PART D - CONFLICT OF INTEREST: DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

A conflict of interest exists for a board member who has a private or personal interest that appears to influence the board member's judgement in making decisions in the Organization's best interest.

A conflict of interest may take a number of forms:

- · Financial or non-financial:
- Direct or indirect; and
- · Professional or family related.

A conflict of interest may arise from:

- · Employment or board appointments;
- · Professional practices including consultative services;
- · Financial interests in business enterprises;
- Share ownership:
- · Beneficial interests in trusts;
- · Private equity interests:
- · Real estate property interests;
- Existing or proposed transactions with the Organization;
- · Holding elected office;
- · Existing professional or personal associations with the Organization;
- Personal associations with other groups or organizations; and
- · Family relationships (a connection by blood, by marital or common law relationship, or by affinity).

Every appointee or potential appointee to the Organization must disclose any obligation, commitment, relationship, or interest that might conflict or might be perceived to conflict with his or her duty or interest to the Organization.

Additional information regarding the conflict of interest assessment and the code of ethics is available in the Board Resourcing and Development Office Best Practices Guidelines.

Below, describe any real and/or perceived conflicts of interest with the Organization; $.22

PART E - CHARTER OF EXPECTATIONS FOR APPOINTEES TO GOVERNING BOARDS

Board Appointees owe the Organization they serve a commitment to making the best possible decisions. Appointees must carefully adhere to these principles and responsibilities. They must strive for high standards of accountability and fiduciary duty.

PRINCIPLES

Compliance

- · You must ensure compliance with all accounting and audit principles;
- Take all necessary and reasonable measures to ensure compliance with laws, regulations and policies that apply to the Organization; and
- · Know the Organization's mandate.

Accountability

- · You must ensure the accuracy of financial information;
- · Base your decisions upon facts and reliable information; and
- · Properly inform yourself before taking action.

Integrity

- · In making decisions, you must always act in the best interests of the Organization;
- · Ensure integrity in all dealings with and on behalf of the Organization, including via social media platforms;
- Maintain the confidentiality of information received by you in your capacity as board member both during and after your appointment;
- · Maintain the ongoing responsibility to disclose real or perceived conflicts of interest; and
- · Avoid real or perceived conflicts between your own private interests and the best interests of the Organization.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Strategic Planning

- · Provide input to management on emerging trends and issues; and
- · Review and approve management's strategic plans, including significant capital allocations and expenditures.

Performance Monitoring and Reporting

- Monitor corporate performance against strategic and business plans; and
- Evaluate corporate performance reporting.

Organizational Leadership

- · If legislation allows, appoint, monitor and evaluate the performance of the CEO/President;
- If legislation allows, replace CEO/President if necessary; and
- · Ensure succession planning.

Risk Assessment

- Identify principal risks to the Organization's operations and ensure that appropriate systems are in place to manage and monitor these risks; and
- Review and approve material transactions not in the ordinary course of business.

Public Policy

- · Understand the significance of the role of the Organization as an instrument of public policy; and
- · Monitor performance of the Organization in relation to the strategic objectives of the shareholder.

Governance

- Ensure the Organization aligns with the taxpayer accountability principles;
- · Establish appropriate governance structures to ensure efficient and prudent stewardship of the Organization;
- · Assess the board's own effectiveness including monitoring the effectiveness of individual board members; and
- Participate as appropriate on board committees including: Audit, Finance, Risk Management, Governance and Human Resources.

I certify that I have read the above Charter and agree to abide by it for the duration of my service.

- (h) Been involved in any issue or controversy that has gone, or is likely to go, to litigation or public review?
- (i) Made an assignment or lodged a proposal under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act?
- (j) Been discharged, suspended or asked to resign from any employment?

If YES, please describe:

s.22

2. Have you or any organization or group that you are associated with promoted or encouraged hatred against people or persons on the basis of ethnicity, language, colour, religion, culture, gender or sexual orientation?

If YES, please describe:

s.22

3. Generally, are you aware of any facts or matters which, if publicly disclosed, could cause the government embarrassment or hinder your performance of your duties as a board member?

If YES, please describe:

s.22

4. The Board Resourcing and Development Office is responsible for ensuring awareness of all relevant information related to potential appointees. We are asking you to use this section to disclose any issues that may be of public interest in the event you are appointed to serve. Such issues can include civil lawsuits, criminal charges or convictions.

Below, describe any issues: $.22

PART G - BIOGRAPHY

I agree that if I am appointed to serve, the Board Resourcing and Development Office and the Organization may publish a biography of me. Optional: include a 100 word biography below:

PART H - DECLARATION

I understand that the Board Resourcing and Development Office and the Organization may verify relevant information with respect to all candidates for potential appointments.

By signing below, I authorize the Board Resourcing and Development Office to verify or obtain any personal information about me directly from organizations or references referred to in this form and from any person, government education institution, police force, military authority or governing body for the purpose of evaluating my ability to serve. I also consent to the disclosure of my personal information to such persons or organizations when such disclosure is necessary to evaluate my suitability for appointment.

If, at any time following the signing of this form, there are changes to the information given herein regarding conflict of interest, or any other part of this form, either by way of addition or deletion, within 14 calendar days of this change, I will submit with the Board Resourcing and Development Office an updated Candidate Profile and Declaration form describing such change.

I solemnly promise that the information provided is true and complete.

I acknowledge and agree to adhere to the Board Resourcing and Development Office Best Practices Guidelines.
