to Import" which allows the agent to import the product into BC. The private sector physically imports beverage alcohol to BC as either as a domestic agent or a Distributor. All imported liquor is initially held in an agent stocking warehouse / Liquor Warehouse Program. (See section 4.5 for more details.)
Distribution	The LDB is involved in distribution for a significant percentage of beverage alcohol products in BC (all spirits, most wine and some beer) through its two distribution centres, two wholesale customer centres and its network of Government Liquor Stores (GLS). Beverage alcohol products (such as BC wines and in excess of 90% of beer in BC) are distributed by private sector distributors.
Sales to retail Customers	The LDB sells to retail customers through 195 Government Liquor Stores (GLS).	The private sector operates the majority of beverage alcohol retail outlets in BC, including Licensee Retail Stores (LRS), rural agency stores (RAS) and licensees (such as bars and restaurants).

Activity	Public Sector (the LDB)	Private Sector
Sales to wholesale Customers	The LDB is the only liquor wholesaler in BC, however, it does not physically handle all wholesale sales. Wholesale customers can order directly from the LDB, from BC wineries and breweries, or from direct distributors for beer. Where wholesale customers order directly from direct distributors or BC wineries and breweries, the sale is reported through the LDB. However the LDB has no involvement in the distribution of these goods.	Some BC wineries and breweries and direct distributors supply wholesale customers with BC wine and beer. However all wholesale sales are reported through the LDB.

In summary, the LDB has two major business activities: sales activities and distribution activities; and two major types of customers; retail customers and wholesale customers. Sales activities, discussed in more detail below, encompass the sale of beverage alcohol to all customers, both retail customers (i.e., consumers) and wholesale customers. Distribution activities encompass the activities to source and deliver beverage alcohol products to Government Liquor Stores (GLS) and wholesale customers.

Wholesale customers purchase beverage alcohol products from the LDB and then sell the products to consumers (their retail customers). Wholesale customers include Licensee Retail Stores (LRS), Rural Agency Stores (RAS), and licensees (restaurants, bars and pubs). Wholesale customers of the LDB cannot sell to other wholesale customers (i.e., an LRS cannot sell to a licensee). Retail customers of the LDB purchase beverage alcohol from GLS for consumption.

1.9 Financial Performance

The LDB operates in a mixed public and private sector model in order to meet its responsibility for the sale of beverage alcohol to customers in BC. Sales activities include sales to retail customers (i.e., consumers) and wholesale customers.

1.9.1 Historical Financial and Operating Performance of the LDB

Since inception, the LDB has been, and continues to be a profitable business of the BC Government. Total sales for the LDB in 2010/11 were $2,821,000 made up of $1,165,000 (41%) to retail customers and $1,656,000 (59%) to wholesale customers.

APPENDIX D1 LDB BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

Retail sales have an average annual growth of 2% since 2005/2006. The LDB closed 11 stores during this period. Conversely, wholesale sales have grown 6% during the ame period. As a result of the LCLB issuing more LRS licences which divert retail customers to the LRS, and create more wholesale customers for the LDB. Both wholesale and retail sales have also increased as a result of increase in the cost of beverage alcohol due to inflation and volume consumption.

Table 1.9.1 Summary of key financial results

2010/2011 Million $	Retail	Wholesale	Total
Sales	1,165	1,656	2,821
Sales as a percentage of total sales	41%	59%	100%
Gross margin	606	556	1,162
Gross margin as a percentage of total gross margin	52%	48%	100%
Gross margin as a percentage of retail, wholesale or total sales	52%	34%	41%
Net income	413	477	890
Net income as a percentage of total net income	46%	54%	100%
Net income as a percentage of retail, wholesale or total sales	35%	29%	32%

Gross margin for the LDB has decreased from 50% in 2005/06 to 41% in 2010/11. In 2010/11 gross margin for wholesale sales was 34% and gross margin for retail sales was 52%.

Operating expenses as a percentage of net sales for the LDB have remained relatively constant in recent years. There has been a slight decline since 2005/06 - operating expenses as a percentage of net sales have declined from 10.5% to 10.0% in 2010/11. Some reasons for this decrease in operating expenses as a percentage of sales are:

- There has been an increase in the amount of sales to wholesale customers. Wholesale customers are able to be serviced at a lower cost than retail customers.
- The LDB has increased distribution to wholesale customers from the distribution centres and private warehouses, rather than having wholesale sales go through the GLS and wholesale customer centres.
- The LDB has consolidated its GLS and increased selection at the remaining stores.
- There has been an increase in retail operating costs as a percentage of retail sales due, in part, to the increase in number of signature stores. At the same time, there has been a decrease in wholesale operating costs as a percentage of wholesale sales. The key reason is that the LDB has been able to increase wholesale sales without increasing its warehouse space through the use of private sector warehouses and direct distribution.

1.9.2 Key Changes to the LDB's Business Environment in Recent Years

The LDB's wholesale business has been growing at a faster rate than its retail business over the last 5 years as there has been the growth in the number of LRS in BC. The number of LRS has increased from 592 stores in 2005/06 to 672 stores in 2011. LRS sales growth over the same five years has been 47%. During the same period, the LDB has closed 11 stores. While the LDB's retail market share has diminished during the last five years, retail sales have remained relatively stable.

Wholesale sales as a percentage of total sales have increased over the past five years, moving from 55% in 2005/06 to 59% in 2010/11. Overall, the wholesale business was responsible for 54% of the total net income of the LDB in 2010/11.

Should the trend of wholesale sales growth continue, the LDB's overall net income margin can be expected to continue to decline as the wholesale business generates lower margins.

1.10 Technology and Infrastructure

The agents, distributors and retailers of beverage alcohol are increasingly using technology and infrastructure to grow and gain competitive advantage. The key global trends are;

- Increased sale of wine and other beverage alcohol over the internet
- Online ordering for wholesale customers
- Technology to improve order management and inventory management for warehouses and distributors. Products from land-based wineries are directly distributed in BC and therefore do not pass through the LDB's distribution system. However the LDB is responsible for the wholesaling and retailing of all beverage alcohol in the province. With land-based wineries sales of approximately $100 million per year and therefore a material amount for the LDB financial statements, it was agreed between the LDB and the Auditor General to include sales and cost of goods sold from land-based wineries in the LDB's Statement of Operations.

The LDB's distribution centres upgraded their order and inventory management systems and online ordering for wholesale customers.

The LDB uses a "pick to scanner" system in its distribution centres (i.e., where staff carry portable electronic scanning devices which assist them with picking orders).

2.0 Market Characteristics

This section of the report covers the market characteristics of the sale and distribution of beverage alcohol in BC. It includes an overview of market size, determinants of demand, supply characteristics including trends, sales channels, pricing, distribution and the use of technology.

2.1 Market Size

2.1.1 British Columbia

The Province of British Columbia (BC) occupies almost a million square kilometres and is larger than California, Oregon and Washington states combined. BC has a highly diverse natural environment, population, and economic base. The main industries (by GDP) are financial services, and real estate, manufacturing and retail trade.

The majority of BC's over 4 million residents are concentrated in three major urban centres of the province - Vancouver, Victoria, and Kelowna, BC, as with the rest of Canada, has an aging population. The median age of BC residents is now 40 years old. BC's population is growing at a rate of 1.4% per year, most of which is as a result of immigration.

BC's population of legal age drinkers (over 19) is 3.5 million and the adult population (over 15) is 3.7 million.

2.1.2 Sales of beverage alcohol in BC

For the past 10 years, BC has seen a steady growth in the demand for and sale of beverage alcohol. In 2011, retail sales of beverage alcohol were over $2.8 billion in BC. A consistent growth in the rate of alcohol consumption has also occurred with the annual consumption of alcohol in BC increasing from 7.8 litres of pure alcohol (i.e., ethanol equivalent) per adult in 2003 to 8.1 litres in 2011.

The increases in beverage alcohol sales and pure alcohol consumption in BC reflect the population growth and OVERALL strong economy. At the same time that beverage alcohol sales have remain relatively stable in BC, there has also been a change in consumer trends towards different product categories. In 2010/11 there was a decline in sales volume of 5%.

Beer remains the most popular product in BC, followed by wine and spirits. Wine sales have increased more than other types of beverage alcohol.

2.1.3 Land-based wineries

Products from land-based wineries are directly distributed in BC and therefore do not pass through the LDB's distribution system. However the LDB is responsible for the wholesaling and retailing of all beverage alcohol in the province. With land-based wineries sales of approximately $100 million per year and therefore a material amount for the LDB financial statements, it was agreed between the LDB and the Auditor General to include sales and cost of goods sold from land-based wineries in the LDB's Statement of Operations.

2.2 Demand and Consumption

2.2.1 Determinants of demand

A change in the price of a beverage alcohol product is likely to have a significant effect on the demand for that product as consumers are willing to substitute brands based on price alone. (i.e., if the price of a Beer A increases, many consumers will choose to purchase Beer B instead). In this way, demand for beverage alcohol products is relatively elastic.

At a jurisdictional level however, the demand for pure alcohol (i.e., ethanol equivalent) is relatively inelastic as the consumption rate of pure alcohol does not vary significantly with a change in price across all products. Ethanol is pure alcohol. Beverage alcohol is not pure alcohol; instead it contains a certain percentage of ethanol, which makes the beverage alcoholic.

(i.e., an increase in price of beverage alcohol across all products will likely not decrease the overall amount of alcohol demanded and consumed.)

Growth in the sales of beverage alcohol is primarily driven by:

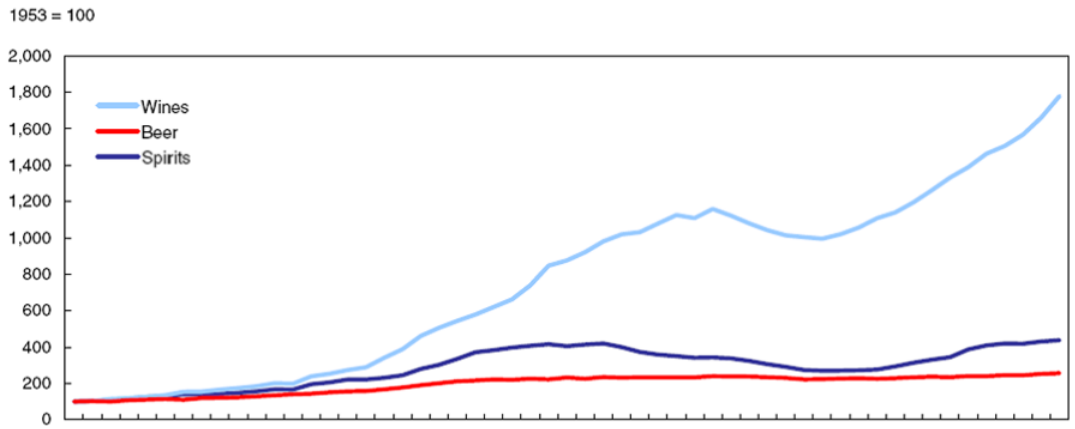
- Growth in the consumption of alcohol per capita,
- Growth in the population of legal drinking age,
- Growth in disposable income, and
- Change in consumer trends towards different product categories.

The impact of the economy

In most of the world, economic conditions have an impact on the value of the alcoholic beverages demanded, rather than the rate of consumption. When the economy is strong, consumption is strong and consumers choose to purchase more expensive products. During an economic downturn, overall consumption does not decline significantly, however consumers tend to switch to less expensive beverage alcohol products.

Historically, in BC, there has not been a strong relationship between GDP growth and growth in beverage alcohol sales. However, the softening of the economy in Canada did impede sales growth of consumer products.

2.2.2 Trends in the demand for beverage alcohol in Canada



Over the past 50 years consumer tastes in beverage alcohol across Canada have been changing, with the clear emergence of the following trends:

- Increase in the demand for wine,
- Stagnation in the demand for draught beer and an increase in the demand for packaged beer,
- Slight increase in the demand for spirits,
- A trend towards the consumption of "fashion" items, such as ready to drink beverages which have short product life cycles, and
- A proliferation in the number of products sold, partly driven by the trend described in the preceding bullet.

In addition, an increasing customer preference is emerging for products that are fair trade and environmentally responsible.

Source: Statistics Canada, The Control and Sale of Alcohol in Canada, 2007, Chart 3

Note:

- Sales of beverage alcohol are a function of the amount of alcohol consumed, and the average price of the alcohol.
- A growth in the consumption rate of alcohol will likely, but not necessarily, results in an increase in the sales of beverage alcohol. If consumers choose less expensive beverages, or beverages with higher alcohol content, it is possible for the consumption rate to increase, but not the value of sales of beverage alcohol. Conversely, it is possible for sales to increase and the consumption rate to stay stable if consumers consume more expensive or lighter beverage alcohol.

2.2.3 Trends in the demand for beverage alcohol in BC

In fiscal 2010/11 was the first year BC experienced a decline of 5% in the sales volume of beverage alcohol. Prior to 2010/11the LDB has experienced a steady growth in the demand for and sale of beverage alcohol overall, and small, yet consistent growth in the rate of alcohol consumption.

In 2010/11 the LDB saw a 1.2% decline in sales dollars from the previous year. Prior to that the LDB experienced annual growth of over 4% for more than 12 years. These results reflect the population growth and strong economy, as well as the change in consumer trends towards more expensive beverage alcohol in BC.

The average retail customer transaction value has increased to $32.14/transaction in 2010/11 from $26.70 in 2005/06.

The following sections provide more detail on demand for beverage alcohol by product type:

Demand for wine

The demand for wine has grown substantially over the past 50 years in Canada (as is consistent with a global trend) as consumers increasingly choose wine as their preferred beverage alcohol. Consumers are trending towards wines that can be consumed immediately, rather than wines which need to be aged for maximum enjoyment. Wine has become “easier” to understand and consequently more accessible to a wider audience.

In BC, wine sales have experienced a faster rate of growth than all other beverage alcohol product categories, consistent with the national and global trend. Consumers in BC are also increasingly preferring wine that is organic, free trade and environmentally responsible. Suppliers are responding, and there has been an increase in more sustainable practices such as packaging wine in tetra packs rather than glass bottles, and adoption of organic farming practices.

Demand for beer

The global beer industry has experienced stagnant demand over the past 50 years. In general, the demand for beer is price sensitive as most consumers are willing to substitute brands. Over the past five years, there has been an increase in the demand for micro-brewery and imported beer. The growth of beer consumption in BC is levelling off, similar to other parts of Canada and the world. The growth of beer sales in BC is predominantly packaged imported beer. Sale of draught beer, which is predominantly domestic and sold to licensees, has declined in BC.

Demand for spirits

In general, the demand for spirits experiences more flux than wine and beer as trends play a more important role in driving demand. The most volatile element of the spirit category is coolers. Trends in coolers have seen a fashionable product dominate the market for a short period of time until consumers lose interest. The LDB list of top selling coolers is scattered with new flavours introduced each year. Many of these products did not exist four years ago, when the top selling coolers were mainly lemonade flavoured. There has also been a trend towards more premium brands of spirits. Overall, vodka, whisky and rum are the most popular spirits in BC. Vodka has seen a sales growth across Canada. Other liquors that have experienced strong growth in BC include tequila and Asian spirits.

Seasonal factors

Beverage alcohol sales are subject to the following seasonal variations:

- In general, climatic conditions such as rain, sun and snow have an impact on consumer buying patterns for beverage alcohol;
- Demand increases in December as a result of Christmas and other festive celebrations;
- Demand also increases during the summer, especially for more refreshment beverages such as beer and coolers; and
- Wine and spirits are more popular during the fall and winter months.

2.3 Supply

The supply side of the beverage alcohol industry in BC is comprised of two key types of organizations:

- Suppliers/Distributors – which include large and small manufacturers and distributors of beer, wine and spirits from across the world and Canada.
- Domestic Agents – which represent foreign suppliers and, on behalf of those foreign suppliers, make beverage alcohol products available to the LDB.

APPENDIX D1 LDB BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

In BC, the LDB purchases products manufactured outside of Canada (i.e., imported) from the distributor/supplier or through BC domestic agents authorized by the suppliers to represent them. The LDB can purchase Canadian manufactured products directly from the supplier.

Most of the large distributors registered to sell beverage alcohol to the LDB in BC are also suppliers. The large agents in BC involved in the sale of wine, beer and spirits include Vincor (owned by Constellation Brands), Mark Anthony Group, Diageo, Corby and Bacardi.

In recent years there has been increasing consolidation of the liquor industry worldwide and large suppliers/agents now dominate the sale of liquor around the world and in BC. This is changing the way that beverage alcohol is manufactured, sold and distributed. The following sections discuss the composition and trends relating to the supply of liquor by product.

2.3.1 Wine

The following sections discuss the wine industry's manufacturers (i.e., winemakers), corporations which own and distribute wine, supply challenges, and the wine industry in BC.

Winemakers

A continuing proliferation in the number of wine producing regions and wineries around the world is creating a constant flow of new and boutique brands. The increase in the abundance and quality of new world wines is challenging the traditional old world producers in France and Italy. The price of wine is being held relatively constant as more countries enter the market. Wine producers in countries like Chile are able to produce good quality wine at a less expensive price. This has led to traditional winemaking countries like France, focusing on producing high value products and exporting their skills to develop vineyards in lower cost locations.

Many countries are also looking at the broader macro-economic benefits of producing wine rather than farming fruit. Governments are encouraging the development of vineyards as they have the advantage of creating positive externalities for their region, such as increased tourism.

Corporate consolidation

Corporate consolidation has taken place in the wine industry, as large corporations such as Constellation Brands (which owns Vincor), Peller Estate and Diageo grow through acquisition of smaller suppliers and agents. Corporations, such as the Mark Anthony Group, are also growing by purchasing successful vineyards, vineyards with potential, and real estate in wine regions.

Many of these corporations are involved in manufacturing, distributing and wholesaling wine (i.e., acting as a Distributor for their beer and wine products produced in BC) as well as other liquor products. Constellation Brands, for example, owns several large spirit brands in addition to being the world's largest wine company.

Wine supply challenges

Supply challenges for wine tend to be limited to certain geographical regions in the world and are not expected to result in a material shortage of wine or change in the price of wine at a global level.

Climate change has started to affect some large wine growing regions, such as Champagne in France, leading to concerns over long-term prospects for the region in 2008. Countries such as Australia (which was in drought) were not able to expand the volume of wine that they produce whilst maintaining a low cost base, given difficult environmental conditions. Some Australian suppliers reduced the quantity of wine available to the LDB. More recently there has been surplus wine available to the LDB.

As discussed in more detail below, environmental factors are also affecting the supply of wine from BC wine regions. There is a risk that the average price of BC wine will increase as demand exceeds supply.

Wine industry in BC

There are currently 318 wineries, breweries, and distilleries located through four key regions in BC – North & Central Okanagan, South Okanagan, Vancouver and the Fraser Valley, and Vancouver Island and the Gulf Islands.

Over the past 15 years, there has been a strong growth in the number and production capabilities of BC wineries. BC wineries now represent over 50% of total wine sales in BC. This is partly the result of significant promotion of local wines by the LDB.

The most significant challenges facing the supply of wine from BC wine regions is the availability of land and water and the weather. A late and cool spring and summer can result in some wine blossoms dying and have lower production. BC wines are also in increasing demand globally.

The LDB has encountered some difficulties in sourcing certain BC wines. As such, the LDB has revised its sales targets for VQA wines because of supply shortages. There is a risk that the average price of BC wine will increase as demand exceeds supply.

2.3.2 Beer

The following sections discuss the beer industry's manufacturers (i.e., brewers), corporations which own and distribute beer, global and local supply challenges and the beer industry in Canada.

Brewers and beer corporations

There are fewer breweries than vineyards around the world as the economics of beer production favours maintaining volume. This has led to increased consolidation in the beer industry and a number of large brewers dominating the world market.

The stagnation in the global demand for beer market has created a highly competitive environment in which brewers have adopted aggressive tactics to maintain their market share. Tactics employed by large brewers include:

- Significant spending on advertising and promotions,
- Aggressive short term price promotions,
- Controlling some distribution channels, for example, large brewers will seek "exclusive" agreements with restaurant chains or at sporting venues, or will impede smaller breweries access to physical distribution systems,
- Purchasing smaller and discount breweries, and
- Expanding the range of import products they carry to both enable consumers and licensees to purchase all their beer or beverage alcohol through one corporation.

These activities are used to compete with other large brewers, but also make it increasingly difficult for new and small breweries which are effectively excluded from many distribution channels.

Despite these tactics, micro-brewers and smaller craft breweries have increased in popularity in recent years. Some smaller brewers receive preferential mark-up treatment up to 160,000 hectolitres produced. This is provided primarily because local brewers promote local employment.

Beer supply challenges

In the past, shortages in hops and an increase in the price of barley caused supply issues for beer manufacturers. The shortage mainly affected smaller breweries as larger breweries purchase hops and barley on long-term contracts and buy in bulk.

The global hops shortage in 2008 was as a result of:

- Bad weather in hop-growing areas of the US (extreme heat), Europe (extreme hail storms) and Australia (major drought),
- A depressed US dollar - with a low US dollar, European and Asian brewers have been buying remaining supply of hops, and
- A decrease in farm acreage for growing hops - an over supply of hops in the past motivated many farmers to grow more profitable crops.

“Exclusive” or “tied house” arrangements with retail outlets and/or licensees are not allowed in BC. Therefore retail outlets and licensees in BC must stock more than one supplier’s products. This is consistent with most provinces in Canada.

The price of barley and wheat also increased in past years as many farmers moved to production of more profitable crops. Supply shortages caused brewers to increase the price of their beer and to introduce different product lines.

Beer industry in BC

The demand for beer has increased slightly in BC over the past 50 years - unlike the rest of Canada and the world.

In BC, suppliers and agents are only allowed to distribute their own products. Currently in BC, the supply and distribution of beer is dominated by Brewers Distributor Ltd. (BDL), which represent Molson and Labatt domestic and foreign brands. BDL is a private joint venture company owned by Labatt Breweries and Molson Breweries, the two largest suppliers of beer in Canada. In addition to wholesale distribution of beer, BDL is responsible for the collection of beer cans and reusable beer bottles within BC, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, as well as the Northwest Territories and the Yukon. BDL wholesales and distributes approximately 80% of the beer in BC.

The situation with BDL in BC prevents an individual private sector distributor from gaining a monopoly over the distribution of beer. However, it also prevents smaller brewers from having access to BDL’s distribution channels unless they allow Molson or Labatt to act as their agent.

Sleeman is the third largest beer corporation in BC and Canada, having acquired Okanagan Spring breweries in 1996.

Large brewers in Canada have employed the techniques discussed above. In addition to brewing national and provincial brews, Molson, Labatt and Sleeman have:

- Created agreements to be the sole provider of popular imported beer brands in BC,
- Sourced licences which enable them to brew popular international beer in Canada, and

- Acquired smaller breweries.

BC has also seen increased popularity of some of the local smaller brewers, such as Granville Island Breweries (now owned by a subsidiary of Molson Breweries).

Note:

- Labatt brews or is the distributor for brands such as Labatt Blue, Kokanee, Budweiser, Alexander Keiths and Stella Artois.
- Molson brews or is the distributor for brands such as Molson Canadian, Coors Light, Rickard's Red, Heineken, and Corona.
- Sleeman brews or is the import agent for brands such as Sleeman, Okanagan Springs, Guinness, Grolsch, Samuel Adams, Scottish & Newcastle, Pilsner Urquell and Strongbow Cider
- All BC beer suppliers are able to use third party warehouses and distributors, such as ContainerWorld, that do not also act as a beer supplier or agent.

2.3.3 Spirits

The following sections discuss the spirit industry's manufacturers (i.e., distillers), corporations which own distillers, global distribution, global and local supply challenges and the spirit industry in BC.

Distillers

Spirits are dominated by large, well-established brands. In contrast, coolers are continually experimenting with new flavours and brands and focus on identifying the next fashionable product.

Although the large traditional distillers still dominate the market globally and in BC, there have been a number of new and premium distillers entering the market and gaining market share.

Corporations

As with wine and beer, most medium and large scale spirit distillers are owned by large corporations. Constellation Brands, Diageo, Corby and Bacardi own many of the world's largest spirit brands. Large corporations are continuing to consolidate the spirit industry.

Spirit supply challenges

Difficulties in supply, as well as increases in demand, are creating supply shortages for certain spirits. The key reasons for these shortages are:

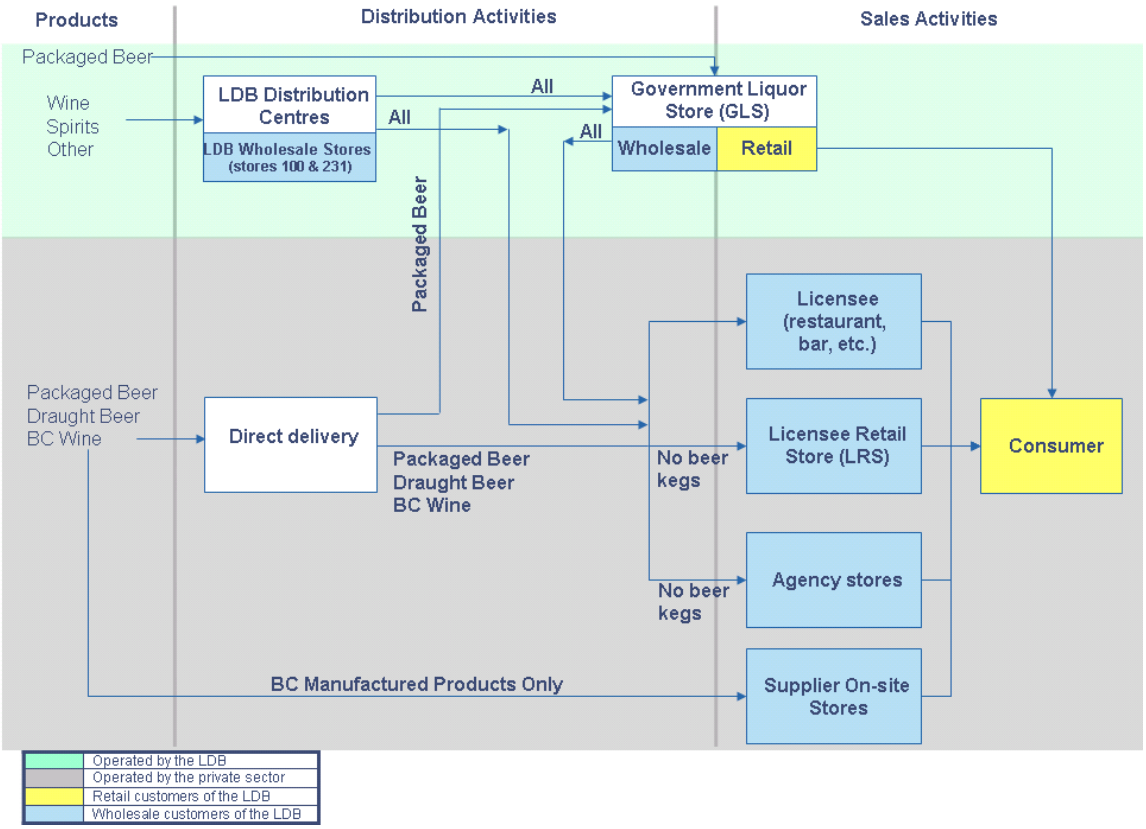
- There is an increase in demand for spirits in some emerging markets such as China and India. Many of these emerging markets have lower tax structures for beverage alcohol which enables agents/manufacturers to sell their product to retailers at a higher price than in countries with higher taxes, such as Canada and the US. The population of many Asian countries also provides suppliers and agents with greater economies of scale. Consequently, agents and suppliers restrict their sales to Canada in order to make larger profits in other markets.
- There is insufficient stock of vintage spirits which have increased in popularity. This is particularly evident in the supply of premium vintage single malt scotch, which has increased in popularity in large markets such as Asia.
- In the past Tequila shortages were as a result of increased demand in emerging markets as well as many Mexican farmers switching from growing the blue agave used to make Tequila to corn as the demand for ethanol has risen in the USA.

The composite effect of these factors is an increase in the price of certain spirits.

Spirit industry in BC

There are 17 distilleries in BC and they are not a major player in the BC or world market. BC distillers produce and sell more coolers than pure spirits. However, several Canadian (non-BC) spirit brands are popular among BC consumers, such as Crown Royal Canadian Whisky, Polar Ice Vodka, Alberta Vodka and Wisers Deluxe Canadian Whisky. Canadian distillers are also producing liquor under international brands, such as Smirnoff, Bacardi and Bols – Bolskaya.

2.3.4 Other supply shortages



Another supply shortage facing the liquor industry is the worldwide shortage of glass bottles. Due to consolidation in the last few years, there are now only two major producers of glass bottles in the world: Owens-Illinois and Saint Gobain. Approximately one of every two glass containers made worldwide is made by Owens-Illinois, its affiliates or licensees.

The bottom section, shaded in gray, represents functions performed by the private sector. Retail customers of the LDB are represented in yellow. Wholesale customers of the LDB are in blue.

The LDB also provides other general services including but not limited to:

- Supplying consulates and embassies with beverage alcohol,
- Supplying the Yukon Liquor Corporation (YLC) with beverage alcohol at cost plus an administrative fee to enable the YLC to purchase in smaller quantities than would otherwise be possible,
- Supplying beverage alcohol to NATO armed forces, and
- Providing a pickup service for Opimian Wine Society members at GLS and the Wholesale Customer Centers.

3.2 Retail Sales

In total, there are over 1,400 retail outlets that sell beverage alcohol to retail customers in BC, providing shoppers with a selection of government owned and operated stores and privately owned and operated stores.

Government owned retail stores

The LDB operates 195 beverage alcohol outlets known as Government Liquor Stores (GLS). For most citizens in the province these are the public faces of the LDB.

GLS outlets are geographically dispersed across the province, and operate in most cities and towns. Individual store sales vary from less than $1m to over $40m. All GLS service both retail customers and wholesale customers. The percentage split of retail and wholesale customers varies by stores. To improve customer service and increase sales, the LDB has recently created 21 “signature stores” which offer a wider selection of products and an enhanced shopping experience for customers. Over the past five years, there has been a decline in the number of GLS from 208 to 197 due to the consolidation of GLS into signature stores. At the same time, the number of private sector retail stores has increased from 592 to 672.

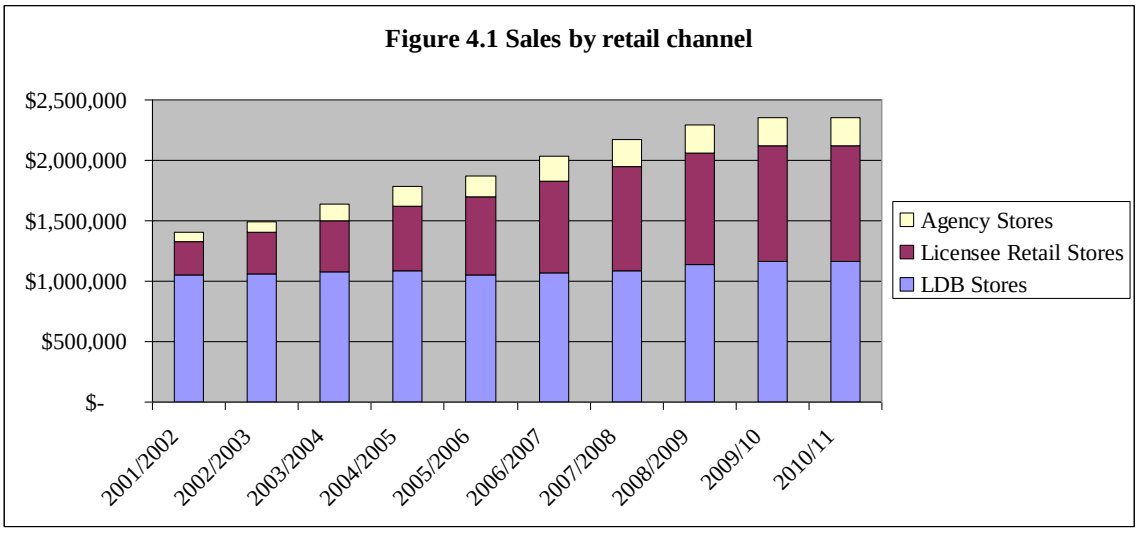
Privately owned retail stores

Private sector beverage alcohol retailers in BC can be grouped into the following three categories:



1. Licensed private liquor stores
    - 672 Licensee Retail Stores (LRS) – these are private liquor stores licensed to sell all liquor products
2. Agency stores
    - 221 Rural Agency Stores (RAS) – these are general merchandise stores in rural communities authorized to sell all liquor products
    - 12 independent wine stores – these are private wine stores authorized to sell all types of wine
    - 11 duty-free stores
    - 257 on-site manufacturer stores – these are stores at wineries, breweries and distilleries that sell products manufactured on-site8
    - 35 off-site stores – these are stores operated by the BC wine industry that sell BC winery products
3. Licensees – restaurants and bars.

U-Brew and U-Vin facilities have not been referred to above as they are not involved in the production of beverage alcohol for sale. Rather, U-Brew and U-Vin facilities provide services to customers who are making beverage alcohol for their own personal consumption.

3.2.1 Sales by retail channel

As shown in the graph (Figure 3.2.1), over the past ten years, GLS market share has decreased from 75% to 49% and LRS market share has increased from 20% to 41%.

In the mixed private and public model in BC, the BC Government, through the LCLB, is able to control competition to some extent by limiting the number of licences for liquor stores.

Since 2003, there has been a significant growth in the number of LRS. The number of LRS has increased from 325 stores in 2002/03 to 672 stores in 2010/11. LRS sales growth over the same period has been 177%. Agency Stores have shown an increase in market share from 6% to 10% from 2002 to 2008. At the same time, the LDB has closed 23 stores. The LDB's retail market share has diminished; however, retail sales have remained relatively stable.

Note:

- licensees (restaurants, bars etc) are not included in this part of the analysis because they sell beverages for on-site consumption, rather than to take away.
- LRS have also been given increased rights, including the ability to sell spirits since 2002, in addition to beer and wine. The overall effect for retail customers in BC has been more liquor outlets, increased availability and increased convenience. LRS have largely absorbed the growth in sales in BC over the past five years.
- The changing market share is depicted in the graph below.

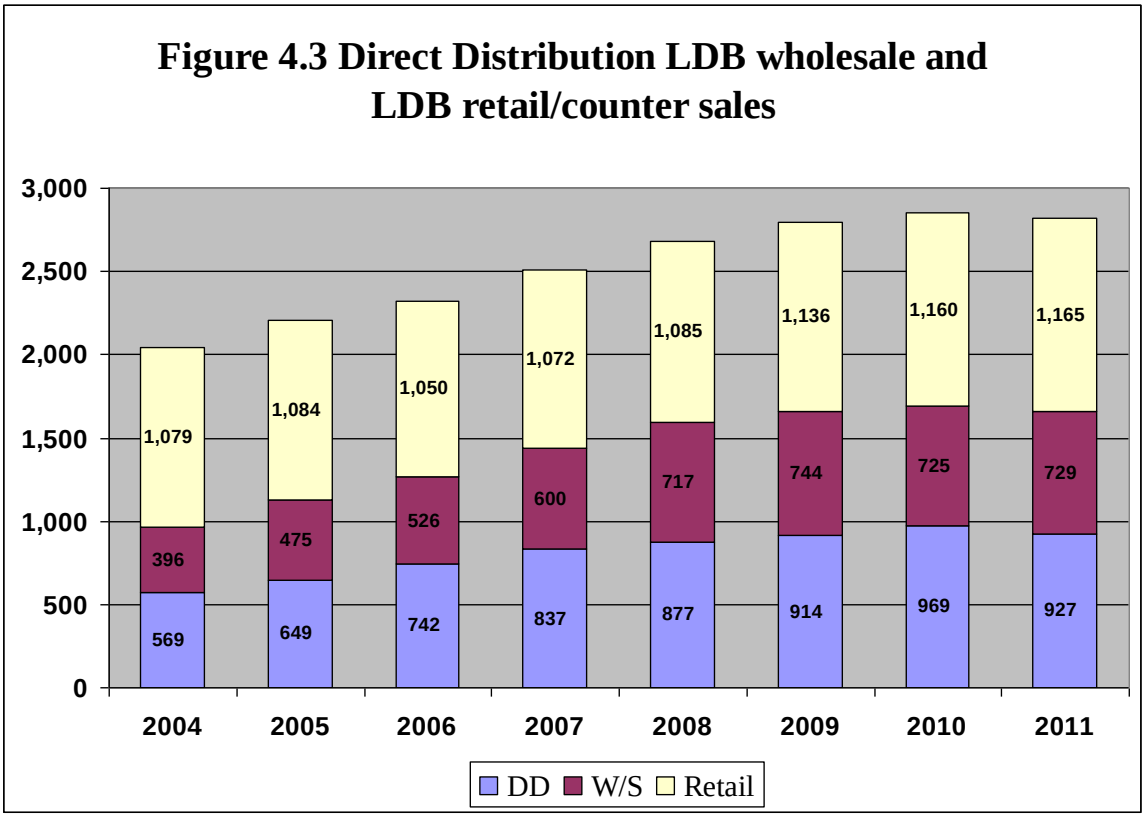
As LRS and agency stores are wholesale customers of the LDB, a decrease in the LDB's retail market share equates to an increase in the LDB's wholesale customers. The importance of wholesale customers to the LDB has thus been increasing.

Competition in deregulated environments

In most of the world, the market share and profitability of "traditional" general liquor retailers is declining. This phenomenon is less obvious in Canada as the market conditions are managed by the government.

In deregulated environments, major retailers dominate the liquor retail industry in select market segments. Consumers are increasingly purchasing liquor with their groceries and the large retailers focus on selling liquor at an attractive price point to consumers. Examples of this can be seen across Europe and in some states in the US. In Australia and Alberta, where liquor is not allowed to be sold at supermarkets, the corporations which operate the largest supermarkets operate liquor stores in locations next door to their supermarkets. These corporations have become the largest retailers of beverage alcohol in their jurisdiction.

Higher end specialty stores and small convenience stores are also having success in deregulated environments. For example, speciality stores service customers with more refined tastes and convenience stores service customers who have not been able to shop at major retailers, such as the "time pressed". Both of these niches are experiencing some success in BC.



3.3 Wholesale sales

Wholesale customers in BC can purchase their beverage alcohol in several different ways.

- Through a GLS either by purchasing directly off-the-shelf or placing a customer order, which the GLS then fills via the LDB distribution centre or from GLS inventory;
- By placing a phone or fax order through the LDB's wholesale customer centre, which will be delivered from a distribution centre to a GLS for customer pick-up, held at a wholesale customer centre for customer pick-up, or delivered to the customer; or
- Wholesale customers can also order direct from some BC wineries and breweries.

As more LRS open, the number and importance of wholesale customers to the LDB has increased. The following graph shows the breakdown of the LDB's sales between direct distribution, LDB wholesale customers and LDB retail/counter sales. It should be noted that the wholesale sales are increasing at a greater rate than GLS retail sales.

Since it is not expected that many additional LRS licences will be issued in the short term, the percentage breakdown between wholesale and retail customers is expected to remain relatively stable.

Note:

- GLS would be considered traditional general liquor retailers as they are stores of medium size, stocking a range of products in a range of price categories to cater towards a wide range of customers.
- In Canada, market conditions are managed through legislation that restricts where beverage alcohol can be sold, and who can sell beverage alcohol, more than jurisdictions outside of Canada.

3.4 Pricing

3.4.1 Pricing and products

As the LDB is part of the BC Government and a monopoly, pricing is based on formulae which treat all products within a category (i.e., wine, beer, spirits) in the same way.

APPENDIX D1 LDB BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

- The LDB is a recipient of pricing policy for beverage alcohol products from the BC Government and as such the LDB does not set the pricing policy or mark-up formulae it applies. Therefore the pricing policy applied to beverage alcohol products in BC, (that can have a major impact on the LDB's gross margin) is outside of the control of the LDB.
- Various factors including social responsibility, contribution from the LDB to the government, are taken into consideration by the BC Government when setting pricing policy for beverage alcohol products. Changes to the pricing policy are set by the Minister of Energy and Mines. The Minister of Finance should approve all material changes to the pricing mark-up formulae.
- The LDB retail price of beverage alcohol is calculated based on mark-up formulae applied to the price at which the LDB buys the product from the agent or supplier. There is also a minimum consumer price per litre.
- The LDB wholesale price of beverage alcohol is calculated as the retail price, less a discount.

The key components of the pricing model are shown below in Equation 4.4.1.

Equation 3.4.1 LDB pricing model

	Beer	Wine	Spirits
LDB purchase price (the price offered by the agent)	xx	xx	xx
Domestic charges, federal customs duty and excise (as applicable)	xx	xx	Xx
Mark-up (volume mark-up on beer, ad valorem mark-up on wine and spirits)	xx	xx	Xx
Cost of service (differential mark-up for out of province products)	xx	xx	Xx
Distribution charge (for beer distributed by the LDB)	xx	xx	Xx
Recycling charges	xx	xx	Xx
Retail price (excluding HST)	xx	xx	Xx
Less Wholesale discount (0-30% of retail price)	(xx)	(xx)	(xx)
Wholesale price	xx	xx	Xx

The retail price is subject to HST. The wholesale price is calculated as the retail price less wholesale discount of 0-30%. The wholesale price is subject to 12% HST.

Recycling charges are not set by the LDB. They are set by the third party beverage container stewards.

LRS cannot sell beverage alcohol products for less than the cost to the LRS (i.e. 16% less than GLS retail price). This is a social policy measure overseen by the LCLB. However there is no limit on the maximum price that LRS can charge for beverage alcohol products in BC.

GLS do not sell beverage alcohol products for less than cost either. However they can and, from time to time do, discount slow moving products.

The sections below provide more detail on the components of the LDB's pricing model.

3.4.2 Purchase price

The BC liquor industry is different to the deregulated environments outside of Canada (with the exception of Alberta) as the LDB and private sector retailers (in most cases) in BC do not negotiate prices when buying beverage alcohol. Consequently, retailers in BC may pay more for beverage alcohol than private sector retailers in deregulated jurisdictions.

In BC:

- The LDB purchases liquor at the price set by the supplier / agent as required to meet demand.
- The final GLS retail price of beverage alcohol products in BC is determined by agents using either a top down or bottom up approach. In the top down scenario, agents decide what they would like the final shelf price of their product to be and work backwards through the LDB pricing policy to determine their selling price to the LDB. In the bottom up approach, the agent firstly decides what price they want to receive from the LDB for the product and then the final shelf price is determined after the LDB's pricing policy has been applied to that product.
- Private sector retailers in BC have the option to accept the price set by the LDB or not buy the product.

All products that are sold in BC need to be "registered" by the LDB. There are approximately 16,000 products currently registered for sale in BC. Only 4,000 of these products are "listed" for sale in GLS. Wholesale customers can purchase any "registered" product from the LDB.

APPENDIX D1 LDB BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

A wholesale customer can apply to have an additional product "registered" in either of the following ways:

- Ask the LDB to source the product – in this case, the LDB will source the product at the price offered by the supplier or agent on behalf of the wholesale customer. The LDB will "register" the product and apply the relevant mark-up formula before selling it to the wholesale customer.
- Negotiate directly with the supplier or agent first – a wholesale customer can negotiate directly with suppliers or agents for products that are not currently "registered" by the LDB. The wholesale customer will then request that the LDB source the product for them. The LDB purchases the product from the supplier / agent at the price that had been negotiated by the wholesale customer. The LDB will "register" the product and apply the relevant mark-up formula before selling it to the wholesale customer.

Note:

- Some wholesale customers are able to negotiate exclusive access to a product with a supplier or agent. In such cases, the supplier or agent will only sell to the LDB the amount of the product requested by the wholesale customer.

3.5.1 Mark-up

The LDB applies the following type of mark-up on the purchase price of beverage alcohol:

- Wine, spirits, refreshment beverages: ad valorem on sum of landed cost, plus volume mark-up per litre
- Beer: volume mark-up per litre.

The amount of mark-up varies by type of product.

3.5.2 Other charges

The following additional elements are incorporated into the retail price:

- A cost of service differential volume mark-up is applied to some out-of-province products.
- A distribution charge is applied to the mark-up on beer distributed by the LDB.

All products are also subject to a refundable deposit which varies by container size and type and which is added to the retail and wholesale price. The wholesale customer discount is not applied to the container deposit.

3.5.3 Discounts

The LDB provides the following discounts to wholesale customers:

- LRS: 16%
- Independent wine stores which only sell wine: 30%
- Agency stores: 10%
- GLS in-store tasting purposes: 30% off of the retail price.

The LDB sells alcohol at a reduced mark-up to consulates, NATO, duty free stores, Lieutenant Governor, Ship Chandler, and other Canadian liquor jurisdictions. Discounts are applied to delisted products.

Licensees (such as restaurants and bars) do not receive a discount as they resell beverage alcohol to the end customer at point of use and typically make a gross margin on that sale.

3.5.4 Products

The LDB determines the products that it purchases to sell in the GLS by working with portfolio managers, reviewing historical trends in the sale of individual products, and assessing the likelihood of new products being successful. For new products to be sold in GLS, the LDB often orders a small amount of the new product to test its acceptance by consumers. The product listing is monitored regularly and revised when new products or slow selling products are identified.

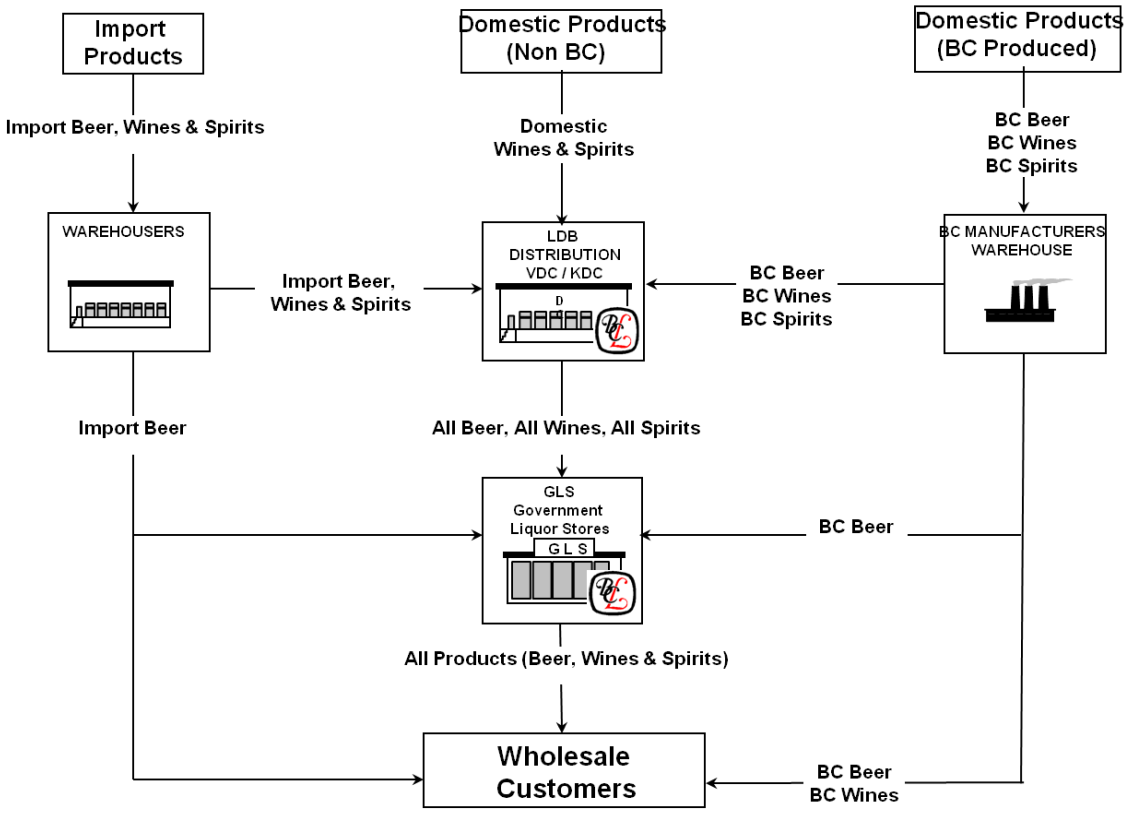
As discussed above in Section 3.4.2, all products sold at GLS must be “listed” in addition to being “registered”. Wholesale customers can purchase any product that is “registered” in BC and can request that the LDB source and “register” additional products. The LDB has minimal exposure to currency risk as it makes nearly all of its purchases in Canadian funds.

Note:

- The mark-up for beer has not been indexed since its inception in August 2003. There was an average mark-up increase of 7% in the flat mark-up for beer in February 2004 and in July 2010 with the shift from PST/GST to HST. This latter increase will be reversed when the PST/GST is reintroduced in April 2013.

4.0 Distribution

4.1 Overview of Distribution



The LDB has the sole right to purchase beverage alcohol in BC, including liquor produced inside and outside of BC. They are also involved with the importation, distribution, wholesaling and retailing of beverage alcohol in British Columbia.

The LDB purchases beverage alcohol in order to supply all liquor retailers and GLS in the province. The LDB purchases beverage alcohol from over 400 agents and manufacturers in British Columbia, across Canada and around the world. Licensed manufacturing sites in British Columbia include 242 wineries, 59 breweries and brew pubs and 17 distilleries and distillery co-packers.

Where beverage alcohol is manufactured outside of Canada, agents offer the product to the LDB at a given price. The LDB then issues a “Requisition to Import” which allows the domestic agent or Distributor to physically import the beverage alcohol into BC. The LDB does not own the beverage alcohol at this stage however it is responsible for customs clearance for all imported liquor and excise duties for products that stay in the province.

As in the case of sales activities, the LDB operates in a mixed public and private sector model in order to meet its responsibility for the distribution of beverage alcohol in BC. The diagram below provides a high level illustration of beverage alcohol distribution activities in BC.

In recent years, distribution activities have become more complex as the number of liquor products being manufactured and sold has increased dramatically. The LDB currently "registers" 16,000 stock keeping units (SKUs), only 4,000 of which are "listed" as sold at GLS. This has increased 55% from a total of 10,800 SKUs in 2003/04. This is primarily a result of:

- Increased popularity of wine, and the number of new and emerging wine regions entering the market,
- Response to trends for new cooler products and innovation in spirit products,
- The increased popularity and importance of micro-brewers,
- The demand from consumers for more choice, and
- The demand for licensed premises to have unique and exclusive product offerings.

Although most of the volume is in GLS products and the top 500 wholesale-only products, SKU proliferation increases the cost and complexity of distribution activities.

In 2011, 382.0 million litres of alcohol was distributed in British Columbia. Of that, 285.2 million litres (74.5% of total) was through Direct Distribution (i.e. bypassing LDB's Distribution Centres) while the remaining 96.8 million litres (25.3% of total) was through Indirect Distribution. Table 4.1 shows the breakdown of distribution by type of alcohol.

Table 4.1 Distribution by Type of Alcohol

Type	Volume		% that was Delivered Direct to the Store (including licensees)
	Million of Litres	% of Total Volume
Beer	272.5	71	98
Wine	86	22	21
Spirits	24	6	0

4.2 Distribution centres

The LDB orders inventory for the distribution centres from the agent stocking program and from domestic producers and suppliers and distributes it to GLS and the LDB's wholesale customers based on GLS and customer orders. All types of beverage alcohol, except draught beer, may be distributed through the distribution centres. Currently, the LDB's two distribution centres process more than 11 million cases of beverage alcohol per year.

LDB's distribution system includes:

- Two distribution centres (one in Vancouver and one in Kamloops) where beverage alcohol is warehoused and wholesale customer orders and GLS orders are assembled and delivered to customers.
- Two wholesale customer centres where wholesale customer orders are collected and sometimes delivered.
- Wholesale customer centre (Store 100) in Vancouver is attached to the distribution centre. Orders are picked at the distribution centre and collected by customers from the wholesale customer centre. The wholesale customer centre also takes customer orders and collects payment.
- Wholesale customer centre (Store 231) is in Victoria - Bulk shipments are received from the distribution centres based on customer orders. Store 231 also holds some inventory. Customer orders are assembled at store 231 for customer collection and sometimes will be delivered. The wholesale customer centre also takes customer orders and collects payment.

The LDB implemented a new wholesale order management and inventory system to improve services to the increasing number of wholesale customers. The system provides a more consistent inventory allocation, an automated payment process, shipping schedules and order consolidation. Key results include:

- Distribution centre accuracy rate continues to be high from 98.5% in 2004/05 to 99% in 2007/08
- Distribution centre labour costs per case shipped were $1.81 in 2010/11 compared to $1.66 in 2004/05.
- The Vancouver distribution centre is an older building, built in 1975, which imposes limitations on the overall efficiency of the operation compared to a "best of class" facility.
- The distribution centre is "downstream" of the LWP/ASP. This unusual arrangement greatly simplifies the LDB operation in a number of ways including:
    - All goods received are palletized. Floor loaded container unstuffing, mixed load sorting, etc., all occur at the agent stocking warehouse.
    - Goods can be received against firm bookings with exact quantities by product known in advance.
    - There is minimal receipt of goods damaged in transit.
    - Inventories of imported products can be "buffered" to the available capacity.
- The effect of these simplifications compared to a "normal" liquor warehouse, is to enable significant efficiency gains when viewing the LDB warehouse in isolation within the overall supply chain.

Note:

- Excise deferred and custom bonded warehouses can also be referred to as a bonding warehouses and is defined in the Excise Act as “any warehouse in which goods subject to excise may be stored or deposited without payment of the duty imposed by this Act".
- GLS also allow wholesale customers to purchase beverage alcohol off the shelf. The pricing structure for retail and wholesale customers is discussed in detail in section 3.4.
- The LDB delivers wholesale customer orders through contracted third party distributors or by using one of the eight delivery vehicles owned by the LDB. The LDB’s delivery vehicles are generally used when making deliveries from the Vancouver LDB distribution centre.

Distribution centre constraints include:

- The building's ceilings are lower than in a more modern facility and can only be racked three high compared to common best practice of four high racking. It is expected that this racking restriction would increase travel times for "put away and pick" and makes efficient slotting of products more difficult to maintain.
- The receiving and shipping doors have more limitations than newer doors (e.g., they are smaller). The receiving issue is minimized by arrangements that the LDB has established with LWP/agent stocking warehouses and the shipping issue is minimized by using GLS and wholesale customer centres for some wholesale customer collection.
- The warehouse management system, Radio Beacon, is not a Tier One system. However, it appears to offer suitable functionality for the nature of the current operation.
- The "bottle pick" operation offers a high level of service to individual licensees. It is however highly labour and space intensive. Consideration should be given to whether this level of service is appropriate for items which would only be sold in volume at other commercial facilities. It may be appropriate to set a minimum value for items where "bottle pick" is offered.

While the current distribution centre operation appears reasonably efficient compared to other distributors on a standalone basis, from a jurisdiction-wide perspective it may not be. The second handling and additional transportation of imported products has questionable value. Direct shipments to GLS stores, LRS stores and licensees from the agent stocking warehouses may be more efficient with shorter service lead times, reduced transportation, and the potential for reduced inventories.

Note:

- "Bottle pick" allows wholesale customers to order products in small quantities. This requires warehouse staff to handpick individual bottles at the distribution centre.

4.3 Third-party distributors

Draught beer and most packaged beer are distributed directly to private retailers from third-party distributors. The LDB outsourced the distribution of beer because the LDB distribution centres could not accommodate the large volume of beer consumed in BC, or the refrigeration requirements.

The largest distributor of beer in BC is Brewers Distributors Limited (BDL).

Note:

- Most beer is directly distributed, and does not pass through an LDB distribution centre

4.4 Direct delivery

Direct delivery distributors are responsible for delivering some of the beverage alcohol, such as imported beer from agent stocking warehouses or a BC liquor manufacturer directly to the wholesale customer. Brewers Distribution Limited (BDL) is the largest direct delivery distributor in BC, with about 80% market share of beer distribution. ContainerWorld and other smaller organizations also provide some direct delivery services.

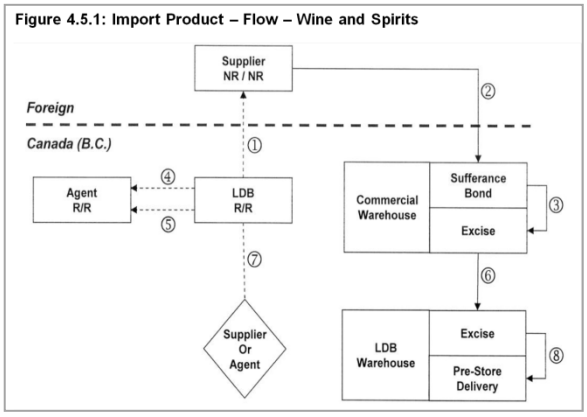
4.5 Importing Alcohol through the Agent stocking program

Prior to July 2003, imported beverage alcohol had to be held in a custom bonded warehouse until ordered by the LDB. In July 2003, the Excise Act was changed and since then, once imported wine and spirits have cleared customs (and had any duties remitted), they can be stored in an excise deferred warehouse. Beer is still required to be stored in a custom bonded warehouse. Private sector warehouses, known as Liquor Warehouse Program or agent stocking warehouses, operate both the excise deferred and the custom bonded warehouses.

This agent stocking program allows agents to hold imported wine and spirit inventory in BC until it is ordered by the LDB. Liquor Distributors and domestic agents contract with agent stocking warehouses to hold their inventory.

Note:

- A domestic agent means the person appointed by the manufacturer to act as its agent in the province in accordance with a Letter of Authorization which has been given to the LDB.
- A Distributor means a person appointed by the manufacturer who has purchased Product from the manufacturer in order to sell the product to the LDB in accordance with a Letter of Authorization which has been given to the LDB.



The introduction of agent stocking warehouses has enabled the LDB to significantly decrease the amount of inventory that it holds, increase its inventory turns and simplify its distribution operations. The LDB no longer bears the cost of warehousing large volumes of product. The LDB does not pay any storage fees to ContainerWorld or other operators of the LWP/ASP, as storage costs are built into the agents' price to the LDB.

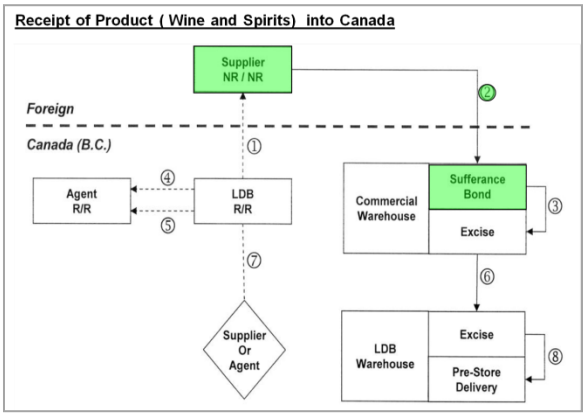
APPENDIX D1 LDB BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

ContainerWorld is the largest operator of an agent stocking program in BC, with the majority of imported wines and imported spirits going through its warehouse. The benefit of the Liquor Warehouse Program is that the LDB is able to more quickly access larger amounts of inventory without having to incur costs of holding inventory in its own warehouses.

4.5.1 How the Agent Stocking Program Works

Before describing the program as illustrated in Figure 4.5.1, it is important to clarify the characteristics of each entity involved in this process:

- Suppliers: To the best of LDB's knowledge, Suppliers are not resident in Canada nor are registered for GST purposes. There are approximately 1,600 Suppliers.
- Agents: Under B.C. LDB's Agent Stocking Program, all Suppliers are required to have an agent resident in Canada (Agents). To the best of LDB's knowledge, Agents are all registered for GST purposes. There are approximately 200 Agents.
- Commercial Warehouse: Under the LDB's Agent Stocking Program (ASP), a domestic agent or distributor is required to store Product in a LDB approved third party warehouse; may operate both a Customs Sufferance Bond and Excise Warehouse licensed by Canada Revenue Agency (CRA)
- LDB Warehouse: Warehouses operated by the B.C. LDB in the province of B.C.; warehouse is an Excise Warehouse licensed by CRA.



Also, while the process is largely the same, Figures 4.5.1 and 4.5.2 differ slightly when it comes to importing beer. These differences will be highlighted following the process for wine and spirits.

The green boxes in Figure 4.5.2 (which will be used throughout this description to outline the process) illustrates where the process begins. The Importation of a product into BC starts with the issuance of a Purchase Order (PO) from LDB to the Supplier outside of Canada. The PO will specify the SKU, quantity of Product ordered, and a specified amount, Prime Cost, per Product that includes cost of delivery from the Supplier's location outside of Canada to a Commercial (ASP) warehouse in B.C.

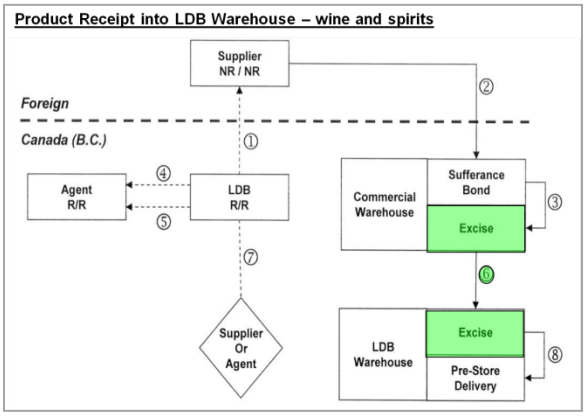
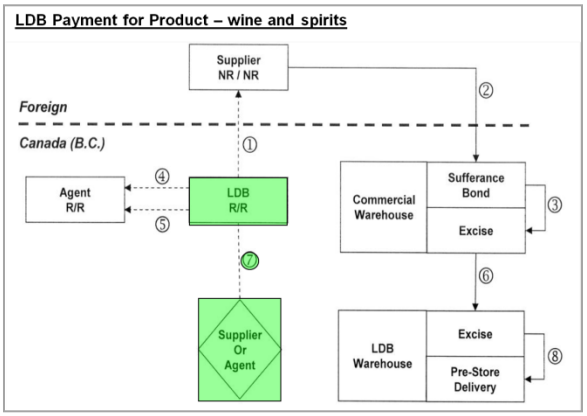
The Supplier will then ship the product to the Commercial Warehouse Sufferance Bond. At this stage, LDB acquires notional title to the Product upon physical arrival in B.C. pursuant to section 6 of the Liquor Distribution Act. The Product is not considered imported into Canada while located in Sufferance Bond.

Next, the LDB issues an electronic request for customs clearance on shipment received to CRA within 21 days for spirits (45 days for wine) of the Product's arrival at Commercial (ASP) Warehouse Sufferance Bond. Upon customs clearance, the Product is transferred from Commercial (ASP) Warehouse's Sufferance Bond to its Excise Warehouse. LDB, as the Importer of Record, accounts for and remits Customs Duty and GST on each importation. From this point, the Product in the Commercial (ASP) Warehouse's Excise Warehouse is held in an Excise Duty Deferred state.



The LDB will then charge Customs Duty and GST to the domestic agent / distributor on quantity of Product custom cleared.

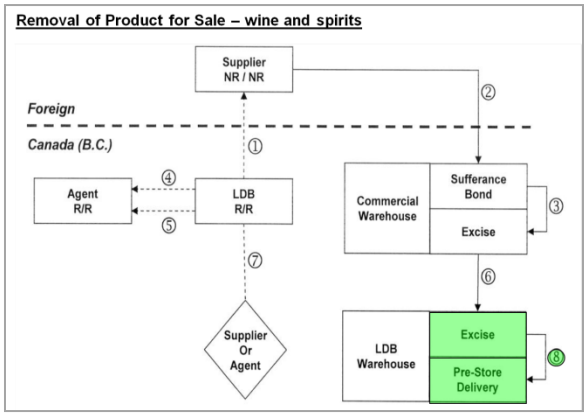


Periodically, LDB will issue an Excise Purchase Order (EPO) to the domestic agent / distributor to draw down of inventory of Product held in the Commercial (ASP) Warehouse's Excise Warehouse. The EPO authorizes the Agent to release/transfer Product from Commercial (ASP) Warehouse's Excise Warehouse to the LDB operated Excise Warehouse. The EPO specifies SKU, quantity, Prime Cost, Domestic Charges (Agent's warehouse and handling costs and commission for acting as Supplier's agent), and Customs Duty.

When the EPO is issued, the Product is shipped to the Excise Duty Deferred from Commercial (ASP) Warehouse's Excise Warehouse to LDB's Excise Warehouse. At this stage, LDB takes physical possession of Product and assumes risk of loss of Product.

The LDB will pay for the Product. The amount paid is the sum of: Prime Cost, Customs Duty, Domestic Charges and HST. LDB makes payment for Product to the Supplier /domestic agent or distributor. Payment instructions are provided by the Supplier in a Letter of Authorization required under the LDB's Agent Stocking Program

LDB removes the Product from LDB Excise Warehouse for delivery to retail stores. LDB reports and remits excise duty to CRA on the Product shipped to retail stores. They will also collect, report and remit HST to CRA on the sales price of the Product sold by LDB.



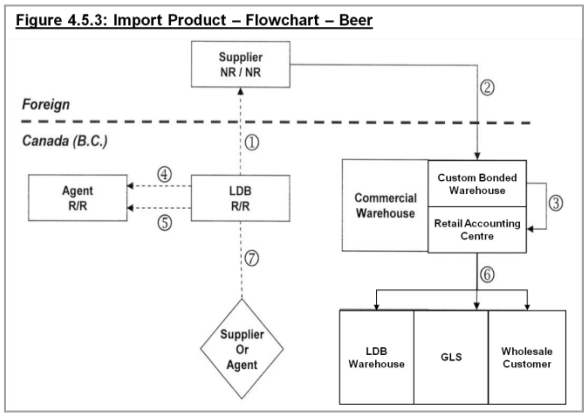


Figure 4.5.3 illustrates how the process differs (although slightly) for the importation of beer. The process involves:

- Imported beer is brought into the Custom Bonded Warehouse. LDB issues a Release Purchase Order to have the beer cleared through a Customs Bond.
- LDB Purchases the beer just prior to leaving the Customs Bond and it is transferred to the Retail Accounting Center (RAC) and is owned by the LDB
- A Third party Distributor acts as an Agent of the LDB to sell products to wholesale customers and also delivers product to BCLDB stores or LDB warehouses.

4.5.2 Distribution in other jurisdictions

The agent stocking programs are not used in other jurisdictions where the government is responsible for liquor distribution. In most cases, the relevant government body operates large warehouses and receives liquor from a variety of suppliers. The lack of Liquor Warehouse Program or agent stocking programs in other jurisdictions is due, in the most part, to the historical nature of its development in BC where it came into being as a way of saving money for the LDB during a time of increased sales and fiscal restraint. Beverage alcohol sales in other jurisdictions in Canada have not expanded as much as in BC, with the exception of Alberta. Alberta has large warehouses and has implemented a model similar to the agent stocking program.

In deregulated environments, there are typically a number of government licensed “bonded” warehouses where imported goods can be held either duty unpaid prior to shipment or with duty “part paid”. Duties usually become payable on shipment from the bonded facilities. The operators of bonded facilities are typically private companies including producers, importers or agents, freight forwarders or wholesalers. Bonded warehouses typically need to meet defined security and record keeping standards and often have government staff on site to ensure compliance. These staff may be Customs officers or other employees of the regulating government agency. Typically these regulations are set by the Federal Government in the jurisdiction and may be delegated, as they are in Canada.

Local product in other jurisdictions is distributed in a similar way to that used in BC. It is either directly delivered to the customer, or channelled through a warehouse.

4.6 Summary of distribution by type and origin of product

Distribution channels in BC vary by the type and origin of the product, as shown in table 4.6. In some cases, the same third party operates agent stocking warehouses as well as providing direct delivery services.

Contracted third party distributors are contracted by the LDB to transport liquor from its distribution centres to GLS and other wholesale customers.

Direct delivery distributors are different from contracted third party distributors. Direct delivery distributors transport liquor from an agent stocking warehouse or a BC manufacturer directly to a wholesale customer.

Table 4.6 Distribution of beverage alcohol in BC by type and origin of product

Products	Agent Stocking Warehouses	LDB Distribution Centres	Direct Delivery
Wine and spirits BC wine	No involvement	49% of BC made wine that is sold in BC is delivered to the distribution centres directly from the manufacturer. The distribution centre then distributes it to wholesale customers and GLS.	51% of BC wine is delivered directly to private retailers and licensees through a third party distributor or directly from the producer as per their agreement with the LDB.
BC spirits	No involvement	Except for on-site BC manufacturer retail sales, all BC	No involvement

NOTES TO THE MARKUP SCHEDULE

1.0 CIDER, COOLERS (≤7% Alc.)

The display price of low alcohol products with an alcohol level of 4.0% by volume or less will be discounted as follows:

CIDER, COOLERS

1.1% to 3.0%:	$1.00/dozen	(Approximating 4.0 Litres)
3.1% to 4.0%:	$0.50/dozen	(Approximating 4.0 Litres)

To qualify for the above discounts, the cost of the light brand cannot exceed the cost of the "namesake" or comparable regular alcohol brand (regular priced, regular alcohol, 4.l% by volume or greater). In the event that there is no "namesake" or comparable regular alcohol brand, the display price of the light brand will be determined by calculating a price based on regular markup, and Harmonized Sales Tax as above.

2.0 HIGH PRICED PRODUCTS

2.1 Wines - Fortified, Table and Sparkling

The markup for wines will be 100% of applicable markup on landed costs of up to $10.25 per litre plus the applicable volume markup and a markup of 55% on the remainder.

Where a selling unit has "incremental packaging" (see note 4.0), the above formula will apply to only the beverage portion of the price calculation.

Where a wine is stocked in more than one size, sizes .200L and greater must qualify (based on litre equivalent) for this reduced markup schedule to apply.

2.2 All Other Products

The following formula is used to determine the percentage markup to be applied to the landed cost (including the volume markup) of products other than wine:

on first $21.00 per litre	100 % of applicable markup
on next $8.20 per litre	75 % of applicable markup
on next $8.20 per litre	50 % of applicable markup
on any amount over $37.40 per litre	35 % of applicable markup

Sizes less than .200 litres do not qualify for reducing markup.

3.0 MINIMUM PRICES/MARKUPS

3.1 Minimum Prices

Spirits will not be sold below a display price of $31.66/litre; liqueurs will not be sold below a display price of $16.15/litre; wine will not be sold below a display price of $7.20/litre for package sizes smaller than 10 litres, or below $6.45/litre for package sizes of 10 litres and greater; coolers and ciders will not be sold below a display price of $3.00/litre; packaged beer will not be sold below a display price of $3.54/litre; draught cider will not be sold below a display price of $2.45/litre; draught beer will not be sold below a display price of $2.22/litre.

3.2 Minimum Markups

In no event will the application of normal percent markup to the adjusted landed cost of a product be less than the following absolute dollar amounts:

Spirit/Liqueurs	$13.12/litre
Wine	$3.00/litre
Coolers/Cider	$1.27/litre
Draught Cider	$0.89/litre

In the event the application of normal percentage markup to the adjusted landed cost of a product results in a gross margin less than $0.70 per selling unit, a flat markup of $0.70 per selling unit will be added to the landed cost plus the volume markup.

The minimum prices/markups established for cider and coolers may be reduced to comply with the discount policy of low alcohol products (See Note 1.0).

4.0 INCREMENTAL PACKAGING

In the event a product is packaged in “other than its normal bottle/container”, the standard applicable percentage markup will only be applied to the adjusted landed cost of the product in its "usual packaging". In the event that a product is not currently listed, then a 40% markup would be applied to the accessory.

5.0 TAX RATES

Display prices in Government Liquor Stores includes 12% Harmonized Sales Tax.

 This mark up schedule replaces previous schedule dated January 29, 2012 **

6.0 CONTAINER RECYCLING FEE RATES (rates current as of April 29, 2012)

Letter from the General Manager

February 6, 2012

The Honourable Rich Coleman,
Minister of Energy and Mines:

On behalf of all of the employees of the BC Liquor Distribution Branch (LDB), I am pleased to present our service plan for fiscal years 2012/13 to 2014/15.

This plan supports our mission to be a customer-focused, profitable retailer and wholesaler of beverage alcohol dedicated to innovation, exemplary service, helpful product knowledge and corporate social responsibility.

Over the three years covered by this plan, the LDB forecasts it will generate $2.6 billion in net income to government. In addition to our financial performance, the LDB's high-level goals also include workplace quality and employee excellence, customer experience, business effectiveness and corporate social responsibility.

While the weak global economy has had a negative impact on provincial liquor sales over the past two years, recent modest gains show some improvement in consumer confidence. However, during these times of economic uncertainty we will continue to closely monitor our sales and expenses and make adjustments to our budgets as necessary.

We were honoured this year to be recognized by Mediacorp as one of Canada's Top 100 Employers. This is our first time on this esteemed list. With respect to our workforce, we continue to focus on succession management in order to deal with the large number of retirements expected in the next three years.

The LDB places great importance on reducing our environmental footprint. Over the next three years, we will continue to implement energy efficiency initiatives and work towards our goal of reducing plastic shopping bag usage.

The 2012/13 - 2014/15 LDB Service Plan was prepared under my direction in accordance with the Budget Transparency and Accountability Act and the BC Reporting Principles. The plan is consistent with government's strategic priorities and fiscal plan. I am accountable for the contents of the plan, including what has been included in the plan and how it has been reported.

All significant assumptions, policy decisions, events and identified risks, as of January 2012 have been considered in preparing the plan. The performance measures presented are consistent with the LDB's mandate and goals, and focus on aspects critical to the organization's performance. The targets in this plan have been determined based on an assessment of the LDB's operating environment, forecast conditions, risk assessment and past performance.

Governance

In British Columbia, the Liquor Distribution Branch (LDB) is one of two branches of government responsible for the beverage alcohol industry. The Liquor Distribution Act gives the LDB the sole right to purchase beverage alcohol both within BC and from outside the province, in accordance with the federal Importation of Intoxicating Liquors Act.

Reporting to the Minister of Energy and Mines, the LDB:
- handles the importation and distribution of beverage alcohol in BC;
- operates government liquor stores (GLSs) and distribution centres; and
- has a General Manager who is responsible for administering the Liquor Distribution Act, which includes the oversight of GLSs, subject to direction from the minister.

The Liquor Distribution Act clarifies:
- LDB administration;
- GLS operation; and
- The role and powers of the LDB General Manager.

The LDB follows the Crown Agencies Resource Office guidelines for service plans and annual reports, and is reported out in public accounts in a manner similar to a commercial Crown corporation, on a modified equity basis.

Another branch of the Ministry of Energy and Mines — Liquor Control and Licensing Branch (LCLB) — licenses private liquor stores, restaurants, pubs and manufacturers, and enforces regulations under the Liquor Control and Licensing Act.

The LDB and LCLB have a shared responsibility to encourage the responsible consumption of beverage alcohol and work closely together to coordinate policies and programs to this end.

Government's Letter of Expectations

A key component of the LDB's governance framework is the Government's Letter of Expectations (GLE). The GLE is an agreement between the Government of British Columbia and the LDB that sets out the roles of each, the corporate mandate, high-level performance expectations and strategic priorities.

The GLE also provides direction from Government to the LDB to take specific actions. These specific actions from the 2012/13 GLE and the LDB's response to them are identified in the following table. The complete GLE is available on the LDB's website at www.bcldb.com/annual-report.

GOVERNMENT DIRECTION	LDB ALIGNMENT
Meet the LDB 2012/13 – 2013/14 Service Plan budget and performance targets, including net income.	The LDB provides monthly financial updates to Government and notifies Government on changes likely to affect the achievement of the targets.
Comply with the financial policies/guidelines provided by the Government for mark-up, taxation, the extent to which LDB may own capital assets, and LDB contributions to the Government.	The LDB complies with Government's financial policies and guidelines.
Comply with the Government's and the Liquor Control and Licensing Branch's direction to rationalize and improve the regulatory framework for the importation, distribution and retailing of beverage alcohol products in British Columbia.	The LDB complies with Government's and the Liquor Control and Licensing Branch's direction.
Facilitate transition of private liquor stores appointed under the Liquor Distribution Branch to become licensees under the Liquor Control and Licensing Act and regulated by the Liquor Control and Licensing Branch.	The LDB will assist the Liquor Control and Licensing Branch in the transfer of the private liquor store appointments.
Comply with Government's requirements to be carbon neutral under the Greenhouse Gas Reduction Targets Act, including: accurately defining, measuring, reporting on and verifying the greenhouse gas emissions from the LDB's operations; implementing aggressive measures to reduce those emissions and reporting on these reduction measures and reduction plans; and offsetting any remaining emissions through investments in the Pacific Carbon Trust, which will invest in greenhouse gas reduction projects outside of the LDB's scope of operations.	The LDB is accurately measuring and reporting on its greenhouse gas emissions as required by government, and is implementing measures to reduce those emissions. The LDB is offsetting emissions through payments to the Pacific Carbon Trust.
Work with service providers in the LDB's wholesale distribution network to improve on-time delivery and inventory turnover performance metrics.	The LDB will continue to work with its service providers to improve on-time delivery and inventory turnover.

Business of the Liquor Distribution Branch

The LDB operates a province-wide, retail/wholesale beverage alcohol business, within a mixed public-private model.

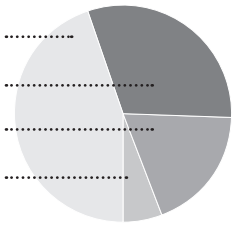
As of December 31, 2011, the LDB:

- has a workforce of approximately 3,500 full- and part-time employees;
- operates 197 GLSs throughout the province;
- operates two distribution centres, in Vancouver and Kamloops; and
- has a Head Office facility in Vancouver.

As part of BC's mixed model retail system, the LDB is committed to providing customers with an enhanced shopping environment, increased product selection and a high level of service.

The LDB purchases beverage alcohol from more than 400 suppliers and manufacturers within the province, across the country and around the world. Licensed manufacturers in BC include 242 wineries, 59 breweries, and 17 distilleries.

With more than 1,400 beverage alcohol retail outlets operating in BC, consumers have a variety of choices depending on their service needs, including:



- 197 GLSs (government-owned and -operated stores selling beverage alcohol to retail and wholesale customers);
- 672 licensee retail stores (LRSs – private stores licensed to sell all beverage alcohol products);
- 221 rural agency stores (RASs – general merchandise stores in rural communities authorized to sell all beverage alcohol products);
- 256 on-site manufacturer stores (stores at wineries, breweries and distilleries that sell the products that they manufacture);
- 35 off-site manufacturer stores (stores operated by the BC wine industry that sell BC winery products);
- 12 private wine stores; and
- 11 duty-free stores.

In addition to retail stores, there are approximately 8,000 bars, restaurants and other licensed on-premise establishments.

The wholesale beverage alcohol distribution model in BC includes the two government distribution centres, GLSs and a number of manufacturers and private distributors that are authorized to distribute beverage alcohol as agents of the LDB.

Strategic Issues

Economy

Beverage alcohol is a discretionary consumer product and sales are affected by economic conditions. Although the weak global economy has depressed sales over the past two years, there have been modest gains in recent months and we expect this trend to continue. The LDB will closely monitor sales and expenses and make adjustments to forecasts and budgets as necessary.

Customer Service

The improvement of customer service to the LDB's retail and wholesale customers will continue to be a priority. Over the next few years, the LDB will complete a number of store remodels and minor renovations to ensure that the store system meets the modern retail customer's expectations. There will be a continued emphasis on staff training particularly customer service and store management training.

The LDB will continue to improve its main website and mobile website applications to enhance customer's browsing experiences and access to LDB products and services. The LDB will also be encouraging more private liquor stores and licensed establishments to use the LDB's online "Webstore" application to make their purchases.

Human Resources

The LDB has a high percentage of long-service employees, many of whom will be eligible for retirement within the next five years. LDB's succession management plan focuses on leadership development of high performing internal candidates and aggressive recruitment of external candidates when necessary. The LDB has been named by Mediacorp as one of Canada's Top 100 Employers for 2012. This is the first time that the LDB has been recognized for this distinction.

Information Technology

The LDB will be focusing on a small number of key information technology initiatives over the next three years. In fiscal 2012/13, planning work will be completed on a liquor forecasting and replenishment system which, when implemented in subsequent years, will improve the management of inventory and reduce the possibility of product stock-outs. Discovery work will also begin in 2012/13 on new retail store cash register software that will improve in-store processes and customer service.

Corporate Social Responsibility

LDB efforts to minimize access to alcohol by minors will continue through stringent ID checking procedures. In-store LDB promotional materials will continue to encourage customers to consume beverage alcohol products responsibly. In fiscal 2012/13, the LDB will conduct its twelfth "Support Dry Grad" campaign which collects customer donations that help fund local high school alcohol-free graduation celebrations.

The LDB will aggressively pursue new energy efficiency opportunities in 2012/13 and will continue to work on its targets to reduce the number of plastic shopping bags used by customers.

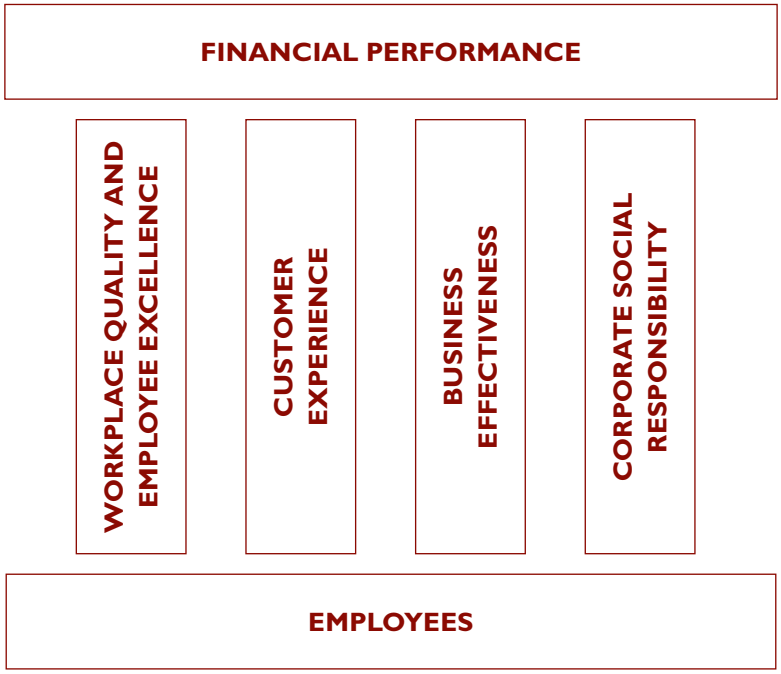
Risk Management

The LDB Executive Management Committee meets monthly to discuss service plan performance, risks and mitigating strategies.

In view of the uncertainty of the economic climate, the LDB is closely monitoring its financial performance and budgets in order to mitigate financial risks.

The LDB regularly updates its Enterprise Wide Risk Assessment and has a number of projects in progress to mitigate identified business and technology risks. These include the Financial Business Improvement Project, the Payment Card Industry (PCI) compliance program and the conversion to International Financial Reporting Standards.

	RISK FACTORS AND SENSITIVITIES		MITIGATING STRATEGIES
ECONOMY	Beverage alcohol is a discretionary consumer product and sales are negatively affected by poor economic conditions.	>	The LDB will carefully monitor its sales and expenses and will make adjustments to its operations and budgets as necessary.
INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY	The upgrading of information systems and business processes are key in the delivery of efficient and effective services to the LDB's customers. The replacement of older, difficult-to-maintain systems with new systems creates challenges in ensuring integration of applications and ensuring accurate information.	>	The LDB is replacing older systems on a scheduled basis and is working to improve the overall integration of systems.
RECRUITING AND RETENTION OF EMPLOYEES	The LDB is expecting a large number of long-service employees to retire in the next five years.	>	The LDB has a focus on succession planning in order to recruit employees from outside the organization and to support the career development of employees within the organization.



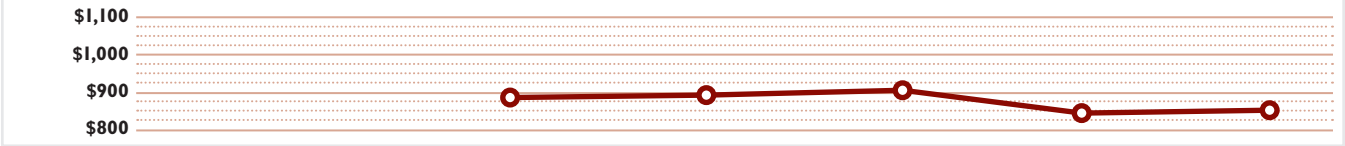
Objectives, Strategies & Performance Measures

The Four Pillars Framework

The LDB organizes its strategic priorities and key objectives around the concept of four pillars. All four pillars support financial performance, and at the foundation are the LDB's dedicated employees.

High-Level Goals

GOAL 1	GOAL 2	GOAL 3	GOAL 4	GOAL 5
Financial Performance Meet financial objectives approved by government.	Workplace Quality and Employee Excellence Create a work environment that encourages greater employee engagement.	Customer Experience Maintain a high level of wholesale and retail customer satisfaction.	Business Effectiveness Maintain operating efficiencies in a climate of constant change.	Corporate Social Responsibility Encourage and support the responsible use of beverage alcohol and minimize the impact of operations on the environment.



GOAL 1 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

Meet financial objectives approved by government.

STRATEGY: Grow sales and effectively manage operating expenses

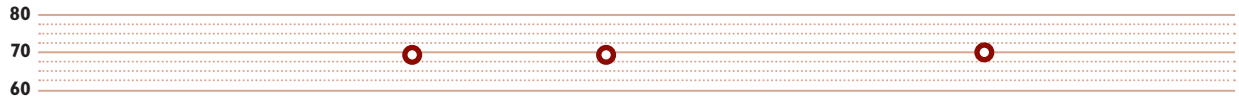
PERFORMANCE MEASURES	ACTUAL	FORECAST	TARGETS
IN MILLIONS $	FISCAL 2010/11	FISCAL 2011/12	FISCAL 2012/13	FISCAL 2013/14	FISCAL 2014/15
1.1 Net income	890.4	899.1	906.1	843.9	851.2

Performance Measure Description

1.1 Net income – Net income is the contribution made to the provincial government by the LDB from the total sales of beverage alcohol in the province and is audited by the BC Auditor General. LDB net income in an important source of funding for the provincial government.

Significant Changes from the Service Plan for Fiscal Years 2011/12 – 2013/14

For fiscal 2010/11, net income was prepared based on current Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). Net income targets for fiscal years 2011/12 to 2014/15 were prepared based on current International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).



GOAL 2 WORKPLACE QUALITY AND EMPLOYEE EXCELLENCE

Create a work environment that encourages greater employee engagement.

STRATEGIES:

1. Enhance staff skills and engagement through management development, employee training and increased communication
2. Implement succession management plans for the organization
3. Provide a safe, healthy and harassment-free workplace

PERFORMANCE MEASURES	ACTUAL	FORECAST	TARGETS
	FISCAL 2010/11	FISCAL 2011/12	FISCAL 2012/13	FISCAL 2013/14	FISCAL 2014/15
2.1 Employee engagement	69	69	N/A	70	N/A

Performance Measure Description

2.1 Employee engagement – Employee engagement is a measure of employees' level of commitment to, and satisfaction with, their job and the organization. The LDB's employee engagement score is based on an annual Workplace Environment Survey (WES) conducted for the LDB by BC Stats. The WES asks a number of questions about the work environment and the results are summarized into a single engagement score. The LDB believes that its target WES score of 70, on balance, reflects a healthy work environment.

Significant Changes from the Service Plan for Fiscal Years 2011/12 – 2013/14

Beginning in 2012, the Work Environment Survey (WES) will be administered every two years, instead of yearly. The next full-scale WES will take place in 2013.

GOAL 3 CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE

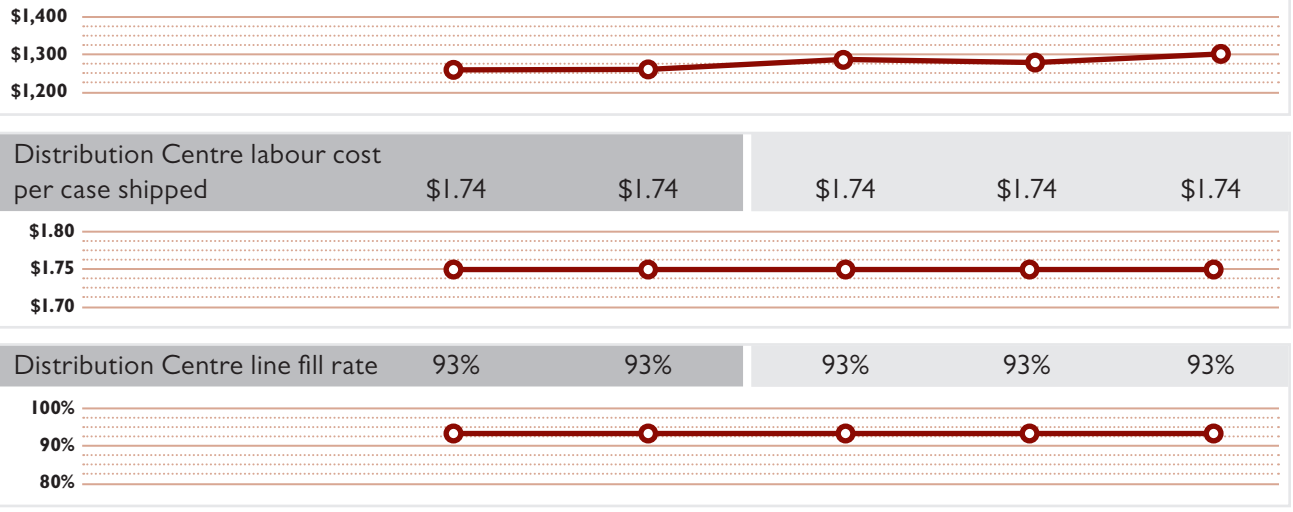
Maintain a high level of wholesale and retail customer satisfaction.

STRATEGIES:
1. Continuously refresh the store network
2. Continuously provide enhanced customer services

PERFORMANCE MEASURES	ACTUAL	FORECAST	TARGETS
	FISCAL 2010/11	FISCAL 2011/12	FISCAL 2012/13	FISCAL 2013/14	FISCAL 2014/15
3.1 Retail customer satisfaction	98%	N/A	90%	N/A	90%
3.2 Wholesale customer satisfaction	82%	N/A	90%	N/A	90%

Performance Measure Description

3.1 Retail customer satisfaction – The retail customer satisfaction rating is determined through a survey of a sample of BC Liquor Store retail customers conducted by a professional survey company. This survey is conducted once every two years so that customers have an adequate amount of time to experience LDB service initiatives which often take more than one year to fully implement. A survey was conducted in 2010/11 and the next survey will be conducted in 2012/13. Due to the importance of customer service to the LDB's success, a high target of 90 per cent has been set.



3.2 Wholesale customer satisfaction – The wholesale customer satisfaction rating is determined through a survey of a sample of wholesale customers (bars, restaurants and private retailers) conducted by a professional survey company. This survey is conducted once every two years so that customers have an adequate amount of time to experience LDB service initiatives which often take more than one year to fully implement. A survey was conducted in 2010/11 and the next survey will be conducted in 2012/13. Due to the importance of customer service to the LDB's success, a high target of 90 per cent has been set.

GOAL 4 BUSINESS EFFECTIVENESS

Maintain operating efficiencies in a climate of constant change.

STRATEGIES:
1. Maximize the potential efficiencies available through improved distribution operations.
2. Increase the use of current and cost effective technology

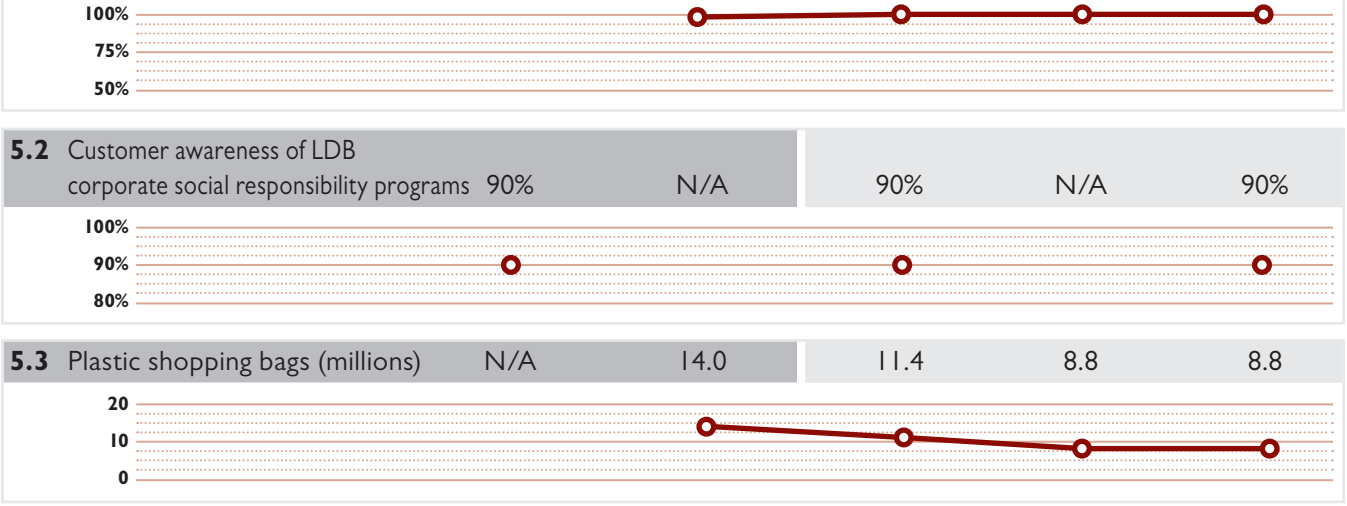
PERFORMANCE MEASURES	ACTUAL	FORECAST	TARGETS
	FISCAL 2010/11	FISCAL 2011/12	FISCAL 2012/13	FISCAL 2013/14	FISCAL 2014/15
4.1 BC Liquor Store sales per square foot	$1,259	$1,261	$1,286	$1,278	$1,303
4.2 Distribution Centre labour cost per case shipped	$1.74	$1.74	$1.74	$1.74	$1.74
4.3 Distribution Centre line fill rate	93%	93%	93%	93%	93%

Performance Measure Description

4.1 BC Liquor Stores sales per square foot – This measure is based on the annual dollar sales of the store system divided by total store system square footage and is an indicator of how well the LDB converts its store floor space into sales. Wholesale Customer Centre sales are excluded. The targets reflect the LDB's efforts to increase the productive use of its store space.

4.2 Distribution Centre labour cost per case shipped – This productivity measure is calculated by dividing total Distribution Centre labour expenses by total case shipments. The targets reflect the LDB's efforts to maintain productivity by keeping the labour cost per case constant.

4.3 Distribution Centre line fill rate – This is a measure of the completeness of orders filled by LDB Distribution Centres and is calculated by dividing the number of ordered items that are filled completely by the total number of items ordered. The calculation excludes products that are not stocked by LDB Distribution Centres. The LDB believes that the target of 93 per cent is the appropriate balance between the effective management of inventory and the minimization of product stock-outs.



GOAL 5 CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Encourage the responsible use of beverage alcohol and minimize the impact of operations on the environment.

STRATEGIES:

1. Prevent sales to minors or intoxicated persons in BC Liquor Stores through staff education and enforcement of ID-checking requirements
2. Promote awareness of responsible use by continuing co-operative programs with suppliers and other stakeholders
3. Reduce the impact of operations on the environment

5.3 Plastic shopping bags (millions)	N/A	14.0	11.4	8.8	8.8

Performance Measure Description

5.1 Store compliance with ID-checking requirement – The legal age to purchase liquor in British Columbia is 19. In fiscal 2011/12 the Liquor Control and Licensing Branch (LCLB) implemented an ID-checking program for government and private liquor stores that uses underage agents to test compliance. The LDB uses LCLB's compliance statistics for this measure. The target of 100 per cent reflects the importance to the LDB of preventing sales to minors.

5.2 Customer awareness of LDB corporate social responsibility programs – The LDB places posters and other promotional materials in its stores that encourage the responsible use of beverage alcohol. The themes, such as the prevention of drinking and driving or underage drinking, change every month. The LDB measures customer recall of these promotional materials through the same customer survey the LDB uses to rate its customer service performance (see performance measure 3.1). This survey is conducted every two years. The target of 90 per cent was set to ensure that the LDB strives to develop impactful and relevant messaging that catches the attention of customers.

5.3 Plastic shopping bag reduction –The LDB has a program to reduce the number of plastic shopping bags that are issued to customers. This program encourages customers to use re-usable bags or to take their purchases without a bag. The targets reflect the LDB's ongoing efforts to change customer behaviour.

Performance Management Systems

The following information summarizes the source and accuracy of the data used for the service plan performance measures.

Sales Data (Performance Measures 1.1 And 4.1)

Sales data for government liquor stores (GLSs) is collected from computerized point-of-sale cash register systems and stored in head office databases. Sales made directly to customers by agents on behalf of the Liquor Distribution Branch (LDB) are transmitted to the LDB and stored in databases. LDB financial statements are audited by the Office of the Auditor General annually.

Expense Data: (Performance Measures 1.1 and 4.2)

LDB expense data is captured, stored and reported by the LDB's financial system. The LDB's financial statements are audited by the Office of the Auditor General.

Employee And Customer Surveys (Performance Measures 2.1, 3.1, 3.2, 5.2)

BC Stats conducts the employee engagement survey for the LDB. The LDB contracts with professional survey companies to conduct the retail and wholesale customer service surveys.

Distribution Data (Performance Measures 4.2, 4.3)

Orders and shipments processed the by LDB distribution centers are captured and stored by computer applications designed for this purpose.

ID-Checking (Performance Measure 5.1)

LCLB administers an ID compliance checking program and provides the results of LDB store compliance to the LDB.

Plastic Shopping Bag Reduction (Performance Measure 5.3)

Plastic shopping bag usage by the LDB is determined from purchasing records.

Benchmarking

In 2011, the LDB benchmarked itself against a number of other organizations including: four provincial liquor boards; three non-Canadian government liquor authorities; two private distribution organizations and two private retailers. A total of 15 different measures were compared and results from the four that are most relevant to the LDB are shown below.

There are important differences in the operations and mandate of the LDB compared to most of these organizations and this affects their comparability. The LDB's relative performance to these organizations is shown below. Certain performance measures were only relevant to a selection of the organizations.

This is a measure of the overall health and profitability of an organization, and represents the per cent of each sales dollar that is generated for government in the case of public liquor authorities such as the LDB, or to shareholders in the case of private companies.

GLS Sales per GLS FTE

This is a measure of productivity of government liquor store employees. FTE stands for "Full Time Equivalent" and is equal to one person-year of employment.

Distribution Centre Cost per Case

This measures how cost effective distribution centres are on a volume basis.

Key Forecast Assumptions

Forecast assumptions, based on market trends by product categories and the elimination of the HST, include a sales increase of 1.2 per cent in fiscal 2012-13, a sales decrease of 1.2 per cent in fiscal 2013/14 and a sales increase of 1.4 per cent in 2014/15. The sales decrease in fiscal 2013/14 is based on the assumption that the HST will be replaced by PST and GST beginning April 2013 and that the LDB will reduce its product mark-up rates at that time to the same rates in effect prior to HST implementation.

Capital requirements reflect expenditures for updating and improving stores, technology-related projects and ongoing equipment replacements.

For fiscal 2010/11, net income was prepared based on current Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). Net income targets for fiscal years 2011/12 to 2014/15 were prepared based on current International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

Segmented Outlook

The LDB has two types of operations based on customer type – retail and wholesale. Retail operations includes sales from BC Liquor Stores (GLS) to retail customers. Wholesale operations include sales from the LDB's Wholesale Customer Centre, GLSs, and from authorized BC manufacturers and private distributors. The LDB uses an Activity-Based Costing Analysis to allocate expenses between the two operations and this analysis is updated annually. The segmented information provided below allocates the Summary Financial Outlook from the previous page into the retail and wholesale operations.

Cost per Case - P12		Cost per Case - YTD
Actual	Budget	Actual	Budget
$1.88	$1.81	$1.74	$1.63

Note:
FY10/11 cost per case budget was prepared using the following figures:

Budgeted Employment $ excluding Truck Fleet & inv count	$	18,830,094
Budgeted Cases (using 08/09 actuals)		11,220,000
Budgeted CPC (as stated in Service Plan)		approx $1.69

Additional $1.485M in employment was projected in P2 to adjust the budget.
Rationale:
Current FY11 budget is understated by 87,000 labour hours (compared to last three years' actuals).
We assumed these labour hours to come from VDC case pick where an average rate of $17/hr was used:
[87,000hrs x $17 = approx $1.485M]

Budgeted Employment $ excluding Truck Fleet & inv count	$	18,830,094
ADD	$	1,485,000
RESTATED Employment $ excluding Truck Fleet & inv count	$	20,315,094
RESTATED Budgeted Cases (using 09/10 actuals)		11,588,716
	$	1.75	new CPC target

PROJECTED P12 BUDGET

Budgeted Employment $ excluding Truck Fleet & inv count	$	1,649,703
add ($1.485M/12periods)	$	123,750
	$	1,773,453
P12 Budgeted Cases (based on 09/10 actuals)		911,876
	$	1.94

RESTATED Cost per Case (with increased employment $ projection):

Actual P11	(new) P11 Projection	Actual YTD	(new annual target) FY11 Projection	Original Budget (as per Service Plan)
$1.88	$1.94	$1.74	$1.75	$1.69

Note: P12 employment expenses include Y/E payroll adjustment of $99,821 in dept 501.

Impact on CPC:

Actual P12 (restated)	Actual YTD (restated)
($1837777 - 99821)/976827 = $1.78	(20363362 - 99821)/11711478 = $1.73

LDB Vancouver and Kamloops
Data Centres Overview

The two data centres are located in Vancouver and Kamloops and operate in an active-active mode. That is, the two data centres have both PRODUCTION and Non-PRODUCTION systems and each act as the fail-over site for critical systems in the event of the loss of a data centre. Information Services personnel are located in both locations and each data centre has UPS and generators in place utilizing bio-fuel (natural & gas) that activates in the event of power outages.

The LDB strategy for data centres service has been to select the best option to meet the objectives of the business balancing accessibility, availability, redundancy, efficiency, cost effectiveness and business continuity. The LDB also utilizes a moderate amount of 3rd party data centre services as well and also has periodic audits done on the data centres for best practise comparisons, highlighting opportunities for improvements.

To reduce costs, increase efficiency, reduce carbon footprint and maximize the use of the resources in the two data centres, servers are consolidated and virtualized in both centres, wherever possible.

The server virtualization ranges from a minimum of 5 virtual/physical to a high of 56 virtual/physical. Future plans include the virtualization of the desktop workstations within the LDB head office. There are a total of 639 virtual servers and in addition 61 physical servers which are not virtualized due to application restrictions. As a result of the virtualization and removal of older equipment and the subsequent reduction of power consumption, the LDB has received two PowerSmart rebate cheques from BC Hydro totalling $94,000+.

Beside the pure computing equipment in both data centres, corporate security also has a video surveillance system located in its command centre at the two distribution centres which monitors video feeds of video cameras located in all the LDB retail locations, the two distribution centres and head office.

The LDB's cloud computing strategy includes the evaluation, selection and provision of services based on each initiative for the best fit, costs, objectives and requirements. This includes the provision of IT services internally or from third party providers such as RackForce located in Kelowna or Shared Services BC. As an example, the LDB's retail website, www.bcliquorstores.com, is hosted in RackForce as an Infrastructure-as-a-Service (IaaS) offering including the development and test servers for the website and e-mail services are sourced and provided as a Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) by Shared Services BC.

Vancouver Data Centre

The Vancouver data center (VDC) is located in a building that was built in the early 1980s. The data center was retrofitted in an existing office space in early 1990s and is approximately 800 ft² with a 6" raised floor that is used for power and data cabling. Site improvement work has been done and continued over the years. There are two rows of racks which implement the concepts of hot/cold aisles to optimize air flow, cooling and reducing GHG emissions.

This location hosts the majority of the business applications for the LDB including the PCI environment for credit/debit transaction processing for the Government Liquor Stores. The data centre is monitored by operations personnel located in both data centres that ensure that any alerts/errors are dealt with promptly and appropriately. The UPS system is located within the data centre with the batteries physically separated from the IT equipment in a separate room.

Kamloops Data Centre

The Data Centre was built in 2006 in a building that was built in 2005 and is approximately 400 ft² with 14" raised floor that is used for cooling. Power and data cabling as per best practices are routed on trays above. There are two rows of racks (of 8 each/row) which implement the concept of hot/cold aisles plus the cold aisle is contained to optimize cooling and reduce GHG emissions.

The KDC is also an active DC and hosts some of the core business Production systems. The Data Centre is monitored by Operations personnel located in both data centres who ensure that any alerts/errors are dealt with promptly and appropriately. The UPS system for this location is located in a separate room with its set of batteries.

Data Center Hardware Components

The table below lists all the computer equipment located in the two data centres but do not include any equipment that is 'owned' by Facilities (e.g. HVAC cooling and power generators). Please also note that corporate security has a video surveillance system located in its command centre at the two distribution centres which monitors video feeds of video cameras located in all the LDB retail locations and the two distribution centres.

APPENDIX E11 LDB EXISTING IT APPLICATIONS LANDSCAPE

Distribution Systems Description

The BCLB operates two physical warehouses, one in Vancouver (VDC) and the 2nd in Kamloops (VDC). The Radio Beacon (RB v5.4) WMS application is used by the Branch to perform all warehouse activities related to the physical handling, storage, receipt and order picking/shipping of liquor product. The RB system uses RF scanning against product SCC and UPC codes and bin location barcodes for product and location lookup.

The wholesale customer centre is a centralized order desk for larger wholesale customers. There are over 9000 wholesale customers with 310 serviced through Web Store, an Internet online store front.

1	The LDB operates two physical warehouses, one in Vancouver (VDC) and the 2nd in Kamloops (VDC). Distribution's vision is to provide on-time delivery and order accuracy for internal and external customers. This requires accurate inventory location management for receiving and	The Radio Beacon (RB v5.4) WMS application is used by the Branch to perform all warehouse activities related to the physical handling, storage, receipt and order picking/shipping of liquor product. The RB system uses RF scanning against product SCC codes and bin location barcodes for product and location lookup.	Warehouse Inventory – inventory is maintained by warehouse by location by product. Inventory adjustments (e.g. breakages, floor credits, returns) update RB inventory and are interfaced to eBiz. RB inventory adjustments are then interfaced from eBiz to Finance applications for Excise and Canada Customs reporting (as applicable). Cycle counting by product or location is performed on a scheduled basis and as required.	Product Data - Corporate Product Database (CPD) feed to RB.	New product and product data updates (e.g. barcodes, unit of measure, CSPC, brand name, etc.) are downloaded to Radio Beacon files.
				Inventory adjustments - RB to eBiz	Inventory adjustments are interfaced from RB throughout the day to eBiz for IM inventory maintenance and, depending upon the type of adjustment, for vendor claims/payments.
				Annual inventory adjustments - RB to eBiz	Annual inventory count adjustments are uploaded to eBiz to synchronize RB and eBiz IM inventories.

The receipt information in eBiz is used for Vendor payment and eBiz inventory maintenance. The receipt information from RB to legacy Purchasing is used to update the legacy Purchasing PO and to maintain inventory information for warehouse replenishment requirements. Any receipts of duty deferred quantities are also captured through the RB to legacy Purchasing interface for Finance excise reporting.

			product that is not stocked at the LDB warehouses. Speculative products are a category of products that are regularly ordered by the LDB for wholesale customers only – government liquor stores may not carry these products. Backorder product requests are processed only in case lots. Non stocked wholesale products do not follow the regular RB receiving or inventory location maintenance processes as the inventory for those products is reserved against specific sales orders upon receipt into the warehouse. Warehouse Order Picking/Assembly – orders downloaded to RB from eBiz involve both case and bottle picks. Orders are viewed by the Order Dispatcher based on Oracle warehouse release time. The Dispatcher assigns any necessary replenishment of products. 2	Warehouse Shipping is aligned with customer delivery expectations.	Warehouse Shipping Schedule	A customized add-on application to Oracle eBiz, the Warehouse Shipping Schedule is used by Distribution to allow orders to be picked and shipped based on a master shipping schedule. There are separate shipping schedules for VDC and KDC. The Warehouse Release Date and Time determines the time and day that a customer's order(s) is released to RB WMS. This ensures that the orders are released to the warehouse in priority sequence to meet the expected shipping date. The Expected Shipment Date and Time gives each customer a schedule time for their order to be shipped regardless of whether they are direct delivery, third party delivery or pick-up customers.	A series of online forms, integrated with Oracle eBiz, are used by Distribution to maintain the master shipping schedule.	All wholesale customers and BCLS whose sales orders are processed through the LDB distribution centres are included in the shipping schedule. The shipping information maintained in this eBiz add-on is validated against the eBiz customer master files. The sales orders downloaded to RB from eBiz contain the required data elements from the Warehouse Shipping Schedule to determine when the order needs to be picked/assembled and shipped in RB.

3	Rejected eBiz inventory adjustments are captured and listed for re-processing by Distribution.	Inventory Adjustment Corrections	There are times when the available inventory in eBiz does not match what is in RB. There are many possible explanations for these inventory discrepancies the most common being timing differences, e.g. an order may be allocated in ebiz but not yet downloaded and allocated in RB. If an inventory transaction is unable to be processed in eBiz the transaction is captured and listed on the Inventory Adjustment Corrections screen for re-processing by Distribution.	Oracle Inventory Management	Corrected inventory adjustment transactions are resubmitted for eBiz IM processing.
4	Freight Payment for external carriers.	Carrier freight payment.	Invoices for carrier freight payments are received, validated and corrected as required by Distribution Administration. Once validated, Distribution forwards the freight invoice to LDB Accounts Payable.	None

3.3 Despite this Agreement, the BCLDB has the right to order and purchase liquor including Product directly from a Manufacturer.

4. WAREHOUSING OF PRODUCT

4.1 We have appointed a Warehouse in the province to store Product pending the completion of the sale of the Product to the BCLDB or Approved Customers, or the transfer of the Product outside the province, as applicable.

4.2 We cannot transfer Product into or out of the Warehouse without the BCLDB's written permission and we agree to pay any transfer fees assessed.

4.3 All costs associated with the storage of Product at the Warehouse or transfers of such Product will be paid by us.

4.4 All risks associated with the storage of Product at the Warehouse and any transfers of such Product to the BCLDB at its Distribution Centre, or to Approved Customers, if applicable, will be for our account.

5. DELIVERY OF PRODUCT

5.1 The BCLDB will issue to me or to my Warehouse on my behalf, an Excise Purchase Order for transfers of Product (import wine and spirits) to the BCLDB's Distribution Centre. Once an Excise Purchase Order is issued by the BCLDB, Product must be released to fulfil the Excise Purchase Order.

5.2 The BCLDB will issue to me or to my Warehouse on my behalf, a Release Purchase Order for transfers of Product (import beer) to the BCLDB's Distribution Centre or in the case of beer privately distributed, to the Retail Accounting Centre for sale and distribution to Approved Customers, in accordance with the terms of any ancillary agreement.

6. PAYMENT FOR PRODUCT

6.1 Payment for Product will be in accordance with the instructions in our Letter of Authorisation and in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Order unless other terms are agreed to with the BCLDB.

7. DISPUTES INVOLVING DOMESTIC AGENT

7.1 If there is any dispute involving me, as a Domestic Agent, the Manufacturer whom I represent or our Warehouse related to my authority, the Product or about any payments due for Product or other expenses or costs related to the Product which dispute is brought to the attention of the BCLDB by one of the parties, then the BCLDB may, at its discretion, do one or more of the following, notwithstanding any instructions on a Letter of Authorization related to the Product:

i) pay any amounts owing for the purchase of the Product into court,
ii) withhold any payment owing and account for the payment until such time as the dispute between the parties is resolved and an agreed upon direction to pay has been issued to the BCLDB;
iii) set off from amounts owing for the purchase of the Product, an amount sufficient to release any lien on the Product issued by the Warehouse such that the Product may sold into the market, or
iv) take such other actions as the BCLDB is legally entitled to do, and we will not have any recourse whatsoever against the BCLDB.

8. TRANSMISSION OF EXCISE or RELEASE PURCHASE ORDERS

8.1 We authorize my Warehouse to receive any Excise/Release Purchase Order by electronic transmission and to transfer the Product in the manner stated in the Excise/Release Purchase Order.

9. DEFECTIVE AND TIME BARRED PRODUCT

9.1 We acknowledge the warranties listed in the Purchase Order. We will indemnify the BCLDB for all costs and expenses associated with defective Product. We may be released from this liability should the Manufacturer fully indemnify the BCLDB for any such costs and expenses.

9.2 Any of my Product which is defective must be destroyed or exported out of the province at our sole cost, within the timeframe agreed upon with the BCLDB.

9.3 If we have imported any beer from outside of Canada, which has remained in the Custom Bonded Warehouse for twelve months from the date of importation, we must either destroy the beer or export it out of Canada, all at our sole expense.

10. BOOKS AND RECORDS

10.1 We must keep or ensure that the following Records related to my Products are kept in the province for a period of not less than seven years following the end of each fiscal year:

i) Purchase Orders and Excise/Release Purchase Orders or other documents related to the transfer of Product to and from the Warehouse;
ii) Customs documentation regarding the importation, transfer, Product movement and reporting as prescribed by CBSA;
iii) Excise documentation regarding the Product movement and reporting as prescribed by the Canada Revenue Agency;
iv) records recording defective Products;
v) any other financial or other information relating to the Products or this Agreement as the BCLDB requires.

We may be released from all or part of this obligation should my Warehouse agree to keep any of these Records and make them available to the BCLDB.

10.2 The BCLDB may at any time check the inventory of Product in any Warehouse or other location where Product is stored or conduct an inspection or audit ("Inspection") at any location where Product or Records are situated.

10.3 If the BCLDB conducts any Inspection which discloses that Product has been dealt with in manner which is not allowed under the Agreement, we must pay the expenses of the Inspection, including any costs associated with any Inspection undertaken, as the BCLDB determines in its absolute discretion. We may be released from this obligation if our Warehouse agrees to pay the costs of Inspection.

11. LIABILITY FOR PRODUCT THAT IS UNACCOUNTED FOR

11.1 If the BCLDB determines after a review of the Records or Warehouse inventory, that any of the Product cannot be accounted for or does not have a valid adjustment ("Lost Product"), we agree to indemnify the BCLDB for the amounts owing on the Lost Product as determined by the BCLDB. Any amounts deemed to be owed can be set off from any payments due and owing for the purchase of the Product. We may be released from the above obligations if our Warehouse agrees to assume these liabilities.

12. INSURANCE

12.1 We will ensure that the insurance requirements under the Purchase Order are met including that the insurance will be adequate to recover any loss suffered while the Product is stored in the Warehouse. We may be released from the obligation to insure Product in the Warehouse if the Warehouse agrees to assume these obligations.

13. TERMINATION OF THE AGREEMENT

13.1 The BCLDB can terminate or suspend all or any part of this Agreement on any terms the BCLDB directs, without prior notice, if we do any of the following:

i) bring Product into the province without a valid Purchase Order;
ii) do not provide the records or access to the Product at the Warehouse in a timely manner;
iii) refuse to provide Product in response to an Excise or Release Purchase Order issued by the BCLDB;
iv) all our Letters of Authorisation are revoked by Manufacturers or we otherwise cease to carry on the business of Domestic Agent or Distributor in the province.

13.2 We may end this Agreement by giving at least 60 days notice in writing to the BCLDB.

13.3 If this Agreement is terminated or suspended for more than two months for any reason, and we have Product warehoused in the province in a Warehouse, then we must either export the Product out of the province or destroy the Product, either to be done at our sole expense. Alternatively, if the BCLDB wants, the BCLDB may purchase all or any part of the Product for a price we agree to.

14. NOTICE

14.1 We will give each other any notice, as required under this Agreement by either:

Introduction

This Final Report provides you with an overview and analysis of the results of your Corporate Insights Wholesale Customer Survey. Data from the individual surveys has been compiled to form a concise yet thorough profile of your customers' responses. The material is presented in narrative, graphic and tabular form and is designed to help you in a number of specific ways.

The first seven sections of the report look at the functional performance of the LDB in terms of Product Ordering, the Wholesale Customer Website, Wholesale Customer Web Store, Product Delivery, Invoicing and Customer Service Performance.

The next section measures your customers' likelihood of utilizing a variety of additional service or information areas that the LDB is considering offering. This is followed by a section that looks at how the LDB handles complaints from your Wholesale Customers.

The final section of the report presents your customers' overall ratings of your service performance.

A copy of the survey is also included in the Appendix for your reference.

Overall, this report gives you a comprehensive assessment, by your own customers, of your performance across a range of key service and operational areas.

Methodology

The data reported here were collected by means of a mail and online survey of the Wholesale Customers of the Liquor Distribution Branch. Corporate Insights mailed a copy of the survey to 2,848 selected Wholesale Customers. The survey, along with a postage paid return envelope, was mailed to each of the selected customers. They had the option of completing the paper version of the survey or accessing an online version of the survey. A copy of the survey is included in the Appendix to this report.

Of the 2,848 customers, 425 surveys were returned. This represents a response rate of 15% (2008 – 11%). At a 95% level of confidence (where the same results would occur 19 times out of 20), the sampling error is ± 4.4%.

Of the 425 questionnaires returned, 185 were completed on paper and 240 were submitted online.

Key Survey Differences from 2008

Survey Response Set Labels

In 2010, the LDB requested that the survey response labels for the 5 point scale questions in the Wholesale Customer Survey be adjusted to match those found in most other market research studies. As such, the labels were adjusted to provide the following definition for each of the response set numbers:

Poor	Fair	Neutral	Good	Excellent
1	2	3	4	5

In 2008, the LDB had requested that the survey response labels for the 5 point scale questions in the Wholesale Customer Survey be adjusted to match those found in their Retail Survey. As such, the labels were as found below:

Poor	Fair	Good	Very Good	Excellent
1	2	3	4	5

The difference between the 2010 and 2008 labels are found for those offering a 3 or 4 rating for a question. The 2010 scale offers a Neutral mid-point at 3, whereas in 2008 it was skewed to the positive side with the label Good.

This shift in the labelling of the scales has been to correct a bias inherent in the 2008 scale. This bias caused the 2008 results to appear to be lower as respondents in 2008 had 3 choices to give the LDB a positive rating (3, 4, 5).

Intuitively, you would initially think that this would cause the ratings to rise, but after further analysis it has given respondents the ability to move down the scale while still providing what they feel is a positive response.

The end result of this scale change is that direct comparison to the 2008 results can be made for the 1, 2 & 5 rating points on the 5 point scale as those labels were the same for both survey periods. We have commented throughout the report where there have been changes in the 1 (Poor), 2 (Fair) and 5 (Excellent) ratings.

More Large Accounts Responding in 2010

Another key difference from the 2008 survey results is the fact that there were more large accounts responding to the survey in 2010 than was found in 2008. Accounts with Sales over $1 million represented 28% of the total sample in 2010, compared to 19% in 2008.

Larger accounts tend to be more critical in their ratings – this is particularly relevant to keep in mind when viewing the positive increases in this year's ratings. The increases were accomplished with a higher percentage of large accounts responding – a group that is traditionally more critical.

Respondent Mix

The mix of respondent businesses is similar to 2008 with a couple of exceptions:

- LRS response percentage has increased.
- Hotel & RAS response percentage has decreased.

LRS make up 39% of the sample, while Restaurants make up 24%, and Pubs make up 19% of the sample.

The next most frequent respondents were RAS at 9% and Hotels at 5%.

1.0 Executive Summary

The following are some of the key observations and recommendations contained in this Final Report.

PRODUCT ORDERING

79% of those who commented rated the overall Product Ordering process as "Good" or "Excellent". Of particular note is the statistically significant increase in the Excellent ratings. They have increased from 14% in 2008 to 24% in 2010 for the overall rating of the Product Ordering process.

It is also interesting to note that the overall Fair and Poor ratings have decreased (improved) from 20% in 2008 to only 7% in 2010, another statistically significant improvement.

Overall ratings of the Product Ordering process across the 5 different account sizes was reasonably similar for accounts >$500K (ranging from 83% Good to Excellent for >$2M accounts to 81% for those accounts $500K-$1M). The ratings then dropped to the 75-77% range for accounts <$500K.

Respondents who place the majority of their orders through Store 100 were the most positive about the Product Ordering process with 80% offering Good or Excellent ratings, compared to 70% for those who primarily order through Store 231 and 78% for those who primarily order through the LDB Store System.

By type of business, Restaurants gave slightly lower ratings with 65% offering a rating of Good or Excellent. All other business types offered Good or Excellent ratings of 80% or higher.

Recommendations

The lowest ratings were again the availability of restricted/wholesale only products with only 13% offering Excellent ratings, up, however, from only 6% in 2008. It is also important to note that the Poor & Fair ratings have improved substantially from 2008 with 29% offering Poor to Fair ratings in 2010 as compared to 45% in 2008.

This is still an area where the LDB could work to improve its performance in letting customers know about out-of-stocks and what might be suitable replacement products.

VANCOUVER WHOLESALE CUSTOMER CENTRE (Store 100)

The Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre should be very pleased with its performance as there has been a noticeable improvement in the ratings in this year's survey as compared to 2008. Of particular note, is the fact that there has been a statistically significant increase in the ratings in all 5 categories.

27% of the respondents gave an Excellent overall rating of the Wholesale Customer Centre as compared to only 12% in 2008. As well, only 6% gave Poor or Fair overall ratings as compared to 27% in 2008.

Specifically, respondents are satisfied the most with your Pallet Contents Report and the clarity of your invoices.

Only 57% of Restaurants gave a rating of Good or Excellent, while other business types offered ratings of 75% or higher.

In terms of account size, 90% of Accounts >$2M rated the Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre as Good or Excellent, followed by Accounts $1M-$2M at 82%. The lowest rating of the Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre, at 65% Good or Excellent, came from Accounts <$100K.

Recommendations

Performance ratings are lowest for your Order Submission Report and your Non-stocked Wholesale Product Report, with 18-20% rating you as Poor or Fair in these 2 areas. These are areas for the LDB to continue to improve its performance.

WHOLESALE CUSTOMER WEBSITE

35% of customers indicated that they use the LDB Wholesale Website. Private Wine Stores at 78%, Duty Free Stores at 67%, and LRS at 54% use the LDB Website more than any other type of customer. Hotels, at 13%, use the LDB Website the least.

Overall, 82% of those who use the LDB Wholesale Website, rated it a 4 or higher. Only 3% offered Poor or Fair ratings. Those that use the website are quite satisfied in all areas measured.

These results are particularly pleasing as expectation levels for websites are very high given what respondents experience daily with websites such as Amazon, Dell, etc. Although these are obviously different businesses from the LDB, comparisons against other websites are inevitable, and these ratings are very positive.

Specifically, LDB Website users are satisfied the most with your Monthly Price Change Report and Stocked Wholesale Products Report. Ratings then drop down slightly for the LDB Wholesale Product Ordering Guidelines, Straight Up Newsletter, and Quarterly Market Review.

Only 50% of Restaurants who use the LDB Website gave it a rating of Good or Excellent, while other business types offered ratings of 80% or higher.

In terms of Account size, 88% of Accounts >$2M rated the LDB Website as Good or Excellent, with Accounts $500K-$1M the lowest at 71% Good or Excellent.

Recommendations

In total, 77% of customers who do not use the LDB Website are open to learning more about it. These customers should be informed about the broad variety of resources available on the LDB Website that would be beneficial to their business.

This level of interest provides the LDB with a great opportunity to increase its efforts to deal with its Wholesale customers through this channel. As will be seen in the next section, those that use the Website and the Web Store are very satisfied with its usability and functionality.

Performance ratings are lowest for links to other sites and links to other publications – less relevant to their business directly than the other items measured.

The LDB could further increase these website ratings by making additional refinements to the site to make the information and topics even more relevant to the specific needs of its Wholesale customers.

WHOLESALE CUSTOMER WEB STORE

The Web Store appears to be a success with over 88% of the initial group who use the LDB Wholesale Web Store rating it Good or Excellent.

Of particular note are the following areas:

- Ability to order online 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – 92% Good to Excellent ratings.
- Ability to search LDB Wholesale Product Catalogue – 88% Good to Excellent ratings.
- Ease of checkout – 88% Good to Excellent ratings.
- Ability to save your shopping list – 85% Good to Excellent ratings.
- Ability to upload large orders via CSV files – 85% Good to Excellent ratings.
- Ability to track the status of your order – 83% Good to Excellent ratings.

Market trend reports, new product listings/discontinued product report, and top selling product reports were rated slightly lower than those above. If these reports were tailored further to make them more specific to certain sectors or segments, the ratings would likely increase further.

The majority of the Web Store users are LRS accounts and all sales categories offered ratings of 85% or higher in terms of Good to Excellent ratings.

Recommendations

58% of respondents indicated that they are aware of the LDB Wholesale Web Store. This still leaves 42% who are not aware and the LDB should focus its efforts to increase awareness of this well rated and very effective channel.

43% of respondents are "Very interested" in using the LDB Wholesale Web Store to order their products. 36% are "Somewhat interested" in using the LDB Web Store.

In total, 79% of customers are willing to use the LDB Web Store. This indicates a great opportunity for the LDB to expand the scope and range of the Web Store as there is clearly demand for this channel.

The LDB should focus on which groups or types of customers it would like to attract next to the Web Store so that the transition between channels and volume shifts are smooth and manageable for the LDB.

The most frequent comments about what the LDB could do to improve the Wholesale Web Store were as follows:

- A way to be able to show what is coming into Container World and ETA on back ordered Wholesale Products.
- Increase the time-out period to a bit longer – often get called away and have to start all over again.
- Be able to push ENTER instead of TAB to go to the next line when entering an order.
- Make the columns Bottle and Case easier to read – confusion can lead to wrong amount ordered.
- Improve the Search function – e.g. products are only shown as available if there has been activity in the last 30 days – even when they may be available but haven't been bought in the last 30 days.

BCeID

32% of customers have registered for a BCeID. LRS and Private Wine Stores have the highest percentage who are already registered for a BCeID.

55% of customers with Accounts >$2M have already registered for a BCeID, but only 25% of those with Accounts <$500K have registered.

39% of customers who order through Store 100 have registered for a BCeID, while only 23% of those who order through other LDB stores have registered. This is consistent with the fact that Store 100 deals with more of the larger accounts and they are more interested in the Web Store than the smaller accounts.

57% of customers who use the LDB Wholesale Web Store found the BCeID registration process "Straightforward and easy", 31% found it "Somewhat confusing", and 12% thought it was "Difficult and confusing".

Recommendations

The most frequent comments about improvements to the BCeID registration process were as follows:

- Ability to register online.
- Clearer instructions.
- More user friendly, but with the security.

PRODUCT ORDERING STAFF PERFORMANCE

81% of respondents rated the overall performance of your Product Ordering staff as Good or Excellent.

Staff courtesy, availability, responsiveness, listening ability, and clear communication had the highest Good to Excellent ratings, while those involving product knowledge and understanding of specific needs were rated slightly lower.

The Excellent ratings have increased in all 10 areas measured and these increases are all statistically significant. Corresponding to this increase on the positive end of the scale is a corresponding (and statistically significant) drop (improvement) in the Poor to Fair percentages.

79% of the respondents who place the majority of their orders at the Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre (Store 100) rated the Product Ordering staff as Good or Excellent, compared to 85% of those who place their orders at LDB Stores and 83% for Store 231.

It should be noted that Store 100 deals with larger volumes of Wholesale Customers and larger size accounts than Store 231 and LDB Stores – this would definitely have an impact on their ratings.

Recommendations

These are very nice increases in performance over the 2008 ratings and Product Ordering staff should be congratulated. Going forward, further improvements can still be made in terms of:

- Understanding specific customer needs
- Product knowledge
- Clarity of communication
- Consistency of service quality
- Response times

The most frequent comments about what the LDB could do to improve the Product Ordering process were as follows:

- Ability to let me know what is going to be shorted before the order arrives.
- Ability to return special order products if it has accidentally been ordered incorrectly.
- Alphabetical order on invoice. Also Wine, Liquor, Beer grouping on invoice.
- Expand the Product Search capability for broader cues – e.g. sometimes items will be named by producer, some by region, some by other means.

PRODUCT DELIVERY

76% of respondents rated the overall performance of your Product Delivery process as Good or Excellent.

As was found with the Product Ordering ratings, the Excellent ratings for Product Delivery have increased in all 9 areas that can be compared to 2008 and these increases are all statistically significant. Corresponding to this increase on the positive end of the scale is a corresponding (and statistically significant) drop (improvement) in the Poor to Fair percentages.

As was the case in 2008, your Product Order Delivery process received slightly higher ratings in the General Listings/Core Listings area compared to Wholesale Only Products.

Different from previous years, the larger accounts in 2010 were more satisfied with the Product Order Delivery process than the other accounts. 81% of Accounts >$2M offered Good to Excellent ratings as compared to 75% for Accounts $1M-$2M. Accounts <$500K offered ratings in the 71-73% range.

Hotels and Restaurants were more critical than the other industry groups measured, with overall ratings of 68% and 67%.

Recommendations

In terms of areas for the LDB to improve further – there is still room to get better and faster when responding to delivery issues.

PICK-UP & DELIVERY PREFERENCES

32% (51%-2008) of respondents personally pick-up their product orders at an LDB store.

As would be expected, smaller accounts pick-up their orders at an LDB store more so than larger accounts. 58% of the smaller licensee stores (account size <$100K) pick-up their order at another LDB store, compared to only 10% of the large accounts (account size $1M-$2M) and none of the accounts >$2M.

The remaining two-thirds of respondents are split quite evenly between delivery suppliers. 25% of respondents receive their order via a third party carrier. 22% receive it via the LDB Truck Fleet, and 21% arrange for a pick-up by a private carrier.

PRODUCT DELIVERY STAFF PERFORMANCE

81% of customers who have their order delivered offered Good to Excellent ratings for the overall performance of Product Delivery staff. At least 26% of respondents believe your performance is "Excellent" in all 10 areas measured.

As compared to 2008, the Excellent ratings have increased in all areas with the increase being significant in 3 of the areas. Correspondingly, the Poor to Fair percentages have decreased (improved) in all areas.

Respondents are most satisfied with your Product Delivery staff being friendly and courteous, readily available to serve their needs, and the quality of communication. At least 78% of respondents who have their order delivered rated these qualities as Good or Excellent.

Overall ratings of the Product Delivery staff ranged from a high of 93% Good or Excellent ratings for those who order through LDB stores, to 86% for Store 231, to 77% for those who order through Store 100.

In looking at this question with the responses split by how they have their product delivered, we found the following results: 88% of those who have their product delivered by Private Carrier (e.g. Spirit Lifters, Pemberton Freight, U-Need-A-Bottle, Liquid Assets) offered Good to Excellent ratings, as compared to 80% for the LDB Truck Fleet and 75% for 3rd Party Carriers (e.g. Van Kam, F & G, Commercial Logistics).

In looking at the different volumes handled by each of these different carriers we see that although Private Carriers received the highest Product Delivery ratings, they primarily deal with smaller orders from Restaurants. The LDB Truck Fleet and 3rd Party Carriers handle the majority of the larger orders, primarily from the LRS.

Recommendations

It would appear that staff are doing a very good job from an interpersonal perspective but need to further increase their understanding of the specific needs of Wholesale Customers.

Deliver on time and understand your specific needs had the highest percentage of Poor to Fair ratings.

The most frequent comments about what the LDB could do to improve the Product Delivery process were as follows:

- A courtesy call from the driver letting you know an approximate time of delivery or at least a half hour warning – seems to change each and every week – difficult to plan staff to handle the order.
- A call if there is going to be a long delay in delivery.
- Remove old pallets.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

87% of respondents offered a Good or Excellent rating for the overall performance of Administrative Services at the LDB, indicating a high level of satisfaction in this area. Only 1% rated you "Poor" for overall Administrative Services performance.

The LDB's performance in Administrative Services continues to be very well rated with statistically significant increases in the Excellent ratings for all 6 of the areas that can be compared to 2008.

5 of the 7 areas have at least 86% of respondents offering a rating of Good or Excellent.

Invoice accuracy and completeness remain the highest rated, followed closely by ease of understanding and usefulness/detail of invoices.

As was the case in 2008, your ability and responsiveness in handling and correcting problems received relatively lower ratings, with 8% of respondents offering Poor or Fair ratings in these areas.

Recommendations

In looking at areas to make further improvements, Administrative Services could continue to work on improving their ability to handle problems & requests and their responsiveness in correcting problems – although neither of these two areas are major concerns.

The most frequent comments about what the LDB could do to improve its invoicing process were as follows:

- Alphabetical order on invoice.
- Wine, Liquor, Beer grouping on invoices.
- Categorize invoices to something – current invoices appear to be random and difficult to enter into customer's system.
- Make the invoices more user friendly.
- Improvement in the speed and handling of returns/damaged product.

CUSTOMER SERVICE

82% of respondents offered a Good or Excellent in rating the overall performance of LDB Store staff. Only 6% gave a Poor or Fair rating for overall performance – down (improved) from the 14% found in 2008.

The Excellent ratings have increased (as compared to 2008) in all 13 areas with the increase being significant in all of the areas. Correspondingly, the Poor to Fair percentages have decreased (improved) in all areas.

The highest rated areas are: consistency of service quality; courtesy and friendliness of supervisors/managers; courtesy and friendliness of staff; and staff treating you with courtesy, with over 80% of respondents rating it as Good or Excellent.

The area which received the weakest rating was the store product supply. Only 61% of respondents offered ratings of Good or Excellent in this area. This characteristic, however, is only partially related to your staff's attitude towards customers and is more related to inventory control.

In looking at these results by Account Size, the >$2M accounts at 75% and the <$100K accounts at 71% offered the lowest Good to Excellent ratings, while the 3 account categories in-between ($1M-$2M, $500K-$1M, $100K-$500K) offered Good to Excellent ratings in the 82-85% range.

In looking at these results by Account Type, Restaurants at 79% offered the lowest Good to Excellent ratings while the other types (with the exception of Private Wine Stores) offered Good to Excellent ratings of 82% or higher. Private Wine Stores had a small sample of 9 and 5 of them gave you Good ratings; 2 gave you Neutral; and 2 gave you Fair.

Recommendations

In terms of areas to improve, they again appear to be operational areas as opposed to staff courtesy & attitude. Improving staff understanding of customers' specific needs is a training issue, while the store always being well stocked with customers' product preferences is both a business understanding issue and an inventory issue.

The most frequent comments about what the LDB could do to improve its service levels were as follows:

- Many very positive comments about their service experiences and a number of comments about perceived poor service or constantly shifting personnel.
- More comprehensive training programs for staff – both service and product knowledge.

ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE OR INFORMATION

78% of respondents are "Very Likely" to use information in regards to new listings/delistings and 75% for price changes. Less than 4% indicated they would be "Not at All Likely" to use information in either of those areas.

69% stated they would be "Very Likely" to use special product offerings restricted to LRS/licensee accounts only.

34-46% are "Very Likely" to use additional online and in-store product information provided by the LDB.

Respondents are least likely to use gift package offerings or customer service information.

Recommendations

From a development perspective, providing more information on price changes and new listings/delistings would be well received by at least ¾ of your Wholesale Customers.

COMPLAINT HANDLING

32% of respondents had a reason to complain about LDB service over the past 12 months. This has decreased from 41% in 2008 – even though this year's survey had a higher percentage of large accounts than in 2008 and they tend to be more critical in their ratings.

39% (59%-2008) of those who order through Store 100 had a reason to complain, compared to 23% (33%-2008) who order through LDB Stores.

Larger accounts showed a higher percentage of those who had a reason to complain (they are also more likely to use Store 100).

59% (69%-2008) of the 32% who had reason to complain (19% of total respondents) did actually take the time to complain to the LDB.

44% (59%-2008) of those who did complain were satisfied with how their complaint was handled.

This percentage has gone down since 2008, and the LDB should continue to strive to improve further, as complaint handling impacts the overall rating of the LDB's service.

Recommendations

Of the respondents who were not satisfied, most did not feel that the problem was solved or dealt with, while others were unhappy with the staff's attitude. Order inconsistencies and breakage/return issues were the most frequently mentioned.

The LDB should examine its complaint handling procedure to ensure that it has a component of follow-up and closure with the customer.

OVERALL SERVICE RATINGS

The LDB is meeting or exceeding customer expectations for 86% of its Wholesale Customers.

The LDB is currently exceeding expectations for 12% (10%-2008) of its customers, meeting expectations for 74% (68%-2008), and falling short for 14% (22%-2008).

These ratings reflect the improvements seen in all the functional areas measured – ordering, delivery, administrative, customer service.

Excellent ratings increased in all 6 areas over the 2008 results with 5 of the 6 increases being statistically significant.

The LDB appears to be doing a much better job in understanding the business needs of its Wholesale Customers as the Excellent ratings increased from 13% to 23%, while the Poor & Fair ratings decreased from 27% to 14%.

The same comment can be applied to understanding of customer requirements as the Excellent ratings increased from 14% to 23%, while the Poor & Fair ratings decreased from 25% to 16%.

Quality of service and attitude towards Wholesale Customers also received a nice increase in their ratings – impacted by the fact that your staff are doing a better job meeting the specific needs of customers and are not perceived as just functionally handling a transaction.

The weakest overall ratings remain your flexibility towards customers' requirements. The ratings have improved over 2008, but there are still 22% who find you Poor or Fair in this area. This is all part of the ongoing process of shifting from a process driven organization to a customer driven organization.

By ordering location, 71% of Store 100 customers offered Good to Excellent ratings for your overall performance, compared to 58% of Store 231 customers (note small sample of 12 respondents for this question) and 80% of LDB Store customers. The differing account sizes and customer volumes need to be taken into account when comparing the ratings between Store 100, 231 and LDB stores.

Recommendations

The most frequent comments about what one thing the LDB could do to better serve your business needs were as follows:

- Further improve accuracy and availability of orders.
- Allow LRS to compete for our business.
- Be more flexible.
- Improve and simplify the current policy for returning damaged products.
- Improved product knowledge.
- Improved packing invoicing.
- A number of positive comments about the impact of changes made over the last couple of years.
- A number of comments asking to be treated more like a customer and not a competitor.

COMMUNICATION

"Straight Up"

52% (up from 30% in 2008) of customers surveyed currently receive a copy of "Straight Up".

This figure is similar across all account sizes, business types, and ordering locations. Larger accounts and those ordering through Store 100 had slightly higher percentages.

Recommendations

LDB should look to increase the distribution of this publication to its Wholesale Customers.

The following suggestions will help to increase the relevance of the content to the Wholesale Customers:

- 84% of customers surveyed feel that articles on new product listings would be most beneficial to them.
- More than 2/3 would benefit from articles relating to top-selling SKUs or market trends.
- Special industry and financial data articles would be beneficial to only 40% and 26%, respectively.
- Interestingly, your larger accounts indicated a greater interest in top-selling SKUs and new product listings, both at 89%.

Email

79% of respondents would not object to the LDB sending information and updates by email from time to time. This increases to 87% for LRS customers.

Not surprisingly, your larger accounts are more willing and able to receive email updates than your smaller accounts. 86% of Accounts >$2M would allow the LDB to send information by email, compared to just 53% of Accounts <$100K. The fact that small companies may not have computers or internet access contributes to this lower percentage.

Recommendations

This openness to email info/updates by the majority of your Wholesale Customers gives the LDB another avenue to improve the frequency and quality of communication with its Wholesale Customers.

The LDB should consider putting together a program to proactively gather these emails. One thought would be to have the Order Desk ask for it or update it once a month when a customer places an order. That is an easy way to gather the addresses and keep them current.

KEY STAKEHOLDER INTERVIEWS

The Appendix of this report shows the text of Personal Interviews conducted with key LDB Wholesale Customer stakeholder groups. These interviews were conducted to learn more about each of these group's perceptions regarding the LDB and determine additional areas for the LDB to focus on to further serve the needs of these groups.

2.0 Product Ordering

This section looks at how your Wholesale Customers view your performance in a variety of Product Ordering areas, and provides their feedback on the Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre (Store 100).

Q.1 How would you rate the LDB's Product Ordering process in the following areas?

"↑" or "↓" denotes a statistically significant change from the previous period (assuming a 95% confidence level).

Table 1: Product Ordering

		Performance Ratings					Top Box Rating
	n	Poor	Fair	Neutral	Good	Excellent	Excellent 2010	Excellent 2008
Web online ordering	98	8%	5%	7%	31%	49%	49%	N/A
Electronic ordering via email	87	3%	5%	7%	43%	43%	43%	35%
Ability to take order correctly	359	3%	7%	8%	45%	37%	37% ↑	22%
Waiting time to place order - if ordering by phone	229	3%	9%	13%	43%	32%	32% ↑	16%
Waiting time to place order - if ordering in-person	141	4%	10%	15%	42%	30%	30%	31%
Availability of generally listed/core products	401	2%	9%	11%	52%	26%	26% ↑	13%
Availability of restricted/wholesale only products	372	11%	18%	23%	34%	13%	13% ↑	6%
Overall rating of Product Ordering process	374	1%	6%	14%	55%	24%	24% ↑	14%

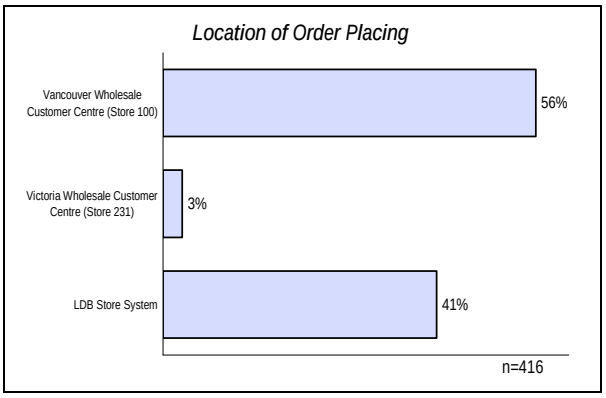
79% of those who commented rated the overall Product Ordering process as "Good" or "Excellent". Of particular note is the statistically significant increase in the Excellent ratings. They have increased from 14% in 2008 to 24% in 2010 for the overall rating of the Product Ordering process.

It is also interesting to note that the overall Fair and Poor ratings have decreased (improved) from 20% in 2008 to only 7% in 2010, another statistically significant improvement.

Other areas of the ordering process where the 2010 Excellent ratings have had a statistically significant improvement over the 2008 ratings are:

- Ability to take the order correctly
- Waiting time to place order – if ordering by phone
- Availability of generally listed/core products
- Availability of restricted/wholesale only products

The highest rated areas were: electronic ordering via email; your ability to take orders correctly; and web online ordering. At least 80% of respondents rated these areas a 4 or higher.



The lowest ratings were again the availability of restricted/wholesale only products with only 13% offering Excellent ratings, up, however, from only 6% in 2008. It is also important to note that the Poor & Fair ratings have improved substantially from 2008 with 29% offering Poor to Fair ratings in 2010 as compared to 45% in 2008. This is still an area where the LDB could work to improve its performance in letting customers know about out-of-stocks and what might be suitable replacement products.

Overall ratings of the Product Ordering process across the 5 different account sizes was reasonably similar for accounts >$500K (ranging from 83% Good to Excellent for >$2M accounts to 81% for those accounts $500K-$1M). The ratings then dropped to the 75-77% range for accounts <$500K.

Respondents who place the majority of their orders through Store 100 were the most positive about the Product Ordering process with 80% offering Good or Excellent ratings, compared to 70% for those who primarily order through Store 231 and 78% for those who primarily order through the LDB Store System.

By type of business, Restaurants gave slightly lower ratings with 65% offering a rating of Good or Excellent. All other business types offered Good or Excellent ratings of 80% or higher.

Q.2a Where do you place the majority of your orders?

56% (38%-2008) of customers surveyed place their orders at the Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre (Store 100). This is a statistically significant increase from the last period. 80% of them rated the overall product ordering process as Good or Excellent.

Another 3% (4%-2008) place their orders at the Victoria Wholesale Customer Centre (Store 231). 70% of them rated the overall product ordering process as Good or Excellent.

41% (57%-2008) continue to place their orders at the LDB stores. 78% of them rated the overall product ordering process as Good or Excellent.

Customers surveyed place their orders at a large number of LDB stores. These customers tend to be smaller revenue accounts as compared to those that order from Store 100 and 231.

As would be expected, as the account size increases, so does the percentage of ordering that occurs through either Store 100 or 231 as opposed to ordering through other LDB stores. 93% of those with accounts >$2M place their orders at Store 100 as compared to only 5% of those with >$2M who order through the LDB store system.

28% of those with accounts <$100K order through Store 100 while 72% order through the LDB store system.

Comparable:	Majority of Orders at Vancouver (Store 100)
2010:	56% ↑
2008:	38%

Q.2b How frequently do you create and place an order through the following locations?

Table 2: Frequency of Orders

	n	Frequency of Orders					At Least Weekly
		Daily	Twice a week	Weekly	Monthly	Rarely/ Never	2010	2008
Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre (Store 100)	233	0%	6%	89%	4%	0%	96%	99%
Victoria Wholesale Customer Centre (Store 231)	12	0%	17%	83%	0%	0%	100% ↑	92%
Other LDB Store (GLS)	170	1%	18%	71%	5%	6%	89%	94%

Of the 12 respondents who place their orders through Store 231, nearly all of them place their orders weekly.

Of the 170 respondents who place their orders through other LDB Stores, 71% of them place their orders weekly with a further 19% placing their orders twice a week or daily.

Q.3 If you normally order through Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre (Store 100) or Victoria Wholesale Customer Centre (Store 231), how often do you supplement your order through single bottle purchases at another LDB Store?

19% of respondents who normally order through Store 100 or 231 say that they never supplement their orders through single bottle purchases at another LDB Store, and another 57% say they seldom do it.

10% supplement their orders most or all of the time. This figure has decreased from 17% in 2008.

Those who do supplement their orders tend to be in the $1M-$2M category; the $500K-$1M category or, to a lesser extent, the <$100K category.

Comparable:	Supplement Orders Most/All of the Time
2010:	10%
2008:	17%

Q.4 How would you rate the Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre (Store 100) in the following areas?

Table 3: Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre

	n	Poor	Fair	Neutral	Good	Excellent	Excellent 2010	Excellent 2008
Clarity of invoice	265	2%	3%	8%	45%	42%	42% ↑	21%
Pallet Contents Report	231	5%	5%	17%	45%	28%	28% ↑	14%
Order Submission Report (out of stock, delisted items)	261	8%	10%	15%	40%	27%	27% ↑	10%
Non-stocked Wholesale Product Report	254	8%	12%	16%	39%	25%	25% ↑	9%
Overall rating of Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre	249	2%	3%	16%	52%	27%	27% ↑	12%

The Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre should be very pleased with its performance as there has been a noticeable improvement in the ratings for this year's survey as compared to 2008. Of particular note, is the fact that there has been a statistically significant increase in the ratings in all 5 categories.

27% of the respondents gave an Excellent overall rating of the Wholesale Customer Centre as compared to only 12% in 2008. As well, only 6% gave Poor or Fair overall ratings as compared to 27% in 2008.

Specifically, respondents are satisfied the most with your Pallet Contents Report and the clarity of your invoices.

Performance ratings are lowest for your Order Submission Report and your Non-stocked Wholesale Product Report, with 18-20% rating you as Poor or Fair in these 2 areas. These are areas for the LDB to continue to improve its performance.

Only 57% of Restaurants gave a rating of Good or Excellent, while other business types offered ratings of 75% or higher.

In terms of account size, 90% of Accounts >$2M rated the Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre as Good or Excellent, followed by Accounts $1M-$2M at 82%. The lowest rating of the Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre, at 65% Good or Excellent, came from Accounts <$100K.

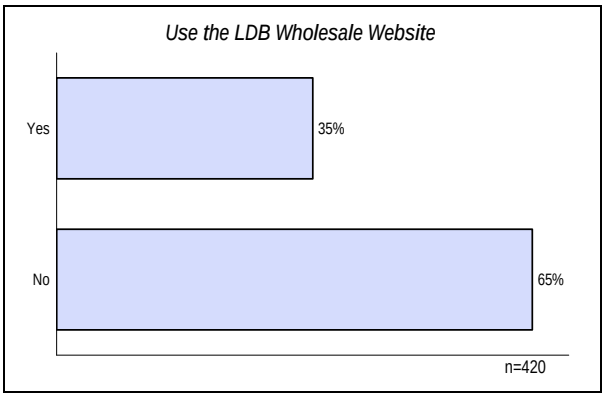
3.0 Wholesale Customer Website



This section measures usage, interest, and performance of your Wholesale Customer Website.

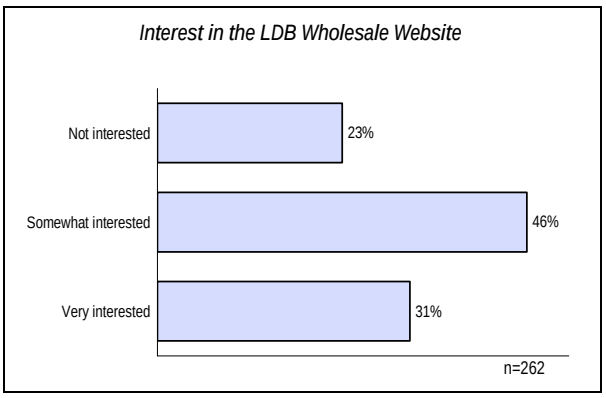
Q.5 Do you use the LDB Wholesale Website?
(www.ldbwholesale.com)

35% of customers indicated that they use the LDB Wholesale Website.

Private Wine Stores at 78%, Duty Free Stores at 67%, and LRS at 54% use the LDB Website more than any other type of customer. Hotels, at 13%, use the LDB Website the least.

Interestingly, 49% of customers who order through Store 100 use the LDB Website, while only 20% of those who order through other LDB stores use the LDB Website.

Q.6 If you do not use the LDB Wholesale Website, how interested are you in learning more about it?



31% of customers who do not use the LDB Wholesale Website are "Very interested" in learning more about it. 46% are "Somewhat interested" in learning more about it.

In total, 77% of customers who do not use the LDB Website are open to learning more about it. These customers should be informed about the broad variety of resources available on the LDB Website that would be beneficial to their business.

This level of interest provides the LDB with a great opportunity to increase its efforts to deal with its Wholesale customers through this channel. As will be seen later, those that use the Website and the Web Store are very satisfied with its usability and functionality.

23% are "Not interested at all" in learning more about the LDB Website.

82% of non-users who order through Store 100 are interested in learning more about the LDB Website, as compared to 70% of non-users who order through other LDB stores.

Q.7 If you currently use the LDB Wholesale Website, how do you rate the following areas of the website in terms of usefulness to your business?

Table 4: LDB Wholesale Website

		Performance Ratings
	n	Poor	Fair	Neutral	Good	Excellent
Monthly Price Change Report	134	2%	4%	13%	47%	34%
Stocked Wholesale Products Report	134	0%	8%	13%	52%	27%
LDB Wholesale Product Ordering Guidelines	120	1%	3%	23%	49%	23%
Straight Up Newsletter	115	1%	5%	24%	48%	22%
Quarterly Market Review	108	1%	4%	27%	48%	20%
Links to other sites	96	1%	8%	35%	38%	18%
Links to publications	99	0%	8%	32%	42%	17%
Overall rating of LDB Wholesale Website	136	1%	2%	15%	59%	24%

Overall, 82% of those who use the LDB Wholesale Website rated it a 4 or higher. Only 3% offered Poor or Fair ratings. Those that use the website are quite satisfied in all areas measured.

These results are particularly pleasing as expectation levels for websites are very high given what respondents experience daily with websites such as Amazon, Dell, etc. Although these are obviously different businesses from the LDB, comparisons against other websites are inevitable, and these ratings are very positive.

Specifically, LDB Website users are satisfied the most with your Monthly Price Change Report and Stocked Wholesale Products Report. Ratings then drop down slightly for the LDB Wholesale Product Ordering Guidelines, Straight Up Newsletter and Quarterly Market Review.

Performance ratings are lowest for links to other sites and links to other publications – less relevant to their business directly than the other items measured.

Only 50% of Restaurants who use the LDB Website gave it a rating of Good or Excellent, while other business types offered ratings of 80% or higher.

In terms of Account size, 88% of Accounts >$2M rated the LDB Website as Good or Excellent, with Accounts $500K-$1M the lowest at 71% Good or Excellent.

The LDB could further increase these ratings by making additional refinements to the site to make the information and topics even more relevant to the specific needs of its Wholesale customers.

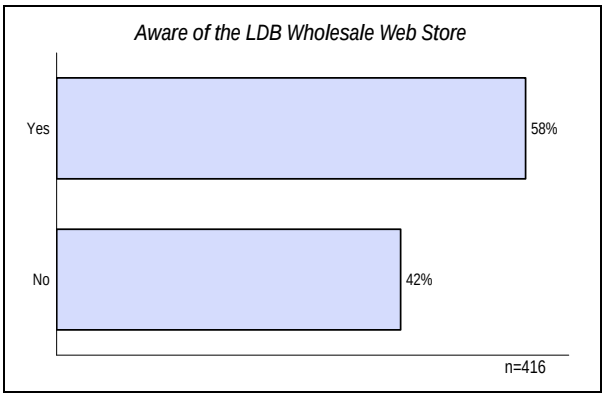
4.0 Wholesale Customer Web Store

This section measures the awareness of, and interest in, your Wholesale Customer Web Store. It provides ratings for various aspects of your Web Store, as well as suggestions for other services or improvements.



This section also evaluates the BCeID registration process – how many customers are already registered, the ease or difficulty of registering, and ways to improve the registration process.

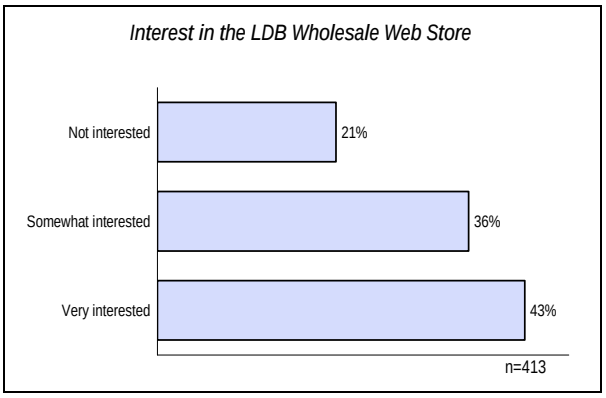
Q.8 Are you aware of the LDB Wholesale Web Store?

58% of respondents indicated that they are aware of the LDB Wholesale Web Store. This still leaves 42% who are not aware and the LDB should focus its efforts to increase awareness of this well rated and very effective channel.

Private Wine Stores, at 100%, are more aware of the LDB Web Store than any other type of customer. Hotels, at 36%, and Restaurants, at 37%, are the least aware of LDB Web Store.

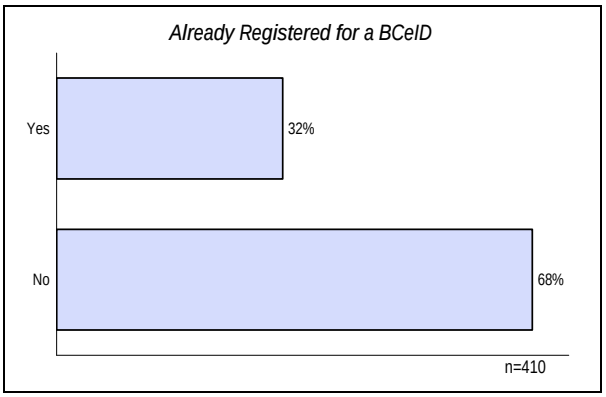
Interestingly, 71% of customers who order through Store 100 are aware of the LDB Web Store, as compared to 41% who order through other LDB stores are aware of the LDB Web Store.

Q.9 How interested are you in using the LDB Wholesale Web Store?



43% of respondents are "Very interested" in using the LDB Wholesale Web Store to order their products. 36% are "Somewhat interested" in using the LDB Web Store.

In total, 79% of customers are willing to use the LDB Web Store. This indicates a great opportunity for the LDB to expand the scope and range of the Web Store as there is clearly demand for this channel.



The LDB should focus on which groups or types of customers it would like to attract next to the Web Store so that the transition between channels and volume shifts are smooth and manageable for the LDB.

Only 21% are "Not interested at all" in using the LDB Web Store.

86% of those who order through Store 100 are interested in using the LDB Web Store as compared to 69% of respondents who order through other LDB stores.

Q.10 To use the LDB Wholesale Web Store you need to register for a BCeID. BCeID is an online service that makes it possible for you to use your user ID and password to sign in securely to BCeID participating Government Online Services – such as the LDB Wholesale Web Store. Are you already registered?

32% of customers have registered for a BCeID.

LRS and Private Wine Stores have the highest percentage who are already registered for a BCeID.

55% of customers with Accounts >$2M have already registered for a BCeID, but only 25% of those with Accounts <$500K have registered.

39% of customers who order through Store 100 have registered for a BCeID, while only 23% of those who order through other LDB stores have registered. This is consistent with the fact that Store 100 deals with more of the larger accounts and they are more interested in the Web Store than the smaller accounts.

64% of customers who are interested in using the LDB Wholesale Web Store are not registered for a BCeID. These customers should be told about the BCeID registration process so that they can access the LDB Web Store.

Q.11a Please rate your level of interest for each area of the LDB Wholesale Web Store listed below.

Table 5: Interest in the LDB Wholesale Web Store

	n	Level of Interest			Total Interested
		Not at All Interested	Somewhat Interested	Very Interested
Ability to search LDB Wholesale Product Catalogue	410	9%	27%	64%	91%
Track the status of your order	407	18%	29%	53%	82%
Ability to order online 24 hours a day, 7 days a week	409	18%	32%	50%	82%
Save your shopping list	408	24%	28%	48%	76%
Upload large orders via CSV files	404	40%	32%	27%	60%

Interest is above 80% for 3 of the 5 areas measured. The highest level of interest, at 91%, is in the ability to search the LDB Wholesale Product Catalogue. This is followed by the ability to track the status of an order and the ability to order online, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, both with 82% levels of interest.

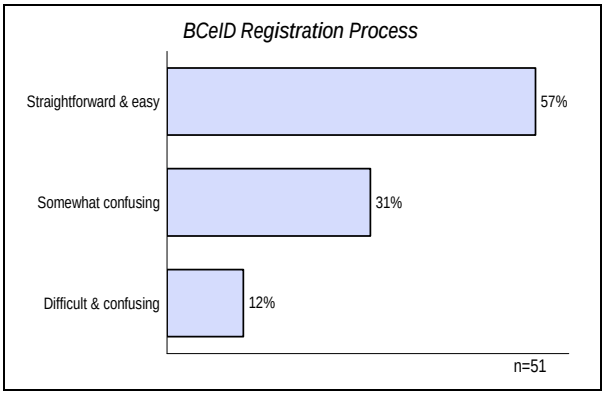
Just over ¾ are interested in the ability to save their shopping list, while 60% want the ability to upload large orders via CSV files. These features would be of more interest to the large accounts as compared to the first 3 items, which would be of interest to all account sizes.

Q.11b What other service would you like to have provided through the Wholesale Web Store?

The most frequent comments about another service that should be provided through the Wholesale Web Store were as follows:

- Ability to track liquor loads to be able to tell what time of the day it will be arriving.
- Ability to be prompted at the beginning of online order for case lot.
- Ability to search products to see who distributor is and the ability to check Container World for quantity on hand and ETA of next shipment so I can tell if a product is temporarily out of stock or if it has been delisted.
- Ability of product including the stock levels/cases available of the product at time of ordering.
- Make ENTER the button you need to press to switch fields instead of TAB.
- Remove time outs.
- Ability to create a personal catalogue, somewhat like the saved shopping list option, where all that has to be entered is quantities.
- Ability to switch all items in the shopping cart to Case lot at one time instead of having to select each item one at a time and change the unit from bottle to case.
- Ability to save an order guide for future ordering.
- Ability to view your invoice and have it organized by liquor, wine and beer, with subtotals after each category so allocating costs is easier.

Verbatim comments for this question can be found in the Appendix to this report.



Note: The remaining questions in this section (Question 12 through Question 16) only appeared in the online survey version and were only asked to current users of the Wholesale Web Store – approximately 52 respondents for these questions).

Q.12 How did you find the registration process for your BCeID?

57% of customers who use the LDB Wholesale Web Store found the BCeID registration process "Straightforward and easy", 31% found it "Somewhat confusing", and 12% thought it was "Difficult and confusing".

In total, 43% of those who use the LDB Web Store thought that registering for their BCeID was confusing.

Improvements to the areas listed in the verbatims below will improve these registration ratings.

Q.13 Please explain.

Customers who use the LDB Wholesale Web Store were asked to provide further details about the BCeID registration process. There was a mixture of both positive and negative comments:

- Easy directions, hard to make mistakes.
- It seemed confusing and time consuming.

Verbatim comments for this question can be found in the Appendix to this report.

Q.14 What improvements would you suggest to the BCeID registration process?

The most frequent comments about improvements to the BCeID registration process were as follows:

- Ability to register online.
- Clearer instructions.
- More user friendly, but with the security.

Verbatim comments for this question can be found in the Appendix to this report.

Q.15 How would you rate the Wholesale Web Store in the following areas?

Table 6: Wholesale Web Store

		Performance Ratings
	n	Poor	Fair	Neutral	Good	Excellent
Ability to order online 24 hours a day, 7 days a week	51	0%	0%	8%	14%	78%
Ability to upload large orders via CSV files	39	5%	3%	8%	26%	59%
Ease of checkout	50	4%	8%	0%	34%	54%
Ability to search LDB Wholesale Product Catalogue	51	2%	4%	6%	35%	53%
Ability to track the status of your order	47	0%	0%	17%	36%	47%
Top selling product reports	47	4%	2%	13%	36%	45%

Overall rating of Wholesale Web Store	48	2%	4%	6%	38%	50%

The Web Store appears to be a success with over 88% of the initial group who use the LDB Wholesale Web Store rating it Good or Excellent.

Of particular note are the following areas:

- Ability to order online 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – 92% Good to Excellent ratings.
- Ability to search LDB Wholesale Product Catalogue – 88% Good to Excellent ratings.
- Ease of checkout – 88% Good to Excellent ratings.
- Ability to save your shopping list – 85% Good to Excellent ratings.
- Ability to upload large orders via CSV files – 85% Good to Excellent ratings.
- Ability to track the status of your order – 83% Good to Excellent ratings.

Market trend reports, new product listings/discontinued product report, and top selling product reports were rated slightly lower than those above. If these reports were tailored further to make them more specific to certain sectors or segments, the ratings would likely increase further.

The majority of the Web Store users are LRS accounts and all sales categories offered ratings of 85% or higher in terms of Good to Excellent ratings.

Q.16 What could the LDB do to improve the Wholesale Web Store for you?

The most frequent comments about what the LDB could do to improve the Wholesale Web Store were as follows:

- A way to be able to show what is coming into Container World and ETA on back ordered Wholesale Products.
- Increase the time-out period to a bit longer – often get called away and have to start all over again.
- Be able to push ENTER instead of TAB to go to the next line when entering an order.
- Make the columns Bottle and Case easier to read – confusion can lead to wrong amount ordered.
- Improve the Search function – e.g. products are only shown as available if there has been activity in the last 30 days – even when they may be available but haven't been bought in the last 30 days.

Verbatim comments for this question can be found in the Appendix to this report.

5.0 Product Ordering Staff

This section looks at how your Wholesale Customers view your Product Ordering Staff's performance in a variety of areas, and provides their suggestions for improving the Product Ordering process.

Q.17 How would you rate the LDB's Product Ordering Staff's performance in the following areas?

Table 7: Product Ordering – Staff Performance

		Performance Ratings					Top Box Rating
	n	Poor	Fair	Neutral	Good	Excellent	Excellent 2010	Excellent 2008
Courtesy and friendliness	400	3%	4%	10%	34%	49%	49% ↑	33%

The first thing to notice when reviewing these results is the fact that the Excellent ratings have increased in all 10 areas measured and these increases are all statistically significant. Corresponding to this increase on the positive end of the scale is a corresponding (and statistically significant) drop (improvement) in the Poor to Fair percentages.

81% of respondents rated the overall performance of your Product Ordering staff as Good or Excellent.

Staff courtesy, availability, responsiveness, listening ability, and clear communication had the highest Good to Excellent ratings while those involving product knowledge and understanding of specific needs were rated slightly lower.

79% of the respondents who place the majority of their orders at the Vancouver Wholesale Customer Centre (Store 100) rated the Product Ordering staff as Good or Excellent compared to 85% of those who place their orders at LDB Stores and 83% for Store 231.

It should be noted that Store 100 deals with larger volumes of Wholesale Customers and larger size accounts than Store 231 and LDB Stores – this would definitely have an impact on their ratings.

Hotels, LRS and RAS respondents were the most positive with 85-86% offering Good to Excellent ratings. Restaurants at 72% offered the lowest ratings.

Accounts >$1M were the most positive with 84-86% offering Good to Excellent ratings, while Accounts $500K-$1M were the least positive with 77% offering Good to Excellent ratings.

These are very nice increases in performance over the 2008 ratings and Product Ordering staff should be congratulated. Going forward, further improvements can still be made in terms of:

- Understanding specific customer needs
- Product knowledge
- Clarity of communication
- Consistency of service quality
- Response times

Q.18 What could the LDB do to improve its Product Ordering process for you?

The most frequent comments about what the LDB could do to improve the Product Ordering process were as follows:

- Ability to let me know what is going to be shorted before the order arrives.
- Ability to return special order products if it has accidentally been ordered incorrectly.
- Alphabetical order on invoice. Also Wine, Liquor, Beer grouping on invoice.
- Expand the Product Search capability for broader cues – e.g. sometimes items will be named by producer, some by region, some by other means.
- Shorten the length of time from order placed to delivery at my door.
- Continue to improve and expand online ordering.

Q.19 How would you rate the LDB's Product Order Delivery process in the following areas?

Table 8: Product Order Delivery

As was found with the Product Ordering ratings, the Excellent ratings for Product Delivery have increased in all 9 areas that can be compared to 2008 and these increases are all statistically significant. Corresponding to this increase on the positive end of the scale is a corresponding (and statistically significant) drop (improvement) in the Poor to Fair percentages.

76% of respondents rated the overall performance of your Product Delivery process as Good or Excellent.

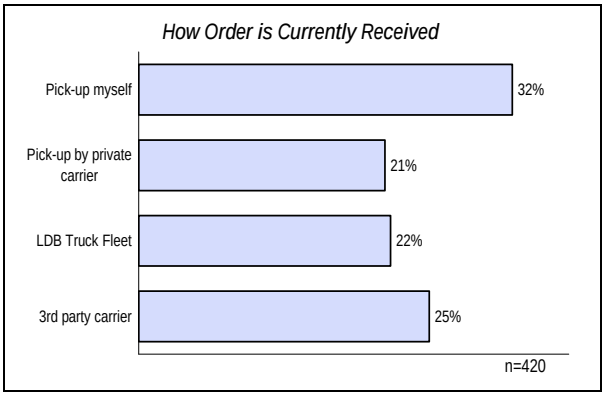
As was the case in 2008, your Product Order Delivery process received slightly higher ratings in the General Listings/Core Listings area compared to Wholesale Only Products.

- Ratings for providing complete and accurate orders remained the highest with at least 84% of those who commented offering ratings of Good or Excellent for General Listings. This dropped to 76% for Wholesale Only Products.
- 80% of respondents rated timeliness in order delivery as Good or Excellent in terms of General Listings and 69% for Wholesale Only Products.

77% of respondents who order primarily through Store 100 are satisfied with your overall product delivery performance, compared to 76% of those who place the majority of their orders through LDB Stores.

Different from previous years, the larger accounts in 2010 were more satisfied with the Product Order Delivery process than the other accounts. 81% of Accounts >$2M offered Good to Excellent ratings as compared to 75% for Accounts $1M-$2M. Accounts <$500K offered ratings in the 71-73% range.

Hotels and Restaurants were more critical than the other industry groups measured, with overall ratings of 68% and 67%.



In terms of areas for the LDB to improve further – there is still room to get better and faster when responding to delivery issues.

Q.20 How do you currently receive your order?

32% (51%-2008) of respondents personally pick-up their product orders at an LDB store.

As would be expected, smaller accounts pick-up their orders at an LDB store more so than larger accounts. 58% of the smaller licensee stores (account size <$100K) pick-up their order at another LDB store, compared to only 10% of the large accounts (account size $1M-$2M) and none of the accounts >$2M.

The remaining two-thirds of respondents are split quite evenly between delivery suppliers. 25% of respondents receive their order via a third party carrier. 22% receive it via the LDB Truck Fleet, and 21% arrange for a pick-up by a private carrier.

Q.21 How would you rate the Product Delivery Staff's performance in the following areas?

Table 9: Product Delivery – Staff Performance

	n	Poor	Fair	Neutral	Good	Excellent	Excellent 2010	Excellent 2008

As compared to 2008, the Excellent ratings have increased in all 9 areas with the increase being significant in 3 of the areas. Correspondingly, the Poor to Fair percentages have decreased (improved) in all areas.

81% of customers who have their order delivered offered Good to Excellent ratings for the overall performance of Product Delivery staff. At least 26% of respondents believe your performance is "Excellent" in all 10 areas listed above.

Respondents are most satisfied with your Product Delivery staff being friendly and courteous, readily available to serve their needs, and the quality of communication. At least 78% of respondents who have their order delivered rated these qualities as Good or Excellent.

Deliver on time and understand your specific needs had the highest percentage of Poor to Fair ratings.

It would appear that staff are doing a very good job from an interpersonal perspective but need to further increase their understanding of the specific needs of Wholesale Customers.

Overall ratings of the Product Delivery staff ranged from a high of 93% Good or Excellent ratings for those who order through LDB stores, to 86% for Store 231, to 77% for those who order through Store 100.

By account size, they varied from a high of 88% Good to Excellent for Accounts <$100K to a low of 72% for Accounts >$2M.

From a business type perspective, they ranged from a high of 93% Good to Excellent for Hotels to a low of 71% for Nightclubs.

In looking at this question with the responses split by how they have their product delivered, we found the following results: 88% of those who have their product delivered by Private Carrier (e.g. Spirit Lifters, Pemberton Freight, U-Need-A-Bottle, Liquid Assets) offered Good to Excellent ratings, as compared to 80% for the LDB Truck Fleet and 75% for 3rd Party Carriers (e.g. Van Kam, F & G, Commercial Logistics).

In looking at the different volumes handled by each of these different carriers we see that although Private Carriers received the highest Product Delivery ratings, they primarily deal with smaller orders from Restaurants. The LDB Truck Fleet and 3rd Party Carriers handle the majority of the larger orders, primarily from the LRS.

Q.22 What else could the LDB do to improve its Product Delivery process for you?

The most frequent comments about what the LDB could do to improve the Product Delivery process were as follows:

- A courtesy call from the driver letting you know an approximate time of delivery or at least a half hour warning – seems to change each and every week – difficult to plan staff to handle the order.
- A call if there is going to be a long delay in delivery.
- Remove old pallets.

7.0 Administrative Services

This section provides a rating of how your Wholesale Customers view your performance in a variety of Administrative Services areas, and provides their suggestions for improving the invoicing process.

Q.23 How would you rate the LDB's Invoicing Process in the following areas?

Table 10: Invoicing Process

		Performance Ratings					Top Box Rating
	n	Poor	Fair	Neutral	Good	Excellent	Excellent 2010	Excellent 2008
Completeness of invoices	416	0%	2%	5%	43%	49%	49%	N/A

Overall rating of Administrative Services performance	400	1%	3%	10%	45%	42%	42% ↑	23%

The LDB's performance in Administrative Services continues to be very well rated, with statistically significant increases in the Excellent ratings for all 6 of the areas that can be compared to 2008.

5 of the 7 areas have at least 86% of respondents offering a rating of Good or Excellent.

Invoice accuracy and completeness remain the highest rated, followed closely by ease of understanding and usefulness/detail of invoices.

As was the case in 2008, your ability and responsiveness in handling and correcting problems received relatively lower ratings, with 8% of respondents offering Poor or Fair ratings in these areas.

87% of respondents offered a Good or Excellent rating for the overall performance of Administrative Services at the LDB, indicating a high level of satisfaction in this area. Only 1% rated you "Poor" for overall Administrative Services performance.

In looking at areas to make further improvements, Administrative Services could continue to work on improving their ability to handle problems & requests and their responsiveness in correcting problems – although neither of these two areas are major concerns.

Q.24 What else could the LDB do to improve its invoicing process for you?

The most frequent comments about what the LDB could do to improve its invoicing process were as follows:

- Alphabetical order on invoice.
- Wine, Liquor, Beer grouping on invoices.
- Categorize invoices to something – current invoices appear to be random and difficult to enter into customer's system.
- Make the invoices more user friendly.
- Improvement in the speed and handling of returns/damaged product.

Q.25 How would you rate the LDB's Customer Service performance in the following areas? Please rate the outlet where you place the majority of your orders.

"↑" or "↓" denotes a statistically significant change from the previous period (assuming a 95% confidence level).

Table 11: LDB Customer Service Performance

		Performance Ratings					Top Box Rating

Always well stocked with your product preferences	412	2%	14%	22%	43%	18%	18% ↑	9%
Overall performance of LDB staff	398	2%	4%	12%	43%	39%	39% ↑	23%

As seen in other areas of the survey results, the Excellent ratings have increased (as compared to 2008) in all 13 areas with the increase being significant in all of the areas. Correspondingly, the Poor to Fair percentages have decreased (improved) in all areas.

The highest rated areas are: consistency of service quality; courtesy and friendliness of supervisors/managers; courtesy and friendliness of staff; and staff treating you with courtesy, with over 80% of respondents rating these as Good or Excellent.

In 7 of the remaining areas, at least 75% of respondents offered Good or Excellent ratings.

The area which received the weakest rating was the store product supply. Only 61% of respondents offered ratings of Good or Excellent in this area. This characteristic, however, is only partially related to your staff's attitude towards customers and is more related to inventory control.

82% of respondents offered a Good or Excellent in rating the overall performance of LDB store staff. Only 6% gave a Poor or Fair rating for overall performance – down (improved) from the 14% found in 2008.

In looking at these results by Account Size, the >$2M accounts at 75% and the <$100K accounts at 71% offered the lowest Good to Excellent ratings, while the 3 account categories in-between ($1M-$2M, $500K-$1M, $100K-$500K) offered Good to Excellent ratings in the 82-85% range.

In looking at these results by Account Type, Restaurants at 79% offered the lowest Good to Excellent ratings while the other types (with the exception of Private Wine Stores) offered Good to Excellent ratings of 82% or higher. Private Wine Stores had a small sample of 9 and 5 of them gave you Good ratings; 2 gave you Neutral; and 2 gave you Fair.

In terms of areas to improve, they again appear to be operational areas as opposed to staff courtesy & attitude. Improving staff understanding of customers' specific needs is a training issue, while the store always being well stocked with customers' product preferences is both a business understanding issue and an inventory issue.

Q.26 What else could the LDB do to improve its service levels for you?

The most frequent comments about what the LDB could do to improve its service levels were as follows:

- Many very positive comments about their service experiences and a number of comments about perceived poor service or constantly shifting personnel.
- Would like equal opportunity for product sales and ordering for BC releases – e.g. perception that Oculus is released to GLS's 3 weeks before LRS's.
- Allow them to deal with LRS for orders.
- Clarify what can be returned and the process for doing so.
- More comprehensive training programs for staff – both service and product knowledge.

Verbatim comments for this question can be found in the Appendix to this report.

9.0 Additional Assistance or Information

This section looks at your Wholesale Customers' interest in additional assistance or information provided by the LDB.

Q.27 If the LDB were to provide assistance or information about the areas listed below, how likely would you be to use this assistance or information?

"↑" or "↓" denotes a statistically significant change from the previous period (assuming a 95% confidence level).

Table 12: Likelihood of Using Assistance or Information

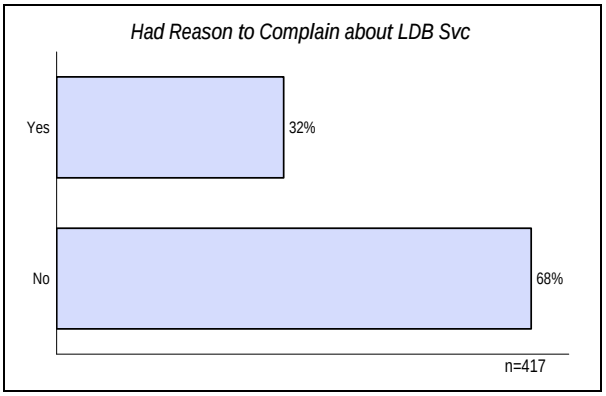
		Likely to Use			Total Likely
	n	Not at All Likely	Somewhat Likely	Very Likely	2010	2008
New listings/delistings	422	2%	20%	78%	98%	97%
Price changes	421	4%	21%	75%	96%	97%
Special product offerings restricted to LRS/licensee accounts only	415	6%	25%	69%	94%	90%
Additional in-store product information	422	14%	52%	34%	86%	87%
Additional on-line product information	421	16%	38%	46%	84%	87%
Customer service information	421	17%	58%	25%	83%	86%
Gift package offerings	420	34%	34%	32%	66%	66%

78% of respondents are "Very Likely" to use information in regards to new listings/delistings and 75% for price changes. Less than 4% indicated they would be "Not at All Likely" to use information in either of those areas.

69% stated they would be "Very Likely" to use special product offerings restricted to LRS/licensee accounts only.

34-46% are "Very Likely" to use additional online and in-store product information provided by the LDB.

Respondents are least likely to use gift package offerings or customer service information.



From a development perspective, providing more information on price changes and new listings/delistings would be well received by at least ¾ of your Wholesale Customers.

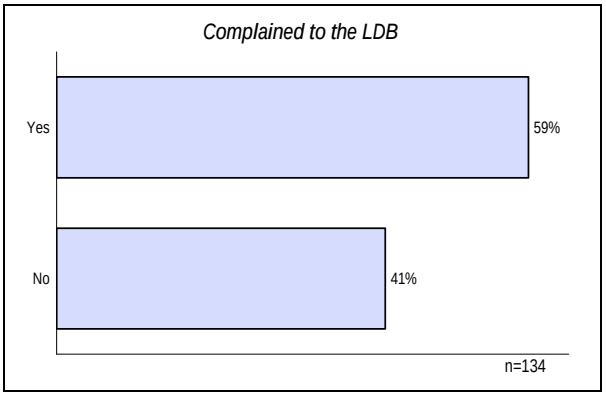
10.0 Complaint Handling

The charts in this section show the percentage of customers with complaints, the percentage of customers who did complain and whether the complaint was handled to the customers' satisfaction.

Q.28 Over the past 12 months has the LDB given you any reason to complain about their service?

32% of respondents had a reason to complain about LDB service over the past 12 months. This has decreased from 41% in 2008 – even though this year's survey had a higher percentage of large accounts than in 2008 and they tend to be more critical in their ratings.



39% (59%-2008) of those who order through Store 100 had a reason to complain, compared to 23% (33%-2008) who order through LDB Stores.

Larger accounts showed a higher percentage of those who had a reason to complain (they are also more likely to use Store 100).

Restaurants at 41% and LRS at 38% had the highest percentage of those who had a reason to complain, while RAS was lowest at 11%. 5 out of the 9 Private Wine Store respondents said they had a reason to complain.

Comparable:	Had a Reason to Complain
2010:	32% ↓
2008:	41%

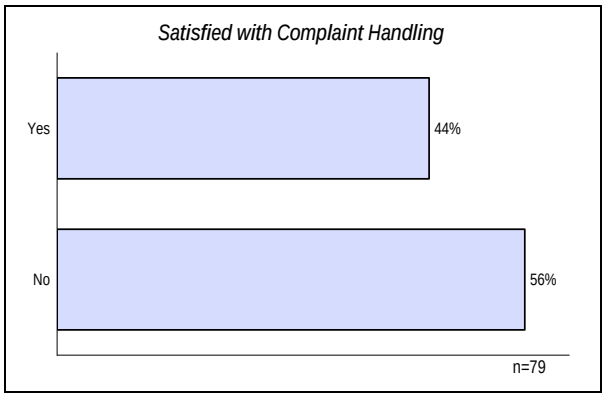
Q.29a If Yes, did you complain to the LDB?

59% (69%-2008) of the 32% who had reason to complain (19% of total respondents) did actually take the time to complain to the LDB.

Comparable:	Complained to the LDB
2010:	59%
2008:	69%

Q.29b If No, why didn't you complain?

Similar to the findings in 2008, of those who did not complain, some did not feel that complaining would make any difference; others were not sure where to go to complain; and others were not comfortable in complaining – perceiving they would receive even worse service for doing so.



Verbatim comments for this question can be found in the Appendix to this report.

Q.30a If Yes, was your complaint handled to your satisfaction?

44% (59%-2008) of those who did complain were satisfied with how their complaint was handled.

This percentage has gone down since 2008, and the LDB should continue to strive to improve further, as complaint handling impacts the overall rating of the LDB's service.

Comparable:	Satisfied with Complaint Handling
2010:	44%
2008:	59%

Q.30b If No, please explain.

Of the respondents who were not satisfied, most did not feel that the problem was solved or dealt with, while others were unhappy with the staff's attitude. Order inconsistencies and breakage/return issues were the most frequently mentioned.

The LDB should examine its complaint handling procedure to ensure that it has a component of follow-up and closure with the customer.

Verbatim comments for this question can be found in the Appendix to this report.

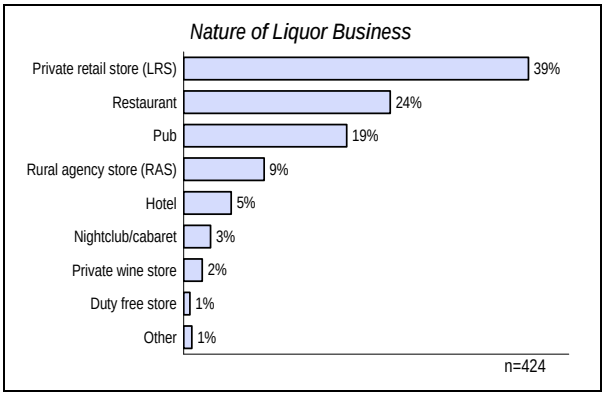
11.0 Overall Service Ratings

The charts in this section show the overall service ratings of your customers. A breakdown of the type of respondents is also included in this section.



Q.31 What is the nature of your primary liquor business?

The mix of respondent businesses is similar to 2008 with a couple of exceptions:

- LRS response percentage has increased.
- Hotel & RAS response percentage has decreased.

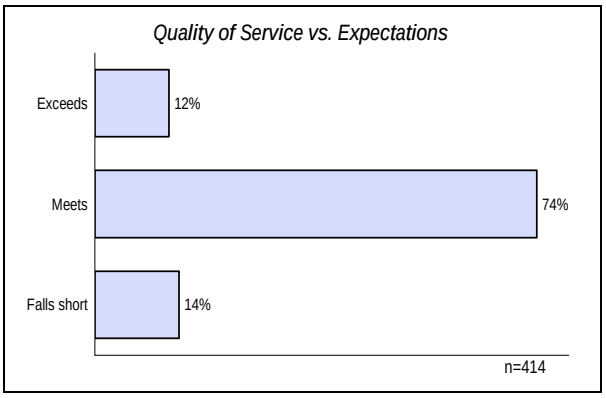
LRS make up 39% of the sample, while Restaurants make up 24%, and Pubs make up 19% of the sample.

The next most frequent respondents were RAS at 9% and Hotels at 5%.

Q.33 Does the quality of service provided by the LDB exceed, meet, or fall short of your expectations?

The LDB is meeting or exceeding customer expectations for 86% of its Wholesale Customers.

The LDB is currently exceeding expectations for 12% (10%-2008) of its customers, meeting expectations for 74% (68%-2008), and falling short for 14% (22%-2008).



These ratings reflect the improvements seen in all the functional areas measured – ordering, delivery, administrative, customer service.

12% of customers who order through Store 100 feel the LDB's service exceeds their expectations, compared to 14% for those who order through LDB Stores.

Accounts >$2M and $1M-$2M have Exceed ratings of 14% and 13%, respectively, compared to 17% for Accounts <$100K.

Nightclubs have the highest Exceed ratings at 25%, with the other account types in the 9-14% Exceed range.

Comparable:	LDB Service Falls Short of Expectations
2010:	14% ↓
2008:	22%

Q.34 How do you rate the LDB's Overall Performance in the following areas?

"↑" or "↓" denotes a statistically significant change from the previous period (assuming a 95% confidence level).

Table 13: Overall Performance

		Performance Ratings					Top Box Rating
	n	Poor	Fair	Neutral	Good	Excellent	Excellent 2010	Excellent 2008
Quality of service	417	3%	9%	10%	43%	35%	35% ↑	20%
Attitude towards Wholesale Business Customers	394	8%	9%	12%	41%	29%	29% ↑	19%
Understanding of your business	415	7%	7%	16%	47%	23%	23% ↑	13%
Understanding of your requirements	416	7%	9%	16%	45%	23%	23% ↑	14%
Flexibility to your requirements	415	11%	11%	14%	42%	21%	21%	17%
Overall Performance	393	4%	8%	13%	48%	26%	26% ↑	18%

Excellent ratings increased in all 6 areas over the 2008 results with 5 of the 6 increases being statistically significant.

The LDB appears to be doing a much better job in understanding the business needs of its Wholesale Customers as the Excellent ratings increased from 13% to 23%, while the Poor & Fair ratings decreased from 27% to 14%.

The same comment can be applied to understanding of customer requirements as the Excellent ratings increased from 14% to 23%, while the Poor & Fair ratings decreased from 25% to 16%.

Quality of service and attitude towards Wholesale Customers also received a nice increase in their ratings – impacted by the fact that your staff are doing a better job meeting the specific needs of customers and are not perceived as just functionally handling a transaction.

The weakest overall ratings remain your flexibility towards customers' requirements. The ratings have improved over 2008, but there are still 22% who find you Poor or Fair in this area. This is all part of the ongoing process of shifting from a process driven organization to a customer driven organization.

Overall, 74% of respondents rated your performance as Good or Excellent, with the Excellent ratings increasing from 18% in 2008 to 26% this year.

By ordering location, 71% of Store 100 customers offered Good to Excellent ratings for your overall performance, compared to 58% of Store 231 customers (note small sample of 12 respondents for this question) and 80% of LDB Store customers. The differing account sizes and customer volumes need to be taken into account when comparing the ratings between Store 100, Store 231, and LDB Stores.

By Account Type, the Good to Excellent ratings ranged from 63% for Restaurants, to a high of 80-81% for Hotels and Pubs. LRS were at 76%. 4 of the 8 Private Wine Store respondents offered Good ratings while the other 4 were split between Poor, Fair, and Neutral.

By Account Size, the Good to Excellent ratings ranged from 65-67% for Accounts >$2M & Accounts $500K-$1M, respectively, to a high of 82% for Accounts $1M-$2M.

Q.35 What one thing would you like to see the LDB do to better serve your business needs?

The most frequent comments about what one thing the LDB could do to better serve your business needs were as follows:

- Further improve accuracy and availability of orders.
- Allow LRS's to compete for our business.
- Be more flexible.
- Improve and simplify the current policy for returning damaged products.
- Improved product knowledge.
- Improved packing invoicing.
- A number of positive comments about the impact of changes made over the last couple of years.
- A number of comments asking to be treated more like a customer and not a competitor.

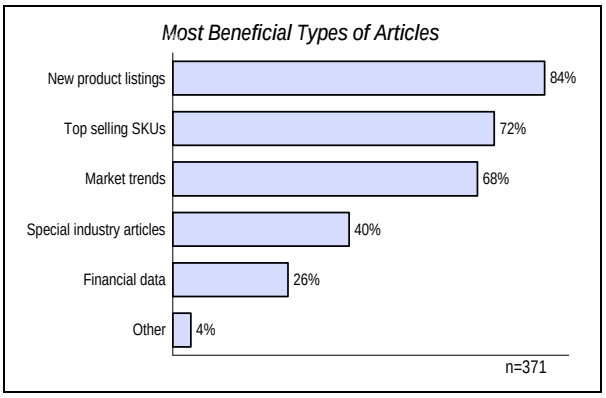
12.0 Communication

This section provides the percentage of customers who currently receive a copy of “Straight Up”, which types of articles would be most beneficial to them, and the percentage of customers who are willing to communicate via email.

Q.36 Do you currently receive a copy of the Wholesale Customer communication called "Straight Up"?



52% (up from 30% in 2008) of customers surveyed currently receive a copy of "Straight Up".

This figure is similar across all account sizes, business types, and ordering locations. Larger accounts and those ordering through Store 100 had slightly higher percentages.

LDB should look to increase the distribution of this publication to its Wholesale Customers. The suggestions listed below will help to increase the relevance of the content to the Wholesale Customers.

Comparable:	Currently Receive "Straight Up"
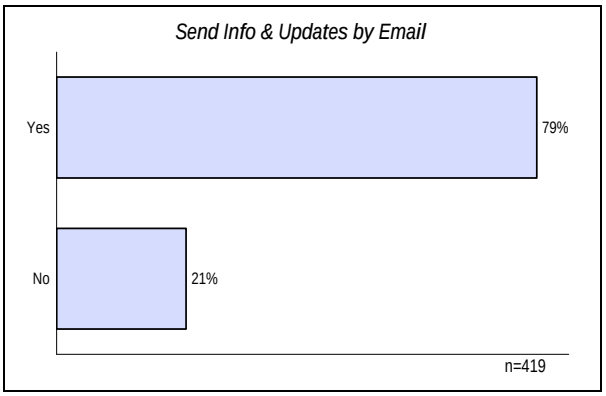
2008:	30%

Q.37 What type of articles are most beneficial to you as our customer?

Respondents were allowed to select multiple answer categories.

84% of customers surveyed feel that articles on new product listings would be most beneficial to them.



More than 2/3 would benefit from articles relating to top-selling SKUs or market trends.

Special industry and financial data articles would be beneficial to only 40% and 26%, respectively.

Interestingly, your larger accounts indicated a greater interest in top-selling SKUs and new product listings, both at 89%.

Q.38 The LDB is continually working to improve the frequency and quality of communication with its wholesale customers. As part of that process, we would like to be able to communicate with you by email as well as by phone and regular mail.

Would you allow the LDB to send you information and updates by email from time to time?

79% of respondents would not object to the LDB sending information and updates by email from time to time.

87% of LRS customers surveyed are open to receiving email updates.

Not surprisingly, your larger accounts are more willing and able to receive email updates than your smaller accounts. 86% of Accounts >$2M would allow the LDB to send information by email, compared to just 53% of Accounts <$100K. The fact that small companies may not have computers or internet access contributes to this lower percentage.

This openness to email info/updates by the majority of your Wholesale Customers gives the LDB another avenue to improve the frequency and quality of communication with its Wholesale Customers.

The LDB should consider putting together a program to proactively gather these emails. One thought would be to have the Order Desk ask for it or update it once a month when a customer places an order. That is an easy way to gather the addresses and keep them current.

Comparable:	Allow LDB to Send Info by Email
2008:	76%

Developing Others involves a genuine intent to foster the long-term learning or development of others through coaching, managing performance and mentoring. Its focus is on developmental intent and effect rather than on a formal role of training. For this competency to be considered, the individual's actions should be driven by a genuine desire to develop others, rather than by a need to transfer adequate skills to complete tasks.

Leadership implies a desire and ability to lead others, including diverse teams. Leadership is generally, but not always, demonstrated from a position of formal authority. The "team" here should be understood broadly as any group with which the person interacts regularly.

Organizational Commitment is the ability and willingness to align one's own behaviour with the needs, priorities and goals of the organization, and to promote organizational goals to meet organizational needs. It also includes acting in accordance with organizational decisions and behaving with integrity.

Results Orientation is a concern for surpassing a standard of excellence. The standard may be one's own past performance (striving for improvement); an objective measure (achievement orientation); challenging goals that one has set; or even improving or surpassing what has already been done (continuous improvement). Thus, a unique accomplishment also indicates a Results Orientation.

Empowerment is the ability to share responsibility with individuals and groups so that they have a deep sense of commitment and ownership. People who practice empowerment participate and contribute at high levels, are creative and innovative, take sound risks, are willing to be held accountable and demonstrate leadership. They also foster teamwork among employees, across government and with colleagues, and, as appropriate, facilitate the effective use of teams. Empowerment is conveying confidence in employees' ability to be successful and sharing responsibility to encourage commitment and ownership.
