Re: Request for Access to Records
Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPPA)

I am writing further to your request received by the Ministry of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation. Your request is for:

All records, including e mails and briefing notes, related to the ministry response to a Dec. 20, 2019 incident in which Maxwell Johnson and his 12-year-old granddaughter were detained and arrested by police while trying to open an account at the BMO branch on Burrard Street in Vancouver. My request includes records covering internal ministry discussions, advice and communications to other ministries, members of the government, stakeholders and members of the public related to this incident. (Date Range for Record Search: From 12/21/2019 To 1/25/2020)

Please find enclosed a copy of the records located in response to your request. These records are provided to you in their entirety.

Your file is now closed.

These records will be published on the BC Government's Open Information website a minimum of ten business days after release. To find out more about Open Information, please access the Open Information website at: www.gov.bc.ca/openinformation

If you have any questions regarding your request, please contact Marc Everitt, the analyst assigned to your request, at 250 387-7996. This number can be reached toll-free by calling from Vancouver, 604 660-2421, or from elsewhere in BC, 1 800 663-7867 and asking to be transferred to 250 387-7996.

You have the right to ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review this decision. I have enclosed information on the review and complaint process.
