I am the Director of Human Resources at the Industry Training Authority. We are looking for the right person to fill a role as the Director of Indigenous Initiatives. In essence, the role is about raising awareness of and encouraging pursuing careers in the trades. We target groups such as students and women and this role is particularly responsible for doing so with the Indigenous communities of BC.

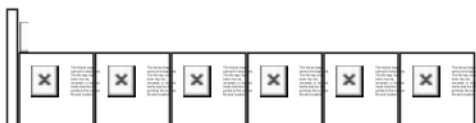

Your help is greatly appreciated and please feel free to call with any questions.

Best,

Christian Codrington
