Hi – I spoke with the event lead. They are testing a new app this year (WhoVa) to communicate with attendees and will consider sending a notice of her attendance through that channel. As the workshops are not pre-registered, it would be good to let them know she'll be attending. Will the Minister be staying for the duration of the session and available for questions (either after her remarks or Michelle's presentation?) They would include this as a draw.

Good morning Gayle.

s.22 and just returned to the office. I saw the story on Facebook over the weekend s.22 The story looks great.

When Selkirk College celebrated its 50th anniversary back in 2016, we embarked on a coffee table book project that traces the history of post-secondary in this region. I was the co-author on the book project and wrote a story about Katrine. This was prior to the NDP forming government. It was a sidebar story in a much bigger volume, but when the new Minister made an announcement last June about ECE, we published that little story on our website.

<http://selkirk.ca/news/intimate-knowledge-power-post-secondary>

It's the same photo as in your story :) I took that one at the ECE announcement, it's a good one and really captures Katrine's spirit.

Your story goes into more depth than the one in our book (and online), I enjoyed reading it. I will publish this story to our website later today with a call-to-action for our Selkirk College website and the ECE Program. I will also include the link to the expanded government bursary program.

Katrine is a valued alumnae of Selkirk College and more importantly a great person. We will be happy to share this story which again helps illustrate why so many people support her!

Thanks.

Here is the press statement.

Are you ok with this? If we can give them the ok before 4:30 it will be sent out today.

Columbia River Treaty negotiations come to Victoria

VICTORIA – Katrine Conroy, B.C. Minister Responsible for the Columbia River Treaty, issued the following statement after this week’s treaty negotiation meetings in Victoria:

“I was glad to be able to personally welcome the Canadian and American negotiating teams to Victoria for two more days of discussions about the future of the Columbia River Treaty.

“Negotiators had an honest exchange of views and perspectives, as they worked to find common ground on flood-risk management and hydro power co-ordination. Canada also raised the topics of other treaty benefits and adaptive management.

“Coming out of the latest round of talks, the negotiating teams have decided to conduct technical work between negotiating rounds, in order to support the progress of the discussions.

“As always, Indigenous perspectives are of great importance as we meet with U.S. negotiators to look at the treaty’s future. Canada and B.C. continue to work closely with representatives of the Indigenous Nations in the B.C. Columbia Basin to develop and refine Canada’s negotiating positions and objectives.”

The next round of Columbia River Treaty negotiation meetings will take place in Washington, D.C., on June 19 and 20.

To share views on the treaty, email columbiarivertreaty@gov.bc.ca or write to Columbia River Treaty Team, Ministry of Energy, Mines and Petroleum Resources, PO Box 9314 Stn Prov Govt, Victoria, BC V8W 9N1.

Hi Edena,
TJ talked with GAC and said it really depends on MKC's preference re:
where she wants to sit or stand. There will be a podium, but she may want to sit with the Canadian team, or somewhere else around the table.
Let me know if you think she has a preference. If not, we can play it by ear tomorrow.
Thanks!

Hi Edena,

Answer from TJ below. Sounds like she'll confirm further details, if there are any, during their meeting with GAC today.

Each side faces each other.

I don't know if there will be a podium or just a table. But I will make sure she has a place for her notes. We may have her sit with the Canada side or at front of table. I will check.

Hi Brooke,

Quick question. MKC wondering what is the room setup? Is it like last time... tables across from each other?

If so were will MKC speak... will there be a place for her to lay her notes?

Thanks,

Edena

I assume like last time:

Hi Edena and Robin,

I spoke with GAC this morning and confirmed the following re: MKC's opening remarks tomorrow:

1. They will expect MKC by 830am at the Parkside Hotel
 - 810 Humboldt St, City Club Lounge 8th floor
 - She can arrive earlier if she wants, but we will not be arranging a group photo before 830am

2. GAC is ok with Don Craig, GCPE photographer being in the room while MKC is there
3. Don can take photos while MKC speaks
4. If there is time and interest, Don can organize a group photo after MKC speaks. The photo can even be of everyone sitting around the table. If there is no time, that's ok.
5. GAC knows the Minister has to leave at 845

If either of you or Don needs to get in touch with someone at the venue in the morning, call or text TJ's cell - 250 812-1214.

Robin, please ensure Don knows that what is said in the room is confidential. He may need to remind folks to cover their documents/notebooks if he ends up taking photos of people sitting at the table.

Do you have any questions? It seems like folks are ok to play the photo piece by ear, and are looking forward to having the Minister join them.

Thanks,
Brooke

Ok thanks Edena. FYI, team Canada is going to chat about this tomorrow morning at their pre-meeting, so a group photo is not confirmed, we're just trying to figure out if it's possible, with the Minister's schedule being one of the deciding factors. 😊 Good to know she has to be at the Leg by 9.

Thanks!

Let me see what I can find out.

Hi Edena,

Can you confirm MKC's schedule for Wednesday morning?
Will she arrive at the Parkside right at 830am? What time does she have to leave? We are planning the logistics for possibly taking a group photo either before or after her opening remarks. Knowing her schedule will help us decide whether or not we coordinate a photo, and if so, when.

Thanks,

Brooke
