Subject: Request for consideration

Hi James,

MCJ asked me to pass on the request for a meeting outlined below.

Brent Langlois, Executive Director (FNESS) has recently connected with Minister Fraser and PS Jennifer Rice. He will be in Victoria next week and is interested in connecting with Minister Mark then, or at a future date if next week doesn't work. The information below was provided to MCJ through a FNESS board member.

- blanglois@fness.bc.ca
- Cell #: \(250\) 457-1687457-1687)

Brent Langlois (FNESS Executive Director) and up to three designated Board Directors and staff are interested in meeting with Minister Mark to discuss the following in relation to advanced education and skills development with a focus on UNDRIP and the TRC Calls to Action:

- FNESS accomplishments and experiences in leading and implementing training for employment programs with various First Nations communities and Tribal Councils in BC. FNESS skills development programs and delivery provide training and employment in the area of community protection (e.g., wildland firefighting, fuel management, emergency management) and information technology;
- Local knowledge and human resources. The 2003 Fire Storm Report (aka. The Filmon Report) outlined that "(t)he Review Team also heard concerns regarding the use of local resources from First Nations in the province. Many members of First Nations communities were willing and qualified to assist provincial firefighters with their own equipment, but claim they were not approached to do so...The Ministry of Forests should explore ways to enhance the participation of First Nations in forest fire fighting and fuel load reduction activities." (pgs. 56 – 61 - http://www2.gov.bc.ca/assets/gov/farming-natural-resources-and-industry/forestry/wildfire-management/governance/bcws_firestormreport_2003.pdf);
- Development of BC First Nations fire officer leadership development and training. FNESS has a solid track record in fire officer governance training and skills development – which includes the research analysis and corresponding recommendations (funded by WorkSafeBC) about competencies needed for today's BC First Nations fire officers in managing, supervising and leading their respective BC First Nations-led structural fire departments, particularly in relation to occupational health and safety program/service delivery. FNESS identified leadership criteria to assist its structural firefighting membership in understanding the current and future leadership needs for the ranks of Fire Chief, Assistant Fire Chief and Deputy Fire Chief in BC; and (ii) developed an initial competency framework for BC Indigenous fire officers to aid in their recruitment and selection, performance management, learning and development and succession planning endeavours; and
- First Nations-specific critical incident stress management (CISM). FNESS collaborates with the Nicola Valley Institute of Technology to advance community-based intensive workshops to provide CISM and trauma support in First Nations communities in BC.

Thanks,

Robyn Spilker

Hi James and Christian; I just wanted to follow up on a few points about the UBC event as we just wrapped up an event planning call.

We've flagged for GCPE events but they're not going to be involved as UBC has a very sophisticated crew plus it's their announcement.

This is primarily media event so no plans for a guestlist or invites. The space can fill about 15-20 people and the preference is to invite other engineering students.

If you want to invite Minister Eby as he's the local MLA, can I leave it with you to reach out. The same for MLA Mable Elmore as the material will be used during retrofit work at Dr. Anne B. Jamieson Elementary and is located in her riding.

UBC to issue MA and pitch. They will include reference to Minister attending.

UBC to issue NR. We will include a quote from the Minister in it.

The strong visual will be b-roll since the actual experience takes 12 hours to conduct.

Question from UBC: Does the minister have time after the event to see other UBC facilities? UBC would be happy to host her. She mentioned at her last visit she would like to visit the new Indian Residential School History and Dialogue Centre (Second in Canada). Lunch with Santa?

I would like to give a shout out to everyone attending EduHacks. This year's hackathon is taking place on the traditional territories of the Coast Salish peoples, including the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh First Nations.

Events like EduHacks are not only exciting, but they're also important because they recognize the value of gathering people from different backgrounds, cultures and experiences to offer fresh ideas and spark innovation in the tech community.

As the tech sector continues to grow, finding people with the right training and education to fill jobs will help the sector thrive. Our government is committed to adding hundreds of new student spaces for technology programs at public post-secondary institutions and expanding co-op education opportunities. We are working to ensure British Columbians have access to the training and education they need to help further drive innovation in your field.

The knowledge you gather at this conference will help build a bright future for you and B.C.'s technology industry and our province.

Keep on shining brightly, and shoot for the stars.

Hello Cindy,

Thank you for getting back to me. HackHub is one of the leading technology startups in BC, and we are organizing a hackathon called EduHacks on September 30th and October 1st at Vancouver Convention Center. EduHacks is a 24-hour hackathon where talented people will be invited to form teams based on mutual interest, with the goal of integrating technology into the design of exceptional learning experiences. Currently, more than 1500 innovators coming from universities across the world have signed up for this event. SFU, Microsoft, Adobe, Github and other leading technology companies are on board as our sponsors. In addition, international education groups like Beifang Education Group is involved in this event to promote international education between China and Canada. Moreover, we are recognized by the MLH (the official student hackathon league) for its 18th season! For more information about us, please visit our event website at <https://eduhacks.com>. Currently, the President of British Columbia, Mayor of Vancouver, Premier of British Columbia have sent their warmest welcome to all the talents as well as encouraging them to continue their innovation and continue to inspire others.

Possible times that the Minister can speak are during the opening ceremony on September 30th, 2017 at approximately 11:40 am and during the closing ceremony on October 1st, 2017 at approximately 18:30 pm. Please let me know if the Minister is able to make to Vancouver Convention Centre West Building Ballroom A either one of these times. If not, if the Minister would kindly provide a recognition letter for EduHacks 2017, that would be highly appreciated.

I have attached their recognition letters in this email for reference as well as our event brochure for more detailed information.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Good Afternoon Cindy

Thank you for your email. The BC Building Trades is currently coordinating 2 meetings for Minister Mark.

1. October 2nd Meeting Request

Executive Director Tom Sigurdson and Director Brynn Bourke would like to meet with Minister Mark to provide feedback on the Industry Training Authority; discuss reinstating compulsory trades and next steps related to strengthening policies around apprentices on public projects. Please let us know if the Minister is available to meet.

2. October 12th, Finishing Trades Tour

The Minister has accepted an invitation to tour the Squamish Nation Trades Training program being run by the Finishing Trades Institute. We were originally going to visit 2 locations, but given the Minister's available time, union trainers thought it best to start with a 45 minute tour of the training centre and Squamish Nation program and then have a small roundtable discussion with the Electrical Joint Training Centre which is running an Alternate Pathways to Electrical Careers program for Indigenous students. As well as other Indigenous training initiatives run by union trainers.

DATE: Thursday, October 12th

TIME: 10:30am - 12:00pm

LOCATION: Finishing Trades Institute - 12277 Industrial Rd, Surrey, BC V3V 3S1

Please let us know if you require any further information.

Thank you for your time,

I think it's a great idea.

We can prepare a letter of greetings from the Minister if that okay with you.

Can you check with the PO about a letter, or do you want me to go through my Cara at GCPE HQ?

If the Minister is interested and if it's possible in her schedule, we would very much like to have her stay on campus beyond the earthquake event to visit some other labs, students and UBC leaders.

I've been in touch with folks in Dr. Banthia's lab and our Public Affairs people and it looks like the best dates will be during the break week – October 10th or 12th. Could you let me know if either of those could work on your end?

I'm told that Public Affairs is working on some videos profiling the work, so there should be some high quality material to show and link to as part of any release or social media.

Here's my guess:

45 minutes to get there

15 minute pre-brief

30 minute event

15 minutes to speak to media TBC

45 minutes to get home

UBC is looking into a Friday or three that works for the scientists.

Hi James,

MCJ asked me to pass on the request for a meeting outlined below.

Brent Langlois, Executive Director (FNESS) has recently connected with Minister Fraser and PS Jennifer Rice. He will be in Victoria next week and is interested in connecting with Minister Mark then, or at a future date if next week doesn't work. The information below was provided to MCJ through a FNESS board member.

- blanglois@fness.bc.ca
- Cell #: \(250\) 457-1687

Brent Langlois (FNESS Executive Director) and up to three designated Board Directors and staff are interested in meeting with Minister Mark to discuss the following in relation to advanced education and skills development with a focus on UNDRIP and the TRC Calls to Action:

- FNESS accomplishments and experiences in leading and implementing training for employment programs with various First Nations communities and Tribal Councils in BC. FNESS skills development programs and delivery provide training and employment in the area of community protection (e.g., wildland firefighting, fuel management, emergency management) and information technology;
- Local knowledge and human resources. The 2003 Fire Storm Report (aka. The Filmon Report) outlined that "(t)he Review Team also heard concerns regarding the use of local resources from First Nations in the province. Many members of First Nations communities were willing and qualified to assist provincial firefighters with their own equipment, but claim they were not approached to do so...The Ministry of Forests should explore ways to enhance the participation of First Nations in forest fire fighting and fuel load reduction activities." (pgs. 56 – 61 - http://www2.gov.bc.ca/assets/gov/farming-natural-resources-and-industry/forestry/wildfire-management/governance/bcws_firestormreport_2003.pdf);

- Development of BC First Nations fire officer leadership development and training. FNESS has a solid track record in fire officer governance training and skills development – which includes the research analysis and corresponding recommendations (funded by WorkSafeBC) about competencies needed for today’s BC First Nations fire officers in managing, supervising and leading their respective BC First Nations-led structural fire departments, particularly in relation to occupational health and safety program/service delivery. FNESS identified leadership criteria to assist its structural firefighting membership in understanding the current and future leadership needs for the ranks of Fire Chief, Assistant Fire Chief and Deputy Fire Chief in BC; and (ii) developed an initial competency framework for BC Indigenous fire officers to aid in their recruitment and selection, performance management, learning and development and succession planning endeavours; and
- First Nations-specific critical incident stress management (CISM). FNESS collaborates with the Nicola Valley Institute of Technology to advance community-based intensive workshops to provide CISM and trauma support in First Nations communities in BC.

Reading more closely what they said is that they are willing to move the agenda around. As I read the schedule the minister is available for 30 mins from 9 to 9.30 isn't she? Would that work? You'd need to let them know though.

If you can slot this in and get them to juggle their agenda then MMM can do this. She will need a brief on this and some talking points from Rodney?

Please let me know if you run in to a problem on this.

Hi Cindy,

Thank you for your note.

We were hoping the Minister would be available for 30-45 minutes. The tentative format we had in mind was that the Minister could make some brief introductory remarks and we could then collectively introduce our members and have a dialogue on our lobby priorities. At the moment we tentatively have a 10:30 am slot set aside in the agenda, however we are happy to move the agenda to accommodate the Minister's schedule. The only 2 time slots that are not available are 9 am - 10:30 a.m. and noon to 1:15 pm; the meeting scheduled to adjourn at 5 pm. Outside of those slots we are very flexible.

Please feel free to connect if you have any other questions.

Lindsay and I will work with him over the next few days to get him up to speed, and I'll work with him going forward to assist where necessary with responses and actions.

We'll get this acknowledgement out the door ASAP, thanks for reviewing.

Good afternoon James,

The attached letter is pending approval to be released. Catching up on a few items that we never got follow up on during the initial flurry of activity in the weeks following the transition. The response follows the approved template for the most part, but has some additional language in the second and third paragraphs. I have also included a PDF of the original incoming.

The additional language was provided by the program area. Please review and provide approval at your convenience. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Dear Cindy,

Thank you for speaking with me earlier. As mentioned, Canada's Ambassador to China John McCallum is seeking a brief call (approximately 10 minutes) with Minister Mark to discuss Canada's provincial/territorial participation in upcoming high-profile education events in Beijing, China, from October 19-22.

These events include the China Annual Conference on International Education and China Education Expo, as well as the 4th High-Level Consultation on Education Collaboration between China's Ministry of Education and Canadian provincial/territorial ministries of education.

The Ambassador is seeking to speak with Minister Mark both in her capacity as Minister for Advanced Education, Skills and Training, and in her capacity as incoming Chair of the Council of Ministers of Education, Canada.

Should the Minister's schedule permit, and in light of the fast-approaching date of these events and the urgency of finalizing Canadian provincial participation, the Ambassador is inquiring whether the Minister may be available for a call today, Friday, September 22, or early next week. The Ambassador is currently in Canada, but will return to China on Wednesday.

Thank you very much for your assistance in putting this request forth for the Minister's consideration. If you require any further information, please let me know.

Hello MAs,

Following on our call this morning, here is what you will need to have ready for you ministers for the UBCM town halls.

- 1) Opening remarks – 2 minutes
 - Who they are
 - What their mandate is and how it connects to the partnerships they hope to build with municipalities
- 2) Top level issues sheet
 - messages on what you think they will likely be asked/ top issues
- 3) Issues binder
 - Could be helpful to have on hand to review beforehand
- 4) 3-4 questions for your minister (for practice)
 - prepare a few questions you think your minister could be asked for the practice session.

The town hall practices will take place on Tuesday at 5:15pm, locations TBD. There will be 4 concurrent sessions, in the same groupings as the Wednesday town halls:

- Health and Safety: Ministers: Eby, Farnworth, Dix, Darcy, Sims, in that order,
- Investing in People: Ministers: Fleming, Mark, Fraser, Simpson, Conroy
- Infrastructure and Economic Development: Ministers: James, Trevena, Robinson, Bains and Beare

- Jobs, Resources and Green Communities: Ministers: Popham, Mungall, Donaldson, Heyman, Ralston, Chow

Facilitators will give advice on answering difficult questions, then we will run through a practice with the questions you have prepared.

Please let me know if your minister is unable to attend the practice session or if you have any other questions.

James – thank you for making time to speak yesterday.

I spoke to Ann English, the CEO & Registrar for Engineers and Geoscientists BC and she and her colleagues were very happy to hear your office agreed in principle to the meeting.

When we spoke you suggested that Friday October 27th at 1PM in Vancouver may work for the Minister's schedule. I can confirm that works for Ann and her team.

They would also be pleased to travel to Victoria anytime that week (Monday October 23rd to Thursday October 26th) to meet with the Minister in her office if that is easier.

I am available to answer any questions you have or I have copied Laurel Buss, the Communications Officer for Engineers and Geoscientists BC in case you prefer to be in contact with her directly.

Dear Minister Mark:

I'm writing on behalf of Engineers and Geoscientists BC (formerly APEGBC) to request a meeting with you and our President to brief you on Engineers and Geoscientists BC's priorities and anticipated interactions with Government for the coming year. As the Minister responsible for the Engineers and Geoscientists Act, we would welcome the opportunity to meet with you in Victoria or Vancouver at a time that is convenient for you.

When we meet we would like to discuss the many ways we align with and support your government's priorities, brief you on work we have undertaken to examine expansion of our mandate to regulate engineering and geoscience companies to enhance public safety, and our interest in Government's review of the professional reliance model.

As you may know, Engineers and Geoscientists BC administers the Engineers and Geoscientists Act which regulates the practice of professional engineering and professional geoscience in BC. We have a clear mandate to uphold and protect the public interest by setting and maintaining high academic, experience and professional practice standards. We are one of the largest regulatory bodies in the province with 34,000 members around BC.

Please contact Laurel Buss, Communications Officer, at lbuss@egbc.ca or by phone at 604.412.6052 to schedule a meeting date.

If I can offer any additional information, or answer any questions that you or your staff may have, please don't hesitate to contact me.

I look forward to your reply.

Ann

No concerns from this end. BCCAT has provided information before. Just wanted to put it on your radar.

Trends: dual credit continues to be attractive to students who want to save money and get a head start on their post-secondary education. Dual credit is available across the province for academic courses, professional and job-entry programs, and the trades. Colleges and universities work out agreements with local school districts regarding the programs most likely to be of interest to high school students. Tuition for post-secondary courses are covered by the school although students may have to pay for some fees and equipment depending on the program.

A good summary of dual credit opportunities in Northern BC is found on the Northern Lights College flyer at:

Vancouver Island University (Nanaimo): Cowichan school district #79 arranged for a cohort of 12-16 high school students to attend VIU's Community and School Support Worker program for dual credit. Contact: Leif Rasmussen, Leif.Rasmussen@viu.ca

School District No 23 (Kelowna) and Okanagan College are partnering to deliver a trades exploration program to assist students in their career exploration while learning trades and technology skills. Students in grades 10-12 will have the opportunity to sample various trades programs (Carpentry, Electrical, Plumbing, and Sheet Metal) that are currently in demand in BC. In addition to the trades sampling, students will also complete the outcomes for their mandatory math 11 (apprenticeship and workplace math 11) graduation requirement. Students will earn up to 20 credits towards high school graduation and potential placement into a Dual Credit trades program upon successful completion of the Trades Sampler program. WEX 12 and/or Secondary School Apprenticeship credit may also be granted if the student is able to engage in employment within the trades industry. Engineering

Interest in engineering education has been growing in recognition of its importance to the provincial economy. The BC Council on Admissions and Transfer (BCCAT) Engineering Articulation Committee currently has representation from six accredited receiving institutions, 17 sending institutions, and from the Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of British Columbia (APEGBC). Engineering education is a field.^{s.13}

Engineering schools traditionally offer a common first year of study that provides a foundation of science, mathematics, and engineering design before specializing in second year.^{s.13}

s.13 . Engineering schools work under the auspices of a national accreditation body (CEAB) so the accredited receivers necessarily have a set of shared requirements. Their accreditation creates extra responsibilities for any transfer arrangement, but well-regulated standards are a goal that BC engineering programs share with CEAB. The engineering schools are exploring a common first year curriculum that would ease transfer from the sending colleges to the receiving university programs.

Christian, please discuss this with the minister on plane tonight to make sure she is aware of it, comfortable with it.

You might want to work with her to nail down the points Rodney outlined below. I'm sure the Minister will be comfortable with this but really flesh out the bullets with her tonight if she wants.

Please let me know if any of this is unclear.

Good afternoon

Some of you will have met myself or Jon Robinson from the Priorities and Accountability Office in the last few weeks as your initiatives have been developed.

The PAO is responsible for working with Ministers, their staff and Ministries to ensure the government's key initiatives are well designed, delivered in a timely manner and meet the commitments government made to British Columbians. The focus of the office will be on key government commitments, particularly when planning and delivery reaches across organizations.

The office coordinates with the larger Premier's Office to review upcoming items for working groups, committees, Cabinet and Treasury Board to assist in coordinating and achieving government's priority goals.

As part of the Premier's Office, the PAO reports to the Deputy Minister to the Premier, and works with the Chief of Staff's office, GCPE and other key organizations to deliver its mandate

I'm writing to let you know that starting this week, the office will include myself, and:

- Jon Robinson (Director)
- Leila Farmer (Director); and
- Stephanie Papik (Director)

We will be working with many of you on initiatives going forward, and look forward to building a productive relationship that results in the best results possible for British Columbians.

Good Afternoon,

I hope this note finds you well. I am kindly wondering if you can provide me more information about the loan forgiveness program for people on PWD.

Without the severe, permanent designation (with no ability to participate in the labor force for the rest of their lives) is it possible to get loan forgiveness? (Is there a straight forward answer, or is this a case-by-case basis?)

I am also wondering what applications and paperwork are required for someone on PWD to apply for loan forgiveness.

Here's a copy of the final issues note. Let me know if you want it added to the e-binder we update.

I didn't add background on survey sample, methodology or size. If you want this added, let me know.

The data is from a slew of different survey years: Canadian University Survey Consortium: 2000, 2003, 2006, 2009, 2012 and 2015,.

For all six years of the survey - BC public PSIs contributed 12% of the survey responses (9,475 respondents of 73,489).

Individual survey response rates from BC are as follows:

- 2015 – 39.8% BC (31.9% survey) – 5 institutions (SFU, UVic, UFV, TRU, VIU)
- 2012 – 52.1% BC (36.5% survey) – 4 institutions (SFU, UNBC, UFV, TRU)
- 2009 – 49.5% BC (44.6% survey) – 5 institutions (SFU, UBC, UNBC, UVic, UFV)
- 2006 – 49.2% BC (45.4% survey) – 4 institutions (SFU, UBC, UNBC, UVic)
- 2003 - 43.3% BC (49.0% survey) – 3 institutions (SFU, UBC, UVic)
- 2000 – 39.4% BC (51.9% survey) – 2 institutions (SFU, UBC)

We have different mix of institutions in each year of the surveys.

- SFU participated in every year of the survey.
- UBC has not participated in the past two years.
- UVic participated in four of the six years (missed 2012 and 2000)
- UNBC participated in three years (missed 2015, 2003 and 2000)
- UFV started participating in 2009
- TRU started participating in 2012
- VIU started participating in 2015

Cohorts have generally been 1,000 graduates unless the institution was smaller (i.e. UNBC, UFV, TRU) with the exception of UBC who got as high as 1,858 as they appear to have treated UBCO and UBCV as two institutions.

Trinity Western was also included in all years of the surveys chosen (however not included in the 9,475 respondents noted above.).

Hello Rob,

Thank you for your request to meet with the Minister this Friday. We are excited for the launch of Study North BC. However, the Minister's schedule for the day is fully booked and unfortunately we will not be able to meet with representatives from the City.

I understand that the Minister has scheduled to meet with representatives from Prince George at UBCM next Thursday at 4:20. This meeting would be a great opportunity to discuss how Prince George can support education and innovation through student housing and programming. In the meantime between now and the scheduled meeting at UBCM is there any pertinent information that you would like either the Minister or her staff to review prior to the meeting? Alternatively staff would be happy to make time to discuss. Please feel free to contact us by phone at Hi Rodney, I understand that the Minister will be attending the event in PG on Friday concerning the new northern BC post-secondary marketing strategy. Can you suggest someone I can talk to about seeing if the Minister can make a few minutes available to the Mayor while she is in PG?

As you know ☺, Prince George sees itself as a "destination for education" and even has municipal committees that involves reps from the college, UNBC, and School district along with student representatives. The presence and expansion of the college and university – for student housing and in programming such as physio and engineering – are priorities for the city and the Mayor would appreciate the opportunity to meet the Minister and simply convey the municipality's support to the College and University, as well as how education, innovation, and research are integral to the city's plans for growth and economic development. (The city's role in the wood innovation research lab expansion is one example)

Anyway, let me know who I should contact. Thanks! I hope things are going well.

ITA would like to mark the first week of November as Apprenticeship Appreciation Week (Oct. 30-Nov. 3 TBC)

ITA would like to plan a series of events and activities to coincide if we decide this is a go.
It would involve a statement from the Minister, a private members statement in the house.
Program are looking into this to ensure no issues.

BC College Day (Feb. 27, 2018 TBC)

BC Colleges would like to proclaim BC College day on Feb. 27. They would like to mark it with an event in the rotunda and invite the minister to speak. It would include pop-up stands showcasing students' and the programs.

It would involve a statement from the Minister, a private members statement in the house.
We would engage GCPE events support.

Any questions, or concerns, please let me know.

Subject: [Announce] Posters around campus

Early this morning, posters promoting hate speech were found at various locations around our Prince George campus. We have heard anecdotally that other institutions in Prince George were also targets.

Upon discovering the posters, security staff documented and then sought assistance from janitors to remove them. Much of this work was done before 6 a.m., so hopefully a limited number of UNBC community members saw the posters.

UNBC is a community that values social and cultural diversity; language and imagery regarding hate speech must not be tolerated.

We have filed a report with the RCMP, who are investigating.

If you see posters of this nature in the future or have any information pertaining to their distribution, please contact security at extension 3333 or via e-mail at security@unbc.ca

Message to Deans and Directors from the Provost:

Good afternoon,

Further to the Announce e-mail regarding the posters promoting hate speech, as a member of the Senior Leadership Forum, I'd ask that you have conversations with your employees about this issue, and make sure they know they can speak to you as their supervisor about any issues they may be encountering on campus, or speak with members of Human Resources if they are experiencing discomfort as a result of this act. Whether they witness odd behaviour, discover materials promoting hate speech, or have any other concerns, we want to provide the appropriate supports.

I would also like to recognize and thank those involved for the quick response to this issue, and I appreciate the action that was taken to remove the posters so quickly.

In addition, should further resources be required to help you or your employees, or if you have other concerns, please raise these matters with your Vice President or supervisor. UNBC strives to provide a safe work environment, and wants to ensure that help is available should you need it.

Thank you,

Dan Ryan

Hi Rodney,

Not sure I got the attachment - it's not showing up on my phone. Also not clear what you mean by factual? Note was taken from platform commitments and your issue notes.

James - can you take a look at MMM schedule and let me know what time works for you?

Have a good night!

Hi again,

Here is a draft response for MMM's approval. It would also be good to know if we had plans to approve either of these two projects?

Also, I was just told that responses to Green member questions are to be included in the Premier's briefing, so if we can get the framing down first thing in the morning that would be ideal.

If MMM is available, I suggest that we move QP a bit earlier so I have time to make any changes she requests as we're practicing.

Thanks all!

Hi Rodney,

Can your shop take another quick stab at this?

The lede might need to be a little tighter and punchier. The bottom half of the quote seems stronger than the second so perhaps flip it around?

We should get our heads together about the best way to capture the minister's voice to your shop. Would love to hear your ideas on that.

Cheers,

To that end I see an opportunity at Kwantlen Polytechnical to expand the number of apprenticeship seats for aspiring young people trying to access a trades program. I am aware that B.C.I.T. has some very good programs, but seats are limited and having a facility south of the Fraser River would be attractive to those that live and work south of the Fraser.

Northern Post-Secondary excited to showcase its uniqueness

PRINCE GEORGE – Prospective post-secondary students will be impressed by the vast array of high-quality education opportunities that await them at four public institutions in Northern British Columbia and by the communities that are ready to welcome them.

The StudyNorth.ca campaign focuses on raising awareness of the diverse and high quality transferable programs available in the North. The four institutions in the North provide students access to world-class research and graduate and undergraduate degrees to vocational, trades and technical programs. The campaign showcases the unique recreation options and welcoming, vibrant communities in Northern British Columbia.

Melanie Mark, Minister of Advanced Education, Skills and Training, was joined at the launch event by the presidents of the University of Northern B.C., the College of New Caledonia, Northern Lights College and Northwest Community College. The four presidents, along with the Ministry of Advanced Education, Skills and Training, form the Northern Post-Secondary Council, which initiated the StudyNorth.ca campaign.

Attracting a greater number of students to the North will help strengthen the post-secondary system in the region. More students mean even more program choices, additional student services and amenities, and increased student diversity on campuses. The campaign also helps to increase the skilled labour force available to regional employers.

The campaign showcases the broad range of degree, diploma and certificate programs available at the four northern institutions, and tells the story of the many opportunities and benefits of living in the North, including lifestyle, affordability, friendly communities, world renowned wilderness and recreational opportunities and exceptional career prospects.

With no waitlists for most post-secondary programs in the North, students can start their education and training immediately. B.C.'s well regarded transfer credit system allows students to begin or complete their educational journey in the North with the ability to take their credits with them and apply them towards a program at another institution.

The Northern Post-Secondary Council works to promote and enhance post-secondary education in the North through collaborative initiatives.

The initial phase of the campaign is expected to run until the end of the year.

Quotes:

Minister of Advanced Education, Skills and Training, Melanie Mark

“Northern British Columbia is an amazing destination for students to study, work and play. The region is one of the most incredible parts of our province. Welcoming communities and opportunities from post-graduate research to degrees through to trades will empower our students to thrive and succeed.” [not approved]

For the Honourable Minister Melanie Mark,

HR Tech Group is an association of human resources professionals working in the BC tech sector. We are currently doing an environmental scan of Diversity & Inclusion practices in the BC tech sector, so see how we can engage more under represented groups. Our LMP project is currently underway with your Ministry, under Shannon Renault's team.

We are holding a conference next Wednesday Sept 20th at the Vancouver Convention Center, and would like to extend an invitation to you to attend and make some brief introductory remarks. The audience will be about 300 individuals (mostly HR and tech leaders) in the BC tech sector.

<http://www.hrtechgroup.com/cpages/2017-talent-conference>

There are several sessions throughout the day on diversity & inclusion, however we think the best opportunity for you to speak for a few minutes would be at 8am just ahead of our opening plenary on diversity (see description below):

"Diversity, Inclusion and Innovation"

Research shows that diverse teams, working in an inclusive environment, outperform and out-innovate homogeneous teams. So how do you create a diversity & inclusion strategy for your organization? How do you attract & retain diverse talent? Here from two individuals who are leading diversity practices at their organizations... Janelle Aaker, Lululemon Athletica and Virginia Nguyen

Please let me know if this is something you are interested in attending, and we'd be happy to co-ordinate it with your team.

Sincerely,

Hi folks,

I'm not sure who this should go to but I'm just confirming that Adv Ed thinks it would be a good idea to extend an invite to Treasury Board for October 4th to:

There is a discussion occurring which it would be prudent to have them in the room for, if possible.
I have already contacted their offices to ask them to consider attending.

Cheers,

Subject: Thank you for committing to taking action on student housing

Dear Minister,

I am writing to ask you to act immediately to relieve the rental housing crisis and remove unnecessary red tape preventing post secondary institutions from taking on debt to build on-campus housing. The commitment made by your government to make on-campus housing a reality is welcome and necessary, thank you for promising to make the lives of thousands of students better. We need to act on this now. With waitlists for on campus housing hitting record highs this summer, rental prices steadily increasing, and the vacancy rate remaining dangerously low, it is harder than ever to navigate the rental market in BC. Students across the province have struggled to find housing that is affordable, and many are forced to live in expensive, low quality, or overcrowded housing, facing stretched budgets and long commutes.

This crisis is only getting worse and we can't afford to wait any longer. I urge you to act immediately to allow Post-Secondary Institutions across the province to build on-campus housing for the thousands of students who need it. Additionally, funding the initial costs of development would unlock tens of thousands of on-campus housing units and quickly and decisively alleviate stress on the overloaded rental market. This could be done by investing $18 million a year over the next ten years in on-campus housing.

Sincerely,

Hi James; Revised lede as suggested.

As Minister of Advanced Education, Skills and Training, I want all of our citizens to have access to affordable post-secondary education and skills training so they can get good-paying jobs in every corner of the province.

When people have the information and access needed to make good life decisions, they are more likely to thrive and succeed. Our government is focused on building a better B.C. by lifting up our citizens, so that everyone can share the wealth of a strong economy.

The B.C. Labour Market Outlook: 2017 Edition is based on the best available data and research gathered from Statistics Canada, the Ministry of Finance, and businesses, unions and educators throughout the province. It shares valuable insight into the current state of our economy, and provides a projection of the job availability for the next ten years. The B.C. Labour Market Outlook allows people to make informed decisions about their career, education or business.

Our sectors are headed to bright, exciting and rewarding places, thanks to the innovation of our talented British Columbians. Fuelling innovation is a priority of our government and we are all eager to see what new technologies, inventions and ideas are generated by our creative citizens. That is why every sector will continue to be driven by the education, skills and visions of British Columbians.

New technologies will require an adaptable workforce and a flexible education system. Indigenous businesses and workers will play a large role in meeting the needs of our growing workforce and strong economy. Green infrastructure, forestry, and clean technology are a few of our most important industries, whose growth will create many skilled jobs for British Columbians.

B.C.'s demographic is changing in this post baby boom era. The Outlook shows fewer young people entering the workforce, and more job openings as the economy grows and older workers retire. Ensuring British Columbians have the right education and training to fill these job openings will be vital to the success of our province. Businesses and communities thrive when talented, passionate and capable people fill positions that they're well suited and trained for.

I encourage students, parents, educators and employers to review this Labour Market Outlook and use it to guide your decisions in the years to come. Choosing a career can seem a daunting and challenging task, but I hope that being informed makes that choice easier. Growing a business requires having enough information to form a vision and plan. Post-secondary institutions have a valuable role to play in providing relevant programs and education to help students get into in-demand jobs. This Outlook provides some of the information employers, students and educators need to form their vision and thrive in our strong, sustainable and innovative economy.

For the Honourable Minister Melanie Mark,

HR Tech Group is an association of human resources professionals working in the BC tech sector. We are currently doing an environmental scan of Diversity & Inclusion practices in the BC tech sector, so see how we can engage more under represented groups. Our LMP project is currently underway with your Ministry, under Shannon Renault's team.

We are holding a conference next Wednesday Sept 20th at the Vancouver Convention Center, and would like to extend an invitation to you to attend and make some brief introductory remarks. The audience will be about 300 individuals (mostly HR and tech leaders) in the BC tech sector.

<http://www.hrtechgroup.com/cpages/2017-talent-conference>

There are several sessions throughout the day on diversity & inclusion, however we think the best opportunity for you to speak for a few minutes would be at 8am just ahead of our opening plenary on diversity (see description below):

"Diversity, Inclusion and Innovation"

Research shows that diverse teams, working in an inclusive environment, outperform and out-innovate homogeneous teams. So how do you create a diversity & inclusion strategy for your organization? How do you attract & retain diverse talent? Here from two individuals who are leading diversity practices at their organizations... Janelle Aaker, Lululemon Athletica and Virginia Nguyen

Please let me know if this is something you are interested in attending, and we'd be happy to coordinate it with your team.

Subject: RE: UBCM Minister meetings 2017

Hi Veronica,

Sorry to do this, but we had a last minute meeting request come in for your minister. I have updated the file here; it's highlighted at the bottom.

I'm not sure if you are able to consider it, but I wanted to include it in case it's high priority.

Thanks,

Marlene

Hi Veronica,

Good question.

They have submitted a briefing note, which I've attached here. This has a bit more information.

Please note that I will have briefing notes for all your meetings, as provided by the municipalities, I'm just working on sorting through them.

Thanks,

Marlene

Hi Veronica,

As a follow up to the email below, I have attached the list of requested meetings for UBCM.

The next step is for your team to review and confirm which meetings your minister is able to take, and how you would like to manage any meetings that you are unable to fit in the schedule. I would appreciate it if you could get back to me this week, so I can begin scheduling the meetings ASAP, and forwarding the briefing notes provided by the municipalities.

If you have time for a call to go over these requests and next steps for UBCM, I am available any time this week.

Hi James,

Our Institutions and Programs Division looked into this and was able to provide the following information:

MCFD advises that the BC Aboriginal Child Care Society (BCACCS) has a mandate from the AFN to lead provincial engagements around child care and early learning including work force capacity and community capacity development needed to deliver these programs.

FYI: A request for a meeting has also come through the FNLG meeting request route -- apparently BCACCS requested a meeting during FNLG but the Minister was already fully booked. The meeting request was forwarded to us by IRR today.

Please advise if you'd like any additional information.

Hi Veronica,

I received your information from Amber Hockin who had suggested that I contact you to arrange a tour of our training facility on Port Coquitlam. The EJTC is an accredited training institute by PTIB and is also a designated ITA deliverer or Construction Electrician Level 1.

In addition, the EJTC is the largest single sponsor of electrical apprentices with 900 apprentices working throughout Metro Vancouver , Sunshine Coast and the Okanagan for IBEW Local 213 signatory contractors.

Please advise the timing of a possible tour and meeting with Minister Marks.

There's also a sheet you might want to include on this issue in my black book on my desk.

Hi James;

It turns out that VIU approached four ministers to get video greetings for their event on Wednesday.

They have taped two (AEST / EDUC) and the other ministers are doing greetings (MCFD / MIRR).

They have also been in conversation with the Premier's Office (Sheena and Amber).

Five videos is overkill IMO.

I look forward to hearing back from you and to meet you in person James. Happy to chat or connect for a coffee beforehand also. I'm based in Victoria.

As discussed briefly, the Chair of BC Colleges Lane Trotter (President, Langara College) and myself would like to accept your invite to meet with the Minister during the upcoming Legislative Session. The purpose of the meeting would be to brief you on the college wide strategic priorities developed by Presidents during their June 2017 Strategy Retreat and to answer any questions the Minister or you may have about how colleges can support her mandate letter priorities.

Please suggest any times and dates that would work in your schedule and we will do our best to accommodate.

The incomings on the other hand are all being sent through Cindy and Michael at this time as they arrive, along with some basic advice provided by Ministry staff. Hi James,

Direction from Veronica was that the Minister wanted to acknowledge in writing all requests for meetings made to her as Minister, as well as any written congratulations.

To simplify this task, Veronica agreed that it would make sense to create a templated response so that each outgoing letter didn't need to be approved individually. There are a fair number of incoming meeting requests, we're receiving several each day. The template response was approved by Veronica, and I can provide you a copy of the approved template tomorrow when back in the office tomorrow. They are very simple, and simply acknowledge the request for a meeting and don't commit the Minister to any meetings.

In short the process works as follows:

1. Letters come in to the Minister's inbox (by email or hard copy)
2. They are entered in CLIFF by my team and an initial summary is sent to Cindy for her action, and for initial advice from the appropriate division.
3. One of the Communications Officers (writers) on my team prepare the templated response.
4. I send a regular summary of responses ready to the MO for their info before we dispatch the letter. I've been trying to hold the responses until the next business day before dispatching to allow the MA time to review.
5. We send out the letters/emails the next day.

Previous to Minister Mark being appointed we didn't send out these types of acknowledgements automatically, and I believe that Cindy managed it from her end. Due to the initial disruption of the transition and change of staffing in the MO we took this on to try and reduce some of the administrative burden and meet the Minister's intent.

Hope this helps clarify, I'm sure we'll be able to discuss more in the coming days.

Feel free to get in touch if you have any other questions.

Jeremy

Hi James...for discussion...

Currently, there are a few tracks for incoming correspondence addressed to Minister Mark:

1. Hard copy letters are received at your office (assume Michael opens and preps for review) and are then assigned for action (not sure who does this but likely Christian (?) - meeting requests to Cindy or Christian (?), letters for draft Minister's response, or alternate – DM/ADM/Exec Director or direct reply from program, are referred to the correspondence unit for action (Christian?).
2. Emails to the Minister directly, or to you or other MO staff addressed to Minister Mark, which are then assigned similar to the above process for incoming hard copy.
3. There is a generic email address for the Minister which is publicly posted (AEST.Minister@gov.bc.ca) and is currently managed by the correspondence unit however, I would recommend this be with your office.
4. On occasion, there will also be branch/Ministry initiated correspondence that will come to your office for review based on a staff recommendation or internally driven initiative.

I am hoping to get confirmation from you on the following:

1. Who in your office will be the primary contact for correspondence, assigning correspondence actions and managing approvals with the Minister (Christian)? That would entail advises the correspondence team of required action – draft Minister's response or reply on behalf of for example.
2. Do you want your office set up to access the generic inbox for the Minister's incoming and confirm who will manage (Michael / Christian)?

I'll have this ready for our meeting on Friday but hoping you would have a chance to consider in advance.

BCIT's current provider (Compass) for campus food services will expire in June of 2018.

To ensure BCIT gets best value, they are putting out an RFP.

The attached communication has gone out to the BCIT community as of this morning, please let me know if you have any questions.

Good afternoon,

I'd like to provide you with an update regarding food services across our campuses.

Earlier this year, Corporate Services reviewed the Food Services operations at all five BCIT campuses with an eye to continuous improvement and integration with the BCIT Campus Development plan.

Our contract with Compass Group, which has provided food services to our campuses for many years, expires in June 2018. This October, we will begin a competitive process for a new service contract. The request for proposals will be open to all food service contractors including the Compass Group, and proposals will be evaluated on a comprehensive set of criteria that includes food quality, variety, reliability, service plans, and cost. Our aim is to ensure ongoing excellence for our campus communities at a fair and competitive cost.

We would like to thank the Compass Group for the professional service they have provided to our students, faculty, and staff and look forward to a robust, competitive renewal process for the next service term.

Please let Vince Laxton or me know if you have any questions.

Can you let me know when you're planning on doing QP prep with Minister Mark? I'd like to stop by.

Depending on when it's scheduled, I may only be able to stop in for 15 mins. If Minister Mark would prefer to meet for 30 mins, I can meet before 10:45 – unfortunately I'm with other ministries between 10:45-1pm.

Hi Debbie,

I think you are the correct person to send this to. Please let me know if not.

The Minister is asking that we have an agenda and relevant materials sent over 24 hours prior to the meeting with the DMs and ADMs. We would like to be able to review prior to the meeting. Is that possible, please?

My understanding is that this hasn't been the practice for the last few weeks.

If there are hurdles to this please let me know what they are.

With much thanks,

Would you have time tomorrow while the Minister is in Cabinet or later in the afternoon when she has HD? Let me know and I'll put something in our calendars.

Hi James, I'll meet you tomorrow morning at the briefing with Minister Mark but want to reach out and welcome you, as well as introduce myself.

I work for Shannon, and support the execute team here at the DMO – with a focus on executive operations and business cycle planning. The correspondence team and FOI contact (you've seen emails now from Jeremy Oaten) report in through me. I look forward to hearing your input and preferences on our processes when you are ready. We want to support your office as best we can and there are a couple of functions we should clarify now that your office is up and running.

You can work through me on any requests to the Ministry...I do traffic control so things get to the right person and we track everything for follow up to make sure you get a response on requests. Between myself and Lindsay Chauvin, you'll see briefing materials, background information, decision notes and other such items for the Minister. I'll also work with you on briefing requests for internal Ministry items. We can review and discuss our proposed briefing agendas and ensure the Minister is well supported. I am also your contact for all requests for information that come through your office, sometimes from stakeholders but primarily from MLAs. I would closely with the executive team and GCPE to support as needed. And if you need assistance tracking anyone down, including the DM, I can help.

Look forward to meeting you and welcome...

I'm writing from Minister Mark's constituency office – I will be transitioning into the role of EA soon and wanted to touch base on a few things and introduce myself.

Do you have time today for a quick phone call? I'd like to check in on the Minister's schedule and ask about some correspondence related issues.

We are closing for lunch at 12:30 and open again at 1:30, happy to chat while the house is sitting if that is easiest. 604-660-0707.

Cheers,

Christina Rzepa | Constituency Assistant | Hon. Melanie Mark, MLA Vancouver-Mount Pleasant

Hi Cindy,

Can you please prioritize connecting with Christina (the Minister's new EA) to bring her on board? She'll need help with processing all the documents, especially as she's doing it remotely.

She is CCed on this email and if you don't have her phone number I believe you can reach her most quickly through the minister's constituency office.

Thanks,
James

I'm just confirming that the Whip does not want us to cancel this meeting, right? That is not what you are requesting.. right?

Please confirm if you can.

Hi James, I'll meet you tomorrow morning at the briefing with Minister Mark but want to reach out and welcome you, as well as introduce myself.

I work for Shannon, and support the execute team here at the DMO – with a focus on executive operations and business cycle planning. The correspondence team and FOI contact (you've seen emails now from Jeremy Oaten) report in through me. I look forward to hearing your input and preferences on our processes when you are ready. We want to support your office as best we can and there are a couple of functions we should clarify now that your office is up and running.

You can work through me on any requests to the Ministry...I do traffic control so things get to the right person and we track everything for follow up to make sure you get a response on requests. Between myself and Lindsay Chauvin, you'll see briefing materials, background information, decision notes and other such items for the Minister. I'll also work with you on briefing requests for internal Ministry items. We can review and discuss our proposed briefing agendas and ensure the Minister is well supported. I am also your contact for all requests for information that come through your office, sometimes from stakeholders but primarily from MLAs. I would closely with the executive team and GCPE to support as needed. And if you need assistance tracking anyone down, including the DM, I can help.

Look forward to meeting you and welcome...

Hi Christian,

I'm wondering if you can please take this on. You will need to check:

- 1) With Cindy to see if it's already in the calendar
- 2) With the Minister to see if she's interested
- 3) With the DM to check if they believe it would be helpful in any way

Please review in the next week, let me know and then after we've discussed you can send a reply to Debbie.

Hi James, see below request JTT on behalf of Minister Ralston, responsible for compiling the mission plan for Government. We've attached here all possible AEST travel and the proposed travel for the BC Council for International Education, and will include a caveat to the coordinator that the Ministry related travel are prioritised and leave has not requested or approved. The DM has asked I share this with your office for review and support prior to submitting to my colleague at JTT. Once all Ministries have submitted, and the info compiled, Minister Ralston will present the list to the Sustainable Shared Prosperity Committee (SSP) in the Fall.

I'd be happy to discuss!

Good afternoon,

The Honourable Bruce Ralston, Minister of Jobs, Trade and Technology has asked the ministry to coordinate a schedule of potential trade missions and international travel across government. Although we anticipate that out-bound travel may be minimal, we are canvassing ministries to request submission of plans for Minister and Deputy Minister international travel for the remainder of the 2017-18 fiscal year.

We would appreciate if you would identify a contact that will lead coordination of your ministry's response by August 28 and submit your ministry's travel plans using the attached template. Please provide this information to Maureen Yelovatz, Director, International Missions and Corporate Events, by September 8, 2017.

Please ensure that your ministry's submission includes potential overseas and USA missions and travel, and outlines how the travel will advance your mandate letter directives and strategic program priorities. Your submission should also include a canvas of crown agency travel.

If you do not anticipate any international travel during the remainder of the fiscal, please respond by indicating "No International Travel Planned."

Information will be treated as confidential and will be included in the government-wide annual mission plan that will be submitted to the Sustainable Shared Prosperity Committee for review prior to submission to the Premier Office's for approval.

If you have questions, please don't hesitate to contact me or Maureen Yelovatz. Thank you for your support of this initiative.

Best,
Fazil
