The Honourable Katrine Conroy

Minister of Children and Family Development

PO Box 9057, Stn Prov Govt

Victoria, BC V8W 9E2

SUBJECT: Creation of a student centered mental health strategy

Dear Minister Conroy,

At the most recent Annual General Meeting of the BC School Trustees Association (BCSTA), our membership passed the following two resolutions directly related to child and youth mental health:

That BCSTA publicly support the recommendations contained in the Report of the Select Standing Committee on Children and Youth entitled Child and Youth Mental Health in British Columbia: Concrete Actions for Systemic Change.

That BCSTA request the Ministries of Education, Children and Family Development, Mental Health and Addictions, and Health, along with boards of education and stakeholders from the K-12 education sector, develop a student-centred mental health strategy that will guide and support the delivery of mental health promotion, mental illness prevention and early intervention in BC schools.

A key focus for our member boards of education, as well as your government, is the mental health and well-being of children and youth across BC. We are all aware of the growing problem of mental health concerns, as well as addictions, arising from a lack of early intervention. For this reason, BCSTA has endorsed the findings and recommendations of the Select Standing Committee on Children and Youth.

We are also encouraged by the emphasis you have put on finding solutions to this problem, and the initial steps taken to build a multi-sector approach to the rising crisis. Our recent meeting with Ministry of Education staff also emphasized the positive work being lead by them in the K-12 sector, as well as the keen interest of Minister Fleming in developing a coordinated community-based approach to future interventions. That being said, we strongly encourage you and your colleagues to redouble your efforts to immediately develop a provincewide, multi-sector formal strategy to guide all of our efforts. The well-meaning efforts of many groups, including boards of education, need an overarching guiding strategic plan if we are to be successful.

If we are to be successful in making a meaningful difference in the lives of children and youth who face mental health challenges, the time for real action is now.

Thank you for considering our request and we look forward to any future dialogue on this important issue that you might consider. We certainly recognize our responsibility to be part of the solution and to work with you in this endeavor. Your support for bringing the various provincial government ministries together in support of this important initiative is critical to any future success.

Yours truly,

13. Support for Mental Health

Submitted by: Thompson Okanagan Branch

BE IT RESOLVED:

That BCSTA publicly support the recommendations contained in the Report of the Select Standing Committee on Children and Youth entitled Child and Youth Mental Health in British Columbia: Concrete Actions for Systemic Change.

Rationale:

This motion is needed because concrete actions to improve child and youth mental health services must be undertaken in a holistic (cross-governmental) way by government as a matter of high priority. As indicated in the Report:

"The Ministry of Health has seen an average 2.9% increase per year in the number of children and youth with mental health diagnoses accessing a broad range of Ministry of Health funded services. Between 2009 and 2013, BC has seen a 43% increase in the number of children, youth, and young adults aged 0-24 presenting to hospitals to seek mental health and substance use services ... those aged 15-19 have the greatest rate of increase (73 % increase between 2009 and 2013)." (Report, page five.)

"The all-party Select Standing Committee on Children and Youth (the Committee) was established in 2006 to implement the second recommendation of the Honourable Ted Hughes in his 2006 BC Children and Youth Review to 'encourage Government and the Opposition to work together to address the challenges facing the (children and youth) system.'" (Report, page one.)

Youth in care are particularly affected by mental health challenges. The time to act is now to improve the life chances of youth in care. The process of addressing mental health services for children and youth in care has been long and remains ongoing. The mental health needs of our children in care are well known and these mental health issues negatively impact their education.

This is an action motion and does not change or contradict any existing Foundational or Policy Statement.

This motion relates to Foundational Statements 1.1FS (Mission), 1.2FS (Values), 4.6FS (Services for Students) and 8.3 (Special Education).

This motion relates to Policy Statements 2.1.2P (Roles and Responsibilities), 4.2.2P (Health-Promoting Schools), 4.2.4P (Substance Misuse Prevention) 4.6.1P (Coordination of Services) 6.1.2P and (Teacher Training for Special Needs Students).

General conditions of carriage

1. You must obtain your boarding pass and check in any baggage by the check-in deadline. Additionally, you must be available for boarding at the boarding gate by the boarding gate deadline. Failure to respect check-in and boarding gate deadlines may result in the reassignment of any pre-reserved seats, the cancellation of reservations, and/or ineligibility for denied boarding compensation.
2. Although reconfirmation of flights is not required, we strongly recommend that you check your flight status online at aircanada.com or by calling our flight information system at 1-888-422-7533 prior to your departure.
3. Advance seat assignments are not guaranteed and may change without notice. If your pre-assigned seat is unavailable, we will try to accommodate you in a comparable seat in the same class of service and will refund any applicable fees.
4. Any travel credit banked for unused tickets is non-transferable: when the credit is redeemed, it must be used by the same person whose name appears on the original ticket.
5. Air Canada will cancel any purchased ticket and provide a full refund without penalty up to 24 hours after purchase. Beyond 24 hours, voluntary changes to your itinerary may require the payment of additional fees and fare upgrades. If you are travelling on a non-refundable ticket, Air Canada will be unable to make exceptions in the event of an unexpected trip cancellation or medical emergency. We recommend the purchase of travel insurance.
6. Dangerous goods

For safety reasons, dangerous goods must not be packed in checked or carry-on baggage, except as specifically permitted. Dangerous goods include, but are not limited to: compressed gases, corrosives, explosives, flammable liquids and solids, radioactive materials, oxidizing materials, poisons, infectious substances, and briefcases with installed alarm devices. For security reasons, other restrictions may apply. Please refer to the Restricted and Prohibited Items page on our website for more information.
7. Subject to the provisions of the Montreal Convention and the Warsaw Convention, as well as the provisions of its applicable tariffs, Air Canada may refuse carriage of property in checked luggage that is not suitable for transportation, such as fragile or perishable items and may refuse to carry valuable items (a valuable is deemed to be any item whose value is $ 1,000 CAD or more, per Kilogram or $1 CAD per gram). Air Canada may refuse claims based on the inherent nature of an item (e.g. its perishable nature), or for loss or delay of unsuitably or inadequately packed items, to the extent that the destruction, loss or damages resulted from the inherent defect, quality or vice of the baggage, or, in the case of delay, that the carrier, its agents, and servants took all measures that could reasonably be required to avoid the damage, or that it was impossible to take such measures.
8. International travel

Governments may require your carrier to provide information on or permit access to passenger data. You cannot travel if you do not have all required travel documents, such as a passport and visa (where applicable), to enter in or transit through each country/region on your itinerary. Please refer to the Travel Documents page on our website for more information.
9. In-flight health

Most people are fit to travel by air, but special attention is required for passengers whose health problems may be exacerbated by altitude, travel stress, hypoxia and other travel related difficulties. Our website offers important health tips and information for customers with special needs who may require medical approval before flying.

Please also note that aircraft disinsection is carried out on certain routes, in compliance with the requirements of the World Health Organization (WHO), the International Civil Aviation Organization, Transport Canada and applicable foreign regulatory authorities. More information is available on our website.
10. Schedules and timetables

Time and aircraft type shown in timetables or elsewhere are approximate and not guaranteed, and form no part of the contract. Schedules are subject to change without notice and carrier assumes no responsibility for passenger making connections not included as part of the itinerary set out in the ticket. Carrier is not responsible for changes, errors or omissions either in timetables or other representations of schedules.
11. Overbooking notice

Airline flights may be overbooked, and there is a slight chance that a seat will not be available on a flight for which a person has a confirmed reservation. If the flight is overbooked, no one will be denied a seat until airline personnel first ask for volunteers willing to give up their reservation in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, the airline will deny boarding to other persons in accordance with its particular boarding priority. With few exceptions, persons denied boarding involuntarily are entitled to compensation. The complete rules for the payment of compensation and boarding priorities are available at all airport ticket counters and boarding locations.

Failure to respect check-in and boarding gate deadlines may result in the reassignment of any pre-reserved seats, the cancellation of reservations, and/or ineligibility for denied boarding compensation.
2. Although reconfirmation of flights is not required, we strongly recommend that you check your flight status online at aircanada.com or by calling our flight information system at 1-888-422-7533 prior to your departure.
3. Advance seat assignments are not guaranteed and may change without notice. If your pre-assigned seat is unavailable, we will try to accommodate you in a comparable seat in the same class of service and will refund any applicable fees.
4. Any travel credit banked for unused tickets is non-transferable: when the credit is redeemed, it must be used by the same person whose name appears on the original ticket.
5. Air Canada will cancel any purchased ticket and provide a full refund without penalty up to 24 hours after purchase. Beyond 24 hours, voluntary changes to your itinerary may require the payment of additional fees and fare upgrades. If you are travelling on a non-refundable ticket, Air Canada will be unable to make exceptions in the event of an unexpected trip cancellation or medical emergency. We recommend the purchase of travel insurance.
6. Dangerous goods

For safety reasons, dangerous goods must not be packed in checked or carry-on baggage, except as specifically permitted. Dangerous goods include, but are not limited to: compressed gases, corrosives, explosives, flammable liquids and solids, radioactive materials, oxidizing materials, poisons, infectious substances, and briefcases with installed alarm devices. For security reasons, other restrictions may apply. Please refer to the Restricted and Prohibited Items page on our website for more information.
7. Subject to the provisions of the Montreal Convention and the Warsaw Convention, as well as the provisions of its applicable tariffs, Air Canada may refuse carriage of property in checked luggage that is not suitable for transportation, such as fragile or perishable items and may refuse to carry valuable items (a valuable is deemed to be any item whose value is $ 1,000 CAD or more, per Kilogram or $1 CAD per gram). Air Canada may refuse claims based on the inherent nature of an item (e.g. its perishable nature), or for loss or delay of unsuitably or inadequately packed items, to the extent that the destruction, loss or damages resulted from the inherent defect, quality or vice of the baggage, or, in the case of delay, that the carrier, its agents, and servants took all measures that could reasonably be required to avoid the damage, or that it was impossible to take such measures.
8. International travel

Governments may require your carrier to provide information on or permit access to passenger data. You cannot travel if you do not have all required travel documents, such as a passport and visa (where applicable), to enter in or transit through each country/region on your itinerary. Please refer to the Travel Documents page on our website for more information.
9. In-flight health

Most people are fit to travel by air, but special attention is required for passengers whose health problems may be exacerbated by altitude, travel stress, hypoxia and other travel related difficulties. Our website offers important health tips and information for customers with special needs who may require medical approval before flying.

Please also note that aircraft disinsection is carried out on certain routes, in compliance with the requirements of the World Health Organization (WHO), the International Civil Aviation Organization, Transport Canada and applicable foreign regulatory authorities. More information is available on our website.
10. Schedules and timetables

Time and aircraft type shown in timetables or elsewhere are approximate and not guaranteed, and form no part of the contract. Schedules are subject to change without notice and carrier assumes no responsibility for passenger making connections not included as part of the itinerary set out in the ticket. Carrier is not responsible for changes, errors or omissions either in timetables or other representations of schedules.
11. Overbooking notice

Airline flights may be overbooked, and there is a slight chance that a seat will not be available on a flight for which a person has a confirmed reservation. If the flight is overbooked, no one will be denied a seat until airline personnel first ask for volunteers willing to give up their reservation in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, the airline will deny boarding to other persons in accordance with its particular boarding priority. With few exceptions, persons denied boarding involuntarily are entitled to compensation. The complete rules for the payment of compensation and boarding priorities are available at all airport ticket counters and boarding locations.

Dear Minister Conroy,

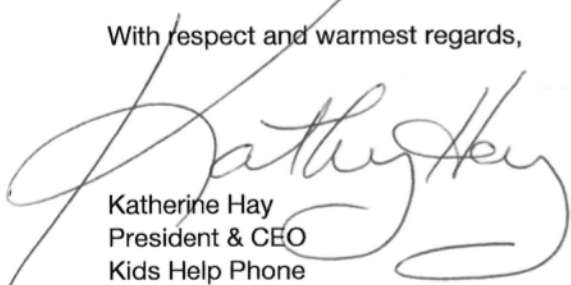

The recent B.C. Coroner's death-review report of youth aging out of government care found that young people leaving care died at five times the rate of the general population of young people in British Columbia. These alarming statistics demonstrate the impact of losing the social workers, foster parents, monetary support and other assistances these youth had come to rely on – leaving them as some of the most vulnerable members of the population.

Here at Kids Help Phone, the alarming trends surrounding youth transitioning out of care coincide closely with our data. Older youth from British Columbia, aged 20+, received counselling the 2nd most frequently of any other province in Canada. As we discussed in our meeting with Robert Lampard, Executive Director of Child and Youth Mental Health, on May 31 2018, Kids Help Phone is an organization offering a critical lifeline of hope and support. We have developed an unparalleled insight into the experiences of young people – including those leaving provincial care.

We want to help you provide the youth of British Columbia with the support they need, in the way they need it most. With additional resources from your government we can help better serve British Columbia youth transitioning out of care by providing them with the professional counselling and referral services that they need – providing a smoother transition to adulthood.

Moving forward, we would love to continue the conversation surrounding working together on a strategy for British Columbia. I would welcome an opportunity to meet you in the near future. Together, we can deliver solutions that will improve the mental health and well-being of youth in British Columbia.

With respect and warmest regards,

Katherine Hay

Subject: Meeting during the Summer Break - SOS Children's Village BC

Dear Minister Conroy,

Since our meeting with you last September, much has happened at SOS Children's Village. I would like to meet with you informally in July to chat and let you know about some wonderful developments.

A few items we might touch on;

;P We are now the National Programming Office for Canada for SOS International, and will soon be rolling out training programs on the UN Convention on the Rights of Children, and the UN Guidelines for the Alternative Care of Children both of which SOS was instrumental in creating.

;P Additionally we have just booked the UBC Campus for May of 2021 to host the first SOS sponsored international conference "Children and Youth at Risk: Keeping our Promises". Our desire is to focus on leading edge academic thought on issues regarding children and youth in care, as well as practical applications of that knowledge - specifically regarding the British Columbian and Canadian context. The conference will bring the SOS International program team – working in 135 countries, 573 Villages, and 2,600 programs over the last 70+ years together with global thought leaders, this combination of extensive experience and knowledge on all aspects of caring for children and youth should create a wealth of outcomes, including a pledge from Ted Talks to create a Ted Talks series with the key presenters.

;P The readiness of SOS Children's Village BC to act as a model of the Ministries goals in residential program revision.

;P SOS work with Telus to act as a test site for the Transition to Adulthood "cell phone for life" program.

;P And much more.

I would hope we could meet at your office in Castlegar, I don't mind the drive from Surrey at this time of year. Or if you are returning to Victoria at some point that would be great as well.

As you may recall at our first meeting, myself and the SOS Team are here for the long term, and want to support you and your team in the challenges you face, as friends and partners.

I look forward to seeing you again soon,

Warmest Regards,

DOUGLAS DUNN
