Our social media crew has asked Twitter to whitelist the minister for Twitter Media Studio.

This function will appear when you click the avatar / icon on the top right.
Hopefully, it will make it easier to upload video rather than tweeting out YouTube links.

I've done as thorough a search as I can, and cannot find any record of the Ministry or Minister receiving correspondence from this group since the Minister was appointed.

Hi Debbie,
Following up on a previous request that came through the Point Grey office – you had checked and saw that we hadn't received any correspondence from their constituent, but he followed up and said that his organization had sent in a request.
The group is Chartered Professionals in Human Resources , BC and Yukon, and they had written in regarding legal recognition of their association.
I know that CPA falls under our Ministry but would this fall within our jurisdiction?
Do you mind taking a look to see if we received anything from this organization and what direction it was taken in?
Thanks so much,

Sounds good, in the meantime I'll also check in with the Ministry and see if they have any background info they can share.
Cheers!

Hi Lynn,

Reading through, I see that s.22

had written to us and received a ministry response – do you have copies of these? It would be good to read through what has already been said before getting more information from the Ministry.

Thanks!

Thanks for this, I've asked staff to reply directly.

I've also requested any supporting factsheets/backgrounder specific to student aid...the link here is pretty helpful, intuitive in function. You may want to share with your colleagues to ensure they all have checked it out. <https://studentaidbc.ca/>
