Hello Chief McLeod, my apologies for the delay in responding – Minister Conroy is in her constituency this week as we are on a Legislature break week.

Minister Conroy would very much have liked to attend and witness the work your community has been doing - unfortunately we need to send regrets for this event. That week of March 25-28th the House is in session and Minister Conroy is obliged to be in Victoria, and there is a conflicting event on the 29th. I looked into whether or not we could move that event on the 29th, at her request, but unfortunately it involves several parties and the date could not be changed.

So Minister Conroy is unable to attend this time, but we are wondering if she could pay a visit to your community sometime this spring when the House is not in session? She has also asked our Deputy, Allison Bond, if she could attend in her place this month. Please let me know if I should pass on the invitation to Deputy Bond. I hope this finds you well, Paula

Good afternoon Paula.

We have done considerable work here at Upper Nicola. Our grandmothers have been busy planning and doing their best to understand the role they will take with our children and families. Also doing their best to understand the legislation and policies of MCFD.

The grandmothers and ladies in our community are planning days to meet and just talk, plan and dream.

"What can we do to make our community better?"

The meeting dates are as follows:

March 25th, 26th, 28th or 29th

We have invited Mary Ellen Turpel-Lafond. Still waiting to hear from her.

I ask, on short notice, if the Honourable Katrine Conroy would be available to join our women? Share the work and vision for the future we are working together to develop.

We are on a huge platform and we know we need to do this work at community level to have any chance of raising health children in good, safe homes and community.

With Respect,

We

Hello Katrine,
An organization I am board member of, The Kootenay Wildlife Heritage Fund, is organizing a Wildlife Symposium (poster attached) on April 13th at the Key City Theatre in Cranbrook.

We have invited Doug Clovechok and Tom Shypitka to attend as our guests, although not participate, and I want to extend to you and any of your MLA colleagues, the same invitation. We want the Symposium to be apolitical and although I haven't seen the six presentations, I am not aware than any of the presenters intend to make politically partisan comments. No doubt all BC governments will be under the microscope by the very experienced biologists who are presenting.

The purpose of the Symposium is to bring together six very experienced biologists over the course of the day to present their views on why our wildlife populations have declined so precipitously and what can be done to recover these populations. Two of the retired biologists worked in the Kootenay region for many years. One is a university professor with several books to his credit. All are credible, experienced wildlife experts who have no ties to any government or corporation or group. None live in the region presently. One is from the US and one is from Manitoba.

Tickets for the event are $20.00 each and can be purchased by logging into www.keycitytheatre.com or by phoning 250-426-7006. MLA's will be granted access without payment.

The Symposium is being held all day on April 13th, a Saturday. I realize how Saturdays are so precious to MLA's but I wanted you and your Caucus to know there is an opportunity to attend as our guests.

I hope you'll be able to attend and/or that some of your colleagues may be able to attend.

All the best,

Bill

Subject: Minister Conroy: April 3rd Consular Corps Briefing

Hello Kirsten,

As you may be aware, Minister Ralston is responsible for Government's relations with the Consular Corps of B.C. as part of his mandate. The Consular Corps, made up of Consuls General and Honorary Consuls based mainly in Vancouver, is the official body comprising of the senior most foreign representatives resident in the Province, representing 82 countries. The Office of Protocol supports the Minister in achieving his mandate by facilitating interaction with the Consular Corps, including an annual briefing by Ministers on current BC Government priorities.

We are in the process of scheduling the next Consular Corps briefings in Victoria on the afternoon of Wednesday, April 3rd. Minister Ralston would appreciate Minister Conroy's participation by providing a presentation on the child care strategy. The Minister would also be invited to a luncheon hosted that day by Minister Ralston. A draft program rollout for the briefing is provided below. Minister Conroy would only be required for the 20 to 25 minutes of her presentation.

Please advise Manjit Khaira, cc'ed above, if Minister Conroy is available on April 3rd. FYI, we are also approaching other ministers regarding their availability to provide presentations.

Thank you very much for your attention to this request.

Dear Minister Chen,

Thank you for your continued support of Westcoast Child Care Resource Centre. The funding will allow us to offer much-needed leadership, administration, management, coaching and mentoring training across the province. Making this training accessible in a variety of ways to ECE's will enhance their practice and ultimately improve the quality of care and learning experiences for our youngest citizens. We are excited and eager to embark on the professional development work and bursary program.

Thank you for your time and interest in our thoughts regarding the upcoming CCRR contract and procurement process. The enhanced funding this year is appreciated to uplift our current programs and activities and look for ways to reach more families and educators.

The MCFD staff have been very accessible and responsive over the past few months in preparation for this change. In our discussion, I mentioned the anxieties that are being felt in our region and beyond regarding the procurement process. Sue Irwin, the Regional Coordinator for Vancouver Coastal, has organized our collective thoughts about this process. I have included her on this email if you would like to connect with her for more information.

Again, I would like to thank you and your team for your dedication and appreciation for the work of early childhood educators. I look forward to sharing with you how Westcoast implements the professional development funding to improve opportunities for educators to access training throughout B.C.

Kind Regards,
