Hi Neil –AG is talking to Jeff Lee at Sun. These are the messages we are using:

Obviously I am very pleased to see that Crown today have approved charges related to the Stanley Cup Riot ranging from Arson to Mischief to Participating in a Riot

I understand from the Criminal Justice Branch that there are over 60 charges which have been approved against 25 individuals.

Once the warrants have been executed, the accused will be compelled to attend court to answer to the charges.

The dates for those appearances are not set at this point, but that information will be publicly available once appearance dates are confirmed.

As Attorney General, I want to acknowledge and thanks the work done so far the by Integrated Riot Investigation Team and Special Riot Prosecution Team.

While this is great work, there is still much more to do as we continue to review the other files that have been submitted and await the additional reports to come from the Integrated Riot Investigation Team.

Good Afternoon,

Crown Counsel has today informed the Vancouver Police Department that the first wave of charges has now been approved. So far, 61 charges have been approved against 25 suspected rioters.

Inspector Les Yeo, who heads up the Integrated Riot Investigation Team says, "We are very encouraged by the approval of these 61 charges and we will continue to work closely with the special prosecution team as even more charges are expected in the coming days and weeks."

The Integrated Riot Investigation Team would like to acknowledge the special prosecution team that has been hard at work reviewing Crown reports for the first 60 cases. Having seen the incredible amount of work that went into the investigation on the front end, I realize what this Crown team was up against when we delivered the 163 charges for approval. Each report on each suspected rioter was well over 500 pages in length.

We are in the midst of finalizing the next batch of charges to be forwarded to Crown in the coming weeks.

On October 31st, the VPD recommended 163 charges against 60 individuals. "We are now another step closer to holding suspected rioters accountable for their actions on June 15th," remarked Inspector Yeo.

The following charges have been approved:

Subject: Update: Monday riot plan messaging

Importance: High

Neil/Kelly,

Looping you in that we're working with CJB over the weekend

S.13

CJB's Neil Mackenzie will participate in VPD's press conference on Monday (I'm told it's at 10am).

The following messages are meant to guide Neil's comments on Monday and form the basis for a media statement CJB would issue. The messages are draft – with CJB, DAG and

Note: to affirm it's the government's commitment. If this is the case, we'll augment with messages about how this aligns with Throne etc.
Linda Mueller is on point over the weekend as I'll be out-of-town - though available as needed on cell 250 896-9700.
