DEPUTY MINISTER

SCOTT MACDONALD

Scott MacDonald was appointed Deputy Minister of the Ministry of Education in July 2017. Scott has extensive leadership and public sector experience. Prior to his current portfolio, Scott was the Assistant Deputy Minister of the Labour Market and Information Division in the Ministry of Jobs, Tourism, Skills and Training for four years, and led the skills training and labour market programs across the Province.

Scott has also served as the Chief Executive Officer for Pacific Carbon Trust, a Crown corporation of the BC provincial government. In this role he was responsible for the start-up of a company and for building a carbon market in BC to support the growth of BC's low-carbon economy. Prior to that, he served as Assistant Deputy Minister for the Ministry of Education setting provincial education policy and standards.

Subject: DMC Meetings

Don would like to have a DMC meeting every Friday up to the end of August (8:30 – 10:00) with the exception of August 4 when s.22 Many of you s.22 during this time and he does not want anyone changing their plans. With this in mind, the person acting on your behalf can attend DMC for these meetings.

The standing agenda will be:

- Cabinet direction report out (Don)
- Colleague sharing (only items that DMC members should be made aware of, it won't be a round table of all members)
- PSA Update (Lori)

Starting in September DMC will return to the first Friday of every month schedule and the no substitutions policy will be applied. Keira will send out the meeting requests shortly.

Thank you

Dave Lane was looking at this last week, but I notice he is away today. Do you know how to get the new DM access to the e-approval site? Is it an internal sharepoint that is administered by EDUC people or is it a CAS thing?

Hi Dave - it appears that his previous ministry release has only just been completed in CAS. I put in a new request for his Education access today. There will be nothing for him to approve in there yet because no one could have picked him as an EA because he is not yet showing in this ministry. It will take CAS at least a day to complete - as it is an overnight change. His Time & Leave records are still not transferred either.

Subject: access to CAS for the Ministry of EDUCATION

Good Morning Scott: (I have set Laura Samson up as an I-expense delegate for you)

Your access to EDUCATION - CAS / iExpenses is now complete iExpenses is a web-based system for reimbursement of travel expenses and can be accessed by visiting the CAS website at the following link <http://www.cas.gov.bc.ca/> and selecting the Logon button on or after the NEXT business day.

NOTE: It is important that you login to BCGOV – Self Serve Common Functions and complete your Employee Profile Form even if you do not intend to use i-Expenses right away. It is also important that you use Internet Explorer only.

CAS / iExpenses are not compatible with: Chrome, FireFox, Safari or Java Runtime 8.

Setting up your Employee Profile:

1. Before you begin to use iExpenses you must create your Employee Profile. The information you will need to create your profile is your: I have provided the account coding for you

2.

- Travel Group - 3
- Client Number-062
- Responsibility Centre -22100
- Service Line-06540
- Project Code-2200000
- Your Primary Expense Approver – Keith Godin

2. To create your Employee Profile

- Logon to CAS Logon
- Select the Click here to enter the application link
- Select BCGOV - Self Service Common Functions
- Select Employee Profile
- Fill in the appropriate fields as outlined above, then select Save Profile

A demo which walks you through the process can be viewed at Creating your Employee Profile. Once you have finished creating your employee profile, you may begin to enter travel claims in iExpenses. Additional information regarding iExpenses is available on the CAS iExpenses Web Page.

For further information on CAS training and User Documentation, please visit the following the CAS Learning Centre page.

Subject: contacts

Can you get met the email contact for Mehan Wade – board chair in Kamloops

Also, can you find some contact lists for me. I'm looking for list of all sups
 S/Ts
 board chairs
 list of all schools

There should be a simple excel file for each of these groups of stakeholders.

Do you have access to my contacts (outlook)?

If so, can you add each of the ADMs (if not already added) and add each of the EDs, Directors and Managers from the ministry

If they have a cell, make sure that is included in the contacts

Good afternoon, Scott

Your GAL entry was updated, but they entered District Ministry rather than Deputy Minister in the Title field. I have been told that it would be quicker for you to update the entry rather than putting in an iStore order to have it corrected.

If you would like assistance, I can drop by at your convenience.

Cheers,

Hi Scott, this is Laura - your new SEA at Education. Feel free to let me know if I can get started on anything for you today.
Hi Laura-- thanks for reaching out. Nothing needed today. I'll plan to arrive at the office tomorrow morning (8:00 or so) and we can begin then. I'll send an email later tonight to you and the ADMs to set up our first mtg.
Sounds good! Looking forward to meeting and working with you.
Hi, just FYI the call with a Elizabeth was moved back to 4pm
Great
I won't be back for the 10 am mtg with Ramona. Sorry. Will need to reschedule
No problem
It's been moved to 10:45
Okay. I'm going to be with the minister until 2:00 pm. So, need push Ramona to another day and also move excom to 2:15 start. Hoping that works for our exec.
I have a lunch mtg which I will keep. Btw
Sounds good
Re hotel for this week: unable to extend stay at s.15
Rebooked s.15 @ $314 per night
Also found room at s.15 @ $205 per night.
If you helijet each day it will be approx $380 each day but no ferry cost.
When you have a chance, please let me know your preference.
Pls book the two nights at s.15 Thanks
Is it alright if I give Mike Roberts your cell #?
Yes.
Doing one more call then heading back for exec
Ok
Leaving now
Hear you're headed my way... just outside the Lege by east annex
Hear you wanted Corinna's number. Her cell is # 250-882-0918
Thanks
Do you need Peter to hang around after your BCCPAC meeting today or will you and Minister be ok?
No. One BCCPac arenin the room he can leave. He's been helpful.
Great!
Hi, do you know your ferry plans for tomorrow yet?
You are good. Pls book the 2pm ferry. Thanks
Also, do you need to call Corinna tomorrow? I know you were trying to reach her yesterday.
Yes We talked but lots more to do. Pls keep the call
Ok
Please call Theresa Kovacs at CAB ops when your meeting is done at 2:30; re: Vancouver School Board.
Her number is 250-952-6748
Will do
New plan: Theresa and Elizabeth will call you at 5pm, then they can both be on call.
Ok
Hi. Aiming to be in the office at about 3:30 today. I can meet with Eleanor in person.
Did you catch an earlier ferry?
Ugh. No. I can't do math. I'm at about 4:30. Sorry. Just about to leave now. I'll still call Eleanor at the scheduled time.
All good!

Pls book flights and a hotel in Vancouver for the FN leadership group

Helijet – AM – Tuesday Sept – last helijet to flight Vancouver

Hotel – Tuesday and Wednesday night

Helijet home – Wednesday – end of day – after 5pm

And let's talk about hotel for UBCM – either use my current reservation s.15 or pick up

Dave's reservation (if better rate).

Lastly, I'll need to stay over on Thursday in Vancouver – let's talk about this week's schedule.

Subject: Re: The Trajectories project

Hi Scott,

I was asked to produce a briefing note for the Trajectories project for the transition team (attached). In it I proposed that the trajectories project sit in the Ministry of Mental Health and Addictions because the interventions are generally regarded as "positive mental health" initiatives. I was told that the briefing note was well received, and I see that Judy Darcy's mandate includes "investing in early prevention and youth mental health."

I met with Ian Rongve and Darlene Therrien early in this process. Your ministry has always been very supportive of the project, but I haven't bugged them since Health has always been the sticking point. I did meet with Darlene a few weeks ago and she remained enthusiastic. I met with the people in your old group (CDI) yesterday. They tell me that the Trajectories project doesn't fit with them--they are only for research projects.

I am still working through the process, but I wanted to make sure that you had a copy of the briefing note early on so that you couldn't be blindsided.

Let me know if you have any questions.

After I'm settle in this new role, let's plan to reconnect as I'm sure there are lots of intersection points in the EDUC world.

Great. Thanks. Is it OK if Ed and Trevor come too? The project started out under Blue Thorn six years ago, but that was shut down by the health firings and its assets and people went to Elevate. Ed has been a contractor for Health since the 1980's.

Long time no see. I hope that you are well.

I met with Darlene Therrien yesterday regarding my Trajectories project and she suggested that I get in touch with you. I started the project before the Health firings and Stephen Brown has been helping me restart it since he became Deputy. The BC government formally agreed that it would be restarted as part of my settlement. Last week Arlene Paton, Heather Davidson and Hayden Lansdell met with me, proposing that it be included as a CDI project. Naturally, I am concerned about timing.

I have been working hard to promote this project. I pitched it in my meetings with the NDP when I met them regarding the health firings, and found a receptive audience. The BC Business Council published my blog on it (<http://bcbc.com/bcbc-blog>) and the CBC did a piece. I'm hoping that it will be a way for the NDP to demonstrate the ability to use evidence to fight crime and poverty while containing government costs. No new technology is needed--just the will to do it.

Darlene thought that this could be a win for your department as well. Would you like to get together to hear more?

Bill

here is the quick summary...

Each year 8,000 students drop out of school in BC. Each dropout will cost the government $200,000 over their lifetime in increased crime and welfare payments and in foregone tax revenue. In grade 4, when kids are only about 10 years old, we can identify half of these future dropouts. The What Works Clearing House has identified interventions that have been shown in randomized trials to be effective at preventing dropouts. The Trajectories Project identifies students who are on a trajectory towards dropping out. This will allow us to target services to those who need them most and rigorously monitor their effectiveness so that we can demonstrate progress within two years.

INFORMATION BRIEFING NOTE

TITLE: Trajectories to Success: Evidence-based policy and investments in children

PURPOSE: To identify immediate steps that can be taken to address poverty, crime and the fentanyl crisis that will have broad political support and will generate results before the next election

SUMMARY: Each year 8,000 students drop out of school in BC. Each dropout will cost the government $200,000 over their lifetime in increased crime and welfare payments and in foregone tax revenue. Preventing these dropouts would save BC the equivalent of $1.6 billion annually. In grade 4, when kids are only about 10 years old, we can identify half of these future dropouts. The US What Works Clearing House has identified interventions that have been shown in rigorous randomized trials to be effective at reducing dropouts. Identifying BC students who are on a trajectory towards dropping out, targeting services to those students, and rigorously monitoring the effectiveness of those interventions, will allow us to demonstrate progress in addressing poverty, crime and the fentanyl crisis in a cost-effective manner.

BACKGROUND: High school dropouts impose costs on society and government, in the form of additional crime (Lochner & Moretti, 2004), higher welfare costs (Coelli, Green, & Warburton, 2007), worse health (Heckman, Humphries, & Veramendi, 2016) and foregone tax revenue (Rouse, 2005). A well educated population contributes to economic growth directly through increased productivity, and indirectly by allowing faster adoption of new technology, spillover effects and speeding innovation. (Hultan & Ramey, 2017)

There is a consensus that even though “Long-term evidence on their effectiveness is surprisingly limited,” some early interventions are very effective at increasing educational attainment (García, Heckman, Leaf, & Prados, 2016). But most interventions for children have a modest impact, and some are actually harmful. For example, Tennessee’s statewide pre-K program resulted in worse attitudes toward school and poorer work habits. (Lipsey, Farran, & Hofer, 2015) And a recent large scale rigorous evaluation of the American Head Start (Puma, et al., 2012), concluded, “early effects rapidly dissipated in elementary school, with only a single impact remaining at the end of 3rd grade for children in each age cohort.”

Achieving “evidence-based policy” in the area of interventions for children is particularly challenging because the field is over-run with advocacy and junk science. In a famous review of the literature the US American National Research Council (Committee on Youth Employment Programs, National Research Council , 1985) found that 93% of studies of programs intended to promote youth employment were unreliable. This ratio has been sustained over the years. In 1998, Lyn Karoly and colleagues (Karoly & Levaux, 1998) reported that only nine studies provided reliable evidence on the effects of early interventions. In order to sift the evidence from the mounds of junk, the US government established the What Works Clearinghouse within the Department of Education. On the first page of drop-out prevention programs, WWC reports that of the 126 studies they reviewed, 116 (92%) did not meet their standards of evidence (WWC, 2017).

Two steps will allow us to capture the potential benefits from investments in BC children:

1. Identify children at risk and provide services to those children first. This is an ethical way to allocate scarce resources and a broad literature indicates that providing services to the disadvantaged first is likely to increase the cost-effectiveness of those services (Public Health Agency of Canada , 2009) (Elango, García, Heckman, & Hojman, 2015).

2. Develop strong evidence of effectiveness. Comparing outcomes for those just above the cut-off for receiving services with the outcomes for those just below the cut-off, is widely regarded as producing strong evidence (Lee & Lemieux, 2010). For example, it meets the proposed WWC standards of evidence. (WWC, 2015) Adopting a rigorous method will allow published evaluation results to convincingly demonstrate BC's success in fighting crime and poverty.

Ministry of Mental Health: The Ministry of MH is a potential site for this project. Dropout prevention programs often involve a mental health component and successful dropout prevention programs are expected to reduce illegal drug use and therefore contribute to addressing the fentanyl crisis. Risk: the Ministry of MH is prevented from accessing health data as the Ministry of Health planning was. Solution: Build robust data access powers into the legislation for the Ministry of Mental Health.

Ministry for Children and Family Development: MCFD is a potential site for this project if its youth mental health programs are not transferred to the Ministry of MH. Regardless, child protection and youth criminal justice data will be needed for the project.

Ministry of the Attorney General: Criminal justice data will be needed for the project. A long term benefit of the project will be reduced crime.

Ministry of Health: The Ministry of Health is a potential site for this project as prevention and positive mental health interventions can be regarded as public health initiatives. Health data is needed for this project.

Ministry of Education: The MoE is a potential site for this project. Education data is needed for this project.

ADVICE:

- Place the initiative in the Ministry of Mental Health to emphasize the newness of the approach.
- Require all Ministries to provide data to maximize the accuracy of the targeting and the reliability of the assessment of intermediate outcomes.
- Contract for the provided services, at least in the first year, so that implementation can occur quickly and failed approaches can be redesigned. Adopt a quality improvement model; Plan-Do-Study-Act rapid-cycle change.
- Engage academics from the start and guarantee that results will be published to ensure the independence and credibility of results.
- Manage expectations: due to implementation issues roughly one quarter of the sites will not produce the desired results in the first year.
- Publish results for the failures as well as the successes to emphasize the evidence-based approach.
