Hi Minister,

There were some slight grammatical changes (nothing substantive) to the attached document. We need your approval to use your e-signature on page 7 so it can get to TB this afternoon.

Thanks,
Shannon

Prince George Conference & Civic Centre | January 22-24, 2019

Make the Most of the Networking Opportunities at the BC Natural Resources Forum

In addition to top-rated plenary sessions and keynote speakers, the BC Natural Resources Forum features plenty of opportunities to network with your fellow delegates. You are receiving this email as you opted-in to receive the list of delegates that have agreed to share their information. We want for you to make the most of your time at the Forum. Click HERE to access the information about your fellow delegates including names, titles, and company.

We are very pleased that over 75% of delegates agreed to include their name on this list. As you will see in the list, the BC Natural Resources Forum is attended by First Nations, Government leaders, a mix of resource sector developers (from a variety of sectors including mining, forestry, energy & oil & gas, and more), carriers (including road, rail, pipeline, marine & air), and providers of ancillary services. Most are at the manager level or more senior, including directors, presidents and the C-Suite. Delegates travel from all across the country to attend this annual event, and the group is consistently described by new attendees as a warm, welcoming and collaborative community.
