Hi James,

Attached is what is outstanding. If I could get these back today that would be great.

I believe we're still waiting on a decision from you on the Oct. 13 CALP event in Surrey as well:

1. Is a local MLA going to be an emcee – or will the local MLAs just be invited?
 - Suggestions for an MLA emcee/or please confirm you want the MLAs invited.
 - Rachna Singh (event location in her riding), MLA for Surrey-Green Timbers
 - Hon. Harry Bains, MLA for Surrey-Newton
 - Jagrup Brar, MLA for Surrey-Fleetwood
2. OR can we proceed with the PICS CEO as the emcee?

Hi everyone,

The Labour Force Survey for September 2017 was released this morning and these are the early highlights for B.C. and Canada.

B.C.

- In September, employment decreased by 6,700 in British Columbia to 2.473 million. This was largely due to fewer people in the labour force in September.
- There was a gain of 5,000 in full-time employment while there was a decline of 11,600 in part-time employment.
- In the 12 months to September 2017, employment increased by 85,100 (3.6%). This is the fastest year-over-year growth rate among all provinces. Ontario is second with 2.4% year-over-year employment growth.
- The unemployment rate decreased to 4.9% from 5.1% in September as the labour force declined by 12,400 and unemployment decreased by 5,800 to 126,300.
- In September, British Columbia had the lowest unemployment rate among the provinces at 4.9%. Manitoba was second lowest at 5.5% and Ontario is third at 5.6%.
- Youth (age 15-24) employment increased by 3,800 in September. The youth unemployment rate fell to 7.1% from 9.8%. B.C. has the lowest youth unemployment rate in Canada. Quebec has the second lowest rate at 8.7%.

Canada:

- Employment increased in September by 10,000. The number of people working full-time increased by 112,000 while the number of people working part-time increased by 102,000.
- This is the tenth consecutive month of employment gains in Canada.

- The unemployment rate remains at 6.2% in September.

Apologies for the delay.

p.s. do you think there's scope to do similar events s.13 other places, too, or is this a one-off?

Hi James and Christian;

Checking in on the event plan to announce funding for adult literacy programs.

We've suggested an event in Surrey around mid-October. We just need a date that works for MMM.

- Proactive event at the Progressive Intercultural Community Services Society in Surrey to announce $2.4 million in funding for 93 community adult literacy programs, which will help more than 9,000 adult learners within 89 communities in 2017-18.

Event plan attached.

Subject: For MMM Approval - 104896 Douglas college - Approval to acquire lease

Good Morning,

Please find attached materials for Minister's consideration and signature. Her signature is required on the Decision Note and Attachment 1 – Consent Form. By signing these documents she will be providing consent to Douglas College to acquire property by Lease Agreement from 777 Columbia Street Inc. for 4 floors of space in the Anvil Centre Office Tower in New Westminster.

- The term for the lease is 10 years, commencing September 1, 2018, and ending August 31, 2028, with two additional 5-year renewal options.
- The College plans to use internal funding sources to cover the costs of the lease until they are fully offset by expected student enrolment growth in Year 4 of the lease.
- This new space will provide new classroom, lab, office and meeting space to enable the College to expand to meet projected student demand, and will provide an alternate location for existing programs while renovations at the New Westminster Campus are completed.
- The leased space will service the majority of the existing and new Business and Commerce programs that include certificates, associate degrees, diplomas, bachelor degrees, post-baccalaureate diplomas and post-degree diplomas, and will accommodate up to 1,680 student FTEs.

This Lease Agreement has been reviewed by Ministry staff and it is recommended that approval be granted to Douglas College to acquire new space at the Anvil Centre near their existing New Westminster Campus.

Sincerely,

Lindsay Chauvin

Hello Rodney, Susan and Christina,

Last night I had the honour of attending the 15th Anniversary of UBC's Aboriginal MD Admissions Program. To date, 71 Indigenous students have entered the MD undergraduate program through this supportive program that provides them with services and mentorship – throughout the admissions process, undergrad and residency journey to becoming a doctor.

Here's the link to an incredible story about the impact of the program: <http://www.med.ubc.ca/indigenous-medical-graduates-follow-their-passions-and-inspire-future-generations/>

Good morning. The attached news releases from MIRR have suggested quote for Minister Mark. Target date for release is mid-October.

Quote 1:

Melanie Mark, Minister of Advanced Education, Skills and Training —

“Our investment in building Indigenous skills training and strong partnerships with First Nations communities ensures Indigenous people in British Columbia can thrive and succeed. Education and training has the ability to transform lives and futures – something I can personally relate to.”

Quote 2:

Melanie Mark, Minister of Advanced Education, Skills and Training —

“Foundational training, trades career exploration and safety certificates will help to generate new pathways for First Nations learners to success, including jobs and a better quality of life. This is an investment in the future of our province. Together, we are building a better B.C. for everyone.”

Quote 3:

Melanie Mark, Minister of Advanced Education, Skills and Training —

“Supporting education and training is one of the ways our government is making sure Indigenous people thrive throughout British Columbia. Making sure that future generations are ready to engage in the workforce and build thriving careers will build stronger families, stronger communities and a stronger British Columbia.”

Quote 4:

Melanie Mark, Minister of Advanced Education, Skills and Training —

“Our government is ensuring Indigenous people have the skills to succeed by being ready to join the workforce and build thriving careers to support themselves and their families. The training provided throughout the region will provide skills and accreditation that is aligned with the needs of the community and help further education and training.”

Quote 5:

Melanie Mark, Minister of Advanced Education, Skills and Training —

“Skills training can give students the tools they need to thrive, while being part of a strong, sustainable, and innovative economy that creates good-paying jobs. Targeted education and training for Indigenous participants provides a clearly defined path to succeed in a strong, sustainable and innovative economy.”

I greatly appreciated your following up with me regarding the Arts Umbrella building project on Granville Island.

James, thank you for the call on Friday afternoon.

As per our discussion, I very much look forward to the opportunity to meet with Minister Mark to:

- provide an overview of Arts Umbrella, our impact in this province, and our rigorous educational programs which spans early learning, elementary, secondary and post-secondary training;
- review the history of this project, to provide a building project status (including a presentation of the architectural design), and to outline the tremendous support and encouragement we have received from the community and by all levels of government, serving as a powerful validation of their confidence in our ability to help shape the thinkers and doers of the next few generations of British Columbians.

If so and if Tony is free at the time and if a brief is set up then yes.

- Minister's remarks
- Prof. Ono
- Dr. Banthia provides a longer description of the innovation
- Salman (PhD student) speaks about his involvement and his experiences at UBC
- James Olson (applied science dean) – could strike from speakers list if we think it's getting too long; I recommend we agree.

Hi team.

The suggestion from UBC is for the project lead – UBC Professor of Civil Engineering Dr. Nemkumar Banthia – to speak first.

This will allow the Minister to speak to the announcement and the bigger picture of innovation, research and entrepreneurship.

I wanted to flag this as it breaks with protocol as the Minister would normally be the first speaker.

Any concerns, or can we allow the UBC professor to speak first.

Or she says 6pm can work.

- We expect 934,000 job openings throughout British Columbia by 2025.
- Over two-thirds of these jobs are the result of retiring workers (69%), while the remaining 31% are new jobs created by economic growth
- We know that 78% – or about eight out of every 10 jobs – will require some post-secondary education or training.
- We work closely with employers, industry, post-secondary institutions to align education and training with in demand occupation.
- What type of jobs are these? We need it all from trades to tech through to business, management and health care.
- In the short term, when dealing with peak demand in a hot labour market, it is about getting people back into the labour force with training/re-training and getting people who are working the right skills that are needed through up-skilling. We have skills training programs to help address these needs.
- In the long term, we are looking at what's needed in the labour market as demographic trends tell us more people will retire and that the skills that are needed for jobs are evolving.
- For example, about 12% of job openings will need trades training. High-demand trades occupations include millwrights, heavy duty mechanics and carpenters.
- I announced $1.67 million for 562 additional trades seats on top of the 27,000 seats funded through the ITA.
- Affordable and accessible post-secondary education and training will ensure that our citizens, including those who are unemployed or under-employed, have the skills to thrive and succeed.

It is for a series to be aired on CBC's afternoon show 'On the Coast' on labour shortages and the need to align demand with supply through post-secondary institutions.

The last government claimed to be working to bridge the gap between labour supply and demand.

The big question is where do we need to go now?

Hi Debbie,

Just checking that the materials for today will be going to Christina Rzepa in Vancouver, too?

She will be with the minister on her tour of the facility.

Thanks,

So on this one, I'll let you book with him but can give some insight into the schedule. Wednesday we are booked until 2, s.13,s.22 so 2:30 would not be ideal.

Thursday she should be back in Vancouver by 1, so meeting in between 1 and 2 would be the best time slot.

Thanks!

I greatly appreciated your following up with me regarding the Arts Umbrella building project on Granville Island.

James, thank you for the call on Friday afternoon.
As per our discussion, I very much look forward to the opportunity to meet with Minister Mark to:

- provide an overview of Arts Umbrella, our impact in this province, and our rigorous educational programs which spans early learning, elementary, secondary and post-secondary training;
- review the history of this project, to provide a building project status (including a presentation of the architectural design), and to outline the tremendous support and encouragement we have received from the community and by all levels of government, serving as a powerful validation of their confidence in our ability to help shape the thinkers and doers of the next few generations of British Columbians.

James – thank you for making time to speak yesterday.

I spoke to Ann English, the CEO & Registrar for Engineers and Geoscientists BC and she and her colleagues were very happy to hear your office agreed in principle to the meeting.

When we spoke you suggested that Friday October 27th at 1PM in Vancouver may work for the Minister's schedule. I can confirm that works for Ann and her team.

They would also be pleased to travel to Victoria anytime that week (Monday October 23rd to Thursday October 26th) to meet with the Minister in her office if that is easier.

I am available to answer any questions you have or I have copied Laurel Buss, the Communications Officer for Engineers and Geoscientists BC in case you prefer to be in contact with her directly.

Dear Minister Mark:

I'm writing on behalf of Engineers and Geoscientists BC (formerly APEGBC) to request a meeting with you and our President to brief you on Engineers and Geoscientists BC's priorities and anticipated interactions with Government for the coming year. As the Minister responsible for the Engineers and Geoscientists Act, we would welcome the opportunity to meet with you in Victoria or Vancouver at a time that is convenient for you.

When we meet we would like to discuss the many ways we align with and support your government's priorities, brief you on work we have undertaken to examine expansion of our mandate to regulate engineering and geoscience companies to enhance public safety, and our interest in Government's review of the professional reliance model.

As you may know, Engineers and Geoscientists BC administers the Engineers and Geoscientists Act which regulates the practice of professional engineering and professional geoscience in BC. We have a clear mandate to uphold and protect the public interest by setting and maintaining high academic, experience and professional practice standards. We are one of the largest regulatory bodies in the province with 34,000 members around BC.

Please contact Laurel Buss, Communications Officer, at lbuss@egbc.ca or by phone at 604.412.6052 to schedule a meeting date.

If I can offer any additional information, or answer any questions that you or your staff may have, please don't hesitate to contact me.

I look forward to your reply.
