Hi – this was a $25K YE grant. Turns out they could not put on the event, and have returned the money. But they must have cashed the cheque that was sent, since they sent back a cheque on their account. Not sure what to do with this.....advice?

Thanks

Gord

Dear Mr. Throness,

Jeff Bodner, the Chairman of our Wounded Warriors Weekend event to be held this year in Chilliwack August 1st, 2nd, and 3rd has requested I contact you regarding possible assistance in funding for our event.

The first "WOUNDED WARRIORS WEEKEND" held in Nipawin Saskatchewan, August of 2012 was a transforming weekend for everyone, those who were wounded and those who were there to help. The healing of damaged souls was visible as we saw how nature, music, compassion, and support refreshed, nurtured, and strengthened the delegates. By 2014, when we were invited to present our event in Slave Lake, Alberta, our Wounded Warriors Weekend grew to encompass over 250 Veterans, Fire fighters, RCMP, Trauma Nurses, Corrections Officers, First responders and their families. This year, in Chilliwack, we will once again host 250 Wounded Warriors

We have been fortunate in the three previous years to garner the support of corporations, government, unions and most importantly the general population.

The following is a list of our projected hard costs for this year's event. All these expenses and more will be paid out to local businesses.

ACCOMODATIONS.....	$80,000.00
MEALS.....	$ 25,000.00
LT GOVERNOR'S GALA.....	$ 40,000.00
HEROES HOEDOWN EVENT.....	$25000.00
WRITERS NIGHT EVENT.....	$5000.00
FISHING (boat charters, Frazer River , 2 days)	$20,000.00
AIRCRAFT RENTALS (for parachute team, 2 days)	$10,000.00

I would be most grateful to discuss further details with you at your earliest convenience. We would be pleased, upon your recommendation and guidance to make formal application for funding assistance. If you would please visit our website <http://www.woundedwarriorsweekend.org/home.aspx> , I feel confident you would approve of what we at Wounded Warriors Weekend Foundation are all about. Have a blessed day sir.
