Re: Request for Access to Records
Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPPA)

I am writing further to your request received by the Ministry of Environment and Climate Change Strategy. You requested:

The record of all communications between BC Parks staff and the principals of Okisollo Resources regarding Okisollo Resources' plans to log its Woodlot 2031 along the boundaries of both Small Inlet Provincial Park and Octopus Islands Provincial Park. The principals of Okisollo Resources are [named individual], RPF, and [named individual], RPF. The time frame for this request is: January 1, 2014 to July 1, 2014; January 1, 2019 to July 1 2019; and January 1, 2020 to September 1, 2020. The records would have been created in response to communications from a principal or other employee of Okisollo Resources who were informing Parks BC of their intention to clear-cut log or build roads adjacent to park boundaries. (Date Range for Record Search: From 1/1/2014 To 9/1/2020)

Please be advised we normally respond to a request within 30 business days after its receipt. However, in limited circumstances this time limit may be extended under section 10 of FOIPPA, a copy of which is enclosed. A complete copy of FOIPPA is available online at:

http://www.bclaws.ca/civix/document/id/complete/statreg/96165_00

Thank you for consenting to an extension. We are extending the legislated due date by an additional 10 business days which will allow the Ministry to provide you with a complete response to your request. Therefore, the new response due date is now March 7, 2023. We will respond sooner if possible.

If you have any questions regarding your request, please contact Penny Rosales, the analyst assigned to your request, at 778 698-1394. This number can also be reached toll-free at 1 833 283-8200.

Extending the time limit for responding

10 (1) The head of a public body may extend the time for responding to a request for up to 30 days if one or more of the following apply:

- (a) the applicant does not give enough detail to enable the public body to identify a requested record;
- (b) a large number of records are requested or must be searched and meeting the time limit would unreasonably interfere with the operations of the public body;
- (c) more time is needed to consult with a third party or other public body before the head can decide whether or not to give the applicant access to a requested record.
- (d) the applicant has consented, in the prescribed manner, to the extension.

(2) In addition to the authority under subsection (1), with the permission of the commissioner, the head of a public body may extend the time for responding to a request as follows:

- (a) if one or more of the circumstances described in subsection (1) (a) to (d) apply, for a period of longer than the 30 days permitted under that subsection;
- (b) if the commissioner otherwise considers that it is fair and reasonable to do so, as the commissioner considers appropriate.

(3) If the time for responding to a request is extended under this section, the head of the public body must tell the applicant

- (a) the reason for the extension,
- (b) when a response can be expected, and
- (c) in the case of an extension under subsection (1) (a) to (c), that the applicant may complain about the extension under section 42 (2) (b) or 60 (1) (a).
