BC Liberal arrogance on Denman Island ferry conversion leaves mess for waterways, community residents

Former Liberal Transportation and Infrastructure Minister Todd Stone ignored concerns raised by the residents of Denman Island about the decision to move to cable ferry service. That decision has left the community with a mess of plastic debris and broken promises, outlined in a Vancouver Sun story today.

As far back as 2011 residents of the island raised strong objections to a plan by B.C. Ferries to move forward with cable ferry service for the Denman Island crossing, replacing reliable conventional service.

Despite those concerns, Stone was a bull-headed booster of the move, one that is now impossible to reverse without major costs and ferry service disruptions:

- He celebrated the cable ferry conversion in a fact sheet he issued in March 2014 on his plan for the ferry system
- He then doubled down, praising it in a letter to the Vancouver Sun in 2014
- He also highlighted the ferry in his so-called roadmap for the transportation system in 2015

In addition, Stone dismissed community concerns brought forward by NDP Transportation Minister Claire Trevena when she was in opposition.

“Negative! Negative! Negative,” was his response to Trevena’s concerns in the Legislature in 2015. (Video)

By contrast, Premier John Horgan is listening to concerns about the impacts of plastic pollution in our oceans and for the first time in BC’s history appointed a special advisor on marine debris, MLA Sheila Malcolmson.

The NDP government also passed the Coastal Ferry Amendment Act, which now ensures that the broader public interest as well financial concerns must be taken into consideration when ferry services are changed.

Denman Island residents should be praised for their concern and stewardship of waterways including conducting cleanups of plastic debris caused by problems with the cable ferry service.

Date: August 3, 2019 8:55:10 PM

Hello Scott,

I would like to extend an invitation to Minister Fleming to our 5th parent conference, Connecting to Strengthen Advocacy in Education.

This event will be held again at the Civic Hotel in Surrey, on October 18th and 19th, 2019.

Should the Minister be able to attend, I would be pleased to have him bring greetings and/or updates to attendees.

He is also very welcome to stay and participate in workshops and listen to other speakers..

If he is not able to make it, I would be pleased to accommodate someone else from the Ministry to attend instead. I think it would be very beneficial for them to be involved.

I would also appreciate it if you could share with your networks who may know of parents in need of these workshops.

Good afternoon,

On behalf of Howie Bender, Director of Desire 2 Learn (D2L), I am writing to request a meeting with Senior Ministerial Assistant to the Minister of Education Veronica Harrison, on August 12, 28th, or 29th, when Mr. Bender will be travelling to British Columbia.

Mr. Bender would like to meet to discuss D2L's innovative, made-in-Canada technology that helps students learn in a growing digital world. D2L also helps train workers in industries like natural resources and technology. And, as a growing Canadian technology itself, D2L would like to discuss labour and the future of work.

D2L is a Canadian based education company that builds technology to enable online and blended learning for learners in the higher education, K-12, and enterprise sector.

As the world increasingly becomes digital, D2L work with school districts, universities/colleges, and jurisdictions around the world to leverage technology to remove barriers to quality education. D2L partners with thought-leading organizations to improve learning through data-driven technology that helps deliver a personalized experience to every learner; regardless of geography or ability.

Thank you for your consideration.

Hi Saija

I am using our corporate number. National claims they are unable to drop cars off at the Helijet terminal with the corporate number and made us sign up for emerald accounts as well (which they assure me are connected to the corporate ID). Every time I phone in I give them the corporate and confirm we are provincial government employees.

The error is on their end, not with us. If they are confusing the emerald accounts they forced us to add with the corporate account number despite me reiterating the corporate number several times I am not sure what else I can do.

Cheers

<https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/governments/services-for-government/bc-bid-resources/goods-and-services-catalogue/daily-vehicle-rentals>

This could have been the reason that you had so many issues with getting them to make the changes. Please ensure this is booked correctly but also that your staff who are travelling are aware of the corporate ID# when they are picking up the vehicle to confirm this has been done.

We are lucky that they are changing it this time. Generally, if the reservation isn't made using our corporate ID#, we don't get the change made by HQ.

It looks like rental branch received a request to modify the vehicle rates from the reserved rates and remove PVRT but only were able to change the rates. I have asked the Franchise to go back in and make further changes. ^{s.22} and will forward the follow up to Brian. ^{s.22}

If you could remind all of your renters to use the CSA number (each unique to rental agency and listed in pricing matrix) when booking and ensure that the rental location is aware that the rental is under Province of BC.

I think that this should be taken care of now but if there is any follow up Brian Sugrue will be covering my files for the next couple of weeks ^{s.22}

Gord

Hi Gord!

s.22

The attached is once again a fun one that includes fees. The employee has spent over 2 hours trying to get National to amend the invoice. She has even sent them the Agreement! Can you please help as they have told her she will have to go through us to make this happen.

Thanks!

My note to her:

Jun 23rd rental: They shouldn't be charging the Vehicle License Recoupment fee. Our agreement has this included in the daily rental cost. If they can't take it off, they should adjust the daily rental amount. Decrease it by 3.99/day. (They did have it included in past claims though so shouldn't be an issue)

Ok, I got National to send two of the 3 updated invoices after a very long phone call and many disagreements. I think that these are for Veronica's, they did not send the 3rd one so I will have to call them again this afternoon.

I am not sure that they got these right either so let me know if these are still wrong and I will add them back on the list.

Thanks!

Subject: Process to transfer/use provincial land for local amenities

Good morning –

I am seeking a formal response from the appropriate Minister(s) Office(s) regarding the processes that would be involved in obtaining permissions to use provincial lands for different purposes or to transfer such lands to local governments for their use.

Several community groups, including the North Vancouver Sports Council, have inquired with me about some provincial lands north of the now closed “Lucas Centre” in North Vancouver (see attached).

While the proposal illustrated in the documents attached are in relation to the use of lands for an 8-lane track, other ideas have included social housing or otherwise. The proposed site intersects with as many as five different land owners and agreement from the land owners about the future use of this land has not yet been obtained.

Please note: I am not currently requesting commitments from the province for the use or transfer of these lands. I am requesting information that might assist these ambitious community groups in their efforts to organize a potential project.

Some specific questions come to mind:

1. Are there planned uses for the provincial lands indicated, or potential future uses that might take precedent? That is, are there reasons why these plots of land would not be available for consideration?
2. Has the province allowed the use of provincial land for local amenities in the past, or has a land transfer always had to take place? What is the process for either of these to occur?
3. Should the province enter negotiations for the use of this land, how might the province prioritize different ideas (i.e. housing vs 8-lane track). Is the province likely to set a preference, or follow the lead of the local governments?

Thank you for your assistance with this matter.

Hi All,

As we approach UBCM week, I'll be sending out information regarding meeting spaces, events & receptions and happy to answer any questions you may have in regards. To start – here's a bit of information regarding registration and scheduling for this very busy week in September.

A reminder the UBCM registration deadline is September 13th. Registration for Ministers is complimentary, but still required.

Any additional costs for events and receptions associated with UBCM must be paid from constituency funds & travel & accommodation are paid under Member's travel.

Staff registration is not free and staff planning on attending UBCM with their Ministers should also plan to register before the September deadline, (including any events or receptions you will attend with your Minister). In keeping with last year, only 1 MA should be registered/travelling the week of UBCM. If there is a need for extra staff, please let me know before completing any additional registrations.

(Ministers registration comes with one complimentary staff pass – but this does not allow staff access to any events, receptions or meetings your Ministers will be attending -for this reason we are requesting Mas to register separately.)

On Monday, September 23rd there is a full day caucus meeting at the Coast Coal Harbour Hotel. Time on Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday should be held for municipal meetings. MAH/Events staff are working hard to coordinate these on your Ministers behalf and will confirm timing and meeting rooms at the Vancouver Convention Centre for all. (Ministers confirmed meeting schedules with timing and allocated meeting rooms will be sent first or second week of September).

The following (whipped) receptions & addresses can be added to your Ministers calendars – locations to be confirmed.

Tuesday, September 24:

6:30 pm - 8:30 pm Welcome Reception

Wednesday, September 25:

2:00 pm - 2:30 pm Address by the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing

5:30 pm - 7:00 pm BC Government Reception

Friday, September 27

11:00 am - 12:00 pm Address by the Premier

More updates to come as we get closer to UBCM. If you have any questions or concerns, give me a shout.

Thanks all,
A

Amber Nash

Hi Sheila,

Please find attached the list of meeting requests received for your Minister this year.

Please note we have made a change to how we collect information this year. Instead of depending on the submission of briefing notes, we have asked local governments to include all relevant information in their initial meeting request submission. As such, you will find a few extra columns in your report, which will include up to 3 topics, with a background summary, and a brief request for each. This is intended to replace the information collected in briefing notes.

Please return the following information to us by Monday, August 12th:

- Meetings redirected to other Ministers
- Meetings declined
- Meetings accepted

Please note that Ministers are expected to be available for meeting scheduling any time during the following range (excluding whipped events scheduled during these times):

Tuesday, September 24, 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

- Wednesday, September 25, 8:00 am – 5:00 pm
- Thursday, September 26, 8:00 am – 5:00 pm
- Friday, September 27, 8:00 am – 10:00 am

If your Minister is not available during any of these times, please notify us ASAP, and we will endeavour to make accommodations wherever possible.

Please let me know if you have any questions, or need any support from our end.

Thank you,

Hi Veronica,

I hope your Friday is coming along great. Our President and CEO Lasse Gustavsson will be in Victoria on Monday, September 23rd. I am reaching out to schedule a brief 15-20 minute meeting with Minister Fleming.

Lasse is hoping to brief the Minister on Ocean Wise/The Vancouver Aquarium's curriculum education programs both on site at the Vancouver Aquarium and through online learning and also how our AquaVan is delivering ocean education to students in remote rural communities. We have recently worked with a youth leader from the Squamish Nation to re-design our curriculum programs to incorporate Traditional Knowledge. 3:30pm on Mon Sep 23rd is currently open.

Lasse's schedule is filling up fast for September and it would be great to get this in everyone's calendars soon. Let me know if there is another date in September that works better for the Minister and I will work with Lasse's office to shift meetings around to open up time for Minister Fleming.

Thanks so much,

Natalya

Hello Scott,

I would like to extend an invitation to Minister Fleming to our 5th parent conference, Connecting to Strengthen Advocacy in Education.

This event will be held again at the Civic Hotel in Surrey, on October 18th and 19th, 2019.

Should the Minister be able to attend, I would be pleased to have him bring greetings and/or updates to attendees.

He is also very welcome to stay and participate in workshops and listen to other speakers..

If he is not able to make it, I would be pleased to accommodate someone else from the Ministry to attend instead. I think it would be very beneficial for them to be involved.

I would also appreciate it if you could share with your networks who may know of parents in need of these workshops.

Erin,

We had a meeting today in-regards to the social media posts. What we were thinking was to create 10 Social posts to help promote positive messaging around the ERASE campaign to be posted at the end of August as kids prepare to go back to school (and during our Bye Week Aug 26th → Sept 2nd).

We will pick 3 different players to record short video messages (10-15 seconds) sharing some of the ERASE campaign's main messaging. (If there are any specific messages they'd like us to promote – please let us know.) Those will be posted on Facebook/ Twitter/ Instagram Stories totaling 10 posts.

We will tag @SafeEducationBC and use any specific hashtags they'd like us to.

Please let us know what you think about this.

Hi Erin

Thanks for your email – sorry I have been in meetings all day.

September 3rd sounds like a good plan – I think 1:30pm or 2pm would work well. If you can confirm that time works for the Minister we will confirm with our football ops team to have Mike Reilly available as well as Sukh Chung, Aaron Grymes and Brian Burnham for the photo session along with Travis Lulay and send a calendar request. Thanks Erin.

Hey George,

Apologies for sending a second email today. Our conversations have continued here. Now our hope is to instead of holding a full blown news conference and event as we previously discussed, we are simply hoping to send Minister of Education Rob Fleming to the Surrey training centre sometime after 1 p.m. on Sept. 3 to take some photos with some BC Lions players, staff etc.

We'll post these photos on social media (and hoping you can do the same) celebrating the partnership between the BC Gov (ERASE) and Lions, and foreshadowing the November Skills for Life Summit.

For the November summit, we'd like to discuss doing more of a media event then.

Might this work on your end?

Thanks so much for all,

Erin

Hey George!

I hope you're doing well.

I know you've spoken to my director Corinna about possible dates for the BC Lions ERASE event during the first week of September. ^{s.22} s.22 we're continuing to work on event scheduling for the back to school period.

We're aiming to do the event at 2:30 p.m. on Sept. 4 at the Surrey training centre as you discussed with Corinna. I believe this was the only availability that week for the players?

However, we wondered whether there was any opportunity to do the event on the afternoon of Sept. 3? I'm thinking this is a no, but just wanted to double check.

Hi George!

s.22 and told the ERASE campaign prep is moving forward smoothly.

So exciting!

The only aspect that is unresolved is the 10 social media posts component.

Do you need creative materials or other content from us for this?

We assume these might be tied to the BC Skills for Life Program but we're not sure.

Also, what is the timing for each post? It would be great if we got a heads up so we can amplify via our own social media channels.

Hi Lisa,

Global is asking if 7:10 am works on the first day of school (Tuesday, Sept 3) for Minister to come into studio.

That would allow for him to call Red FM afterwards while on route to the VPD event in Vancouver.

And then the tentative plan is to have him go into CKNW for an interview with Simi or Linda Steele.

Is 7:10 am open at the moment?

Hi Ted,

I am looking ahead to early September to arrange some in-studio interviews with Education Minister Rob Fleming.

The last couple of years Minister Fleming has come in studio for the Morning News show (pretty early in the day because there is a VPD event at 8:30 am).

I imagine the interview would be sometime between 6:30 a.m. and 7 a.m. to allow Minister to get to Vancouver from your studio.

Are you the person to connect with to arrange something similar for the first day of school this year on Tuesday, September 3rd?

Send this background information from the Ministry of Education:

For students who are raising concerns about their exam marks, the ministry is pulling these individual exams and again checking them. All exams that have been checked so far are accurate.

Staff have s.13 thoroughly checked the updated results and we are confident all marks on the BC Student Transcripts page are now correct.

Additional checks were implemented at every stage of the resolution process.

The Ministry has also ensured that updated transcripts get delivered directly to post-secondary institutions so that students are able to meet entrance deadlines. Registrars of Canadian Post-Secondary Institutions have also been contacted to advise of the issue.

No Post-Secondary Institution has raised concerns about any delay, or indicated to the Ministry that this will impact any student admission. The Ministry has directly spoken with BC's largest Post-Secondary Institutions who have confirmed that this will not impact students.

All of the Post-Secondary Institutions who are not set up to receive electronic transmission will receive paper transcripts by mail.

Reporter: Zak Vescera, Vancouver Sun

Request: I hope this finds you well. I'm writing a story about a couple northern B.C communities that say they're having trouble recruiting and retaining teachers.

Educators in Fort St. John and Dawson Creek told me they have around 30-40~ staff who are either retired teachers or teaching on letters of permission and that they're having challenges attracting full-time educators to the north.

I wanted to ask if this is on the ministry's radar at all, whether we can consider it a shortage and if any measures are being taken on it.

My deadline is 4 PM on Friday and my cell number is 778 837 2667.

Recommendation: Send this background information from the Ministry of Education.

Currently, there are more than 45,000 teachers employed in B.C.

We've made enormous progress and are in a much better place than last year. Right now, job vacancies are less than 1% in the teaching workforce.

We know that some longstanding hiring pressures remain in rural and remote areas, as well as for specialist positions.

We are continuing to invest over $400 million annually to fund almost 4,000 new teaching positions created over the last two years. This includes 500 special education teachers and 190 more teacher psychologists and counsellors.

To support school districts with their hiring and recruitment efforts, we have directly funded new seats in B.C.'s teacher education programs for the first time, adding over 179 new spaces to bring in more teachers in high demand areas.

We've also committed $150,000 to BCPSEA to develop a national and international teacher recruitment plan for specialized and rural positions.

We've made enormous progress and are in a much better place than last year. Right now, job vacancies provincially are less than 1% in the teaching workforce.

The current number of job postings open in the two Peace River school districts is at normal historical levels.

We know that some longstanding hiring pressures remain in rural and remote areas, as well as for specialist positions.

We are continuing to invest over $400 million annually to fund almost 4,000 new teaching positions created over the last two years. This includes 500 special education teachers and 190 more teacher psychologists and counsellors.

To support school districts with their hiring and recruitment efforts, we have directly funded new seats in B.C.'s teacher education programs for the first time, adding over 179 new spaces to bring in more teachers in high demand areas.

These teacher education program seats mean there will be more special education, French speaking and Indigenous teachers.

More new teachers are also entering the system, this past July there were 176 new teacher certificates issued by the Teacher Regulation Branch.

We've also committed $150,000 to BC Public School Employers' Association to develop a national and international teacher recruitment plan for specialized and rural positions.

SD has confirmed it's fine to mention the Haisla reaction. I've included a new line below – will send to the reporter shortly unless you want me to hold up.

Subject: SD82 Superintendent Katherine McIntosh temporary position with MOE - Tuesday at 10 a.m. - Terrace Standard

Hello,

I'm working on a story following the announcement that SD 82 superintendent Katherine McIntosh will be taking a temporary position with the Ministry of Education to support and work provincially on the implementation of the Framework for Enhancing Student Learning. <http://cmsd.bc.ca/cmsd82-board-of-education-news-release-katherine-mcintosh-secondment-to-ministry-of-education/>

Any information for the questions below would be greatly appreciated:

1) Earlier this year, the Coast Mountain Teachers' Federation voted 99 per cent non-confidence in superintendent McIntosh. Why does the Ministry believe McIntosh can successfully advise other districts and implement this framework province-wide?

A: Secondment arrangements benefit students by providing the Ministry with on-the-ground educational leadership experience that may not otherwise be available to the B.C. Public Service. The Ministry has appointed Katherine McIntosh to this position because of her proven track record of improving student success. The secondment has been well received in the education sector, including by the Haisla First Nation.

2) Who will be paying McIntosh's salary for this temporary new position?

A: The Ministry of Education

3) Is it common for candidates in this position to maintain their salaries with the school district?

A: As noted above, the Ministry will be funding this position.

4) Will McIntosh be relocating outside of Terrace for the position?

A: (Will advise reporter we have no comment on this as personal information)

5) Is it expected for administrators to take temporary positions like this for a full year?

A: Secondments to the Ministry vary but are typically one to two years in duration.

My deadline for this story is Tuesday at 10 a.m. Let me know if this is possible!

Best,

Brittany Gervais

This is fine to go provided we can't mention the Haisla nation's support.

Hello, please see the media request below and our suggested response. Deadline is actually noon now, not 10am. Note my suggested response on her question about where Katherine will live – not something we could/should answer at all! Please let me know if you'd like any changes and cheers!

Good morning:

As per direction from the Government House Leader’s office, changes have been made to the 2019 Parliamentary Calendar. Specifically, the week of November 4, 2019 is now designated as a non-sitting week.

The revised calendar is available on the Legislative Assembly website at <https://www.leg.bc.ca/parliamentary-business/parliamentary-calendar#byyear2019>.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
Jennifer

Hi All,

As we approach UBCM week, I'll be sending out information regarding meeting spaces, events & receptions and happy to answer any questions you may have in regards. To start – here's a bit of information regarding registration and scheduling for this very busy week in September.

A reminder the UBCM registration deadline is September 13th. Registration for Ministers is complimentary, but still required.

Any additional costs for events and receptions associated with UBCM must be paid from constituency funds & travel & accommodation are paid under Member's travel.

Staff registration is not free and staff planning on attending UBCM with their Ministers should also plan to register before the September deadline, (including any events or receptions you will attend with your Minister). In keeping with last year, only 1 MA should be registered/travelling the week of UBCM. If there is a need for extra staff, please let me know before completing any additional registrations.

(Ministers registration comes with one complimentary staff pass – but this does not allow staff access to any events, receptions or meetings your Ministers will be attending -for this reason we are requesting Mas to register separately.)

On Monday, September 23rd there is a full day caucus meeting at the Coast Coal Harbour Hotel. Time on Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday should be held for municipal meetings. MAH/Events staff are working hard to coordinate these on your Ministers behalf and will confirm timing and meeting rooms at the Vancouver Convention Centre for all. (Ministers confirmed meeting schedules with timing and allocated meeting rooms will be sent first or second week of September).

The following (whipped) receptions & addresses can be added to your Ministers calendars – locations to be confirmed.

Tuesday, September 24:

6:30 pm - 8:30 pm Welcome Reception

Wednesday, September 25:

2:00 pm - 2:30 pm Address by the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing

5:30 pm - 7:00 pm BC Government Reception

Friday, September 27

11:00 am - 12:00 pm Address by the Premier

More updates to come as we get closer to UBCM. If you have any questions or concerns, give me a shout.

Thanks all,
