

A		B		C
INCIDENT	DESCRIP	ORG1	DESC
1	longue swelled up possibly due to allergy to scall allergy.	SD22	Vernon
2	felt tingling in her throat and puffiness in her neck - concerned it may be allergen	SD36	Surrey
3	longue felt numb and thick - blisters and swelling beginning inside her cheeks and lips - suspected allergic reaction but she doesn't know to what	SD36	Surrey
4	reported to the office with a red, itchy face after being outside at recess. No history of allergies	SD05	Southeast Kootenay
5	Came down to office after lunch and complained of hives. Doesn't know what he is allergic to	SD06	Rocky Mountain
6	Allergic reaction on arms from hand lotion	SD06	Rocky Mountain
7	reported an allergic reaction, he took Benedryl. Ambulance took him to hos.	SD08	Kootenay Lake
8	Student presented with mild allergic symptoms. Gave her 2nd Benedryl. Contacted the father.	SD08	Kootenay Lake
9	Student was given something to eat (smoothie) reacted to food with strong anaphylactic reaction. Ambulance was called	SD08	Kootenay Lake
10	pos. anaphylactic reaction, transported to hospital via ambulance. possible the reaction was to chemicals used in science lab earlier	SD10	Kootenay Lake
11	Student reacting to grass allergy waiting for the school bus. Puffy eyes and face, sneezing	SD10	Kootenay Lake
12	Anaphylaxis to eggs, ate a Rice Krispie square and upon finishing it had a reaction. Administered Epi-Pen and called 911. Taken to hospital via ambulance	SD22	Vernon
13	Possible contact with peanuts. Left eye itchy & red. Flushed eye. Peanut allergy - epi-pen in office - not needed.	SD23	Central Okanagan
14	had eaten a Dairy Queen blizzard at home and thinks there were nuts at the bottom. allergy symptoms started	SD23	Central Okanagan
15	had allergic reaction on his way to school. Called an ambulance & he went to the hospital.	SD23	Central Okanagan
16	peanut allergy and showed signs of anaphylactic reaction. Epi pen administered by parent who works in the school. ambulance transported to hospital with parent	SD23	Central Okanagan
17	possible encounter with peanut. Allergic reaction. Eyes puffy. Has epi-pen - not needed.	SD23	Central Okanagan
18	Student was in science class & doing a lab. Class used mineral oil base w/ra plastic resin to wash. student dev. an itch & red rash. Felt fine, returned to class.	SD23	Central Okanagan
19	Student ate some candy containing peanut butter in classroom. He has a known peanut allergy so he administered his own epi-pen. Student was taken to hospital. Parent notified.	SD23	Central Okanagan
20	Student ate soy product / has peanut allergy. Slightly swollen tongue and nausea.	SD23	Central Okanagan
21	Bleeding nose - Prone to them due to allergies	SD23	Central Okanagan
22	Minor allergic reaction to soy	SD23	Central Okanagan
23	had an allergic reaction to peanuts when she ate a homemade muffin.	SD23	Central Okanagan
24	took a drink from sprints can of lemonade. He was very concerned afterwards as he thought it may have been cross-contamination with nuts, severe peanut and nut allergy.	SD23	Central Okanagan
25	Came to first aid today, complaining of hives. Itchy skin and nausea. Woke up Tuesday am with itchy skin and some hives. Not at school when allergic reaction occurred.	SD23	Central Okanagan
26	Student had an allergic reaction to something. Student has hives and red blotches up his arm. Allergy began last night at home.	SD23	Central Okanagan
27	itchy tongue after eating half a granola bar containing peanuts. Student stated that he had a mild peanut allergy. Parent notified	SD23	Central Okanagan
28	came to first aid with very itchy skin. Parent contacted. She has no known allergies.	SD23	Central Okanagan
29	experienced an allergic reaction after eating sugar snap peas. After assessing her condition and talking to mom, an ambulance was called.	SD23	Central Okanagan
30	Ate a cookie with a walnut in it and started to feel tingling in her head (allergic to nuts)	SD23	Central Okanagan
31	allergic reaction all lunchtime	SD23	Central Okanagan
32	On the grass in PE, had an allergic reaction/light rash on his hand and knee.	SD23	Central Okanagan
33	advised she has a perfume allergy. Collapsed - shortness of breath/sneezing for breath	SD23	Central Okanagan
34	Sore ribs, no injury/no allergies/just uncomfortable	SD23	Central Okanagan
35	Allergic reaction. Unknown source. Sent to walk in	SD23	Central Okanagan
36	Student has allergies to pistachios and cashews, however, she ate pine nuts (possibly allergic)? Called parent to pick her up.	SD23	Central Okanagan
37	Student had hives behind her right ear and her back and neck were hot and red. Allergy reaction.	SD23	Central Okanagan
38	very anxious after eating two chocolates that said "may contain traces of nuts" has allergy to tree nuts, no symptoms of anaphylaxis.	SD23	Central Okanagan
39	had a "Eusure" protein shake. May contain sunflower-Anaphylactic. Administered Benedryl, able to return to class. Allergic reaction.	SD23	Central Okanagan
40	Student drank energy shake (provided by mom) that caused an allergic reaction. Itchy throat, itchy face, no other symptoms.	SD23	Central Okanagan
41	Student ate some trail mix. Her throat and tongue got itchy. Possible allergic reaction	SD23	Central Okanagan
42	Allergic reaction, swelling around eyes, both eyes, burnings and swelling, referred to med. aid. Cause unknown.	SD23	Central Okanagan
43	Student was wearing a "silver" necklace last night. When she woke up she noticed a red line/mark. Allergic reaction to "silver" necklace.	SD23	Central Okanagan
44	break out of hives. Parent notified to PU student to seek med. attention. possible allergic reaction.	SD23	Central Okanagan
45	Ate a piece of meat, has many allergies and felt immediate reaction. Not getting worse. Contacted parents	SD23	Central Okanagan
46	outside at lunch today sitting in the grass when he felt his throat getting itchy and swelling. allergy to pollen. After 25 min. feeling a bit better, returned to class.	SD23	Central Okanagan
47	Hit by cookie on inside of arm and had a possible allergic reaction.	SD23	Central Okanagan
48	During lunch allergies were aggravated due to the pollen and grass - eyes running, chest burnings, throat itching and swollen, etc.	SD23	Central Okanagan
49	Felt something in his right eye, didn't see anything could have been a scratch or allergy - both eyes were quite red.	SD23	Central Okanagan
50	Student believes he ingested milk products and had an anaphylaxis episode.	SD23	Central Okanagan
51	Student came to first aid complaining of a fuzzy feeling in back of throat and palate. Ate granola bar known allergy to all nuts	SD23	Central Okanagan
52	ate a Dips Peanut Butter, anaphylactic to peanuts. Her lips were puffed, her throat itchy. 911 and ambulance	SD23	Central Okanagan
53	child having an anaphylactic reaction. Epi-pen administered then called 9-1-1	SD23	Central Okanagan
54	itchy left eye, known allergy to cats. He stated he had been in contact with a cat	SD23	Central Okanagan
55	rash on her neck, and on upper back close to base of neck. She has no known allergies at this time.	SD23	Central Okanagan
56	While testing the ice in the school creek, fell and brushed up against some sort of foliage causing an allergic reaction on his wrist and arm.	SD23	Central Okanagan
57	irrelevant hit - doesn't concern allergy or anaphylaxis	SD27	Central Okanagan
58	Student was having season allergy symptoms. Mom brought him allergy medicine.	SD28	Queens
59	Allergic Reaction, took 2 Benedryl tablets. Called ambulance who took her to the hospital for observation.	SD28	Queens
60		SD28	Queens
61		SD28	Queens
62		SD28	Queens
63		SD28	Queens
64		SD28	Queens
65		SD28	Queens
66		SD28	Queens
67		SD28	Queens
68		SD28	Queens
69		SD28	Queens
70		SD28	Queens
71		SD28	Queens
72		SD28	Queens
73		SD28	Queens
74		SD28	Queens
75		SD28	Queens
76		SD28	Queens
77		SD28	Queens
78		SD28	Queens
79		SD28	Queens
80		SD28	Queens
81		SD28	Queens
82		SD28	Queens
83		SD28	Queens
84		SD28	Queens
85		SD28	Queens
86		SD28	Queens
87		SD28	Queens
88		SD28	Queens
89		SD28	Queens
90		SD28	Queens
91		SD28	Queens
92		SD28	Queens
93		SD28	Queens
94		SD28	Queens
95		SD28	Queens
96		SD28	Queens
97		SD28	Queens
98		SD28	Queens
99		SD28	Queens
100		SD28	Queens

62	had a bite of a friend's cookie with a suspected nut in it and has severe allergies. tongue and lips were starting to swell.	SD33 - Chilliwack	B	C
63	Student had an allergic reaction for unknown reason. Her breathing was fine, but her face was swollen, red and itchy.	SD33 - Chilliwack
64	touched paint while in the class. She is allergic to dye. She was given Benadryl, rested before returning to class.	SD34 - Abbotsford
65	poured boiling water on hand, red skin, swollen. Allergic to Penicillin and Tetracycline.	SD34 - Abbotsford
66	strong perfume scent hit her. vomiting, Headache, disoriented, blurred vision, tight chest. Difficulty breathing, severe perfume/chemical allergy. Epi pen not needed.	SD34 - Abbotsford
67	Student's right arm is very itchy. It could be an allergy.	SD34 - Abbotsford
68	sprayed by other student with Sanicare Quat 256 spray. Started getting hives. Going for allergy testing.	SD34 - Abbotsford
69	Allergishives, treated with ice	SD34 - Abbotsford
70	Consumed food (fish) that she is allergic to. Found in hallway after vomiting	SD34 - Abbotsford
71	Student ate Kiwi from fruit and veggie program and had an allergic reaction. This was not a known allergy.	SD34 - Abbotsford
72	EpiPen administered due to allergic reaction from a bite of a chocolate chip cookie. Ambulance and parent arrived. Student went to hospital	SD34 - Abbotsford
73	Allergy induced nose bleed.	SD34 - Langley
74	gave student chocolate contained peanuts - he has peanut allergy.	SD35 - Langley
75	had an allergic reaction to hazelnut	SD35 - Langley
76	Student took a bite of a cookie that had been made earlier in the day in Foods class. scratchy throat and coughing. Probable allergy.	SD35 - Langley
77	Minor hives developing on left arm. More severe hives last night (look benadryl). Returned to class. Recommended for allergy testing.	SD35 - Langley
78	Right eye inflamed. No findings on examination allergic to cats	SD35 - Langley
79	Minor allergic reaction to apple candy. Swelling of tongue went down with 1 Benadryl. Abdominal pain 30 minutes after and reduced over time.	SD35 - Langley
80	allergic reaction to garibonzo in flour	SD35 - Langley
81	he had an allergic reaction to an unknown substance. His eyes became itchy and red. Parent called. His own Benadryl was given to him.	SD35 - Langley
82	is allergic to nuts and legumes, not able to pinpoint the source but he presented with hives right after lunch.	SD35 - Langley
83	Shortly after arriving at after school grad event, student exhibited signs of severe allergic reaction. He had eaten octopus prior to arriving at event.	SD35 - Langley
84	Allergic reaction to dust	SD36 - Surrey
85	Class cleaning out desk, student accidentally poked below left eye with lead pencil. Allergic reaction on cheek. Mom took to clinic.	SD36 - Surrey
86	While turning the 5k, severe allergic reaction. Rash on arms, slight difficulty breathing, dizziness, vision problems (sore eyes) and vomiting.	SD36 - Surrey
87	had eaten a peanut but quickly spit it out. has a peanut allergy. Was brought to first aid room to get her epi-pen. 911 called, student given benadryl and returned to class.	SD36 - Surrey
88	woke up with red eyes, has environmental allergies	SD36 - Surrey
89	arm was itchy and when she scratched it the itch spread, her arm became red and bumpy. Skin is inflamed - has perikillan allergy.	SD36 - Surrey
90	Came to school, slight itchininess, mild irritation. Got worse as morning progressed. Fall warm. Possible allergic reaction.	SD36 - Surrey
91	Allergic reaction to Pekoia - made wimik. Teacher brought him to office. Shortness of breathe, shaky.	SD36 - Surrey
92	Student had allergic reaction - student look benedict, tingling on the right side of her neck and lips.	SD36 - Surrey
93	Severe allergic reaction all over her body.	SD36 - Surrey
94	noticed blister on the right side of her face, about the size of a dime, called home, she is not on any meds, has no allergies.	SD36 - Surrey
95	was stung in neck by bee or wasp, has no noted allergy to bees. Medical Clinic as a precaution.	SD36 - Surrey
96	was in the forest - rubbed against salmon oak - allergic reaction on her left forearm - small bruise, hives that were very itchy	SD36 - Surrey
97	student started anti-biotic for an ear infection and may be having an allergic reaction	SD36 - Surrey
98	climbed school fence into neighbour's yard to retrieve ball. Ran into hornets nest. Multiple stings. No known allergies, anaphylactic shock, with parent present	SD36 - Surrey
99	Student has difficulty breathing - severe allergy to peanuts. Student showed signs of difficulty swallowing. Dad will drop off benadryl/student home.	SD36 - Surrey
100	Student has lunch containing an allergen (he thinks sesame seed), student has allergy, bit fidgety & complains of sore throat	SD36 - Surrey
101	Student is congested with flu but is having an allergic reaction to Viendol that she took at home. Breaking out in hives.	SD36 - Surrey
102	Vomited. Suspected allergic reaction. Called Mom to come pick up student.	SD36 - Surrey
103	Non life-threatening allergy to peanuts. Ate a friend's cookie. Vomited and had strong stomach pain.	SD36 - Surrey
104	Student ate something that had peanuts in it. Spit it out, but had a mild allergic reaction (student has peanut allergy)	SD36 - Surrey
105	Feeling chest pain. Ate new type of yogurt, has peanut allergy. Appears to just be heartburn.	SD36 - Surrey
106	reporting an allergic reaction from ingesting seafood. 911 called, parent notified, transported by ambulance.	SD36 - Surrey
107	Woke up with swollen ankle (noticed it yesterday). Looks like allergic reaction	SD36 - Surrey
108	very red left ear, thought it may be an allergic reaction but said she may have been bit a bug on way to school	SD36 - Surrey
109	itchy hands, red puffy fingers. Possible allergic reaction	SD36 - Surrey
110	Hand is swollen, perhaps allergic reaction.	SD36 - Surrey
111	Noticed her left hand was swelling (possible allergic reaction?)	SD36 - Surrey
112	Had mustard spit on her in cante class. Is allergic to mustard. Rash started on arm. First Aid attend drove student home to her father as requested by her father	SD36 - Surrey
113	Allergic reaction to something	SD36 - Surrey
114	Student had an allergy reaction. Some Wheezing, rash & hives present on arms. Medication. Allergies settled, went back to class.	SD36 - Surrey
115	Student in class, fainted. No allergies, no meds. Complained of pains in her chest. Ambulance arrived and transported to hospital.	SD36 - Surrey
116	had a severe allergic reaction to food at camp. Resulting in a trip to the emergency department. Parents were advised	SD36 - Surrey
117	Student feeling like allergic reaction (flushed & anxious), also happened 2 months ago	SD36 - Surrey
118	When opening a package of salmon, both eyes started watering and face and arms started to itch. Student did not think she is allergic to seafood.	SD36 - Surrey
119	Allergic reaction to peanuts. Administered epi-pen and called ambulance.	SD36 - Surrey
120	pinky & ring finger swollen. Mom was called. I was told it was allergy sent back to class	SD36 - Surrey
121	Nosebleed due to allergy season, does not know what the allergy is too.	SD36 - Surrey
122	While in Bio Lab, dissecting a starfish had a allergic reaction to chemical in dissecting fluid or latex gloves.	SD36 - Surrey

	A	B	C
123 Allergic reaction while participating in PE in the woods playing manhunt		SD36 - Surrey
124 Allergies - Student was cleaning out chicken barn (mask & gloves on) and handling fresh hay. This caused coughing, watery eyes and had difficulty breathing.		SD36 - Surrey
125 Allergies - Student was cleaning out chicken barn (mask & gloves on). Fresh hay caused her watery eyes, coughing and had difficulty breathing (DUPLICATE FILE)		SD36 - Surrey
126 Student's right eye slightly swollen. She said she had allergies when playing 4-square game another student playing near them accidentally hit her with a ball.		SD36 - Surrey
127 Student ate a fruit bar and had immediate allergic reaction, swelled. Mother gave permission to administer epi-pen, she advised later he was ok.		SD36 - Surrey
128 Student was stung by bee while in PE class. No allergic reaction.		SD36 - Surrey
129 accidentally fell in the throat which spurred him into breathing distress - has allergies.		SD36 - Surrey
130 Benadryl vomiting picked up by mother. Ate a piece of a friend's chocolate bar. Student allergic to peanuts.		SD36 - Surrey
131 Ate a raw carrot and throat felt like it was closing. Called parent, to see if she has an undiagnosed allergy.		SD36 - Surrey
132 difficulty breathing in class - had used an Epi-pen on Friday for allergic reaction and had been to hospital Sunday night with breathing difficulties. Parent notified		SD36 - Surrey
133 Student was in class during a science experiment where they were smelling different items. A student sprayed perfume not realizing another was allergic. Asthmatic attack		SD36 - Surrey
134 While student was in PE, the grass had been freshly cut and student has an allergy to grass and was finding it hard to breathe.		SD36 - Surrey
135 Student had a (possibly allergic) skin reaction		SD36 - Surrey
136 Student was running in lower field during PE and then collapsed, called mom to pick up to take her to doctor. Possibly due to allergies.		SD36 - Surrey
137 During a catered lunch, ate salad that contained peanut oil. Allergic reaction to peanuts, 911 was called, an epi-pen was administered. Taken to hospital.		SD36 - Surrey
138 allergies and blew his nose and started a nose bleed.		SD36 - Surrey
139 forgot her puffer at home and her allergies are really bothering her. She was running the 5K and became short of breath and dizzy.		SD36 - Surrey
140 Student ate 3/4 of a bag of peas and started coughing for 10 min. has allergies but not to food. Had itchy neck. Ambulance called		SD36 - Surrey
141 Student was finding it hard to breathe during her dance class, two inhalers for allergies which she takes but the one makes her drowsy. Parents were notified		SD36 - Surrey
142 Student had an allergic reaction. First Aid attendant administered epi-pen. Sent to hospital via ambulance.		SD36 - Surrey
143 Anaphylactic shock. ate some pasta and began to have a reaction - full anaphylactic shock. No Epi pen.		SD36 - Surrey
144 Possible allergic reaction to eating strawberries. Throat feels dry but inhaler is not with her. Parent contacted		SD36 - Surrey
145 While in PE playing flag football, something got in student's eye, red & itchy. Eye nurse and felt better. Parents were contacted as it may have to do with allergies.		SD36 - Surrey
146 Possible eye allergy. Eye became irritated as the grass was just cut and it happens to the student in the spring. eye nurse made itch go away. Parents have made apt with dr.		SD36 - Surrey
147 ate a piece of Quaker granola bar and her throat felt like it was swelling up. She took her Benadryl, has a severe nut allergy and epi pen was ready to use.		SD36 - Surrey
148 severe peanut allergy. A classmate ate a Reese's Peanut Butter Cup and then touched his arm. His arm is itchy and he is anxious.		SD36 - Surrey
149 Student is having an allergic reaction - rash, bumps on face & arms. He is allergic to peanuts, seafood and eggs.		SD36 - Surrey
150 Student ate a cookie with peanuts in it and had a slight allergic reaction.		SD36 - Surrey
151 Complained of eye pain/burning. Nothing seen but used eye cup. Same problem earlier, washed eye 2/3 times, nothing seen. Q. allergies?		SD36 - Surrey
152 Probable unknown allergic reaction. Left eye, face and neck.		SD36 - Surrey
153 Student ate something from the cafeteria that contained peanuts. Scratchy throat - not any swelling on face. Student has an allergy to peanuts		SD37 - Delta
154 Reaction to peanut allergy.		SD37 - Delta
155 This student has a peanut allergy. He may have come in contact with peanuts. He has an itchy neck, scratchy throat and itchy red eyes.		SD37 - Delta
156 Got out of car. Began shaking, hard to catch breath. Anxiety or allergic reaction? Mother transported to hospital.		SD37 - Delta
157 Allergic reaction or swelling around tonsils and throat. diagnosed with tonsillitis.		SD37 - Delta
158 Was playing football outside and started to have an allergic reaction, vomiting. Possible allergic reaction to something he ate at lunch.		SD37 - Delta
159 Allergic reaction, complaining of itchy skin. Inrl student.		SD37 - Delta
160 Sitting in class, noticed hand swelling, complaining of numbness and localized pain. Suspected bug bite. No history of allergy.		SD37 - Delta
161 Complaining of difficulty breathing, tightness in throat (not chest/lungs). Getting tested for asthma, no medication, no known allergies		SD37 - Delta
162 Difficulty taking a full breath. Cat allergies? Was at Mum's best friend's house - has a cat.		SD37 - Delta
163 Presenting with rash to upper cheeks - no prior history, no known allergies. Student feeling fine otherwise.		SD37 - Delta
164 Stung by honey bee on index finger. Anaphylactic allergy to bee stings. Administered Epi pen		SD37 - Delta
165 POSSIBLE ALLERGIC REACTION, RASH OVER DIFFERENT LOCATIONS OF BODY, NO DIFFICULTY BREATHING - TOPICAL ALLERGIC TO GRASS AND DAIRY.		SD37 - Delta
166 Cut running, student complaining of stomach/abdominal pain. Sharp, twisting pain, no allergies, no presently on cycle, no prior history, no medication.		SD37 - Delta
167 Severe peanut/nut allergy. Ate cafeteria meal containing nuts.		SD37 - Delta
168 Bent over in the washroom and nose started dripping, yellowish, clear fluid, no history of allergy or recent cold. No head trauma or headache.		SD37 - Delta
169 Possible allergic reaction to vaccine given at school today.		SD37 - Delta
170 Trying to kill a wasp and the desk he was on tipped over. Another student had an allergy to wasp.		SD37 - Delta
171 Walking back to school lunch hour, developed rash. No other symptoms, no allergies. Happened before		SD38 - Richmond
172 Student was drinking cough medicine (Buckley's) off the shelf. Throat formed, has never happened before, no allergies.		SD38 - Richmond
173 Ingested peanuts (allergic) in class from a small cookie. Advised to seek medical treatment.		SD38 - Richmond
174 Student was running outside and had redness on arms/face/neck due to exposure to sun or allergen. Advised to seek medical treatment.		SD38 - Richmond
175 Student was eating a salad at lunch and had an allergic reaction. Friend administered Epi-pen. Dad arrived		SD38 - Richmond
176 Allergic reaction to cookie from the cafeteria. Student forgot his Epi-pen		SD38 - Richmond
177 Allergic reaction to cookie from cafeteria. Student forgot Epi-pen. DUPLICATE FILE		SD38 - Richmond
178 Unknown allergic reaction. Throat slightly swollen (breathing, anyway unimpaired). Advised to seek medical treatment.		SD39 - Vancouver
179 came to school with a slight head ache today, progressed into another anaphylactic reaction with no known cause, had an anaphylactic reaction to tetanus shot yesterday		SD39 - Vancouver
180 Had a reaction to immunization. Had trouble breathing. Not sure if anxiety or anaphylactic reaction. Called 911. Called parents.		SD39 - Vancouver
181 While running on field had an asthma attack and suspected allergic reaction to grass. She was coughing, wheezing, difficulty breathing, pale and shaking		SD39 - Vancouver
182 history food allergies - smell in school's lunch (comactivated a reaction, started to sweat, difficulty breathing, administered epi-pen herself.		SD39 - Vancouver
183 allergies to food, must have ingested something that caused an allergic reaction, ambulance called, felt better.		SD39 - Vancouver

	A	B	C
184	Nut allergy, student ate chocolate with peanuts in class. Severe allergic reaction. Ambulance called, administered epi-pen.	SD39 - Vancouver
185	Running laps in PE, felt chest pain, shortness of breath. Called 911. Instructed to administer 4x81mg of aspirin after determining no allergies.	SD39 - Vancouver
186	Difficulty breathing, allergic reaction from pollen, parent arrived to take her to the family Dr for a new inhaler.	SD39 - Vancouver
187	Student was making bird feeders with bird seed. Student has an allergy to nuts. No listed nuts on bird seed. Puffer/benadryl	SD39 - Vancouver
188	Allergic reaction after eating lunch, itchy tongue, upset tummy scratchy throat.	SD39 - Vancouver
189	Was given chocolate milk by a classmate during lunch. She was throwing up and had early signs of allergic reaction.	SD39 - Vancouver
190	Allergic reaction to seafood, sent immediately to the Dr. who apparently gave her vaccine. Student returned to school.	SD39 - Vancouver
191	Allergic reaction, ate a muffin with a nut in it thinking it was a raisin. She self administered her Epi-Pen, called her mom, monitored at Hospital.	SD39 - Vancouver
192	Classroom experiment, had an anaphylaxis reaction to the egg protein, did not inject the eggs but did touch them.	SD39 - Vancouver
193	Actively induced allergic reaction, running laps in PE and she started to get hives all over face, life-threatening allergy to seafood, but did not eat any.	SD39 - Vancouver
194	Had a bite of a friends snack (chai noodles) that had peanuts in it. He is allergic. We used an EpiPen. We had	SD39 - Vancouver
195	Student is allergic to eggs, she was sitting across the table from another student who was eating an egg at lunch, she came to the office with an allergic reaction	SD39 - Vancouver
196	Student ate peanut butter. He has a peanut allergy that has been identified as life threatening, epi pen. Called 911. Called parents.	SD39 - Vancouver
197	Allergic reaction, peanut allergy, although student claimed no nuts of any kind were ingested. This has happened once before during the summer.	SD39 - Vancouver
198	Student ate a Snickers bar and discovered it had peanuts. He is anaphylactic. EpiPen was standing by but not administered. 911 called and student was taken to hospital	SD39 - Vancouver
199	During recess, student feels weak. Student has allergies to peas, eggs, nuts, dogs, cats, epiPen in office. Call 911 and contact parents	SD39 - Vancouver
200	Student was in PE when she felt shortness of breath. She used her inhaler, stomach pains. She has an epi-pen for an allergy to dairy but did not use it. Mom came	SD39 - Vancouver
201	Anaphylactic reaction - cashews. Student ate granola bar for breakfast. She is allergic to nuts and peanuts called 911 - ambulance and fire dept. attended	SD39 - Vancouver
202	In foods class, had allergic reaction to peanut butter being prepared at another table - hives, throat tightening. Called mom, injected with EpiPen	SD39 - Vancouver
203	Allergic Reaction Possibly to a "Cliff Bar". Redness, Hives & Swollen Lips. Called Mother but then called 911 as symptoms got worse.	SD39 - Vancouver
204	Student was watering the garden and got bitten by a bug. Student is not allergic and was given advice on getting some medication for the arm.	SD39 - Vancouver
205	Were on a fieldtrip and disturbed a wasp nest, stung several times and had an allergic reaction, transported to hospital	SD39 - Vancouver
206	Anaphylaxis trigger to nuts. Student may have ingested candy with nuts.	SD39 - Vancouver
207	Student w/ severe peanut allergy shared other's recess snack, administered Epi pen	SD39 - Vancouver
208	Shaking head tip. Collided with another student and snail cut on his hand. He cleaned it - no bandaid as he's allergic to latex.	SD39 - Vancouver
209	Student tasted a walnut and had an allergic reaction.	SD39 - Vancouver
210	Severe anaphylaxis reaction to something he ate at a restaurant, called 911. The paramedics took him to hospital.	SD39 - Vancouver
211	Student ate donut, has nut allergy. Had reaction, called parent & ambulance.	SD39 - Vancouver
212	Red raised rash round his neck. No problems breathing. No known allergies. Back to class.	SD39 - Vancouver
213	Highly allergic to all nuts. Another student offered her some popcorn that may have had trace of peanuts on it. She declined but started feeling sick	SD39 - Vancouver
214	Student allergic reaction to pineapple, triggered asthma. Gave o2, called mom for inhaler. Student stable, good vitals.	SD39 - Vancouver
215	Student placed ring on her finger, finger become swollen, could not remove ring, emergency room, doctor diagnosed allergic reaction	SD39 - Vancouver
216	Eyes went puffy. Teacher called office to get a second allergic reaction. Administered epiPen due to anaphalactic reaction to pollen	SD40 - New Westminster
217	Student had an allergic reaction after visit to pool. Injection given by a paramedic, transported to the hospital.	SD41 - Burnaby
218	Student ate a candy with peanuts in it and he began throwing up. Allergy to nuts. Parents took him home to be monitored.	SD41 - Burnaby
219	Attending a basketball practice. She felt there was allergic reaction occurring, she administered her EpiPen.	SD42 - Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows
220	Allergic reaction. Contacted parent - advised to take Benadryl. It doesn't work - take injection.	SD42 - Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows
221	Ate granola bar with peanuts. Has an allergy to nuts. Some itchiness in legs. Monitored until parent picked up	SD43 - Coquitlam
222	Difficulty breathing. She is allergic to grass and was having a reaction. She said that her throat felt tight. Ambulance/Dad called	SD43 - Coquitlam
223	Student allergic to nuts/raw carrots ate almonds/carrots. Severe allergic reaction. PHD dad, gave 10 ml Benadryl, dad here in 10 min.	SD43 - Coquitlam
224	Exposed to pistachios, minor allergic reaction	SD43 - Coquitlam
225	Ate a cracker that contained sources of tree nuts, allergic reaction. Paramedics and fire department called.	SD43 - Coquitlam
226	Breathing difficulties, went into anaphylactic shock, benadryl given, oxygen, then epiPen administered	SD44 - North Vancouver
227	Ate a granola bar purchased from the vending machine, which contained peanuts, allergic. Father brought epi-pen and administered	SD44 - North Vancouver
228	Student offered strawberries in a cup, has severe food allergy to peanuts, with severe seizure disorder.	SD44 - North Vancouver
229	Student received Grade 6 HepB vaccine in the morning, became faint. Student has asthma and allergy issues. Parent contacted	SD44 - North Vancouver
230	Student experienced Anaphylactic reaction to a "Monster Drink" containing kiwi fruit.	SD44 - North Vancouver
231	Student reacted to an unknown substance outside in playground, swelling, hives, scratchy throat (DUPLICATE).	SD44 - North Vancouver
232	Student (with diagnosed peanut allergy) consumed granola bar with peanut content and soon felt symptoms.	SD44 - North Vancouver
233	Student took a bite of another student's granola bar, and had a mild allergic reaction. Apparently is allergic to milk products.	SD44 - North Vancouver
234	Running outside during P.E. class and fell, do not feel well. No medical tx. Allergies/sickness. First aid, and went to clinic.	SD44 - North Vancouver
235	Ate a turkey chicken stir fry with peanut sauce. Had an allergic reaction. Parent contacted. Ambulance called as symptoms became worse.	SD44 - North Vancouver
236	On way to school, felt itchy on my arms and neck. This has happened before and I have an allergy to pollen and dust mites, contacted parents	SD44 - North Vancouver
237	During class, student brushed something off his hair/shirt, sharp pain. Poss. spider bite? finger, slightly swollen. No history of allergy to insect bites.	SD44 - North Vancouver
238	Ate granola bar, later had a scratchy throat. Hx: Severe peanut allergy, epi-pen administered, mom picked up	SD44 - North Vancouver
239	Student has an allergy to bananas (not reported previously). During foods class bananas were being used. Student did not eat or touch a banana, but broke out in itchy bumps.	SD44 - North Vancouver
240	Received several wasp stings when in the forest by the school field. Student has other severe allergies.	SD44 - North Vancouver
241	Running through the forest and into a wasp area whereby student was stung several times. Possible panic attack and possible allergic reaction	SD44 - North Vancouver
242	Felt something splash on lower arm just before finished doing a lab using acids. my hands felt itchy while using vinyl gloves, no known allergies.	SD44 - North Vancouver
243	During a visit to the school vegetable garden, student ate a bean. Has had previous allergic reaction to edamame. Student itchy and throat felt constricted.	SD44 - North Vancouver

	A	B	C
245	Playing outside on field with grass and broke out in hives. Not allergic to anything. Did not eat anything different that morning.	SD44 - North Vancouver
246	She ate almonds this morning. First aid no medical history. Meds or allergies	SD44 - North Vancouver
247	ate a cookie with peanut butter and having an anaphylactic reaction. Called 911. Student called parent.	SD45 - West Vancouver
248	Student ate a candy then realized it had milk powder in it. Her throat started getting tight and itchy. benedryl allergy to dairy. Symptoms subsided.	SD45 - West Vancouver
249	Was on a walk with his class and came into contact with something on his face that caused an allergic reaction.	SD46 - Sunshine Coast
250	at triple sinks, bleach water sprayed up on to left forearm. She is allergic to bleach.	SD47 - Powell River
251	Student had an allergic reaction to peanut butter. Treatment: Epi Pen.	SD48 - Sea to Sky
252	Student was stung by a bee/wasp. Had an allergic reaction.	SD48 - Sea to Sky
253	participated in the collection and harvesting of crab (a shell fish) to which he is allergic; mild to medium reaction, resulting in a hospital visit.	SD50 - Haida Gwaii
254	itchy throat and tongue. Student is aware that he is allergic to sesame seeds. Ambulance was called.	SD50 - Haida Gwaii
255	allergic reaction - labored breathing, dizzy.	SD50 - Haida Gwaii
256	ate a kiwi fruit from the lunch program. Her throat and lips swell up. Hospital nurse gave her a benedryl and injection for allergy.	SD52 - Prince Rupert
257	was stung by a bee. Not any known bee allergies (grandpa is allergic to bees).	SD54 - Bulkley Valley
258	Working in greenhouse and noticed breaking out on both arms. Only known allergy is laundry soap. Itchy and itchy. Could be zucchini.	SD54 - Bulkley Valley
259	lips hurt. he was having an allergic reaction to something. His eye was red and puffy.	SD54 - Bulkley Valley
260	allergy to mould and dust.	SD57 - Prince George
261	was outside at lunch and stung by a bee/wasp (allergic). Brought into office and received an epi-pen injection.	SD57 - Prince George
262	Allergic reaction (unknown) itching, flushed, dizzy, nauseous, heart rate elevated, had epipen. Transported to hospital.	SD57 - Prince George
263	Student, sitting in field at lunch, came inside with itchy, puffy eyes. Unknown allergy at this time.	SD57 - Prince George
264	right eye became red and vision blurry. possible allergies or pink eye.	SD57 - Prince George
265	Allergic reaction began on bus ride - gave benedryl.	SD57 - Prince George
266	Stung by a wasp outside at lunch on right ankle. No swelling observed. Phone mom - no allergy to insect bites.	SD57 - Prince George
267	Subway restaurant at lunch had hives erupt on his arms and neck, felt nauseated. No known allergies.	SD58 - Nicola-Similkameen
268	had an allergic reaction to ice cream (containing nuts) delivered to the school by her dad. Taken to the hospital.	SD58 - Nicola-Similkameen
269	fold teacher having an allergic reaction to her sandwich. anti-histamine medicine. Parent contacted.	SD59 - Peace River North
270	seemed to experience an allergic reaction during class after lunch. Rash, throat was itchy. Mother contacted.	SD60 - Peace River North
271	came into the food room and took a bite of the cake not knowing that it had nuts. Epi-pen given. Mom called. Taken to hospital.	SD60 - Peace River North
272	was on the floor, body convulsing and nose bleed. Administered Epi-pen, as he has a peanut allergy.	SD60 - Peace River North
273	purchased muffin on way to school. Mild allergy to peanuts. gave liquid benedryl as per conversation w/parents.	SD60 - Peace River North
274	ate part of a cookie that contained walnuts in the food room. Has peanut/allergy allergies gave him liquid benedryl.	SD60 - Peace River North
275	claiming allergic reaction, no allergies we are aware of. She had rash. Mom ok for us to give her an allergy pill.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
276	allergic reaction, eye extremely red, face red, swollen. Phoned mom. Waiting for allergist appt.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
277	Student had an allergic reaction to an unknown substance. Redness, swelling, itching, and hives.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
278	came in from lunch, allergic reaction. He is anaphylactic. Administered epi-pen.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
279	was stung by a bee. She is identified as anaphylactic. Administered Epi-Pen to leg. Ambulance was called to school.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
280	Anaphylactic shock from seasonal allergies. EpiPen Used.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
281	Student scratching a pine existing allergen site to wrist and came to the medical room to have it redressed. open sore	SD61 - Greater Victoria
282	anaphylactic reaction when coming in contact with allergen. Second epi-pen was administered as first one wasn't left in long enough.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
283	Student showed signs of an allergic type reaction on her skin.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
284	Student appeared to be experiencing potential anaphylaxis reaction to routine immunization. 911 called.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
285	This student (who has multiple food allergies and is anaphylactic)complaining of shortness of breath. mother instructed staff to administer epipen	SD61 - Greater Victoria
286	possible allergic reaction to immunization - ambulance called	SD61 - Greater Victoria
287	possible allergic reaction to immunization - ambulance called (DUPPLICATE)	SD61 - Greater Victoria
288	possible allergic reaction to immunization - ambulance called (TRIPPLICATE)	SD61 - Greater Victoria
289	possible anaphylactic reaction	SD61 - Greater Victoria
290	Student with anaphylaxis to nuts consumed a food product containing traces of nuts.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
291	potential for anaphylaxis through physical contact between students	SD61 - Greater Victoria
292	Anaphylaxis reaction to almond cookie from bake sale.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
293	Student reported arriving at school with a bug bite. appeared to be an allergic reaction.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
294	Unknown allergy exposure. Hx of anaphylaxis. Presented with raised hives. No labored breathing. Parents called and picked up	SD61 - Greater Victoria
295	Student, who is severely allergic to peanut butter, touched a bird treat outside on the playground that had peanut butter on it.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
296	Allergic reaction presumably to environment. Stated he did not ingest any milk. Epi pen given	SD61 - Greater Victoria
297	turning through the bush and had an allergic skin, redness & some blisters. Rash cleared up	SD61 - Greater Victoria
298	left red eye, eyelids slightly swollen and itchy. Possible allergic reaction	SD61 - Greater Victoria
299	in PE & running, slipped & landed on a bee or wasp, getting stung on her right calf. Checked for allergy symptoms - there were none. Called mom.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
300	Student complaining of a sore throat. Mother administered oral allergy meds as mother thought student was having an anaphylactic reaction.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
301	Student developed a rash around both ankles while in wood shop. No known allergies.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
302	Allergic reaction to the skin of the inner right forearm while exposed to detergent.	SD61 - Greater Victoria
303	asthma attack. Ate a lemon stick which caused a reaction. Highly allergic to nuts, seeds, etc. Called Mom right away. (DUPPLICATE)	SD62 - Sooke
304	asthma attack. Ate a lemon stick which caused a reaction. Highly allergic to nuts, seeds, etc. Called Mom right away. (DUPPLICATE)	SD62 - Sooke
305	Student has life threatening allergy to kiwi. Took a sip of friend's strawberry/kiwi Minute Mwand drank at lunch. No sign at all of anaphylaxis.	SD62 - Sooke

	A	B	C
306	fudge, which had nuts in it, has a nut allergy. started to show hives. Parents arrived with benadryl and administered.	SD62 - Sooke
307	had an allergic reaction.	SD62 - Sooke
308	allergic reaction while working with dry spray insulation foam. to the clinic and got nasal spray and eye drops.	SD62 - Sooke
309	After playing soccer game, shortness of breath. Taken to hospital by ambulance. Possible allergic reaction from allergy medication.	SD62 - Sooke
310	vomiting. thought he was stung by a bee and he is severely allergic. administered an epi pen, made full recovery.	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha
311	Allergic reaction ?? Difficultly breathing - transported to hospital by ambulance. (Parent met teacher at hospital)	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha
312	Student snowed out and had an allergic reaction (allergic to birch bark, among other things). benadryl and puffer (Epi-PEN was not used)	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha
313	Student touched a horse blanket and had an allergic reaction - hives and throat swelling - sent to emergency.	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha
314	ate a chocolate with nuts in it, which he is severely allergic to. vomited. Teacher advised epi pen	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha
315	eating various snacks and began to have an allergic reaction. hives/itch. He was given Benadryl.	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha
316	Allergic reaction to unknown source; eye swelled. took Benadryl, recently diagnosed with peanut allergy; was eating peas before reaction	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha
317	Allergic to pineapple, stomach ache, face was puffy.	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha
318	Student had an anaphylactic reaction.	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha
319	Allergic reaction	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith
320	student has an allergic reaction to nuts	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith
321	allergic, itchy reaction after cutting and washing lettuce and whole jalapeno. has allergy to insect bites.	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith
322	had severe reaction to eating chocolate. no allergies listed here at the school. Parent could not be reached. ambulance called.	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith
323	"hives" allergic reaction. Has no allergies or medical condition but has been taking acne medication for 1 month.	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith
324	experiencing a rash and itches possible allergic reaction, parent decided to have an ambulance sent to the school due to previous reactions	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith
325	redness on hand, no idea of cause. Has no allergies (except penicillin) she is not taking anything. was kneading focaccia bread.	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith
326	was running, felt like breathing was becoming more difficult. Has had this once before. nothing resolved, no asthma, no medications, does have mild allergies and some anxiety.	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith
327	anxiety, anaphylaxis. Has allergy to nuts, took a bite & realized she ate a walnut.	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith
328	ate a cookie and his lip and throat started to close up. Allergic reaction.	SD69 - Qualicum
329	Staff member had an anaphylactic reaction to a medication she took.	SD70 - Alberni
330	Wasp Sting - Student was allergic and an Epi Pen was used.	SD70 - Alberni
331	walked into the chlorination system. He has an allergy to chlorine. He became nauseous and blotchy.	SD71 - Comox Valley
332	Student allergic to nuts, while in foods class accidentally ate one of the cookies that contained nuts. had a allergy reaction (anaphylactic shock)	SD71 - Comox Valley
333	ran through the bushes while playing tag and hound and had an allergic reaction.	SD71 - Comox Valley
334	was at her locker, someone sprayed perfume and she had an allergic reaction 40 minutes later.	SD71 - Comox Valley
335	has a peanut allergy and ate a chocolate chip cookie with peanuts.	SD72 - Campbell River
336	felt a tightness in her throat and felt unable to breathe. Possible allergic reaction.	SD72 - Campbell River
337	She had hives on her neck and chest (allergic reaction). Was a little dizzy. Bumped her head when she fell. Ambulance was called.	SD72 - Campbell River
338	was stung on the finger and then on the arm as the yellow jacket was in his sleeve. Hives developed.	SD72 - Campbell River
339	Stung on left index finger - unsure if she is allergic or not.	SD72 - Campbell River
340	Allergic reaction to something outside (grass?). Parents know but they have not yet taken to dr. Itchy forearms.	SD72 - Campbell River
341	Stung on left upper bicep. No known allergy. Called mom to inform. Back to class.	SD72 - Campbell River
342	Student was coming to school on the school bus when he had symptoms of an allergic reaction. Student has derma allergic reaction to cashews, itchy.	SD72 - Campbell River
343	allergic reaction to right eye. took one pill of Benadryl (of her own). Symptom did not improve. Called mom.	SD72 - Campbell River
344	Student was on upper field when student was stung by bee. Student is not allergic to bees.	SD72 - Campbell River
345	Ate a peach and allergic reaction began right away but just thought he was itchy. No previous history of allergies to peaches.	SD72 - Campbell River
346	Student was running when had breathing difficulty. Vitals all normal. No allergies, no meds.	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson
347	Trouble breathing thought it might be an allergic reaction - tickle in throat, trouble taking deep breaths gave oxygen checked breathing sent back to class	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson
348	anaphylactic shock after drinking from a friend's water bottle who had ingested nuts. Epi pen administered	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson
349	allergic reaction to something unknown "like ants pinching on tongue", rinsed mouth out, monitored until parent came	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson
350	woke up to small red mark on back of right leg behind knee. parent called due to possible allergic reaction	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson
351	itchy lips, nose. History of anaphylactic reaction. Ambulance and parents called. Ate chocolate and just had a flu shot	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson
352	itching and complaining of difficulty breathing. Given epi pen. Ambulance called. Mom says allergic reaction	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson
353	stung on the foot by a bee/wasp. He indicated anaphylactic allergy to bee/wasp stings. Student was taken by ambulance to hospital	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson
354	Allergic reaction. History of anaphylaxis. Epi pen given. To hospital with ambulance.	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson
355	Student is allergic to tomatoes and came into contact with a tomato in the classroom. anaphylactic reaction. Family contacted. Transported by ambulance.	SD74 - Gold Trail
356	allergic reaction. Epi pen given. Ambulance and parent called.	SD74 - Gold Trail
357	Anaphylactic reaction with unidentified allergen or cross contamination. epi pen administered	SD75 - Mission
358	ate nutmeg/but and began having allergic reaction. administered medication, contacted parent	SD75 - Mission
359	symptoms of anaphylaxis and hyperventilation. administered her own epi pen - transported to hospital	SD75 - Mission
360	partially ingested a Snickers bar (split most out) felt faint, fell over - brought inside & school called 911 (known allergy - no Epi pen with her)	SD75 - Mission
361	symptoms of anaphylaxis due to exposure to peanuts. She did not consume peanuts but another student nearby did. Self-administered Benadryl and was normal	SD75 - Mission
362	Auto Stop... apparently accidental inhalation of gasoline fumes allegedly caused a delayed allergic reaction.	SD75 - Mission
363	Bee stung on bottom of left foot. Sting Stop applied and ice pack given to student. not allergic to bee stings.	SD75 - Mission
364	got stung on her finger. signs of an allergic reaction. 911 & parent called. treated at school by paramedics	SD75 - Mission
365	had unknown and undiagnosed allergic reaction. took benadryl, didn't help. epi pen administered. Ambulance called. Mother came	SD79 - Cowichan Valley
366	scent-sensitive allergy reaction to perfume worn by one of the school staff casual workers.	SD79 - Cowichan Valley

		A	B	C
367	purchased a dance ticket from student run desk at lunch, suspect peanut cross-contamination. Allergic reaction.		SD82 - Coast Mountains
368	anaphylactic reaction to nuts. It happened at break time, 45 mins later, had a rash and the shivers.		SD82 - Coast Mountains
369	Working in computer lab student informed me she was having an allergic reaction.		SD82 - Coast Mountains
370	had a severed allergic reaction to an unknown substance in the sewing room. She administered her epi-pen.		SD82 - Coast Mountains
371	had a severed allergic reaction to an unknown substance in the sewing room. She administered her epi-pen. (DUPLICATE)		SD82 - Coast Mountains
372	Student exposed to allergie walked into office at 12:20pm not feeling well. Just taken Benadryl, administered Epi-pen. Ambulance call		SD83 - North Okanagan-Shuswap
373	ALLERGIC REACTION - MOM'S PERMISSION TO ADMINISTER 10ml BENADRYL		SD85 - Vancouver Island North
374	allergic reaction (anxiety, shortness of breath) to Benadryl, which had been administered to him at home earlier that morning. Mother took him to hospital.		SD85 - Vancouver Island North
375	visiting the kindergarten classroom. There were chestnuts in the classroom, suffered a severe allergic reaction to them.		SD85 - Vancouver Island North
376	visiting the kindergarten classroom. There were chestnuts in the classroom, suffered a severe allergic reaction to them. (DUPLICATE)		SD91 - Nechako Lakes
377	Possible allergic reaction to stage make-up used for theatre production. Headache, dizziness, rash. Student was at home when problem developed.		SD93 - CSF/FEA
378	planned inoculation by public health nurse and had a mild allergic reaction. Nurse followed protocol and gave her an epi shot, followed by other follow up		SD93 - CSF/FEA
379	Child is anaphylactic, showed reaction this morning, after washing her hands, so the teacher laid her down and gave her an EpiPen while we called 911. Mother was called		SD93 - CSF/FEA
380	During recess, said that he got stung by a bee/wasp and felt his eye swelling up. He is allergic to bee/wasp sting. Father came. No need to use the epi-pen		SD93 - CSF/FEA
381	allergic reaction while playing on the swing. Arms washed with soap, rash was almost gone. Might be reaction from recent immunization vaccine.		SD93 - CSF/FEA
382	peppers at school and had allergic reaction, headache, teary eyes, chest pain and itchy throat. We gave her Children's Benadryl with mom's authorization		SD93 - CSF/FEA
383	stung by a bee on the top of foot. The bee went in his shoe. Even though allergic, didn't seem to have a reaction. His dad came by to check on him.		SD93 - CSF/FEA
384	While playing in the bushes, got an allergic reaction to something. His dad came down and gave him some Benadryl in spray on the rashes.		SD45 - West Vancouver
385	Student had trouble breathing, tickle in throat, allergic to nickel.		SD45 - West Vancouver
386	allergic reaction to eating muffin from cafeteria with seeds. She usually takes benadryl for nut allergy. She took 2 benadryl tablets. Reaction subsided		SD45 - West Vancouver	