Subject: RE: Target Marine Hatcheries - #2013-322 - finfish category?

I have contacted Target Marine Hatcheries and talked with Barb WATT. The reasoning behind losing the Finfish category and obtaining the fresh water category is due to the Sturgeon being a Freshwater fish and not really under the finfish category. This operation is also Federally Registered.

Subject: Target Marine Hatcheries - #2013-322 - finfish category?

HI Brian...

Target Marine Hatcheries have applied for a salmon and fresh water processing licence. Last year they also had the finfish category - but they haven't requested it for this year. Could you please review this with them? Thanks.
