Good morning Mr. Primrose,
Your correspondence and invitation has been received at the Minister's Office. With the uncertainty of Minister's schedule for next year, we are unable to confirm Minister's availability at this time. Staff will follow-up with you closer to the date regarding his attendance, once Minister's calendar firms up. My apologies for our delayed response, we appreciate your patience.

Subject: Canadian Student Leadership Conference

Hi Mr. Flemming,

My name is Doug Primrose and I am a teacher at Yale Secondary in Abbotsford. We are very excited that in September 2019 the Abbotsford School District will be hosting the Canadian Student Leadership Conference (CSLC). This conference brings together 800 student leaders from secondary schools from all across Canada. They will all be arriving in Abbotsford on Tuesday, September 24 and the conference closing ceremony is on Saturday, September 28th. The students will be listening to keynote speakers, participating in workshops, and learning from each other. The purpose is to have students take back ideas to bring about positive change to their schools and communities.

Schools or districts bid to host this conference and we were awarded as host back in the fall. It has only been to BC twice in the last 15 years so we are very excited to put on a memorable conference for all those who attend.

It obviously costs a lot to run this conference, I was wondering if there were any grants you know of I could apply for through the Ministry of Education? I know these sometimes need to be applied for well ahead of time so I want to get on it.

Also, we have an opening ceremonies on September 24th 2019 in the evening so hoping you can attend to give greetings from the Ministry of Education.

Thank you for your time,

Doug Primrose

Hi Rob,
Hope you are well and enjoying some holiday time this summer. s.22
s.22

I am writing because Your Education Matters, SFU's education advocacy project, is hosting Annie Kidder in BC next month. She is founder and director of People for Education in Ontario, a leading organization of this type. Some of us would like BC to have such an organization.

If you or anyone you delegate would like to attend a dinner of 25 in the Lower Mainland on Friday Sept 21, please let me know. I'll save 2 seats for the Ministry. The purpose of the dinner is to hear Ms Kidder and discuss her advocacy experiences with her. In Ontario she raises one million dollars a year for use on this cause.

Best wishes on your continued good work on behalf of BC's students. Many friends of education are grateful.

Best wishes,
Paul

P.S. Annie Kidder will keynote First Call's conference on Sept 22 at SFU Woodward's. I hope someone from the Ministry will be able to attend.

It was an honour to hear your presentation and to meet you at the Canadian Commission for UNESCO AGM last month . As I mentioned, please see the attached file about the new Canadian High School Ethics Bowl initiative / opportunity for students across the country. In addition to the attached Guide for Educators, we have launched a website for the first- and, hopefully, annual- Canadian High School Ethics Bowl at www.ethicsbowl.ca (available on desktop and mobile). The guide and website will be available in French by September.

I am cc'ing both Cassandre Perusse , National Coordinator for the UNESCO Associated Schools Network, as well as Estelle Lamoureux, Chair of this new national educational opportunity.

Please let us know if you are interested in working together to endorse and promote this engaging & transformative initiative in your province. Hi Lindsay,

I phoned and spoke to him and followed up with the following email:

If you would like to order an official BC Secondary School Transcript of Grades or Graduation Certificate (Dogwood), School Completion Certificate (Evergreen) or GED®, please visit the Ministry of Education's new StudentTranscripts Service (STS) at <http://www.studenttranscripts.gov.bc.ca>. To log in, or to create an account, you will need your Personal Education Number found either in your previous student records, at your last school of attendance, or via <http://www.bced.gov.bc.ca/pen/student/penobtain.htm>.

The STS enables you to send official documents, in sealed envelopes, anywhere in the world. The STS also enables you to send transcripts by email, in PDF format.

If you wish to view your Unofficial Transcript of Grades before placing a transcript order, you may view it on the STS. If you do not see your marks, please contact your school directly and ask them to email the missing information to the Ministry of Education.

Hi Lindsay,

I will give them a call back right now, but to answer your question:

It depends on the situation.

For June 2018 Graduates Post-Secondary Institutions (PSI) selections, Final Transcripts were sent out starting on July 22. Some receive them electronically (right away) and others are sent via letter mail.

For paper transcript orders, takes 1-3 business days for orders to be processed, and then up to 10 days for mail to arrive via Canada Post. All certificates are sent via regular Canada Post letter mail.

Then there is likely processing time of the side of the school/recipient.

Thanks,

This year's Gray Campbell Distinguished Service Award recipient is Gregory Younging, in recognition of his advocacy for Indigenous editorial agency in Canadian publishing. This award is presented annually by the Association of Book Publishers of BC to an individual who has made a significant contribution to the book publishing industry in the province.

This year's Jim Douglas Publisher of the Year Award recipient is Orca Book Publishers. The press and its publisher, Andrew Wooldridge, are recognized for their accomplishments as one of Canada's leading children's publishers, specializing in imaginative, engaging, and culturally significant books for young readers. This award is presented to an active BC book publishing company that has in recent times earned the respect and applause of the community of publishers for a specific publishing project, an extraordinary contribution to the BC publishing community, and/or its extended commitment to excellence in publishing.

Dear Mr Fleming,

I would like to personally invite you to attend a special night of fundraising for the Canadian Cancer Society.

The Philippine Ambassador Petronilia Garcia from Ottawa has confirmed her attendance at this event along with her First Secretary and Vancouver Consul General.

The Old Spaghetti Factory Victoria is proud to host the 6th Annual CTV Personalities and Pasta Night on Friday, September 14, in support of the 2018 Canadian Cancer Society Cops for Cancer - Tour de Rock.

This year we are honoured to support Bell Media special guest rider Yvonne Raymond.

Bring your appetite, enjoy a delicious three course meal, bid on some great silent auction items, then feel free to tip your favourite CTV Vancouver Island Personality after they serve you dinner and drinks.

There will be two separate seatings at 6:00 PM and 8:15 PM. Space is currently quite limited.

Last year's event was a remarkable success and raised over $12,000! It is the kind generosity of supporters like yourself and the many sponsors who allow us to donate 100% of every dollar raised to the cause.

You can watch CTV Vancouver Island video of last year's event here.

It will be an honour to host you and any of your guests.

Thank you for your support for #ForTheKids
