Here's our suggested statement from the Minister, for reactive media over the weekend. Please let me know if there are further edits or if approved.

"The flavours and quality of B.C. wines are enjoyed across our country and in many more, which makes the ban on the import of B.C. wine into Alberta all the more disappointing. The ban prevents Albertans from enjoying a Canadian product that is putting B.C. on the map as a global destination for new world wine, and hurts many family-owned vineyards and wineries here at home.

The B.C. government stands with B.C. wineries, and is working with the B.C. Wine Institute to increase opportunities for our wines in our province, Canada, and around the world, and we are committed to succeeding on all fronts. I know many British Columbians share that feeling of support, because in recent days I have heard from many local wine drinkers who now, more than ever, want to support the people who live and work in our wine regions. This Family Day weekend, support B.C.'s family-run vineyards and wineries; Buy BC Wine. Together, let's support B.C. Wine."
