Subject: Bill C-45 and Theresa Spence

To the Honourable Premier of British Columbia, Christy Clark,

You probably heard the courage of Theresa Spence who is on her 21st day of her hunger strike and has captivated us across the country and internationally. I hope you will do whatever you can to push Stephan Harper, our Prime Minister of Canada to stop the Bill C-45 and make equal relationships for all parties involved as what Theresa Spence requested. We cannot let this woman die.

Warm Regards,

message: I can't beleive the government is going to stand back and watch a women starve herself. All becuase you don't have the gutts to stand up to what you say are your words. First Nations people are not going to go away, you need to deal with what you have created. NOW YOU ARE GOING TO ADD BLOOD TO YOUR HANDS. Stand up you say when you want the votes you listen to the people. Well I don't see that. Now it is time to stand up as voters and NOT vote you in, you can not be real leaders if you can't even speak. It is pretty clear you are afraid to face the truth. GET OFF YOUR BUTTS and speak to Chief Threasa Spence.

Message: Regarding Chief Spence who is taking part in a protest against Bill C-45, nicknamed Omnibus bill, I ask that Christie Clark pressure or bring to Stephen Harpers attention the protester and her demands. Clark must pressure Harper along with other premiers in order to take action against draconian legislature, while showing PM Harper that treaty negotiations must be roughly to the table during such comprehensive legislature . My regards to the hardworking office of the premier, and although you may be on holiday, i hope you can pass this along to Ms.Clark . It has become apparent and British Colombians are raising their voice

Subject: Protest Monday, December 10th, 2012

Dear Honourables Christy Clark and Elizabeth May,

I am writing to you briefly on behalf of the Native Education College here in Vancouver, B.C. S22 at the College, and though S22 in this country, I am starting to realize that so many of the omni-bus bills and other destructive motions that the Conservative Government insists on ramming through are literally an assault on every person in the country now and for future generations. It has been disheartening to continue to watch my childrens' futures be pulled apart at the seams slowly starting with union dismantling and a complete lack of respect for due process under our Constitution.

I would hope that you and some of your colleagues would be willing to join us to stand up for your rights, your kids' rights, your grandkids' rights and so on. I for one, don't want to have to explain to my children why we didn't fight harder for our resources and for a redistribution of wealth before it was too late.

Every person in this country, now more than ever, needs a leader who will not shut out the majority of the population for the betterment of a small minority. Thank you in advance for supporting our country and for spreading the word.

Sincerely,
S22

Details:

What: Protest in support of the Native Chiefs currently protesting at Parliament Hill and against Harper and his destructive bill passing.

Where: Vancouver Art Gallery

When: Monday, December 10th, 11am

NEC students will be leaving from their campus on Main and 5th at 11am on Monday and will march down to the Vancouver Art Gallery. We have already reached out to many members in the community and are hoping that others will spread the word as well.

Love always! S22

Hey Guys,

The people are moving: are you? Aboriginal people across the lands: idle no more!

A song I made based out of Thunder Bay: Idle No More
