CONFLICT OF INTEREST - DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

A conflict of interest arises where you have an interest which conflicts (or might conflict, or might be perceived to conflict) with performance of your statutory duties under the legislation governing the Tribunal (the "Governing Legislation").

A conflict of interest may take a number of forms. It may be financial or non-financial. It may be direct or indirect. It may be professional or family related.

A conflict of interest may arise from directorships (business or not-for-profit) or employment; interests in business enterprises or professional practices; share ownership; beneficial interests in trusts; existing professional or personal associations with the Tribunal; ongoing or outstanding matters before the Tribunal; professional associations or relationships with other organizations; personal associations with other groups or organizations; or family relationships.

Every appointee or potential appointee of the Tribunal must disclose any duty, affiliation or interest that might conflict with his or her duty to the Tribunal.

Prepared by: Board Resourcing and Development

Letest Revision: May 2007

DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES

Appointees to the Tribunal are appointed under the Governing Legislation. They must have a commitment to making the best possible decisions in accordance with the Governing Legislation and administrative law principles. Appointees must carefully adhere to these duties, take their jobs seriously and meet high standards of accountability.

- By signing this Profile and Declaration, I acknowledge and understand that, in carrying out my duties, I have a responsibility to:
 - a) be courteous and treat all parties fairty and with respect;
 - b) be punctual and organized;
 - c) identify opportunities to resolve disputes or issues and bring those opportunities to the attention of the parties at the earliest possible time, with the least cost while ensuring that all parties are treated fairly;
 - d) ensure that organizational and preliminary procedural matters are resolved quickly;
 - e) conduct effective hearings and render fair, well-reasoned decisions based on the evidence and applicable law and policy;
 - recognize and deaf appropriately with situations that may involve an issue of bias or conflict of interest and do so in accordance with the Tribunal's applicable code of conduct;
 - g) maintain currency with respect to the justice system, including relevant legislation, policies and procedures;
 - h) work with agency staff and be familiar with case management practices; and
 - i) ensure that files are completed in a timely manner.

(Note: These duties are in addition to duties and responsibilities set out in the Tribunel's own Code of Conduct or Conflict of Interest Guidelines.)

INTEGRITY AND PUBLIC ACCOUNTABILITY

Note: An affirmative answer to any of the questions in paragraphs 13 to 17 does not automatically disqualify a potential applicant from being appointed. Each candidate's background will be considered in relation to the specific requirements of the appointment.

14. In your employment, business or personal affairs, have you, or any business in which you have a direct or indirect controlling interest, in B.C. or elsewhere:

CONFLICT OF INTEREST - DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

A conflict of interest arises where you have an interest which conflicts (or might conflict, or might be perceived to conflict) with the interests of the Organization.

A conflict of interest may take a number of forms. It may be financial or non-financial. It may be direct or indirect. It may be professional or family related.

Prepared by: Board Resourcing and Development

Latest Revision: May 2007

A conflict of interest may arise from directorships or other employment; interests in business enterprises or professional practices; share ownership; beneficial interests in trusts; existing professional or personal associations with the Organization; professional associations or relationships with other organizations; personal associations with other groups or organizations; or family relationships.

Every director or potential director of the Organization must disclose any duty or interest that might conflict with his or her duty or interest to the Organization.

- A direct or indirect conflict with my duty as a Director of the Organization may arise because (please indicate if non-applicable):
 s.22
 - a) I, or my associates¹, hold the following offices (appointed or elected):
 s.22
 - b) I, my associates, or any trustee or any nominee on my behalf, own or possess, directly or indirectly, the following interests (i.e., shares, businesses, or properties):
 s.22
 - I, or my associates, have the following interests in existing or proposed transactions with the Organization.
 s.22
- A real or perceived conflict of interest with my duty as an appointee to the Organization may arise because I receive financial remuneration (either for services performed by me, as an owner or part owner, trustee, or employee or otherwise) from the following sources (please indicate if non-applicable): s.22

DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES TO THE ORGANIZATION

Board Directors owe the Organization they serve undivided loyalty and a commitment to making the best possible decisions. Directors must carefully adhere to these duties and take their jobs seriously to set high standards of accountability.

By signing this Profile and Declaration, you acknowledge and understand that you are bound by the following duties and responsibilities. (Note: These duties are in addition to the Organization's own Code of Conduct or Conflict of Interest Guidelines.)

- 15. Duty of Care: You have a duty of care to the Organization which means that:
 - you must exercise the degree of skill and diligence reasonably expected from an ordinary person of your knowledge and experience;
 - in making decisions, you must always act in the best interests of the Organization;
 - you must base your decisions upon facts and reliable information; and
 - you must not act without first taking care to be properly informed.
- 16. Duty of Loyalty: This duty embraces fairness, good faith and honesty. It means that, in all decisions, you must act in the Organization's best interests, not your own. Specifically, you must:
 - be honest in your dealings within the Organization and with others on behalf of the Organization;
 - maintain the confidentiality of information received by you in your capacity as board member both before and after termination (for whatever reason) of your appointment; and
 - avoid situations where you could put yourself in a position of conflict between your own private interests and the best interests of the Organization.
- 17. Duty of Obedience: This duty requires that you know the Organization's mission and the laws and regulations that affect the carrying-out of the mission. This duty means that you must:
- 18. carry out the Organization's purposes; and take all necessary and reasonable measures to assure compliance with laws, regulations and policies that apply to the Organization.

INTEGRITY AND PUBLIC ACCOUNTABILITY

Note: An affirmative answer to any of the questions in sections 18 to 21 does not automatically disqualify a potential applicant from being appointed. Each candidate's background will be considered in relation to the specific requirements of the appointment.

- 19. In your employment, business or personal affairs, have you, or any company in which you have a direct or indirect controlling interest, in B.C. or elsewhere:
 - (a) been charged with (where charges are still outstanding) or convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code of Canada?
 - (b) been charged with (where charges are still outstanding) or convicted of an offence under any other Federal statutes or regulations, including the Income Tax Act, the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act, or others?
 - (c) been charged with (where charges are still outstanding) or convicted of any offence under any Provincial statutes or regulations?
 - (d) been charged with (where charges are still outstanding) or disciplined by any professional association or body?
 - (e) had any improper dealings with government (e.g. improper solicitation of contracts, lobbying or representations?
 - (f) been involved in any issue or controversy that has gone, or is now likely to go to litigation or public review?

If you answered "Yes" to any of the above questions, please provide details below. s.22
