Okay cool! Can I get a glimpse at it now? I'm wondering how we need to frame it. Like should I write a quick intro sharing my thoughts, etc...

Sorry for the short email. I wish I had more time to respond but due to the extremely high volume I receive I've adopted the Three Sentences rule.

FYI- the story is just working its way through approvals and everyone is really gungho about it! Our photogs just got back from a shoot and got some great pix of Yap for the story.

I should have it to you Monday and once I know when the NR is going out I can give you an exact time to coordinate posting.

Give me ring if you need any deets, if not I'll connect on Monday.

Have a good weekend, B

Nice to connect. I'm really excited to share some Yap-ness and liquor review/reform goodness on V.I.A.. Here's the media kit, let me know if you need anything else from me. :)
