As discussed, this just in.

Deadline ASAP

Request

Specific request:

I am following up on this photo taken at the house of Kulwant Dhesi earlier this week featuring the Jinny Sims, the Premier and several other politicians with Maninder Gill beside them.

I'm sure you know Gill has been convicted of aggravated assault and other charges related to a 2010 shooting outside the Guru Nanak temple.

I am looking for a comment on why the minister would pose with a convicted gunman and whether that sends the right message given the problem of gun violence plaguing the province right now.

Note: reporter says the victim of the assault has raised objection to elected officials posing for a photo with this individual.
