Dear _____ :

Re: Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner (OIPC) Order F14-41

I am writing further to your request received by the BC Public Service Agency and the recent Order made by the Information and Privacy Commissioner. Your request was for:

A true, complete, unedited copy of the: Disciplinary record of Larry Gardner, with the Ministry of Environment; All curriculum vitas or resumes of Larry Gardner; All positions held by Larry Gardner with the Government of BC, length of time such positions were held and all reasons for no longer holding such positions, for transfer, demotion or promotion.

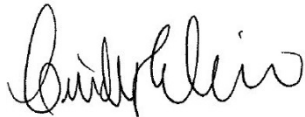

On November 28, 2012, you were advised that access to the records you sought was denied pursuant to section 22 (Disclosure harmful to personal privacy) of the Act. These records were the matter of an Inquiry and resulted in Order F14-41, dated September 24, 2014. Following clarification received October 21, 2014, the OIPC Adjudicator has ordered that some information be released to you. This information is provided to you in the enclosed records. You will note that some information remains withheld pursuant to section 22.

These records will be published on the BC Government's Open Information website a minimum of 72 hours after electronic release or a minimum of five business days after release by mail in hardcopy. To find out more about Open Information, please access the Open Information website at:
