Thanks for the call, and thanks for circulating the calendar invitation.

We have an invitation in the que, and will issue invites once we have received list of stakeholders from your end. Rick, if you could kindly also confirm the exact address of the location once that has been finalized with the Harbour Authority that would be very helpful.

Further, on the News Release, it is our preference that a quote from Minister Popham be included despite her absence, given how closely Minister Wilkinson has worked with her on this file.

Thanks,
Fiona

Hi Mark,

I've reached out to our DM and ADM Mack to see if either of them are available and encouraging one of them to attend obo the Province. If you would like an elected official, I could see if MLA Doug Routley is available – he co-chaired the Wild Salmon Advisory Council and has been a great spokesperson when MLP not available. Let me know if you'd like to explore this option.

The reception is in Vancouver, correct?

I've sent Doug a heads up text but if you could follow up with CBC and Doug to schedule that would be great. Thanks!

Hi Kevin,

Greetings and best wishes to all of you gathered in Abbotsford at the British Columbia Outstanding Young Farmers event. What a great opportunity for you to get together, network, and discuss your important role in our agriculture sector. You serve communities all over our province and play such an important role in our agricultural industry. You are the future.

I could not be more grateful to be in the position to serve as your champion for agriculture and food production in our province.

Young farmers like yourselves are the next generation of B.C.'s agriculture industry, and our government is working hard to support you. Through Grow BC, we are strengthening our sector and ensuring new farmers and young people have access to our province's fertile agricultural land so they can continue British Columbia's farming legacy. We are in this together and committed to providing safe, nutritious products for B.C. families and families around the world. We're also working to increase demand for your products within public institutions, and supporting opportunities for value-added food processing, through Feed BC. And we're helping you let consumers here at home and worldwide know that your product is from B.C. through our Buy BC brand and marketing program.

From the work you do on the farms, to the new and exciting ideas you bring to the sector, thank you for your passion and dedication. I wish you all the best with your events.

Hi Maeghan,

I've just heard May 23/24 are viable for MSF, as they are for MLP tentatively as well.

She's been in the Okanagan all day doing tours and an announcement so I've been unable to get confirmation directly, which I could like to do before s.16 . I should know by Monday, possibly earlier and will get in touch with you.

Thanks,

Jessica

Yes, if there's an echo we can do down there with a wild salmon processor from BC that could be one avenue. I'll review the list of exhibitors on Monday again and let you know.

First thing that comes to mind is that it comes immediately after the Premier's announcement on Friday. Not sure where to go with that, but that's one thing. I am sure there is more.

Also, you'll be in Boston on St. Patrick's day. s.22

Hi Rick,

Thanks for the prompt. We have no announcements planned while MLP is in Boston; that being said, it's the largest seafood trade expo in North America and it's the first time in a long time a BC Minister is attending. Strong turnout from Atlantic fisheries Ministers but not historically BC, so her being there is already getting some attention.

I'll be staffing and would like to discuss any ideas you're interested in pursuing.

Hi Sam and Jessica,

No rush to reply to this until next week, but I am just wondering about the Minister's trip to Boston. Are there any plans to make news out of it? I don't have anything specific to suggest, just wondering if it is possible.

Let me know
Thanks
Rick
