

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
059147	01-06-2010 12:55:00	01-19-2010 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta	s.22	Classroom	No reason, student felt something in his right eye. Student does have allergies to dust, pollen, cats, etc. Has felt this was since previous night.
058574	01-06-2010 14:10:00	01-08-2010 00:00:00	SD71 - Comox Valley		Library	s.22 had hives on her hand (right) complained of a "thick" tongue and itchy throat. Very red face and a sick stomach (egg allergy on file).
059940	01-11-2010 11:55:00	02-02-2010 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Classroom	s.22 reported that her throat closed, she couldn't breathe. She said she ate a chocolate chip cookie at recess. She said the only allergy she has is apples. She said it happened 2x in class, 1x in medical room. Mom called twice, 2nd time she came in
059356	01-21-2010 01:50:00	01-22-2010 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	s.22 felt a hot, burning rash on her neck. Swollen, bumps, red. More pronounced on rt side. Travelled up to ear, jaw and chest. Applied ice. Called mom to come. Had Vente starbuck vanilla bean latte & banana bread at lunch. Possible allergic reaction.
059942	01-25-2010 10:20:00	02-02-2010 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	s.22 came to the office during recess saying he ate something & his throat was itchy. His lips were starting to swell. We determined he ate a cashew offered to him by another student. s.22 has a peanut allergy & mild cashews, called parents & 911.
059518	01-25-2010 12:00:00	01-25-2010 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Fieldtrip - Other	Student passed out while on field trip to Fire Hall. Student has anaphylaxis. Concern re allergic reaction. Firefighters administered oxygen and called 911. Transported to hospital. Checked and released.
059576	01-26-2010 13:00:00	01-26-2010 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Grounds	s.22 came in from lunch complaining that his eyes were itchy. He stated he was allergic to pollen. s.22 eyes became very swollen very quickly. His throat felt scratchy and was coughing. Ice was applied and he was monitored until mom picked up.
060575	02-05-2010 00:00:00	02-11-2010 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	s.22 appeared to be having al allergic reaction to some Trail Mix she ate. She had swelling in her mouth, was cold to the touch, nauseous and developed hives. Her father was telephoned, an ambulance called and she was transported to hospital.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
060357	02-08-2010 11:50:00	02-09-2010 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford	s.22	Playground Equipment	Student struggling with anxiety.. Student thinks throat closing due to allergy, student is on anti-biotics for sore throat, no signs of swelling or redness. Student's mom indicated it's anxiety. Student will lay down and relax for a while.
060521	02-10-2010 01:55:00	02-11-2010 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Classroom	Headache began in 4th period, worsened upper sinus's very tender - pain radiates up scalp. Sinusitis. Benedryl given for allergy and swelling sinus.
060725	02-12-2010 10:30:00	02-15-2010 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	s.22 had a strong allergic reaction to something he ate. He was having a hard time breathing, he was itchy everywhere, with hives on his torso. He was very scared and kept saying "I can't breathe" We administered his epi-pen and phoned 911.
061668	03-03-2010 12:00:00	03-03-2010 00:00:00	Quigley Elementary		Play area/ Park	Student was having an allergic reaction. Her eyes were itchy and swollen. She complained of an itchy neck. (Face, eyes, neck swelling)
062359	03-18-2010 10:45:00	03-23-2010 00:00:00	SD71 - Comox Valley		Play area/ Park	s.22 came to office saying he was allergic to nuts and requested his EPEN--he had ingested a muffin and his throat was feeling tingly.
062360	03-19-2010 13:30:00	03-23-2010 00:00:00	SD71 - Comox Valley		Classroom	s.22 ate sunkist fruit snacks and developed hives on the back of her right hand. Complained of itchy hand--she has an egg allergy.
063094	04-07-2010 08:45:00	04-08-2010 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Hallway/ Locker	Outside Mrs s.22 room and had an allergic reaction to something in the air (she is allergic to perfume and environmentl allergies)
063614	04-13-2010 09:30:00	04-19-2010 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission		Classroom	student had an allergic reaction to nuts. He was eating a cookie with peanuts in it.
063395	04-14-2010 10:30:00	04-14-2010 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Classroom	During Foods class, student ate the food they had prepared. She noticed difficulty with her throat and has a history of severe allergic reaction to peanuts/sunflower seeds.
063968	04-15-2010 13:45:00	04-23-2010 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Field Trip - Pool	s.22 had an allergic reaction at the Aquatic Center. First Aid flushed his eyes.
063639	04-19-2010 12:00:00	04-19-2010 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	Student's eyes swelled up after eating his lunch, apparently an allergic reaction. Parents were called to come and get him immediately, and they took him to medical aid.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
063702	04-20-2010 08:50:00	04-20-2010 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta	s.22	Classroom	Student informed his teacher that he wasn't feeling well after having ingested a breakfast bar containing peanuts. Student informed teacher that he has a peanut allergy. School was not aware of this student's allergy -parents had not provided info/meds
063818	04-20-2010 09:40:00	04-21-2010 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Nose just started bleeding. Nose bleeds quite common - due to allergies. Last nose bleed - boxing.
064986	05-07-2010 13:15:00	05-10-2010 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student washed her hands, had an allergic reaction. (Rash on arms)
065528	05-19-2010 11:00:00	05-19-2010 00:00:00	SD52 - Prince Rupert		Hallway/ Locker	Student ate a cookie containing pecan, which he is allergic to. Had a seizure, administered his own epi-pen
066123	06-01-2010 13:45:00	06-01-2010 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Athletic Field	s.22 was stung by a bee.s.22 has extensive allergies, although unknown to bees, carries epi-pen. Lower lip was very swollen and increasing rapidly. Mom was contacted, told s.22 to take Benadryl. Waited in the office and dad picked him up.
067205	06-18-2010 13:00:00	06-19-2010 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Fieldtrip - Other	2 students' allergic reaction (itching, pink eyes) to 'Neutral' disinfectant in longhouse during scheduled First Nations program at Museum of Anthropology, UBC. Immediately rinsed students' eyes with water; then treated/released at UBC Hospital.
067402	06-23-2010 10:30:00	06-23-2010 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student ate cookie with nuts. Highly allergic. Tongue & throat swelling up. 1x Benadryl given. Upon order of 911 operator, EPI pen administered. No problems breathing. Ambulance attended and took her to the hospital. Grandpa followed. Mom going.
068506	09-08-2010 12:15:00	09-10-2010 00:00:00	SD71 - Comox Valley		Doors/ Entrance area	Student was stung on right little finger by a wasp...no sign of allergy
069044	09-13-2010 12:30:00	09-22-2010 00:00:00	SD70 - Alberni		Gymnasium	While playing basket ball student had a severe allergic reaction.
068613	09-14-2010 12:10:00	09-14-2010 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission		Play area/ Park	bee sting. no allergy

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
068633	09-14-2010 12:20:00	09-15-2010 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan	s.22	Grounds	Student was stung by a bee/wasp. Student was taken to hospital by Vice-Principal, due to possible life-threatening allergy to bee stings.
068829	09-17-2010 12:40:00	09-17-2010 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Student was stung by a bee in Science class. She is moderately allergic, but her mother is anaphylactic to bee stings.
069618	09-30-2010 10:30:00	10-01-2010 00:00:00	SD48 - Sea to Sky		Classroom	Student was feeling very sore and achy. there was a sensation of numbness in his feet and it spread to his face and tightness in his throat. He has a peanut allergy.
069819	10-01-2010 13:24:00	10-05-2010 00:00:00	SD60 - Peace River North		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student came in saying that she ate a bun with egg in it. Extreme allergy to eggs, had EPI pen did not need it as Dad was bringing Benadryl. Dad arrived gave her Benadryl and took her home to rest.
069746	10-04-2010 12:50:00	10-05-2010 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Office/ Admin. area	s.22 came to office having an allergic reaction. s.22 too Claratin waited 10 min. Claratin not working, she gave herself Epi-pen. Trouble breathing. We telephoned 911 s.22 mother, Put s.22 on oxygen. Transported by ambulance to hosp.
069894	10-05-2010 12:10:00	10-06-2010 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith		Classroom	s.2 ate some trail mix offered by another student s.22 s allergic to nuts. Student though he would "try" some to see if he was still allergic. Mom was called and stated she will talk to s.2 about NOT experimenting with nuts at school. Given Benadryl
069878	10-05-2010 14:30:00	10-06-2010 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Grounds	Rash, from neck down. Itchy. s.22 suspects allergy to grass, as this occurred previous day as well after sitting on grass. Advised to see doctor.
069966	10-07-2010 11:50:00	10-07-2010 00:00:00	SD79 - Cowichan Valley		Library	s.22 was standing be another student who was eating peanut butter. s.22 began to feel the effects of his allergies. He was brought to the office by a teacher then he went to his locker to get his allergy pills and took one.
070484	10-13-2010 10:10:00	10-15-2010 00:00:00	SD41 - Burnaby		Classroom	Student ate a cookie at morning break. Did not know it had peanuts. She is very allergic to peanuts. Student came to office. Student forgot epipen at home. First Aid student attended. Ambulance and parent called. Student was taken to hospital.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
070463	10-13-2010 10:30:00	10-15-2010 00:00:00	SD79 - Cowichan Valley	s.22	Classroom	Student possibly had an allergic reaction to grade 9 immunization.
070390	10-13-2010 14:00:00	10-14-2010 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Classroom	s.22 had an allergic reaction to something, tingling in mouth, breathing raspy, scared, gave herself epipen. 911 called parents called - transported to hosp by ambulance. See attached report.
070516	10-15-2010 13:15:00	10-18-2010 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Other	Student came to office after lunch complaining of "feeling really weird" and had quite prominently broken out in hives (swollen eyes), had itchy throat. Concern possible anaphylaxis, so ambulance and parent contacted.
070603	10-19-2010 10:50:00	10-19-2010 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Classroom	Student had a skin reaction in foods class (possible allergy) while kneading bread dough.
071293	10-29-2010 12:00:00	10-29-2010 00:00:00	SD08 - Kootenay Lake		Classroom	Teacher went to Dr. for medical issue & was given antibiotics. She had a severe allergic reaction (hives/tightness of chest). Hospital contacted & advised her to go to hospital immediately. She was in no condition to drive so ambulance was called.
072026	10-29-2010 13:40:00	11-08-2010 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Student ate a small O'Henry Bar. Student is anaphylactic. 911 called and ambulance took student to the hospital.
071597	11-03-2010 09:35:00	11-03-2010 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	ingested known allergan during Home Ec class - walnut. -lips and throat slightly swollen -no medicine with him - called mom to bring med or take to MA -mom arrived and told to take to Children's
072437	11-04-2010 09:10:00	11-16-2010 00:00:00	SD10 - Arrow Lakes		Classroom	Student has asthma, has a puffer. Causal Special Education Assistant replacing the regular employee. Replacement employee is a smoker, smell on clothes. Student had an allergic reaction. Student sent home 10:30. Later taken to hospital.
074009	11-11-2010 11:45:00	12-08-2010 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Classroom	Peanut allergy? - checked by doctor, no longer has it? Reacted to food with peanuts. Hives, scratchy, red throat

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
072596	11-16-2010 01:50:00	11-17-2010 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson	s.22	Office/ Admin. area	Student had allergic reaction Principal administered epipen Called 911 - Fire & Rescue arrived - ambulance arrived Emergency crews monitored child
072849	11-22-2010 12:25:00	11-22-2010 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Student experienced a severe allergic reaction-severe vomiting, stomach cramps, difficulty breathing, change in skin color, swelling on face. He stated that in the past he had had a reaction to fish. Ambulance called; mother called to meet at hospital.
073276	11-26-2010 14:35:00	11-29-2010 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	During an in-class activity, the students had granola on baked apples. s.22 ingested a small amt. and started to get allergic reaction. (She is allergic to peanuts/shellfish). Mother was called and mom called 911. Student was given Benadryl&sent toBCCH
076204	01-06-2011 09:40:00	01-25-2011 00:00:00	SD22 - Vernon		Classroom	s.2 got to school late and his cheeks were very red, itchy and swollen. He has some red spots on his left cheek. His forehead feels warm. Assessed, iced, questioned for allergies - no known allergies.
075067	01-06-2011 10:20:00	01-06-2011 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission		Laboratory	s.22 had a dermatological reaction to an allergy shot. Developed hives all over his stomach. Mom was called & took him to the Doctor.
076962	02-04-2011 01:00:00	02-07-2011 00:00:00	SD40 - New Westminster		Classroom	s.2 ingested a cookie that contained peanut butter. He has a slight allergy to peanuts. No medication was left at school for his allergy. His lips and throat were tingling. We were not able to reach any parents or guardians. We called 911.
080799	03-14-2011 11:35:00	04-19-2011 00:00:00	SD43 - Coquitlam		Classroom	Exposed to dust, sawdust, glue - known allergens in class due to current science project. Began to complain of difficulty breathing. Complained of labored breathing, raspy voice and chest, complained of throat feeling tight, called 911.
080145	04-08-2011 12:00:00	04-08-2011 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Classroom	Student drank juice with blackberries in it and didn't realize, she began getting very itchy and her tongue started to swell - allergic to blackberries.
081117	04-27-2011 12:00:00	04-27-2011 00:00:00	SD63 - Saanich		Classroom	Student shared a snack with a fellow student and unknowingly ingested cantaloupe. This student has life-threatening allergy to melon. Administered First Aid - ambulance called. Student alert when taken to hospital.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
082303	05-13-2011 11:45:00	05-17-2011 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan	s.22	Athletic Field	s.22 complains of a sharp pain (constant) in his chest (sternum). He ran 2000m in PE. He also has red rash on legs, arms, stomach. He has a grass allergy.
082199	05-13-2011 14:00:00	05-16-2011 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Offsite	s.22 developed an allergic reaction to latex gloves while participating in s.22 s.22 It started with large white itchy bumps on his hands and started spreading to other areas of his body. Recommended parent take him to hospital.
082323	05-17-2011 11:00:00	05-17-2011 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Athletic Field	In PE, had difficulty breathing (asthma like), said no allergies, dr advised may develop asthma due to illness she had in the fall. Fast breathing did not slow after 30 min. Contacted mom and called 911. Ambulance took to Langley Memorial.
082355	05-17-2011 14:00:00	05-18-2011 00:00:00	SD47 - Powell River		Classroom	Student was in the classroom when she started having trouble breathing and was unable to speak. Teacher thought it might be an allergic reaction to something but wasn't sure so he called the Ambulance. By the time they arrived, she was much better.
083312	06-02-2011 09:00:00	06-03-2011 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	While demonstrating an apple crisp lab in front of all the students, nutmeg was being used. s.22 (who was known to have an allergy to eating peanuts) had a mil reaction (rash)
083849	06-06-2011 12:25:00	06-13-2011 00:00:00	SD71 - Comox Valley		Classroom	The child came in telling the clerk that she had injected nuts - her allergy is to nuts. Her throat was very sore and swelling. The clerk administered 10 ml. of benedryl and called the ambulance. When symptoms did subside administered EPEN.
083705	06-10-2011 08:30:00	06-10-2011 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	Ingested mixed nuts and realized after it contained peanuts which led to allergic reaction.
084716	06-17-2011 10:48:00	06-30-2011 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Library	s.22 suffered an allergic reaction to an unknown trigger. Suffered swelling under the eyes and tingling around neck area. Pulse/breathing normal. No redness visible
084832	06-21-2011 09:30:00	07-12-2011 00:00:00	SD22 - Vernon		Classroom	Student ate cookies and had an allergic reaction. She took Benedryl but still needed an Epi-Pen

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
086889	09-09-2011 12:00:00	10-06-2011 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission	s.22	Grounds	Bee sting. Minor allergic reaction. First aid and immediate call to parents for transport to medical care. Parents had to be contacted several times. They had not provided Epi pen. Phone numbers corrected and medical forms and epi pen are on site.
085552	09-14-2011 12:00:00	09-14-2011 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Other	Had an allergic reaction to something and reported to the office. She has benedryl at the office and it was administered. She had a lot of swelling on her face and the parent was called to pick her up.
085551	09-14-2011 13:00:00	09-14-2011 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Play area/ Park	s.22 was playing Capture the Flag in PE and ran into a prickly bush. She had prickles on her knee, lower leg and ankle as well as minor scrapes and some allergic hives.
085880	09-19-2011 12:40:00	09-20-2011 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	Student ate the school offered lunch and at the start of the period following lunch, starting feeling itchy on forearms and trunk area. He is allergic to peanuts but not life-threatening and student did not eat any peanuts (that he is aware of).
085964	09-21-2011 12:00:00	09-21-2011 00:00:00	SD45 - West Vancouver		In Transit	While on the ferry, heading to a cross country school meet, s.22 was stung by a wasp and showed signs of an allergic reaction. s.22 mother was also on the ferry and was summoned as was the ferry's medical staff.
086216	09-23-2011 11:00:00	09-27-2011 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	s.22 returned from recess - s.22 has severe nut/peanut allergy (Anaphylaxis) - student displayed hives, running nose and eyes - s.22 administered Epi-Pen - 911 was call and parents were contacted.
086159	09-23-2011 14:10:00	09-26-2011 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Classroom	s.22 was in class when she had an allergic reaction to perfume in the room. Teacher got her to hallway where she took her puffer for asthma attack. She was having trouble breathing. To hospital by ambulance where mother met her.
086662	09-26-2011 09:45:00	10-04-2011 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Hallway/ Locker	s.22 was brought to the school office while suffering from an allergic reaction to perfume in the hallway. s.22 was having trouble breathing. Parent contacted - transported to hospital.
086401	09-26-2011 12:30:00	09-29-2011 00:00:00	SD74 - Gold Trail		Library	came to office complaining of numbness/tingling around mouth;highly allergic to tomatoes;epipen administered, ambulance and parents called; sent by ambulance; no loss of airway or consciousness

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
086339	09-28-2011 12:55:00	09-28-2011 00:00:00	SD79 - Cowichan Valley	s.22	Classroom	s.22 was using alcohol in Science class and had spilt it on her hands and arms. s.22 has an allergy to alcohol and reacted fairly severely. s.22 washed arms and applied ice. Father s.22 was notified. s.22 went to class.
086796	10-05-2011 12:20:00	10-05-2011 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Classroom	allergic reaction to something she ate.
087042	10-08-2011 10:45:00	10-11-2011 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Classroom	Student thought he may have been stung by a bee. Finner was puffy. Was also hit by a softball earlier. Called mom - no swelling in any other areas. after 15 min. student returned to class. no anaphylactic symptoms. Middle finger right hand.
087830	10-18-2011 12:30:00	10-24-2011 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Fieldtrip - Other	s.22 was on a school fieldtrip to s.22 and had an allergic reaction to something environmental. He was dealt with s.22 and our own first aid person and then taken to a doctor at a local medical clinic. He was given antihistamine.
088015	10-25-2011 12:00:00	10-26-2011 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	Student is allergic to peanuts, ate some of a peanut granola bar and was having stomach cramps and his throat felt funny. Parent came and administered an epi pen and 911 was called. Student was taken in ambulance to Children's hospital
088310	10-29-2011 13:00:00	10-31-2011 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	allergic reaction to air borne peanuts in air Halloween Candy
088521	11-01-2011 11:10:00	11-02-2011 00:00:00	SD79 - Cowichan Valley		Hallway/ Locker	After PE s.22 had unknown allergic reaction, asthmatic symptoms, shortness of breathe, rash. s.22 has epi pen, administered and ambulance called. Taken to Cowichan District Hospital and kept for 4 hours observation. Cause unknown.
088833	11-01-2011 12:30:00	11-07-2011 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Classroom	Red, itchy skin, shortness of breath, nausea (mainly facial symptoms) - allergic reaction. Will keep benedril at school for allergic reactions.
088858	11-03-2011 10:25:00	11-08-2011 00:00:00	SD83 - North Okanagan-Shuswap		Classroom	In home ec class. Ate class project with sauce. No flour in recipe but flour had been added to the sauce without teacher or s.22 knowledge. s.22 has a flour allergy.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
089064	11-10-2011 10:00:00	11-10-2011 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver	s.22	Hallway/ Locker	Ingested hand full of almonds given by a friend. Not aware of any allergies to nuts. Never tried almonds before. Anaphylactic reaction, given oxygen, called 911. Paramedics came within 5 min., gave her some Benalyn and took her to Bby General.
090821	11-30-2011 08:30:00	12-12-2011 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha		Classroom	Student was tossing a stuffed teddy and missed catching the stuffy and it hit him in both eyes. Eyes red and swelling. May be allergic to the item.
090749	12-08-2011 13:30:00	12-09-2011 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Student had a severe reaction to an unknown allergen. Red face, welts, swelling, extremely itchy.□
090909	12-12-2011 10:30:00	12-13-2011 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Other	Had an allergic reaction to paint that had gone moldy in the container in the Art Supply Room. s.22 administered an antihistamine herself.
094590	01-12-2012 12:10:00	03-01-2012 00:00:00	SD62 - Sooke		Unknown	Asthma attack is what he came in saying he was having. Ate a lemon stick which caused a reaction. Highly allergic to nuts, seeds, etc. Called Mom right away.
094617	01-12-2012 12:10:00	03-01-2012 00:00:00	SD62 - Sooke		Unknown	Asthma attach is what he came in saying he was having. Ate a lemon stick which caused a reaction. Highly allergic to nuts, seeds, etc. Called Mom right away.
091758	01-12-2012 13:30:00	01-12-2012 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Gymnasium	Student had an allergic reaction to an unknown substance. Redness, swelling, itching, and hives.□ Gave student 25 mg of Benadryl and called aunt whoc came and picked him up and took him to the □ clinic.
091798	01-13-2012 12:00:00	01-13-2012 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	s.22 came to school with a slight head ache today which progressed into another anaphylactic reaction with no known cause. She had an anaphylactic reaction to a tetanus shot yesterday morning here at school. She was sent to hospital today again via ambu
091908	01-16-2012 13:20:00	01-16-2012 00:00:00	SD40 - New Westminster		Play area/ Park	s.22 placed ring on her finger, finger become swollen, could not remove ring. Staff was unsucessful in helping her remove it. Mom took her to emergency room, ring was removed. Doctor diagnosed an allergic reaction to the ring as the cause of swelling,

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
092593	01-26-2012 11:30:00	01-26-2012 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver	s.22	Classroom	Had a reaction to immunization. Had trouble breathing. Not sure if it was anxiety or an anaphylactic reaction. School nurse on site. Called 911. Called parents.
093066	01-31-2012 09:30:00	02-03-2012 00:00:00	SD85 - Vancouver Island North		Classroom	Student had an allergic reaction (anxiety, shortness of breath) to Benadryl, which had been administered to him at home earlier that morning. Mother took him to hospital.
093311	02-08-2012 12:00:00	02-08-2012 00:00:00	SD79 - Cowichan Valley		Classroom	s.22 had unknown and undiagnosed allergic reaction, took benadryl, didn't help, epi pen administered. Ambulance called. Mother came and accompanied her.
093771	02-14-2012 10:53:00	02-16-2012 00:00:00	SD74 - Gold Trail		Classroom	Anaphalactic reaction with unidentified allergen or cross contamination; epipen administered, ambulance responded; no loss of consciousness or airway
094715	03-01-2012 14:15:00	03-02-2012 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Possible contact with peanuts. Left eye itchy & red. Flushed eye. Medical info: Peanut allergy - epipen in office - not needed.
094879	03-08-2012 12:40:00	03-08-2012 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	s.22 came in from lunch, told his teacher he wasn't well. It was apparent he was having an allergic reaction. He is anaphylactic. His eyes/mouth were very swollen, and was starting to experience difficulty swallowing. Administered epipen.
095544	03-30-2012 11:50:00	04-02-2012 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Washroom / Changeroom	As s.2 entered washroom, a strong perfune scent hit her. She was vomitting, Headache, disoriented, blurred vision, tight chest, Difficulty breathing, seasonal and severe perfume/chemical allergy. Epi pen not needed.
096024	04-12-2012 10:15:00	04-12-2012 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	s.22 had eaten a Dairy Queen blizzard at home and thinks there were nuts at the bottom. She then had trouble breathing and allergy symptoms started.
096818	04-25-2012 02:55:00	04-25-2012 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Hallway/ Locker	Student took a bite of a cookie that had been made earlier in the day in Foods class. She began to experience a scratchy throat and coughing. Probable allergy. Parent advised to give her benedryl & to seek further medical attention if condition worsens
097155	05-02-2012 12:00:00	05-02-2012 00:00:00	SD48 - Sea to Sky		Other	Student had an allergic reaction to peanut butter. Treatment: Epi Pen, by s.22 s.22. Advised to seek Medical attention, Emergency Care Provided. s.22

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
097500	05-07-2012 10:50:00	05-08-2012 00:00:00	SD43 - Coquitlam	s.22	Classroom	student allergic to nuts/raw carrots ate almonds/carrots. Severe allergic reaction:visible swelling in throat (L side size of a grape, & blisters, R some swelling), some difficulty talking, itchy throat. Ph'd dad, gave 10 ml Benadryl, dad here in 10 min.
098453	05-13-2012 11:45:00	05-24-2012 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student ate something from the cafeteria that contained peanuts. Scratchy throat - not any swelling on face. Student has an allergy to peanuts.
098355	05-22-2012 13:00:00	05-23-2012 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Athletic Field	While running the 5K, she had a severe allergic reaction. Rash on arms, slight difficulty breathing which escalated to dizziness, vision problems (sore eyes) and vomiting. Clerical staff was directed to call 911.
098539	05-24-2012 13:45:00	05-25-2012 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Field Trip - Pool	Student was competing in s.22 sports event at Renfrew Pool and Field. While running on field had an asthma attack and suspected allergic reaction to grass. She was coughing, wheezing, difficulty breathing, pale and shaking.
098709	05-25-2012 12:25:00	05-29-2012 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Athletic Field	s.22 was stung by a bee. She is identified as anaphylactic. Teacher, s.22 administered Epi-Pen to leg. Ambulance was called to school. Student transported to Victoria General Hospital. Mother met s.22 at the hospital.
099191	06-05-2012 12:04:00	06-05-2012 00:00:00	SD52 - Prince Rupert		Hallway/ Locker	s.22 ate a kiwi fruit from the lunch program. Her throat and lips swoll up. Mr s.22 took her to the hospital and the nurse gave her a benedryl and an injection for the allergy
099494	06-11-2012 13:35:00	06-11-2012 00:00:00	SD58 - Nicola-Similkameen		Office/ Admin. area	s.22 had an allergic reaction to ice cream (containing nuts) delivered to the school by her dad. Ambulance was contacted and s.22 was taken to the hospital. Unable to contact parents immediately.
100408	06-18-2012 11:30:00	07-04-2012 00:00:00	SD71 - Comox Valley		Grounds	s.2 ran through the bushes while playing fox and hound and had an allergic reaction.
100328	06-28-2012 08:30:00	06-28-2012 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		In Transit	s.22 had a allergic reaction on his way to school. When he arrived at school his eyes were extremely swollen, had a "tickle" in his throat, and started shaking a little. Could not get hold of parents. Called an ambulance & he went to the hospital.
101312	09-14-2012 09:30:00	09-14-2012 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Classroom	Student's right arm is very itch. It could be an allergy. Advised to see a Dr. if it gets worse.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
101387	09-17-2012 12:00:00	09-17-2012 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan	s.22	Classroom	s. has a peanut allergy and showed signs of anaphylactic reaction (rash on face and arms and swelling of upper lip). Epi pen administered by parent who works in the school. 911 called and ambulance transported to KGH with parent for observation.
102700	09-18-2012 14:25:00	10-09-2012 00:00:00	SD71 - Comox Valley		Hallway/ Locker	White s.22 was at her locker, someone sprayed perfume and she had an allergic reaction 40 minutes later.
101663	09-20-2012 13:45:00	09-20-2012 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith		Classroom	student has an allergic reaction to nuts
102109	09-25-2012 09:45:00	09-27-2012 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	Student offered strawberries in a cup, has severe food allergy to peanuts, with severe seizure disorder.
102036	09-26-2012 12:20:00	09-26-2012 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	s. history food allergies - through smell in school's lunch room,activated a reaction,started to sweat, difficulty breathing.In office 12:23 administered epipen herself. 12:25 911,12:33 FD onsite,12:36 Amb. onsite,12:39 to hosp,13:18 notified H&S
102603	10-04-2012 11:00:00	10-05-2012 00:00:00	SD58 - Nicola-Similkameen		Classroom	s.22 told her teacher after break that she was having an allergic reaction to her sandwich. She was brought to the office. She had anti-histamine medicine to take on her. Parent contacted.
102658	10-05-2012 12:05:00	10-05-2012 00:00:00	Kwantlen Park Secondary		Classroom	s.22 felt tingling in her throat and puffy feeling in her neck - concerned it may be allergen and has no epi-pen with her. Brother dropped off Benadryl and s.22 went home with him to be monitored.
102727	10-09-2012 10:30:00	10-09-2012 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Grounds	s.22 approached a supervisor at recess and said she had eaten a peanut but quickly spit it out. s.22 has a peanut allergy. Was brought to first aid room to get her epi-pen. 911 called, student given bendryl and returned to class.
103049	10-09-2012 11:12:00	10-15-2012 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Hallway/ Locker	woke up with red eyes, has environmental allergies
103947	10-26-2012 10:50:00	10-29-2012 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Gymnasium	s.22 arm was itchy and when she scratched it the itch spread, her arm became red and bumpy. Skin is inflamed - has penicillan allergy.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
103988	10-26-2012 14:06:00	10-30-2012 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley	s.22	Classroom	Minor hives developing on left arm. More severe hives last night (took benalyn). Returned to class. Recommended trip to doctor for allergy testing.
104285	11-02-2012 14:00:00	11-02-2012 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Student was in science class & doing a lab on handwashing. Class used mineral oil base w/a plastic resin to wash. After washing & drying student dev. an itch & red rash. Felt fine, returned to class. Does have allergies but not to solution.
104605	11-05-2012 08:30:00	11-08-2012 00:00:00	Kwantlen Park Secondary		In Transit	s.22 noticed @ 7:45 that her tongue felt numb and thick - blisters and swelling beginning inside her cheeks and lips - suspect allergic reaction but she doesn't know to what.
104600	11-07-2012 12:20:00	11-08-2012 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	Student who has s. allergies to food must have ingested something that caused an allergic reaction. She felt nauseated, light headed, was shaking, and her heart was racing. An ambulance was called, paramedics checked her out, and she felt better.
106492	11-13-2012 13:10:00	12-07-2012 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Classroom	Right eye inflamed. No findings on examination allergic to cats
106625	11-28-2012 12:00:00	12-10-2012 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Offsite	Came to school, slight itchiness, mild irritation. Got worse as morning progressed. Felt warm. Possible allergic reaction.
106033	11-29-2012 11:45:00	12-03-2012 00:00:00	SD82 - Coast Mountains		Classroom	s.22 had an anaphylactic reaction to nuts. It happened at break time, 45 mins later, s.22 had a rash and the shivers.
106230	12-04-2012 00:00:00	12-04-2012 00:00:00	SD71 - Comox Valley		Classroom	s.2 has a peanut allergy and ate a chocolate chip cookie with peanuts.
106308	12-04-2012 10:15:00	12-05-2012 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission		Classroom	Student showed symptoms of anaphylaxis and hyperventilation. Had already administered her own epipen @ approx. 10:15 a.m. remained conscious throughout - 911 called - transported to ARH @ 10:40 a.m.
106268	12-05-2012 10:30:00	12-05-2012 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Play area/ Park	Student received Grade 6 HepB vaccine in the morning. Outside at recess student became faint and had a slow collapsing fall and hit head. Student has asthma and allergy issues. Parent contacted and student went home as a precaution.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
106296	12-05-2012 12:00:00	12-05-2012 00:00:00	SD58 - Nicola-Similkameen	s.22	Classroom	s.2 seemed to experience an allergic reaction during class after lunch. Rash on her skin and her throat was itchy and seemed uncomfortable. Mother contacted.
107176	12-19-2012 12:00:00	12-19-2012 00:00:00	SD69 - Qualicum		Classroom	Staff member had an anaphylactic reaction to a medication she took. First aid was administered on site and an ambulance was called. She was taken to NRGH by ambulance and later released after treatment.
107583	12-20-2012 11:40:00	01-08-2013 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Student ate some candy containing peanut butter in classroom. He has a known peanut allergy so he administered his own epipen. (respiratory-anaphylactic reaction). Student was taken to KGH following 1st aid for follow-up. EMT called. Parent notified.
108245	01-18-2013 13:00:00	01-18-2013 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission		Offsite	Student partially ingested a Snicker's bar (spit most out); felt faint while smoking, fell over - brought inside & school called 911 (known allergy - no Epipen with her); monitored vitals, emergency attendants administered care. See report in file.
109195	01-22-2013 13:50:00	02-06-2013 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Classroom	Trouble breathing thought it might be an allergic reaction - tickle in throat, trouble taking deep breaths gave oxygen checked breathing sent back to class - told if symptoms got worse to come back to office.
108505	01-23-2013 09:10:00	01-23-2013 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Hallway/ Locker	Student ate soy product / has peanut allergy. Slightly swollen tongue and nausea.
110201	01-25-2013 12:10:00	02-25-2013 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Other	Bleeding nose - Prone to them due to allergies
109762	02-13-2013 11:30:00	02-18-2013 00:00:00	SD82 - Coast Mountains		Laboratory	Working in computer lab student informed me she was having an allergic reaction.
109648	02-14-2013 11:30:00	02-14-2013 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	Nut allergy, student ate chocolate with peanuts in class. Severe allergic reaction. Wheezing during breath intake, tongue slightly swollen, red rash around face and neck. Ambulance called. Ambulance administered epi-pen.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
109736	02-15-2013 12:00:00	02-18-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey	s.22	Classroom	Student had allergic reaction beginning in first period and continuing until lunch - student took bendedril as advised by her father upon which she was feeling a tingling on the right side of her neck and lips.□
109805	02-18-2013 10:45:00	02-18-2013 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Gymnasium	Minor allergic reaction to apple candy. Swelling of tongue went down with 1 Benedryl. Abdominal pain 30 minutes after. and reduced over time.
110343	02-25-2013 09:55:00	02-26-2013 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission		Hallway/ Locker	Student reported symptoms of anaphylaxis due to exposure to peanuts. She did not consume peanuts but another student nearby did. She complained of some chest tightness & was pale. Self-administered Benadryl and was normal 25 minutes later.
111164	03-08-2013 14:20:00	03-11-2013 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Gymnasium	Running laps in PE, felt chest pain, shortness of breath. Tried to play soccer and then came to first aid. Called 911. Was instructed by 911 operator to administer 4x81mg of aspirin after determining no allergies.
117029	03-13-2013 00:00:00	07-16-2013 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Classroom
111637	03-26-2013 12:42:00	03-27-2013 00:00:00	SD74 - Gold Trail		Classroom	ate nutigrain bar and began having allergic reaction. administered medication per emergency plan and contacted parent who took to hospital.
111787	04-02-2013 12:00:00	04-03-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Grounds	Severe allergic reaction all over her body.
111752	04-02-2013 13:00:00	04-03-2013 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Anaphylactic shock from seasonal allergies. Epipen Used.
111979	04-03-2013 12:30:00	04-08-2013 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	She was having difficulty breathing and was having an allergic reaction from pollen after PE, according to her Dr. She was administered a 10 litre flow of Oxygen to stabilize her until the parent arrived to take her to the family Dr.for a new inhaler.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
112094	04-05-2013 12:12:00	04-09-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey	s.22	Other	s.22 noticed blister on the right side of her face, about the size of a dime, called home, she is not on any meds, has no allergies. Spoke with mom, she will take her to the clinic later tonite.
112861	04-18-2013 12:05:00	04-22-2013 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Reaction to peanut allergy
113027	04-24-2013 11:20:00	04-24-2013 00:00:00	SD72 - Campbell River		Other	s.22 was walking into the First Aid room. She said her pulse was fast and she fell to the floor. She had hives on her neck and chest (allergic reaction). Was a little dizzy. Bumped her head when she fell. Ambulance was called.
113321	04-29-2013 14:30:00	04-29-2013 00:00:00	SD50 - Haida Gwaii		Fieldtrip - Other	s.22 knowingly participated in the collection and harvesting of Crab (a shell fish to which he is allergic)this resulted in a mild to medium reaction, resulting in a hospital visit.
115692	05-06-2013 12:00:00	06-05-2013 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Other	Student was scratching a pre existing allergen site to her right wrist and came to the medical room to have it redressed. There was an open sore where she was scratching.
113806	05-06-2013 12:00:00	05-06-2013 00:00:00	SD28 - Quesnel		Office/ Admin. area	Student was having season allerby symptoms. Mom brought him allergy medicine. 10 minutes later he thre up twice/white pale skin/feverish when throwing up. No rash. Parent picked him up to seek medical attention.
114122	05-09-2013 13:40:00	05-09-2013 00:00:00	SD50 - Haida Gwaii		Classroom	Student complained to classroom teacher about having an itchy throat and tongue. Student is aware that he is allergic to sesame seeds. Complained to first aid attendants that he was having difficulties breathing. Ambulance was called.
114350	05-10-2013 12:45:00	05-14-2013 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Classroom	This student has a peanut allergy. He may have come in contact with peanuts. He has an itchy neck, scratchy throat and itchy red eyes.
115672	05-29-2013 11:55:00	06-05-2013 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Hallway/ Locker	Minor allergic reaction to soy.
115660	05-29-2013 12:50:00	06-05-2013 00:00:00	SD45 - West Vancouver		Office/ Admin. area	Student came to the office and said she ate a cookie with peanut butter and she was having an anaphylactic reaction. Student did not have EPI-PEN. Called 911 Student called parent

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
115429	05-31-2013 12:55:00	05-31-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey	s.22	Play area/ Park	s.22 was stung in neck by bee or wasp. s.22 has no noted allergy to bees, however, because of the region of the sting (neck), Grandpa was contacted and advised to take s.22 to the Medical Clinic as a precaution. □ s.22 Secretary
115657	06-03-2013 12:00:00	06-05-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Grounds	s.22 was in the forest - rubbed against salmon oak - allergic reaction on her left forearm - small bruise, hives that were very itchy - cleaned (sting wipe) and wrapped
115955	06-04-2013 10:05:00	06-11-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	student started anti-biotic for an ear infection and may be having an allergic reaction
116035	06-11-2013 10:20:00	06-11-2013 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Hallway/ Locker	s.22 had an allergic reaction to peanuts when she ate a homemade muffin.
116947	07-05-2013 13:45:00	07-05-2013 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Grounds	Student was making bird feeders with bird seed. Student has an allergy to nuts. No listed nuts on bird seed. Allergy symptoms were developing. Allergy symptoms included mild shortness of breath and itchy left arm. Parent was contacted. Puffer/benadryl
122808	08-26-2013 00:00:00	11-29-2013 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Classroom
117419	09-05-2013 01:25:00	09-06-2013 00:00:00	Clarence Fulton Secondary		Other	In the girls change room there was alot of scent and her tongue swelled up. Grandfather was called and we recommended s.22 to see a Dr. about allergy.
117427	09-06-2013 09:00:00	09-06-2013 00:00:00	SD93 - CSF/FEA		Hallway/ Locker	Child is anaphylactic. She showed a reaction this morning, after washing her hands, so the teacher laid her down and gave her an EpiPen while we called 911. Mother was called and arrived on scene at the same time as the ambulance, which took her t hospital
117918	09-10-2013 12:35:00	09-17-2013 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Grounds	s.22 was outside at lunch and was stung by a bee/wasp (allergic) Brought into office and received an epi-pen injection.
117980	09-10-2013 14:50:00	09-18-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Offsite	s.22 climbed school fence into neighbour's yard to retrieve ball. Ran into hornets nest. Multiple stings. No known allergies, but went into anaphalactic shock, with parent present. Called 911. Ambulance attended and administered Epi and Benadryl.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
117764	09-11-2013 13:00:00	09-13-2013 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission	s.22	Other	Auto Shop...apparently accidental inhalation of gasoline fumes allegedly caused a delayed allergic reaction.
117959	09-12-2013 12:45:00	09-18-2013 00:00:00	SD72 - Campbell River		Play area/ Park	Stung on left index finger - unsure if she is allergic or not Ensured stinger was removed and checked breathing. All clear
118150	09-19-2013 12:45:00	09-20-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student had difficulty breathing - student has severe allergy to peanuts. Student showed signs of difficulty swallowing. Had student seated. Monitored for signs of rash/itch. None. Phoned mom re reaction. Dad will drop off benedryl/student home.
118306	09-24-2013 11:00:00	09-24-2013 00:00:00	Sentinel Secondary School		Classroom	Student had trouble breathing, tickle in throat; allergic to nickel.
118356	09-24-2013 11:40:00	09-25-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Grounds	Student has lunch containing an allergan (he thinks sesame seed), student has allergy. Student a bit fidgety & complains of sore throat. Called mom to bring epipen - monitored student for signs of increased reaction. Mom will pick up student.
118567	09-27-2013 10:20:00	09-27-2013 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith		Classroom	allergic "itchy" reaction after cutting and washing lettuce and whole jalapeno in foods "c" block with anna thor. rash covering arms, chest and upper back, red raised rash. has allergy to insect bites.
119153	10-04-2013 11:45:00	10-07-2013 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	s.22 took a drink from stdnts can of lemonade. He was very concernd afterwords as he thought it may have been cross-contamination with nuts. s.22 has a severe peanut and nut allergy. He was very upset and crying - took 30 min to clam down. No contami
119198	10-07-2013 11:00:00	10-08-2013 00:00:00	SD82 - Coast Mountains		Classroom	s.22 had a severed allergic reaction to an unknown substance in the sewing room. She administered her epi-pen.
119199	10-07-2013 11:00:00	10-08-2013 00:00:00	SD82 - Coast Mountains		Classroom	s.22 had a severed allergic reaction to an unknown substance in the sewing room. She administered her epi-pen.
119294	10-08-2013 12:00:00	10-09-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Offsite	Student is congested with flu but is having an allergic reation to tylenol that she took at home. Breaking out in hives.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
119610	10-11-2013 12:40:00	10-15-2013 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver	s.22	Cafeteria/ Kitchen	s.22 was given chocolate milk by a classmate during lunch. s.22 was brought to the office by the SSW's. She was throwing up and had early signs of allergic reaction. She was giving an allergy pill.
119742	10-15-2013 11:30:00	10-16-2013 00:00:00	SD91 - Nechako Lakes		Classroom	s.22 was given a planned inoculation by public health nurse and had a mild allergic reaction. Nurse followed protocol and gave her an epi shot, followed by other follow up. As a precaution s.22 was taken to clinic via ambulance.
119641	10-15-2013 12:00:00	10-15-2013 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Hallway/ Locker	Student experienced anaphylactic reaction when coming in contact with allergen. Second epipen was administered as first one wasn't left in long enough.
119923	10-18-2013 09:15:00	10-18-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Vomited in room 209. Suspected allergic reaction. Called Mom to come pick up student
120471	10-24-2013 14:05:00	10-28-2013 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Hallway/ Locker	Consumed food (fish) that she is allergic to. Found in hallway after vomiting
120511	10-28-2013 13:25:00	10-28-2013 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Student showed signs of an allergic type reaction on her skin.
121175	10-30-2013 08:40:00	11-05-2013 00:00:00	SD60 - Peace River North		Classroom	Student alerted me "something wrong with s.2 ' he was on the floor, body convulsing and nose bleeding (he fell out of his chair) Administered Epipen, as he has a peanut allergy
121715	11-13-2013 11:45:00	11-14-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Non life-threatening allergy to peanuts...Ate a friend's cookie. Vomitted and had strong stomach pain.
122209	11-18-2013 11:50:00	11-21-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student ate something that had peanuts in it. Spit it out, but had a mild allergic reaction (student has peanut allergy)
122109	11-19-2013 10:25:00	11-20-2013 00:00:00	SD93 - CSF/FEA		Play area/ Park	During recess, s.22 said that he got stung by a bee/wasp and felt his eye swelling up. He is allergic to bee/wasp sting. Brought to the office for observation. Father came and spent half an hour with s.22 No need to use the epi-pen
122306	11-21-2013 12:00:00	11-22-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Feeling chest pain. Ate new type of yogurt, has peanut allergy. Appears to just be heartburn.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
122595	11-26-2013 12:00:00	11-27-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey	s.22	Classroom	Student came to English class reporting an allergic reaction from ingesting seafood. She wanted to stay in class, but the reaction worsened (laboured breathing, etc). so she was brought to First Aid. 911 called, parent notified, transported by ambulance.
122724	11-27-2013 12:00:00	11-28-2013 00:00:00	SD93 - CSF/FEA		Play area/ Park	s.22 got an allergic reaction while playing on the swing outside. Her arm were covered with red dots. Both her arms were washed with soap. Within 45 minutes the rash was almost completely gone. Might be a reaction from the recent Immunization vaccine.
123654	12-02-2013 08:40:00	12-12-2013 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Parking Lot	Got out of car. Began shaking, hard to catch breath. Anxiety or allergic reaction? <input type="checkbox"/> Mother (s.22 transported to hospital.
123248	12-06-2013 10:06:00	12-06-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Offsite	Woke up with swollen ankle (noticed it yesterday). Looks like allergic reaction.
123314	12-09-2013 08:20:00	12-09-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Offsite	Student showed u with a very red left ear, thought it may be an allergic reaction but said she may have been bit by a bug on her way to school.
123590	12-11-2013 11:56:00	12-12-2013 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Itchy hands, red puffy fingers. Possible allergic reaction
124311	01-06-2014 00:00:00	01-07-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Office/ Admin. area	Came with mom to the office after having an allergic reaction to seafood. Student's face was blotched, pimple like, and she was sent immediately to the Dr. who apparently gave her reactine. Student returned to school at 2:45 pm.
124494	01-07-2014 08:00:00	01-09-2014 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Offsite	s.22 came to first aid today complaining of hives, itchy skin and nausea. Woke up Tuesday am with itchy skin and some hives. Hives on facial area, front chest, upper back. Not at school when allergic reaction occurred. Contact prnts. - admin ice
125073	01-20-2014 08:32:00	01-20-2014 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Offsite	Hand is swollen...perhaps allergic reaction.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
125345	01-23-2014 08:45:00	01-23-2014 00:00:00	SD60 - Peace River North	s.22	Classroom	s purchased muffin on way to school. Mild allergy to peanuts. Didn't feel well by the time she arrived at school; vomiting. Parents on way out of town; phoned parents; gave liquid Benedryl as per conversation w/parents. Vice-Principal drove s.22 home.
125550	01-23-2014 11:13:00	01-27-2014 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Hallway/ Locker	Noticed her left hand was swelling (possible allergic reaction?).
126020	01-23-2014 15:00:00	02-05-2014 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha		Fieldtrip - Other	Student was snowshoeing and suddenly felt stuffy. She had a red face, puffy lips, and hives all over her. Student had an allergic reaction (allergic to birch, bark, among other things). She was administered her benedryl and puffer (EPI-PEN was not need
126342	01-28-2014 11:30:00	02-11-2014 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student was tasting food in the foods lab and started to feel like her throat was swollen and experiences a burning sensation. Student is allergic to peanuts None of the food items contained peanuts, but it was discovered there was a cross-contaminatio
126012	01-29-2014 10:00:00	02-05-2014 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Classroom	Having an allergic reaction or swelling around tonsils and throat. Left the school to take Benedril at her father's house. She was contacted by phone and told to come back. She was diagnosed with tonsillitis.
125743	01-30-2014 13:25:00	01-30-2014 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Library	At approximately 12:25 pm student went into anaphylactic shock after drinking from a friend's water bottle who had ingested nuts. Student had a swollen throat, shakiness, pale. EpiPen was administered by first aid attendant, transported by ambulance.
126149	02-06-2014 12:20:00	02-06-2014 00:00:00	SD82 - Coast Mountains		Office/ Admin. area	Student exposed to allergie walked into office at 12:20pm not feeling well. Just taken Benadryl. arrived and administered Epi-pen at 12:25pm. Ambulance call 12:25pm.
126189	02-07-2014 09:25:00	02-07-2014 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Classroom	allergic reaction to something unknown "like ants pinching on tongue", itchy eyes, feels like tongue swollen ("feels tight like elastic band") □ Treatment: rinsed mouth out, cleaned hands & face, called parent, monitored until parent came

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
126593	02-14-2014 11:15:00	02-17-2014 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey	s.22	Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Had mustard spilt on her in cafe class. Is allergic to mustard. Rash started on arm. First Aid attend drove student home to her father as requested by her father, to then seek medical aid.
126898	02-17-2014 03:00:00	02-21-2014 00:00:00	SD60 - Peace River North		Classroom	s.22 ate part of a cookie that contained walnuts in the foods room. Has peanut/egg allergies. No EpiPen with him. Called 911; gave him liquid Benedryl and monitored until fire department & then ambulance arrived. Will bring EpiPen to school.
126887	02-19-2014 12:00:00	02-20-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student had an allergic reaction when she ate a muffin with a nut in it thinking it was a raisin. She self administered her Epi-Pen when her throat felt scratchy and we called her mom to take her to BCCH. She was monitored at the hospital.
127076	02-25-2014 11:30:00	02-25-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	During a classroom experiment with the teacher, using raw eggs, s.22 had an anaphylaxis reaction to the egg protein s.22 did not ingest the eggs but did touch them. Hives appeared on s.22 face and he seemed to be having trouble breathing. Called 911
127158	02-26-2014 13:45:00	02-26-2014 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student had an allergy reaction. Some Wheezing, rash & hives present on arms. Medication to be brought from home - had student sit and relax. Allergies settled, went back to class.
128563	04-01-2014 08:45:00	04-01-2014 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Office/ Admin. area	Student had an allergic reaction to something. Student has hives and red blotches up his arm. Claims his neck and back of neck is heating up. Allergy began last night at home.
129352	04-11-2014 14:55:00	04-15-2014 00:00:00	SD41 - Burnaby		Classroom	Eyes went puffy. Teacher called office to get a second re allergic reaction. Administered epipen due to anaphalatic reaction to pollen
130281	04-17-2014 11:40:00	04-30-2014 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Hallway/ Locker	s.22 came to FA with an itchy tongue after eating half a granola bar containing peanuts. Student stated that he had a mild peanut allergy. Parent notified and instructed to seek medical aid for a perscription of epipen.
129841	04-23-2014 09:05:00	04-23-2014 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student in class, fainted. Vitals abnormal, non responsive. Twitching. Called ambulance. Vitals q5 min. Became responsive from 0910-0912. No allergies, no meds. Complained of pains in her chest. Ambulance arrived 0915 and transported to hospital.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
				s.22		Was playing football outside and started to have an allergic reaction, vomiting as well in first aid room. <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> Possible allergic reaction to something he ate at lunch.
130970	04-30-2014 11:45:00	05-12-2014 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Athletic Field
131086	04-30-2014 13:20:00	05-13-2014 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha		Doors/ Entrance area	Student touched a horse blanket and had an allergic reaction - hives and throat swelling - sent to emergency with s.22
131157	05-07-2014 11:55:00	05-14-2014 00:00:00	SD62 - Sooke		Hallway/ Locker	Student has life threatening allergy to kiwi. Took a sip of friend's strawberry/kiwi Minute Maid drink at lunch. Now worried he will have reaction. No sign at all of anaphylaxis. Mom said to send back to class.
130928	05-07-2014 18:00:00	05-12-2014 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Fieldtrip - Other	s.22 had a severe allergic reaction to food at camp. Resulting in a trip to the emergency department of Lions Gate Hospital. He was given ipinephrin twice. Parents were advised and attended at the hospital.
130783	05-08-2014 10:30:00	05-08-2014 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Student appeared to be experiencing potential anaphylaxis reaction to routine immunization. 911 called.
130923	05-08-2014 11:10:00	05-10-2014 00:00:00	SD93 - CSF/FEA		Classroom	There was a distribution of peppers at school and s.22 had an allergic reaction. She has a headache,teary eyes , chest pain and itchy throat.We gave her Children's Benadyl with mom's authorization.
131192	05-14-2014 12:33:00	05-14-2014 00:00:00	SD93 - CSF/FEA		Play area/ Park	s.22 got stung by a bee on the top of his right foot. The bee went in his shoe while playing soccer. Eventhough s.2 his allergic, he didn't seem to have a reaction. His dad came by to check on him.
140534	05-15-2014 12:00:00	01-26-2015 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission		Play area/ Park	Bee sting on bottom of left foot. Sting Stop applied and ice pack given to student. Student said she's not allergic to bee stings.
131400	05-20-2014 11:05:00	05-20-2014 00:00:00	SD05 - Southeast Kootenay		Play area/ Park	s.22 reported to the office with a red, itchy face after being outside at recess. No history of allergies.
131711	05-22-2014 07:00:00	05-26-2014 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Offsite	woke up to small red mark on back of right leg behind knee. approx 20-25 cm patch of red around small puncture marks (?) swollen hot around area. checked, iced, parent called due to possible allergic reaction
131647	05-22-2014 10:40:00	05-23-2014 00:00:00	SD70 - Alberni		Fieldtrip - Other	s.22 walked into the chlorination system (Port Alberni city water shed) and walked back out. He has an allergy to chlorine. He became nauseous and blotchy.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
132100	05-30-2014 08:05:00	06-02-2014 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria	s.22	Office/ Admin. area	This student (who has multiple food allergies and is anaphylactic) arrived at the office in the morning complaining of shortness of breath. His mother instructed staff to administer epipen and call 911.
133537	06-06-2014 10:30:00	09-26-2014 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Other	s.22 came to first aid with very itchy skin. She has a rash on her upper back and a slight rash on her lower left and right arms. Parent contacted and advised to seek medical aid regarding. She has no known allergies.
132692	06-10-2014 11:55:00	06-13-2014 00:00:00	SD41 - Burnaby		Hallway/ Locker	Student had an allergic reaction after visit to pool. First aid treatment was given. Ambulance was called injection given by a paramedic, was transported to the hospital.
133933	09-25-2014 13:00:00	10-06-2014 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student was not feeling well at end of 3rd block, feeling like allergic reaction (flushed & anxious). also happened 2 months ago
133738	10-01-2014 10:45:00	10-02-2014 00:00:00	SD08 - Kootenay Lake		Hallway/ Locker	Student presented with mild allergic symptoms including shaking, slight tongue swelling and scratchy throat. Student came back at 13:40 with recurring symptoms. Gave her a 2nd Benadryl. Contacted the father s.22 by phone and informed him of the sy
133796	10-02-2014 12:55:00	10-02-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Grounds	Activity induced allergic reaction. s.2 was running laps in PE and she started to get hives all over face and her throat was closing up and was having a hard time breathing. She does have life-threatening allergy to seafood, but did not eat any. <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>
134315	10-08-2014 02:55:00	10-09-2014 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Play area/ Park	Student had an acute allergic reaction to an unknown substance outside prior to the bell, Mom came and decided to call 911 in case things worsened. Paramedics attended, and Mom took her to Lions Gate for assessment.
134287	10-08-2014 02:55:00	10-09-2014 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Play area/ Park	Student reacted to an unknown substance outside in playground at the end of the day, causing swelling, hives, scratchy throat. Mom decided to call 911 in case of anaphylactic reaction, paramedics recommended go to Lions Gate

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
135046	10-14-2014 12:00:00	10-22-2014 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria	s.22	↓ Hallway/ Locker	possible allergic reaction to immunization
135050	10-14-2014 12:00:00	10-22-2014 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		↓ Hallway/ Locker	possible allergic reaction to immunization - ambulance called
135048	10-14-2014 12:00:00	10-22-2014 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		↓ Hallway/ Locker	Possible allergic reaction to immunization - ambulance called
134576	10-15-2014 10:55:00	10-15-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Grounds	s.22 had a bite of a friends snack (thai noodles) that had peanuts in it. He is allergic. He came into the office. We sent someone to get his epi-pen from his backpack. He had forgotten it. We used an EPIPENjr that we had in the office. Called 911.
134790	10-17-2014 12:40:00	10-17-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	-student is allergic to eggs; she was sitting across the table from another student who was eating an egg at lunch; she came to the office with an allergic reaction (eyes swollen, nose runny, puffy face etc.). Called ambulance & administered Epi-Pen.
135264	10-20-2014 08:45:00	10-27-2014 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Other	Sitting in class, noticed hand swelling, complaining of numbness and localized pain. Suspected bug bite. No history of allergy. Ice for pain & swelling. Calamine applied
134920	10-20-2014 12:35:00	10-21-2014 00:00:00	SD54 - Bulkley Valley		Grounds	s.22 was stung by a bee. Not any known bee allergies (grandpa is allergic to bees)
135034	10-21-2014 10:15:00	10-22-2014 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		↓ Cafeteria/ Kitchen	possible anaphylactic reaction
134934	10-21-2014 10:40:00	10-21-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Grounds	Student ate peanut butter. He has a peanut allergy that has been identified as life threatening. He was brought to the office right away. He showed signs of swelling around the right eye. Gave him an epi pen. Called 911. Called parents.
134954	10-21-2014 12:30:00	10-21-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student had an allergic reaction. Student has peanut allergy, although student claimed no nuts of any kind were ingested. This has happened once before during the summer. Laboured breathing and rash on both inside forarms.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
135123	10-23-2014 11:50:00	10-23-2014 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan	s.22	Classroom	s.22 experienced an allergic reaction after eating sugar snap peas. After assessing her condition and talking to mom, an ambulance was called. Attendants arrived and administered Benadryl. She was transported to hospital.
136012	10-31-2014 14:00:00	11-06-2014 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Office/ Admin. area	Itchy lips, nose. Difficulty swallowing. History of anaphylactic reaction. Not carrying an epi pen today. Ambulance and parents called. Oxygen by mask. Taken to hospital. Ate chocolate and just had a flu shot at 1:06
135943	11-05-2014 13:30:00	11-05-2014 00:00:00	SD46 - Sunshine Coast		Offsite	Was on a walk with his class and came into contact with something on his face that caused an allergic reaction. Very red, itchy rash specifically on the left side of his face and over his eye.
136361	11-12-2014 13:00:00	11-12-2014 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Hallway/ Locker	Ate a cookie with a walnut in it and started to feel tingling in her head (allergic to nuts).
137050	11-18-2014 10:20:00	11-24-2014 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	Student (with diagnosed peanut allergy) consumed granola bar with peanut content and soon felt symptoms.
137000	11-21-2014 12:45:00	11-21-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	Student ate a Snickers bar and discovered it had peanuts. He is anaphylactic. He immediately reported to the Office. EpiPen was standing by but not administered. 911 called and student was taken to BC Childrens for precaution. Parents were notified.
137647	11-26-2014 09:00:00	12-02-2014 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Offsite	When opening a package of salmon, both eyes started watering and face and arms started to itch. Student did not she is allergic to seafood.
137934	11-26-2014 12:00:00	12-05-2014 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Classroom	allergic reaction to garbanzo in flour.
137545	11-27-2014 00:00:00	12-01-2014 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	Student took a bite of another student's granola bar and had a mild allergic reaction and was then observed until he felt better. Followed up with Guardian. Apparently is allergic to milk products.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
137803	12-04-2014 10:45:00	12-04-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver	s.22	Hallway/ Locker	During Recess, student feels weak and seems lost of conscious outside the office. <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> Student has allergies to peas, eggs,nuts,dogs, cats; epipen in office. No water, No puffer. She is breathing. Call 911 and contact parents
137931	12-05-2014 14:30:00	12-05-2014 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Gymnasium	Student was in PE when she felt shortness of breath. She used her inhaler. After that she had very bad stomach pains. She has an epi-pen for an allergy to dairy but did not use it. Mom came and took her home.
138437	12-11-2014 12:45:00	12-12-2014 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith		Classroom	s.2 had a severe reaction to eating chocolate. Hey eyes swelled up, hard to breath, tongue swelling, tightness in chest, swollen legs and feet. She had no allergies listed here at the school. Parent could not be reached, ambulance called.
138990	12-18-2014 12:55:00	12-19-2014 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Gymnasium	Complaining of difficulty breathing, tightness in throat (not chest/lungs). Getting tested for asthma, no medication, no known allergies - was working in PE
139138	12-19-2014 09:00:00	01-06-2015 00:00:00	SD60 - Peace River North		Office/ Admin. area	Student came in claiming to be having an allergic reaction. Currently has no allergies that we are aware of. She had a rash and was quite warm and was getting quite upset. Mom was ok for us to give her an allergy pill. We monitored until no reaction.
139002	12-19-2014 13:45:00	12-19-2014 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Student with anaphylaxis to nuts consumed a food product containing traces of nuts.
139247	01-06-2015 12:30:00	01-07-2015 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith		Classroom	Came to the school office with "hives", allergic reaction; hot, red rash on chest, upper back & neck. Started appearing at 7:30am the same day. Has no allergies or medical condition but has been taking acne medication for 1 month.
145338	01-22-2015 11:15:00	04-17-2015 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Classroom	He had an allergic reaction to an unknown substance. His eyes became itchy and red. <input type="checkbox"/> Parent called. His own Benadryl was given to him.
140558	01-23-2015 12:40:00	01-26-2015 00:00:00	SD47 - Powell River		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	s.2 at triple sinks, bleach water sprayed up on to s.2 left forearm. She is allergic to bleach. s.22 was witness.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
140740	01-27-2015 14:00:00	01-28-2015 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford	s.22	Classroom	Student ate Kiwi from fruit and veggie program and had an allergic reaction. This was not a known allergy.
141045	02-02-2015 13:50:00	02-02-2015 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Offsite	Difficulty taking a full breath. Cat allergies? Breathing rate: 24 and effective. Was at Mum's best friend's house - has a cat. recommended Benadryl and to seek medical aid if problem persists/gets worse. s.22 will see s.22 again after school.
141829	02-05-2015 08:15:00	02-17-2015 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Office/ Admin. area	Student was drinking cough medicing (Buckley's) off the shelf. Hives formed, has never happened before, no allergies.
142503	02-13-2015 11:00:00	02-26-2015 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha		Classroom	Student ate a chocolate with nuts in it, which he is severly allergic to. He vomited and felt a strange sensation in his throat. Student's mom was already at the school and spent lunch with the student, ensuring the reaction passed. Teacher advised epi pen
141743	02-13-2015 12:25:00	02-16-2015 00:00:00	SD62 - Sooke		Classroom	s.22 gave s.22 a piece of fudge which had nuts in it. s.22 has a nut allergy. s.22 started to show hives. Parents arrived with bendryl and administered.
142532	02-26-2015 10:20:00	02-26-2015 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Unknown	s.22 pinky & ring finger swollen. Began yesterday, pinky only. Today ring finger began to swell. Iced. Mom was called. I was told it was allergy. s.2 sent back to class but told to let office know if it worsens. Mom will take to dr after school
142767	02-27-2015 13:20:00	03-02-2015 00:00:00	SD43 - Coquitlam		Classroom	exposed to pistachios, minor allergic reaction
142717	02-27-2015 13:50:00	02-27-2015 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Classroom	Epipen administered at 1:52 by s.22 due to allergic reaction from a bite of a chocolate chip cookie. Mother was contacted and directed us to call 911. Ambulance and parent arrived at 2:10pm. Student went to hospital accompanied by Mom.
143251	03-04-2015 11:45:00	03-06-2015 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Athletic Field	During lunch s.22 had an allergic reaction, eyes started to swell. Notified Mr. s.22 and contacted parents immediately. Administered ice - kept s.22 calm.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
146023	03-04-2015 12:45:00	04-28-2015 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley	s.22	Classroom	s.22 is allergic to nuts and legumes. We are not able to pinpoint the source of his allergic reaction but he presented with hives right after lunch. He was sent for first aid. Parents were called. Epi-pen administered by mom. Hospital and discharged.
143817	03-05-2015 12:50:00	03-20-2015 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Nosebleed in P3 math class due to allergy season, does not know what he's allergic too.
145814	03-06-2015 09:30:00	04-24-2015 00:00:00	SD62 - Sooke		Field Trip - Rink	s.22 had an allergic reaction.
143578	03-12-2015 11:00:00	03-12-2015 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith		Gymnasium	student reported to office that she was experiencing a rash and itchiness possible allergic reaction once parent was notified they decided to have an ambulance sent to the school due to previous reactions
144215	03-26-2015 01:15:00	03-31-2015 00:00:00	SD62 - Sooke		Classroom	s.22 suffered an allergic reaction while working with dry spray insulation foam. Her parent contacted the teacher to inform her on March 29, 2015. She also informed her that she took s.22 to the clinic and got nasal spray and eye drops.
144144	03-31-2015 09:00:00	03-31-2015 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Athletic Field	'I was running outside during Mr. s.22 P.E. class and fell and tripped on the gravel outside of the turf field. I do not feel well, and feel like I keep blacking out'. No medical hx. /allergies/sickness. First aid, and went to clinic.
144613	04-09-2015 10:20:00	04-09-2015 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	s.22 at a teriyaki chicken stir fry with peanut sauce. Had an allergic reaction. Was given 25 mg of benedryl. School first aid response. Parent contacted. Ambulance called as symptoms became worse. Left in ambulance. Parent (Dad) on site.
145272	04-15-2015 09:55:00	04-17-2015 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Classroom	Presenting w/rash to upper cheeks - no prior history, no known allergies, no known cause. Student feeling fine otherwise.
145225	04-17-2015 09:15:00	04-17-2015 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	In foods class, had allergic reaction to peanut butter being prepared at another table-hives, throat tightening.Called mom, injected with EPIPEN student kept in backpack. Mom will pickup & take to ER, admin to discuss no peanut policy in all foods classes

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
145711	04-22-2015 10:45:00	04-23-2015 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack	s.22	Play area/ Park	s.22 had a bite of a friend's cookie with a suspected nut in it and s.22 has severe allergies. He came to the office right away and his tongue and lips were starting to swell.
145745	04-22-2015 11:50:00	04-23-2015 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Classroom	Stung by honey bee on r index finger. Anaphylactic allergy to bee stings. Administered Epi pen in L thigh. Called Mom, who instructed not to call 911, as s.22 symptoms had diminished. Dad came and picked s.22 up, admin Benadryl, and took her home.
145830	04-23-2015 09:00:00	04-24-2015 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	redness on top of right hand near thumb-approx 1 1/4 oval. some swelling. s.22 has no idea of cause....has no allergies (except penicillin) she is not taking anything. no food allergies, was kneading focaccia bread.
145913	04-24-2015 11:09:00	04-24-2015 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Office/ Admin. area	Itching and complaining of difficulty breathing. Resp's moderately labored. Given epipen dated Feb 15th. Ambulance called and taken to hospital (Mom had called to say s.22 was having an allergic reaction that was affecting her breathing).
146207	04-30-2015 09:15:00	04-30-2015 00:00:00	Sentinel Secondary School		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student suffered allergic reaction to eating muffin from cafeteria with seeds in it. She usually takes benadryl for nut allergy. She took 2 benadryl tablets. Reaction subsided.
146456	05-01-2015 00:00:00	05-04-2015 00:00:00	SD79 - Cowichan Valley		Classroom	I had a scent-sensitivity allergy reaction to perfume worn by one of the school staff casual workers. □ Faxed additional statement to SBO Health and Safety
146320	05-01-2015 08:30:00	05-01-2015 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	'On my way to school this morning, I felt itchy on my arms and neck. This has happened before and I have an allergy to pollen and dust mites. 11:30 am I noticed hives under my eye, on my neck and chest.' First Aid contacted parents to bring to clinic.
147256	05-13-2015 18:00:00	05-14-2015 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Hallway/ Locker	Shortly after arriving at after school grad event, student exhibited signs of severe allergic reaction. He had eaten octopus prior to arriving at event. His face became very swollen - ambulance called. Student was released after examination at hospital.
148601	05-26-2015 01:30:00	06-02-2015 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Athletic Field	On the grass in PE, had an allergic reaction/light rash on his hand and knee. No problems breathing. Washed and dried affected areas.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
148136	05-26-2015 12:00:00	05-27-2015 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith	s.22	Gymnasium	breathing feels "heavy" was running, but not hard, felt like breathing was becoming more difficult. Has had this once before, nothing resulted, no asthma, no medications, does have mild allergies and some anxiety.
148288	05-26-2015 12:30:00	05-28-2015 00:00:00	SD93 - CSF/FEA		Play area/ Park	While playing in the bushes (small magic forest), s.22 got an allergic reaction to something. His dad came down and gave him some Benadryl in spray on the rashes. Observed for the rest of the day and noticed that the rashes didn't get worst.
148138	05-27-2015 10:30:00	05-27-2015 00:00:00	SD70 - Alberni		Classroom	Student allergic to nuts...while in foods class accidentally ate one of the cookies that contained nuts....had a allergy reaction (anaphylactic shock)
148313	05-28-2015 10:10:00	05-28-2015 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission		Grounds	s.22 approached EA s.22 with a friend outside during recess & said she got stung on her finger. EA immediately brought her into the school office. s.22 was showing signs of an allergic reaction-911 & parent called: treated at school by paramedics
148360	05-28-2015 12:15:00	05-29-2015 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Hallway/ Locker	s.22 advises she has a perfume allergy. Collapsed in MPR - shortness of breath/struggling for breath.
149645	05-29-2015 12:05:00	06-15-2015 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Laboratory	While in Bio Lab, dissecting a starfish had a allergic reaction to chemical in dissecting fluid or latex gloves.
148592	06-01-2015 02:00:00	06-02-2015 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Grounds	Student was watering the garden and got bitten by a bug. It was the size of a nickel so student's parent was advised to take him to Dr. Student is not allergic and was given advice on getting some medication for the arm. He did go to the Dr. & is fine.
148598	06-01-2015 10:30:00	06-02-2015 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Sore ribs, no injury/no allergies/just uncomfortable
148869	06-03-2015 12:00:00	06-04-2015 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Play area/ Park	Student right eye slightly swollen and running - she came to the office for an ice pack, and when asked what happened she said she had allergies. She told teacher when playing 4-square game another student playing near them accidentally hit her with a ball.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
149019	06-04-2015 13:45:00	06-08-2015 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta	s.22	Offsite	Out running, student complaining of stomach/abdominal pain. Sharp, twisting pain. Stu history: eaten, no allergies, no presently on cycle, no prior history, no medication. rest and breathing exercises, pain subsided.
148957	06-05-2015 12:25:00	06-05-2015 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student has allergies to pistachios and cashews, however, she ate pine nuts (possibly allergic)? Called parent to pick her up. Breathing is under control. Epi-pen is handy but not needed-yet.
149343	06-09-2015 09:00:00	06-10-2015 00:00:00	SD10 - Arrow Lakes		Classroom	Started reacting to grass allergy waiting for the school bus. Puffy eyes and face, sneezing.
149609	06-15-2015 10:10:00	06-15-2015 00:00:00	SD45 - West Vancouver		Classroom	Student ate a candy then realized it had milk powder in it. Her throat started getting tight and itchy. She came to office and was given a benadryl. The office was given this in her medical package as she has an allergy to dairy. Symptoms subsided.
150152	06-19-2015 14:30:00	06-23-2015 00:00:00	SD69 - Qualicum		Play area/ Park	Wasp Sting - Student was allergic and an EPI Pen was used and the ambulance was called. Student was taken to the hospital and later released to his family.
150114	06-22-2015 12:30:00	06-22-2015 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Playground Equipment	Student was playing outside at lunch when he was stung on the foot by a bee/wasp. As he is indicated as having an anaphylactic allergy to bee/wasp stings, but did not have an epi pen, an ambulance was called. Student was taken by ambulance to hospital.
150774	07-24-2015 11:00:00	07-27-2015 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	s.22 ate a fruit bar and had immediate allergic reaction. Eyes, cheeks, mouth swelled rapidly. Aaron grabbed his epipen and gave it to the group leader, s.22 Mother was called, gave permission to administer epipen; she advised later he was ok.
173947	09-14-2015 00:00:00	11-01-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Athletic Field	Student was stung by bee while in PE class. No allergic reaction.
151805	09-22-2015 10:55:00	09-22-2015 00:00:00	SD54 - Bulkley Valley		Grounds	Working in greenhouse and noticed breaking out on both arms. Only known allergy is laundry soap. Itchy and tingly. Right forearm, 6" x 3" and spotty all over forearm. Could be zucchini.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
154454	09-25-2015 09:00:00	10-29-2015 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey	s.22	Classroom	While in Drama acting he was accidentally hit in the throat which spurred him into breathing distress - has allergies.
154209	09-29-2015 11:30:00	10-26-2015 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Severe peanut/all nut allergy. Ate cafeteria meal containing nuts.
152876	10-06-2015 08:40:00	10-07-2015 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Other	Allergic reaction. History of anaphylaxis. Itchy armpits and "swelling fingers". Anxious and willing to give epipen. Given with assistance at 0840. C/O a tight chess in her chest at 0845. To hospital with ambulance.
153257	10-13-2015 12:05:00	10-13-2015 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	gave 1 tsp of Benadryl at 12:05. phone call home at 12:15. vomiting at 12:20. picked up by mother at 12:45. Ate a piece of a friends chocolate bar. Student allergic to peanuts.
153509	10-15-2015 02:00:00	10-15-2015 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Fieldtrip - Other	were on a fieldtrip and disturbed a wasp nest. s.22 was stung several times and had an allergic reaction. 911 was call , mother was called, transported to Burnaby General Hospital
154531	10-15-2015 10:40:00	10-29-2015 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha		Classroom	Student was eating various snacks in English class and began to have an allergic reaction. He broke out in hives/rash on his arms. His throat became tingly. He was given Benadryl and monitored.
159157	10-15-2015 12:00:00	01-14-2016 00:00:00	SD71 - Comox Valley		Unknown	s.2 felt a tightness in her throat and felt unable to breathe. Possible allergic reaction.
160026	10-16-2015 12:10:00	01-27-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	s.22 came to FA today very anxious after eating two chocolates that said "may contain traces of nuts". s.22 has an allergy to tree nuts. Student did not exhibit symptoms of anaphylaxis. Puffer was administered by s.22 Parent notified. Return to cla
154571	10-21-2015 13:00:00	10-29-2015 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Ate a raw carrot during her class and her throat felt like it was closing. Became nasal congested, sinuses clogged, eyes red and puffy. Gave student oxygen and called parent to take her to the doctor to see if she has an undiagnosed allergy.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
154204	10-26-2015 13:45:00	10-26-2015 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver	s.22	Classroom	During class, student brushed something off his hair&felt sharp pain. Poss. spider bite? Reported to office. Middle r.finger slightly swollen. Small dot at poss. bite loc. No history of allergy to insect bites. Ice given. Pain improved. OK to go to class
154483	10-27-2015 09:15:00	10-29-2015 00:00:00	SD54 - Bulkley Valley		Classroom	s.22 told me that his lips hurt. I thought he might have chapped lips so I gave him lip chap. He then came back a few minutes later saying his eye hurt. That was when I knew he was having an allergic reaction to something. His eye was red and puffy.
154721	10-28-2015 12:30:00	11-02-2015 00:00:00	SD42 - Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows		Other	Suffering from allergic reaction. Throat constricted and IED, difficulty breathing. Contacted parent - advised s.22 to take Benadryl. If doesn't work - take injection. Waiting for mom. Advised to seek medical treatment.
154394	10-28-2015 12:45:00	10-28-2015 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Hallway/ Locker	Anaphylaxis trigger to nuts. Student may have ingested candy with nuts. scratchy throat and upset stomach, flushed. Student did not have epipen or allergy medication. Sister contacted instructed to go to hospital and have medication with her at all times
155202	11-06-2015 11:42:00	11-06-2015 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Office/ Admin. area	Student w/ severe peanut allergy shared other's recess snack. SSA noticed s.2 facial hives & brought her to office. Unable to contact parent, called 911, Principal administered EPI pen, Fire came. Ambulance to Children's Hospital
155709	11-16-2015 12:30:00	11-16-2015 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Classroom	s.22 is allergic to tomatoes and came into contact with a tomato in the classroom. She was having an anaphylactic reaction and did not have her Epipen with her. Family contacted. Transported by ambulance.
155887	11-18-2015 11:00:00	11-18-2015 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Field Trip - Rink	Skating field trip at s.22. Collided with another student and small cut on his hand from the other student's skate blade. He cleaned it - no bandaid as he's allergic to latex.
155884	11-18-2015 11:40:00	11-18-2015 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	Student tasted a walnut and had an allergic reaction. Student was given Benadryl and then 15 minutes later was injected with an Epipen. I called 911 and the paramedics came and monitored the student and took her to the hospital to follow up.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
156056	11-18-2015 13:22:00	11-20-2015 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria	s.22	Classroom	s.2 reported arriving at school with a bug bite. Throughout the day it became swollen and hot and it appeared to be an allergic reaction. The first aid attendant drove s.2 to the Royal Oak Clinic. Parent later gave permission for him to go home.
156874	11-26-2015 12:30:00	12-02-2015 00:00:00	SD60 - Peace River North		Classroom	Came to med room w/ allergic reaction. Left eye extremely red; face red, swollen; arms red, bumpy, warm; itchy all over. Phoned mom, would pick him up; asked if I could give Benedryl. Gave 2 tsp. Benedryl; mom took to hospital. Waiting for allergist appt.
156844	12-01-2015 11:45:00	12-01-2015 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Unknown allergy exposure. Hx of anaphylaxis. Presented with raised hives on the L side of face and itchy eyes. No labored breathing, no swollen tongue, or trouble swallowing was AL&Ox3. Epi-pen ready to administer. Parents called immediately and picked up
157361	12-07-2015 11:05:00	12-08-2015 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith		Office/ Admin. area	-anxiety, anaphylaxis- Has allergy to nuts, took a bite & realized she ate a walnut. Felt tingling sensation in lips, tongue & throat. Had her epi-pen with her but has never used it. Very hesitant. s.22 took 2-325 mg Benadryl & called mom picked up
157239	12-07-2015 11:55:00	12-07-2015 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	'I ate a granola bar at the beginning of class, five minutes later I had a scratchy throat' Hx: Severe peanut allergy, epi-pen administered at 12:00 pm, felt relief within minutes. No sign of: hives, difficulty breathing, skin pale/dry. 12:20 mom picked up
157517	12-07-2015 13:40:00	12-10-2015 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	s.22 was having difficulty breathing in class - had used an Epi-pen on Friday for allergic reaction and had been to hospital Sunday night with breathing difficulties. First aid administered (oxygen). Parent notified and advised to seek med attention.
159216	12-09-2015 10:20:00	01-15-2016 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha		Classroom	Allergic reaction to unknown source; left eye swelled quickly; took Benadryl; recently diagnosed with peanut allergy; was eating peas before reaction
157704	12-10-2015 12:15:00	12-14-2015 00:00:00	SD42 - Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Ate granola bar with peanuts. Has an allergy to nuts. Appears to be a "slow" reaction. Some itchiness in legs. Pulse good and strong. Agitated so breathing somewhat distressed. Monitored until parent picked up

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
159945	12-12-2015 09:10:00	01-26-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan	s.22	Classroom	s.2 drank an energy shake (provided by mom) that caused an allergic reaction. Itchy throat, itchy face s.22 has Benadryl here on site in the office for allergic reactions. Consent form signed and here in the office. Monitored 10 mi; no other symptoms.
158436	12-14-2015 01:00:00	01-05-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Hallway/ Locker	Student ate some trail mix. Her throat and tongue got itchy. Possible allergic reaction
158195	12-17-2015 02:50:00	12-18-2015 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Doors/ Entrance area	PAST 2015 graduated student had a severe anaphylaxis reaction to something he ate at a restaurant. He did not have his epipen with him and due to his deteriorating condition I called 911. The paramedics took him to VGH Hospital.
158223	12-18-2015 10:45:00	12-18-2015 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	Student ate donut.Has nut allergy.Had reaction.Gave Benadryl as per care plan & contacted parents. s.2 felt unwell/chest pains, called parent & ambulance. Paramedics came, as well as dad & sister. Physician asked for s.2 to be taken to hospital.
158374	12-18-2015 10:55:00	01-04-2016 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Classroom	Mrs. s.22 gave s.22 chocolate, it contained peanuts - he has peanut allergy.
158612	01-05-2016 11:45:00	01-07-2016 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Washroom / Changeroom	Bent over in the washroom and nose started dripping; yellowish, clear fluid, no history of allergy or recent cold. No head trauma or headache.
158933	01-12-2016 09:30:00	01-13-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		y Classroom	Student was in class during a science experiment where they were smelling different items. A student sprayed perfume not realizing s.22 was allergic. This instigated an asthmatic attack. Student medicated with ventolin and principal took to EMG.
159445	01-19-2016 11:00:00	01-19-2016 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	Student has an allergy to bananas (not reported previously). During foods class bananas were being used. Student did not eat or touch a banana, but broke out in itchy bumps on her hands and face. Parent called for pick up.
159854	01-20-2016 12:10:00	01-25-2016 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Grounds	Student, who is severely allergic to peanut butter, touched a bird treat outside on the playground that had peanut butter on it. She came inside and washed her hands and returned outside to play. At 12:20 she came in to eat. Staff were unaware until 12:40

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
159855	01-25-2016 09:15:00	01-25-2016 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta	s.22	Library	Possible allergic reaction to vaccine given at school today.
160444	01-29-2016 09:00:00	02-03-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Offsite	s.22 came to FA with a break out of hives (rt. and lft. arms) (face)(back torso area) legs both right and left. Parent notified to PU student to seek med. attention for ive break out. R/O possible allergic reaction.
162483	03-03-2016 14:15:00	03-03-2016 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Classroom	Ingested peanuts (allergic) in class from a small cookie. Advised to seek medical treatment.
163906	03-29-2016 14:05:00	04-06-2016 00:00:00	SD43 - Coquitlam		Classroom	s.22 was in class when she ate a cracker that contained sources of tree nuts. She felt a tightening in her throat and itchiness in her throat. She was having an allergic reaction to the trace tree nuts. Paramedics and fire department called.
163522	03-30-2016 08:30:00	03-30-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Athletic Field	While student was in PE on the lower field, the grass had been freshly cut and student has an allergy to grass and was finding it hard to breathe. Was brought to medical room and given oxygen and notified mom to bring her Benadryl for her allergies.
170110	03-31-2016 12:00:00	06-30-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Ate a piece of meat, has many allergies and felt immediate reaction. Not getting worse. Contacted parents to pick him up.
164226	04-05-2016 12:20:00	04-11-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student had a (possibly allergic) skin reaction
166570	04-10-2016 08:25:00	05-10-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Athletic Field	Student was running in lower field during PE and then collapsed. She blacked out while falling until she hit the ground and was awakened. Student was given oxygen; called mom to pick up to take her to doctor. Possibly due to allergies.
164838	04-11-2016 12:30:00	04-18-2016 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Grounds	Student, sitting in field at lunch, came inside with itchy, puffy eyes. Mother took her home and later in the evening had to take her to emerg. with severe reaction. Unknown allergy at this time.
164973	04-16-2016 12:44:00	04-19-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Other	During a catered lunch, s.22 ate salad that contained peanut oil. She had an allergic reaction to peanuts, first stomach upset then couldn't breath. 911 was called, an epipen was administered. She was taken to hospital.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
165231	04-20-2016 09:30:00	04-22-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey	s.22	Classroom	s.22 has allergies and blew his nose and started a nose bleed.
165105	04-20-2016 12:47:00	04-21-2016 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Grounds	s.22 came to the office with a red raised rash round his neck. No problems breathing. No known allergies. Phoned mom - she ok'd calamine lotion. Ice and calamine lotion applied. Rash became fainter and did not spread. Back to class.
165415	04-20-2016 12:50:00	04-25-2016 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Classroom	Trying to kill a wasp and the desk he was on tipped over. Another student had a allergy to wasp.
166523	04-20-2016 14:15:00	05-10-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Grounds	s.22 forgot her puffer at home and her allergies are really bothering her. She was running the 5K and became short of breath and dizzy.
165774	04-27-2016 10:30:00	04-28-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Hallway/ Locker	Student ate 3/4 of a bag of peas during her spare in the hub and started coughing for 10 min. She has allergies but not to food. Had itchy neck; used inhaler which didn't help and was also given oxygen. Ambulance called as breathing was difficult.
169261	04-29-2016 01:05:00	06-15-2016 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha		Other	Student had an anaphylactic reaction.
166171	05-04-2016 12:05:00	05-04-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student was finding it hard to breathe during her dance class; chest was tightening up. She has two inhalers for allergies which she takes but the one makes her drowsy. She was given oxygen in med. room and parents were notified to pick up.
166660	05-04-2016 15:20:00	05-11-2016 00:00:00	SD43 - Coquitlam		Office/ Admin. area	Breathing difficulties, went into anaphylactic shock, benadryl given, oxygen, then epipen administered at 3:45
166378	05-05-2016 12:00:00	05-09-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student injected. Had an allergic reaction. First Aid attendant administered epipen. Sent to hospital via ambulance.
166272	05-05-2016 14:30:00	05-05-2016 00:00:00	SD06 - Rocky Mountain		Office/ Admin. area	s.22 reported an allergic reaction, he took Benedryl(nausea, trouble breathing, numbness right arm, right cheek, vision trouble) we called mom, moved to medical room. Condition worsened but was not typical anaplastic reaction. Ambulance took him to hos

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
167030	05-09-2016 12:30:00	05-16-2016 00:00:00	SD72 - Campbell River	s.22	Play area/ Park	Stung on left upper bicep. No known allergy. ABC, modified head to toe, applied sting relief which worked. Called mom to inform. Back to class.
166592	05-10-2016 10:00:00	05-10-2016 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Grounds	During PE class, s.22 was running through the bush and had an allergic skin, redness & some blisters, mostly on the exposed areas of his skin but also on torso. Areas washed with antibacterial soap with saline solution. Rash cleared up lunch (11:30 am)
167496	05-17-2016 14:15:00	05-20-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Anaphylactic shock. s.22 ate some pasta around 1:15 and began to have a reaction - into full anaphylactic shock by 2:15. No EPI pen
167427	05-18-2016 12:30:00	05-19-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Athletic Field	Student was outside at lunch today sitting in the grass when he felt his throat getting itchy and swelling. Student has an allergy to pollen. After 25 min. student feeling a bit better. Attempted to contact parent; no response. Student returned to class.
167417	05-19-2016 09:30:00	05-19-2016 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Grounds	During Capture the Flag in P.E. student was received several wasp stings when in the forest by the school field. Reported to office. One sting on right arm and two stings on right leg. Iced. Parent called for pick up. Student has other severe allergies.
168424	05-20-2016 11:30:00	06-03-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Hit by cookie on inside of arm and had a possible allergic reaction.
167757	05-25-2016 09:00:00	05-26-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Possible allergic reaction to eating strawberries in the morning. Throat feels dry but inhaler is not with her. Was given oxygen in the medical room which calmed down her airway tract. Parent contacted to pick up to have a doctor check her out.
167990	05-25-2016 12:00:00	05-30-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Grounds	During lunch allergies were aggravated due to the pollens and grass - eyes running, chest hurtings, throat itching and swollen, etc.
167732	05-25-2016 12:15:00	05-26-2016 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Classroom	right eye became red and vision blurry. possible allergies or pink eye.
167925	05-26-2016 09:00:00	05-27-2016 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Left red eye, eyelids slightly swollen and itchy. Possible allergic reaction.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
168688	05-26-2016 10:05:00	06-07-2016 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford	s.22	Classroom	had an allergic reaction to hazelnut.
168055	05-30-2016 08:30:00	05-30-2016 00:00:00	SD72 - Campbell River		In Transit	Student was coming to school on the school bus when he had symptoms of an allergic reaction. History, ABC, vitals, mod head to toe, called home and informed mom. Student has derma allergic reaction to cashews, itchy. Mom came to administer cream.
168038	05-30-2016 10:45:00	05-30-2016 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Grounds	s.22 is highly allergic to all nuts. Another student offered her some popcorn that may have had trace of peanuts on it. She declined but started feeling sick shortly after. She was brought to the office by support staff, condition worsened. EpiPen
168268	06-01-2016 09:00:00	06-01-2016 00:00:00	SD72 - Campbell River		Classroom	Student was in class when she became aware of an allergic reaction to right eye. History, ABC, Mod head to toe, applied ice, Student took one pill of Benadryll (of her own) at 9:30 a.m. Symptom did not improve. Called mom.
168485	06-03-2016 11:45:00	06-03-2016 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Grounds	s.22 was in PE & running, slipped & landed on a bee or wasp, getting stung on her right calf. Walked to med room. Assessed. Iced. Checked for allergy symptoms - there were none. Called mom. Mom will pick her up.
168749	06-06-2016 10:00:00	06-08-2016 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Athletic Field	Student was running outside and had redness on arms/face/leg due to exposure to sun or allergen. Advised to seek medical treatment.
168639	06-07-2016 09:30:00	06-07-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Grounds	While in PE playing manhunt, something got in student's eye and symptoms got worse while in his next class. Right eye is red & itchy. Student was given eye rinse and felt better. Parents were contacted as it may have to do with allergies.
168644	06-07-2016 10:15:00	06-07-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Grounds	Possible eye allergy while in PE. Eye became irritated as the grass was just cut and it happens to the student in the spring. Sore throat and face was swollen. Student was given eye rinse which made itch go away. Parents have made apt with dr.

FILE_NUM BER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED _DATE	REPORTING_LOCA TION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
168991	06-08-2016 10:40:00	06-10-2016 00:00:00	SD62 - Sooke	s.22	Offsite	After playing a soccer game s.22 approached s.22 with shortness of breath. s.22 said it begun during the last activity of the session. Parent was called, s.22 was taken to hospital by ambulance. Possible allergic reaction from allergy medication
168827	06-08-2016 12:10:00	06-08-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Athletic Field	Felt something in his right eye, didn't see anything could have been a scratch or allergy - both eyes were quite red.
168950	06-09-2016 12:00:00	06-09-2016 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Other	Student allergic reaction to pineapple, triggered asthma. Gave o2, called mom for inhaler. Student stable, good vitals. Mom arrived, student became agitated, breathing became labored, mom said to call 911. Paramedics said medically ok, released to mom.
169317	06-09-2016 12:45:00	06-15-2016 00:00:00	SD42 - Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows		Office/ Admin. area	s.22 came into the office with difficulties breathing. s.22 allergic to grass and was having a reaction. She said that her throat felt tight. Her heart rate was high. I got her breathing every 3 seconds and gave oxygen to help. Ambulance/Dad called
169123	06-10-2016 12:00:00	06-13-2016 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Athletic Field	During PE, the class was running through the forest and into a Wasp area whereby student was stung several times. Possible student was also suffering a panic attack and possible allergic reaction. Ambulance was called and then released to Mother.
169030	06-10-2016 12:55:00	06-10-2016 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Laboratory	I felt something splash on my lower arms just before we finished doing a lab using acids. Also my hands felt itchy while I was vinyl gloves' I have no known allergies. First aid: acquired list of acids used,contacted poison control, flushed/washed
169304	06-15-2016 13:15:00	06-15-2016 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Library	Student was eating a salad at lunch and had an allergic reaction. Friend administered Epi-pen. Dad arrived to take s.2 to doctor. Advised to seek medical treatment.
169314	06-15-2016 14:00:00	06-15-2016 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Grounds	During a visit to the school vegetable garden, student ate a bean. Has had previous allergic reaction to edamame. Student itchy and throat felt constricted. Reported to office. Student monitored. Guardian called for pick up. No medical alert on file.
181772	06-16-2016 12:00:00	03-13-2017 00:00:00	SD72 - Campbell River		Grounds	Student was on upper field when student was stung by bee. Student is not allergic to bees

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
169417	06-16-2016 14:45:00	06-17-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan	s.22	Office/ Admin. area	Student believes he ingested milk products and had an anaphylaxis episode.
169836	06-21-2016 12:40:00	06-24-2016 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Grounds	Stung by a wasp outside at lunch on right ankle. No swelling observed. Phone mom - no allergy to insect bites.
169738	06-22-2016 11:15:00	06-22-2016 00:00:00	SD85 - Vancouver Island North		Classroom	s.22 was attending Kindergarten orientation. She was exposed to chestnuts in the classroom and suffered a severe allergic reaction. Her aunt, who was present, rushed her to emergency at the nearby hospital. s.22 was treated there.
169735	06-22-2016 11:15:00	06-22-2016 00:00:00	SD85 - Vancouver Island North		Classroom	s.22 was visiting the Kindergarten classroom. There were chestnuts in the classroom, and s.22 suffered a severe allergic reaction to them. Her aunt, who was present, drove her to emergency at the local (nearby) hospital. s.22 was treated there
170717	09-08-2016 12:00:00	09-11-2016 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Office/ Admin. area	Having an allergic reaction. Accompanied to get epi-pen from locker. Denies SOB. Itchy all over. Epi-pen give Rt. thigh at 11:44 by s.22. Witness s.22 Ambulance and parent called. Reports much less itchy at 11:52. Taken to hospital.
171581	09-14-2016 10:45:00	09-26-2016 00:00:00	SD72 - Campbell River		Classroom	Ate a peach at 10:10 and allergic reaction began right away but just thought he was itchy. Tried washing hands and face, but it made it worse. Parent contacted by student. No previous history of allergies to peaches.
171647	09-21-2016 08:25:00	09-27-2016 00:00:00	SD08 - Kootenay Lake		Hallway/ Locker	student was given something to eat (smoothie) reacted to food with strong anaphylactic reaction. Presented with sweating and throat closing symptoms. Ambulance was called - Emergency services responded 8:36 am. Mom administered Epi-Pen.
172112	09-30-2016 11:25:00	10-03-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Right after lunch, in class, ate a piece of Quaker granola bar and her throat felt like it was swelling up. She took her Benadryl, has a severe nut allergy and epi pen was ready to use. Followed up Oct 3, she is ok-saw her Dr
172407	10-05-2016 08:30:00	10-06-2016 00:00:00	SD48 - Sea to Sky		Playground Equipment	Student was stung by a bee/wasp. Had an allergic reaction.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
172942	10-05-2016 11:50:00	10-17-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan	s.22	Classroom	Student came to first aid complaining of a fuzzy feeling in back of throat and palate. s.2 ate a granola bar around 10:00 am that could contain nuts. He has a known allergy to all nuts - student stmt. not on file. Spoke with grandma
172750	10-11-2016 11:50:00	10-13-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	s.22 ate a Dipps Peanut Butter bar that was packed in her lunch by her mom. s.22 is listed as anaphylactic to peanuts. Her lips were puffed, her throat itchy. s.2 has had a reaction to peanuts before. 911 was called, an ambulance was dispatched.
173119	10-13-2016 11:25:00	10-19-2016 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Ms. s.22 were in the hall asking for help administering an EpiPen. The child, s.22 was having an anaphylactic reaction. I took the EpiPen and administered it then called 9-1-1. I stayed with s.22 checking vitals while on the
172829	10-13-2016 15:00:00	10-13-2016 00:00:00	SD27 - Cariboo/Chilcotin		Classroom	s.22 was picking up wood off the floor by the cut off saw area while s.22 s.22 was vacuuming the cut off saw area. s.22 moved a board from his vacuuming area and was placing the board in the cut off saw bin hitting by accident s.2 .
172996	10-14-2016 12:00:00	10-17-2016 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Offsite	Subway restaurant at lunch .s.22 had hives erupt on his arms and neck, felt nauseated. No known allergies
172974	10-17-2016 12:00:00	10-17-2016 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Classroom	Student had an allergic reaction for unknown reason. Her breathing was fine, but her face was swollen, red and itchy. Contacted guardian who picked her up.
173427	10-24-2016 12:00:00	10-24-2016 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Grounds	Playing Gym Ultimate outside on field with grass and broke out in hives. Hives on arms and neck. No trouble breathing. Not allergic to anything. Did not eat anything different that morning. Called Mom/Walked 4 minute walk with cell home, Mom expecting him
174408	11-02-2016 09:40:00	11-07-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	s.22 has a severe peanut allergy. A classmate ate a Reese's Peanut Butter Cup and then touched his arm. His arm is itchy and he is anxious.
174875	11-08-2016 13:05:00	11-14-2016 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Student came into the office complaining of a sore throat. Mother was called immediately. Mother arrived at school approx. 1:20. Mother administered oral allergy meds. An ambulance was called as mother thought student was having an anaphylactic reaction.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
175263	11-18-2016 09:36:00	11-18-2016 00:00:00	SD43 - Coquitlam	s.22	Classroom	s.2 ate a granola bar purchased from the vending machine, which after being retrieved by the youth worker and given to the counselor to read, it contained peanuts, which s.2 is allergic to (anaphylactic). Father brought epi-pen and administered to s.2
176188	11-18-2016 10:20:00	12-01-2016 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Classroom	s.22 touched paint while in the class. She is allergic to dye. She was given Benadryl. She said she felt dizzy and rested in the sick room before returning to class.
175788	11-24-2016 12:15:00	11-25-2016 00:00:00	SD08 - Kootenay Lake		Office/ Admin. area	During lunch s.22 had, poss. anaphylactic reaction. She was administered epi and oxygen at school and transported to hospital via ambulance. It is possible the reaction was to chemicals used in science lab earlier.
176064	11-29-2016 12:00:00	11-30-2016 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student is having an allergic reaction - rash, bumps on face & arms. he is allergic to peanuts, seafood and eggs.
176036	11-29-2016 12:30:00	11-29-2016 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Industrial Arts	Student developed a rash around both ankles while in wood shop. No known allergies.
177764	12-04-2016 09:30:00	01-09-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student ate a cookie with peanuts in it and had a slight allergic reaction.
177038	12-06-2016 12:53:00	12-14-2016 00:00:00	SD62 - Sooke		Classroom	Student was vomiting, not very alert and had difficulty speaking. He said he thought he was stung by a bee and he is severely allergic to bees so we administered an epipen and called 911. He was taken to hospital and made a full recovery.
177365	12-20-2016 12:50:00	12-20-2016 00:00:00	SD05 - Southeast Kootenay		Office/ Admin. area	Came down to office after lunch and complained of hives. Doesn't know what he is allergic to and said it happens frequently. Dad picked him up to take him to the doctor.
178291	01-09-2017 17:45:00	01-17-2017 00:00:00	SD41 - Burnaby		Gymnasium	s.22 was attending a basketball practice. She came to me saying she was not feeling well. She felt there was a allergic reaction occurring. We went to the side and she administered her Epipen.
177919	01-11-2017 09:45:00	01-11-2017 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Office/ Admin. area	Reported by office staff 'Student stated she is not feeling well, complains of a headache and numbness throughout her body, very anxious. Stated she ate almonds this morning'. First aid, no medical history, meds or allergies, hyperventilating-unconscious 911

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
178506	01-19-2017 11:40:00	01-19-2017 00:00:00	SD59 - Peace River South	s.22	Classroom	s.22 (not in foods 8) came into the foods room and took a bite of the cake not knowing that it had nuts. Asked if she had epi-pen, said no. Panicking or allergic reaction occurring. Epi-pen given in office. Mom called. Taken to hospital.
178627	01-19-2017 12:30:00	01-20-2017 00:00:00	SD72 - Campbell River		Grounds	Student was running on the back of the school by portables when student had breathing difficulty. ABC's, History applied 02, Mod head to toe, Vitals all normal. No allergies, no meds.
179300	01-24-2017 09:50:00	01-31-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Offsite	s.22 came to FA with an itchy left eye (around the outside of eye- tissue) He has a known allergy to cats. He stated he had been in contact with a cat on 01-19-17 and started to feel itchy. Exam and clean area. Refer to med. aid. Student to be picked up.
179303	01-30-2017 10:00:00	01-31-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Gymnasium	s.22 came to FA with a rash on her neck, and on upper back close to base of neck. She is complaining of the rash being itchy. She has no known allergies at this time. Wash area. Parent asked to seek med. aid for consultation.
179492	02-02-2017 08:55:00	02-02-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Grounds	While testing the ice in the school creek, s.22 fell and brushed up against some sort of foliage causing an allergic reaction on his wrist and arm.
179921	02-10-2017 10:35:00	02-10-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Complained of eye pain/burning, left eye. Nothing seen but used eye cup. Same problem on Wed Feb 8 with right eye, washed that eye 2/3 times, nothing seen. Q: allergies? Mom will come at lunch and look.
180042	02-10-2017 17:00:00	02-15-2017 00:00:00	SD85 - Vancouver Island North		Classroom	Possible allergic reaction to stage make up used for theatre production. Headache, dizziness, rash. Student was at home when problem developed.
180425	02-15-2017 09:10:00	02-20-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Portable Classroom/ Building	Probable unknown allergic reaction in portable 7. Left eye, face and neck.
181912	02-16-2017 12:00:00	03-15-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Office/ Admin. area	Student lost consciousness for a short time, fell to ground (off of chair) had troubles breathing. No allergies/medications. Short of breath - breathing erratic. reported body tingling. Called parents and ambulance.
192291	02-20-2017 09:25:00	10-26-2017 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Athletic Field	Student was running a lap when a wasp stung him twice on the inner left bicep. 2 sting marks noticeable, no allergy alert or reaction.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
182345	02-24-2017 10:14:00	03-29-2017 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha	s.22	Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student had an allergic reaction to a banana she ate.
181908	02-28-2017 10:15:00	03-15-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Athletic Field	In gym class hit in the head with a ball (left side corner of eye) somewhat blurry vision and a headache (7/10 pain) resulted. No allergies or medications. Ice pack to affected area. Previously had a concussion, no bruising or swelling.
181125	03-02-2017 11:19:00	03-03-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Classroom	Unknown allergic reaction. Throat slightly swollen (breathing / airway unimpaired). Advised to seek medical treatment.
181222	03-03-2017 12:00:00	03-06-2017 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Road/ Street	Walking back to school lunch hour, developed rash, covering chest, back. Looks like heat rash or hives. No other symptoms, no allergies. Happened before (Jan) ABC check. Ice to cool, observation, took pictures to show dr. s.22 contacted.
181982	03-13-2017 12:40:00	03-16-2017 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha		Classroom	Student had an allergic reaction to something he ate.
182073	03-17-2017 12:45:00	03-17-2017 00:00:00	SD60 - Peace River North		Classroom	Student was in his classroom enjoying class party treats when he noticed his lip was swelling. He advised the teacher and she immediately brought him to the office, he said his throat was feeling tighter. No known food allergies.
182214	03-27-2017 13:25:00	03-28-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	Student threw up twice after eating unfamiliar snack from s.22 (contained peanuts). Has had same reaction before but has not been allergy tested. Mom OK'd a Benadryl. Hasn't had throat symptoms in past.
182477	03-29-2017 12:42:00	04-03-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Classroom	Student came to office assisted by noon hour complaining about not being able to breath (having allergic reaction) and was panicking. Has allergy to peanut & ate a cookie. Epicene was administered by Mr. s.2 and ambulance/parents were called.
184658	03-30-2017 13:25:00	05-08-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	s.22 was stung by a wasp in class on his right palm. Meaty part of the thumb. Administered ice and checked for allergies; no allergies.
182587	04-04-2017 09:55:00	04-04-2017 00:00:00	SD46 - Sunshine Coast		Athletic Field	While on a run with her PE class, s.22 had experienced some breathing issues - asthma like symptoms. Student has pollen allergies.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
182727	04-05-2017 12:51:00	04-06-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond	s.22	Classroom	Student ate a song cake. The sponge cake contained seeds or nuts that initiated an allergic reaction.□ Eli pen used. Ambulance and parents called.
183193	04-13-2017 12:30:00	04-13-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Classroom	student ate a cookie from another student (apparently had nuts), complained of scratchy throat, stomach pains immediately, allergic reaction -called mom, administered epi pen and called 911. They took him to the hospital.
184037	04-27-2017 10:30:00	04-27-2017 00:00:00	SD47 - Powell River		Doors/ Entrance area	Bee stung student's lip. Student showed signs of moderate-severe allergic reaction (tongue and lip swelling, somewhat constricted airway). First aid administered and 911 call. Staff stayed with student for observation.
184120	04-28-2017 13:00:00	04-28-2017 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith		Grounds	Student stepped on prickly while in socks on playing field. Appears to have swelling in foot (possible allergic reaction). Also has pre-existing injury on toe (possible fracture). Parents contacted.
184292	05-02-2017 08:45:00	05-02-2017 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Student experienced an apparent allergic reaction on skin.
185167	05-02-2017 13:45:00	05-12-2017 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha		Hallway/ Locker	Student had an allergic reaction to something she ate and needed an epi pen administered.
184799	05-09-2017 10:00:00	05-09-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Athletic Field	In PE after completing a 25 min run, became short of breathe (gasping for air) to degree of almost fainting. Possible allergic reaction or allergies, notified parent for Dr checkup as is second time it happened.
185190	05-11-2017 14:00:00	05-15-2017 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission		Gymnasium	Student was in the gym. Had allergic reaction to sunscreen another student had on. Mom was called and she took him to the hospital.
185173	05-12-2017 13:30:00	05-12-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Fieldtrip - Other	Student had an allergic reactions.22 , epi-pen administered and student taken to hospital. Full details unknown at this time as student is currentlys.22
186078	05-26-2017 13:00:00	05-26-2017 00:00:00	SD75 - Mission		Classroom	s.22 was sent to the medical room by the teacher because she had what looked like an allergic reaction to something. She had hives on her chest. Her father was called and he came to pick her up.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
186170	05-29-2017 09:30:00	05-29-2017 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria	s.22	Classroom	student had allergic reaction - rash on torso, wheezy breathing. Mother was still on site. Gave Benadryl and took her to emergency. EpiPen not administered. Allergen may have made contact at home or on way to school. Not sure.
187014	06-02-2017 10:00:00	06-09-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student has a rash on inner elbows, shoulders, neck and scalp - has allergies and thyroid issues and is on medications.
186531	06-02-2017 10:22:00	06-02-2017 00:00:00	SD43 - Coquitlam		Hallway/ Locker	Apparently s.22 was exposed to someone who had been touching cheese. Immediately afterwards he had an anaphylactic response, he administered his EpiPen at 10:22, ambulance was called, oxygen applied at 15 and blanket given to treat shock.
186976	06-05-2017 09:40:00	06-08-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Red spot on forehead between eyebrows - signs of allergic reaction (maybe too many eggs)
186653	06-05-2017 10:55:00	06-05-2017 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Classroom	student ate a granola bar from home that contained nuts. He has an anaphylactic allergy. Mouth became itchy, staff administered epi pen, called ambulance.
186927	06-06-2017 11:30:00	06-08-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Play area/ Park	During lunch s.2 was in the park and had an allergic reaction to something (hives)
188101	06-07-2017 11:40:00	06-23-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Boys in science class touched her neck with latex gloves. She is allergic. She has no Benadryl or epiPen. Itchy throat (subsiding) breathing ok. Called family to bring Benadryl.
187929	06-14-2017 14:00:00	06-22-2017 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Classroom	s.22 was coughing uncontrollably and her lips were turning blue. The secretary was called and s.22 was fine when she got there. Guardian was called and came to pick up s.22. She was taken to clinic and was told it was allergy induced asthma.
188003	06-22-2017 01:00:00	06-22-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Field Trip - Pool	s.22 experienced what appears to be an allergic reaction during a field trip to s.22. She received medical attention by the lifeguards. s.22 was taken to emergency at Richmond General Hospital for observation.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
188012	06-22-2017 01:30:00	06-22-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond	s.22	Field Trip - Pool	s.22 experienced an allergic reaction while on a field trip to s.22. His right eye was noticeably swollen. He did not complain of any difficulties breathing. s.22 received first aid from the Richmond Fire Department.
188013	06-22-2017 01:30:00	06-22-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Field Trip - Pool	s.22 experienced an allergic reaction while at s.22. He was taken to hospital due to shortness of breathing. His family was contacted by the school in the evening and it was communicated that s.22 was at home feeling better.
188032	06-22-2017 13:45:00	06-23-2017 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Gymnasium	anaphylaxis reaction to food
188034	06-22-2017 13:45:00	06-23-2017 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Gymnasium	anaphylaxis reaction to food
189280	09-12-2017 12:55:00	09-12-2017 00:00:00	SD69 - Qualicum		Play area/ Park	Stung by wasp outside, came to office; treated sting, no known allergies. Student reported difficulty swallowing and breathing so called 911; paramedics checked vitals and no indication of reaction. Parent declined transport to hospital.
189437	09-14-2017 13:10:00	09-14-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Classroom	Student had an allergic reaction to eating a seaweed snack. He did not know it contained peanuts (has allergy to peanuts - anaphylaxis). Had a mild reaction, swelling in throat, no laboured breathing.
189657	09-19-2017 11:20:00	09-19-2017 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Grounds	Student was stung by a bee on his hand while running lap around field. EA brought student to office, he had a wet paper towel on his hand. No allergies listed for bee stings. Student & EA went back to class.
189775	09-20-2017 11:40:00	09-20-2017 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	Student ate a Japanese cracker with Japanese printed on packaging. Student has shellfish allergy and said tongue felt thick, but fine otherwise. Parent called. Student took Benadryl himself. Parent took student home or to medical care.
189897	09-22-2017 09:00:00	09-22-2017 00:00:00	SD85 - Vancouver Island North		Classroom	ate a granola bar with peanuts- allergic to peanuts and was not carrying her epi pen

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
190822	09-22-2017 11:00:00	10-04-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan	s.22	Classroom	s.22 ate peach from classroom. Lips and scalp became itchy. Student then indicated possible mild allergy to some fruit. Student thoroughly washed hands and face. Ab Ed Advocate texted parent. Teacher monitored student back in classroom.
190074	09-25-2017 12:35:00	09-26-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Athletic Field	Student was running outside during PE when she felt a sharp pain on her leg. Student had a bee sting on right leg near ankle. No bee allergies. Advised to seek medical treatment.
200849	09-27-2017 12:10:00	03-06-2018 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Athletic Field	Outside in schoolyard, getting a ball out of the bushes, had a reaction on skin. Mild irritation and bumps, sterilized, applied polysporin. bandages. No history of allergies.
190264	09-27-2017 14:00:00	09-27-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Gymnasium	Student felt allergic reaction during PE; swelling under eyes, itchy throat. Lunch was pasta Mom made; allergic to nuts/dairy/eggs, shellfish. Had a friend offer Benadryl. FA spoke to Mom; advised to supply Benadry/epipen.
192924	09-28-2017 13:45:00	11-03-2017 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Grounds	Stung by a wasp on top of left hand - student has a history of anaphylactic reaction to wasps. No evidence of such reaction - 911 called as a precaution paramedics administered benedryl.
190496	09-29-2017 12:15:00	09-29-2017 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	Student ate a piece of moon cake in his class, and he is allergic to peanuts and eggs. Student did not feel well and was brought to the office. had stomach aches. Administered Benadryl. Student then complained about difficulty breathing. EpiPen given.
190982	10-04-2017 13:00:00	10-06-2017 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Classroom	Student had an allergic reaction to a pumpkin seed he ate during classtime. Mom was called and Student administered his epipen while I was calling 911. Student sat next to me in office. Mom arrived at 1:10 ambulance at 1:15. Taken to hospital.
191405	10-05-2017 01:30:00	10-13-2017 00:00:00	SD20 - Kootenay-Columbia		Unknown	Student had an allergic reaction (itchy throat) to something she ate at lunch. She self-administered Benadryl with parental permission.
191230	10-11-2017 11:30:00	10-11-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Play area/ Park	Had an allergic reaction to dirt while playing with it.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
191729	10-13-2017 12:00:00	10-18-2017 00:00:00	SD42 - Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows	s.22	Parking Lot	Student was outside during a fire drill and was bitten/stung in the neck by a wasp. Student arrived in first aid, checked the ABC's and medical history (not allergic). Administered an ice pack for minor swelling and the student returned to class
191459	10-13-2017 13:00:00	10-13-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Hallway/ Locker	Student ate noodle snack that contained peanuts and had an allergic reaction. Tingly throat, difficulty breathing over time, some tongue redness. EpiPen was expired. Paramedics called to take to hospital and administered adrenaline. Parent contacted.
191999	10-16-2017 09:50:00	10-23-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	Student had a chocolate not realizing there was hazelnut in it. Student is allergic. Mom and 911 were called. Fire Department and ambulance arrived. Mom arrived shortly after. Student did not have a severe allergic reaction. No epiPen was used.
191594	10-16-2017 12:45:00	10-16-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	Student has an allergy to nuts and accepted a walnut bar from another child. She began to cough and itch; face became red. Teacher brought her to medical room with her Epi-Pen and our first aid administered her Epi-Pen. Mother picked her up.
192223	10-19-2017 13:30:00	10-25-2017 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	Having trouble breathing, has allergies. Student requested a paper bag to breathe into, called home, student continued to next class.
192154	10-24-2017 09:30:00	10-24-2017 00:00:00	SD73 - Kamloops/Thompson		Classroom	Student ate M&M candies and now complaining of scratchy throat. Student stated he has a nut allergy. No care plan on file at the school or Epi-Pen at school.
192780	10-24-2017 14:15:00	11-02-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	While eating carrots at snack time she had an allergic reaction, lips swollen, throat/neck scratchy - breathing ok and can swallow normally
192611	10-25-2017 12:46:00	10-31-2017 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Grounds	Student was bitten by a wasp on the hand while outside during lunch. Was red and slightly swollen. No allergy on file or any symptoms. Gave ice and returned to class. Student told to return if any symptoms occur.
192921	10-27-2017 09:00:00	11-03-2017 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	During school immunizations, s.22 had an anaphylactic reaction. 991 was called, parents were notified and the student went to the hospital.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
192637	10-31-2017 11:40:00	10-31-2017 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver	s.22	Classroom	My friend offered me a Witch's Finger cookie that he made in Foods class, I bit into an almond. Medical history: allergy to nuts (delayed reaction), medication epi-pen. First aid:breathing good, pulse strong/easily felt, no swelling, skin warm/pink/dry.
192960	11-01-2017 12:22:00	11-03-2017 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Grounds	s.22 piggy backed by s.22 lost footing & s.22 fell off to side hitting top of head. Minor allergic reaction to grass. Assisted to med room. Assessed. lced. Wind knocked out of him. Small scrape on r side face. Called dad. Returned to class.
193076	11-06-2017 03:20:00	11-07-2017 00:00:00	SD60 - Peace River North		Hallway/ Locker	s.22 had an asthma/allergy attack to fragrance in the classroom. First aid arrived she had taken her puffer but was on the verge of seizure. Administered oxygen right away, took vitals contacted home to pick up. She came out of it as soon as given oxygen
193695	11-08-2017 13:20:00	11-16-2017 00:00:00	SD48 - Sea to Sky		Classroom	Another student smeared s.22's shirt with peanut butter. s.22 experienced an allergic reaction. Epi-pen administered, parents contacted and they took s.22 to Emergency.
193569	11-09-2017 03:00:00	11-14-2017 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Gymnasium	Student was playing volleyball in PE and later went to the Doctor as pain increased and he was found to have a fractured middle finger on his left hand; he was told to wear a splinter and use ice packs. He is allergic to pain killers but otherwise okay.
194688	11-24-2017 09:00:00	11-29-2017 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	Student participated in 24 hour fast (only beverages) and ate a cookie and another item after fast. Said he might be having an allergic reaction, but seemed fine as per co-worker. Sent home with aunt and his office Epi-pen--reported fine to my knowledge
194547	11-27-2017 14:20:00	11-28-2017 00:00:00	SD22 - Vernon		Hallway/ Locker	Ate an Asian pear and had a slight allergic reaction, throat itchy and flush from scratching.
194649	11-28-2017 11:20:00	11-28-2017 00:00:00	SD42 - Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows		Hallway/ Locker	Student reported with blotchy skin, redness on neck and face. assessed ABC's determined allergic reaction to wheat elevated heart rat. no medication on hand at school. contacted mother to arrange pickup and transport to home to take medication.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
194754	11-29-2017 13:30:00	11-29-2017 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley	s.22	Classroom	s. , started eating part of his snack and starting having an allergic reaction, eyes started swelling, Student brought to office with epi pen. Student could still breathe, call mom to come pick up. Did not have to use epi pen
195095	11-30-2017 12:07:00	12-05-2017 00:00:00	SD22 - Vernon		Office/ Admin. area	Had an allergic reaction, hives and redness on right forearm (over an hour).
195495	12-05-2017 12:30:00	12-08-2017 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	ate a sandwich instead of a salad and had an allergic reaction. She phoned her mother and told me that she was not feeling well so her mother said she could leave. She didn't mention that she was having a reaction to me.
195860	12-12-2017 15:00:00	12-13-2017 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Gymnasium	s.22 ate a bar that had nuts in it. s.22 is allergic to nuts. Epi-pen was given. 911 was called. Paramedics took s.22 to hospital.
196036	12-14-2017 13:50:00	12-15-2017 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Office/ Admin. area	s.2 experienced an allergic reaction and was brought to the office. He had hives and complained of breathing problems. He was given an epipen injection and was attended to by first responders. His mother was instructed to take him to emergency - evalatio
196040	12-14-2017 14:00:00	12-15-2017 00:00:00	SD85 - Vancouver Island North		Classroom	Student ate a sweet tart candy, which was given to her in class and had a allergic reaction, it got so bad she had to use her epi pen and then was taken to hospital.
196121	12-15-2017 10:30:00	12-15-2017 00:00:00	SD48 - Sea to Sky		Classroom	s.22 at a candy without thinking \, then asked if it might have peanuts (he is allergic) - experienced an allergic reaction - Mr.s.22 administered s.2 r's epi-pen at 11:25, s.22 was sick to his stomach. Picked up by aunt and sister to go to emerg
196341	12-19-2017 13:00:00	12-20-2017 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	s.22 lost consciousness while standing in class. No allergies, took 6 Advil for a migraine today. Anxiety about pending exam. Elevated pulse 96bpm, in and out of consciousness. Elevated heart rate when conscious. Emergency med transport to hospital.
196781	01-09-2018 12:15:00	01-10-2018 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Classroom	Student has had an allergic reaction to something. Red rash, swollen under both eyes. Mom was contacted. Sister to bring medication.
197643	01-15-2018 11:00:00	01-22-2018 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	s.22 started to have a rash on arms leg and back - is allergic to fruit with pitts - Eppen at home

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
198915	01-18-2018 02:00:00	02-08-2018 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley	s.22	Hallway/ Locker	Student has a slight peanut allergy and is having a reaction. Red face, throat is thick shallow breathing. Called Mom and she gave permission to give Benadryl.
197673	01-19-2018 13:30:00	01-23-2018 00:00:00	SD43 - Coquitlam		Gymnasium	student ate granola bar while playing in gym - allergic reaction to peanuts in granola bar
198813	01-23-2018 09:30:00	02-07-2018 00:00:00	SD20 - Kootenay-Columbia		Classroom	Student ate a smores (marshmallow/chocolate) bar in Foods class and had a reaction (hives on lips and mouth). (Student has a peanut allergy). Parent advised student to self administer personal Benadryl.
198343	01-31-2018 10:50:00	01-31-2018 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Fieldtrip - Other	s.22 was on a walk with her class, touched a tree with her right hand and developed an allergic reaction: hives and feeling of heat on her right wrist and forearm. s.22 has an anaphylaxis allergy to nuts. Given 2 Benadryl as per parent instructions
198930	02-05-2018 12:00:00	02-08-2018 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Classroom	s.22 is allergic to Kiwi. He was exposed to Kiwi and suffered with hives and red eyes. Took Benadryl.
198767	02-05-2018 12:30:00	02-06-2018 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	s.2 unknowingly ingested some peanut butter in a cookie. s.2 is anaphylactic to peanuts. He was given Benadryl according to his Action Plan and his mother's advice. His symptoms included scratchy throat, eventually an upset stomach.
198945	02-08-2018 10:30:00	02-08-2018 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Grounds	allergic reaction - possible nut reaction. Parent picked him up 11:15am, vomited 8 times, he had took a few bits of a granola bar (given by parent) that contains peanuts (Nature Valley). Has a medical alert kit, Benadryl was given and parents called.
204899	02-13-2018 13:35:00	05-10-2018 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Unknown	Student had a swollen lip due to an allergic reaction.
199945	02-22-2018 09:31:00	02-22-2018 00:00:00	SD42 - Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows		Laboratory	Student felt faint and dizzy. Losing eyesight, blurry, head in pain. could not walk, felt ill sitting, better laying down. Could not move to first aid room, laid down in hall. Has several allergies, only taking one medication: birth control. Prone to faint

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
200281	02-27-2018 13:30:00	02-27-2018 00:00:00	SD41 - Burnaby	s.22	Office/ Admin. area	Student reported itchiness on his back and presented with redness and minor swelling around the face and neck. Could not identify if he had eaten anything with peanuts. He has an peanut allergy. Administered his epipen and called 911.
200558	03-01-2018 11:45:00	03-01-2018 00:00:00	SD68 - Nanaimo - Ladysmith		Cafeteria/ Kitchen	s.22 has allergies to tree nuts, she was scooping cookie dough containing macadamia nuts, causing skin irritation to her right hand and sore throat with slight swelling .
200588	03-01-2018 14:20:00	03-01-2018 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Classroom	Student cleaning up after a science lab involving CUCI2, HCl,AL. Seems to be having an allergic reaction on her hand.
200656	03-02-2018 10:15:00	03-02-2018 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Hallway/ Locker	Wasp in student hair, when went to swap it she was stung right middle ring finger. Did not see stinger, student has no allergies.
200697	03-02-2018 12:40:00	03-02-2018 00:00:00	SD40 - New Westminster		Grounds	Student came in from playing at lunch - very pale, sweating, complaining of pain in his chest and the inability to breathe. No history of asthma or allergies - when symptoms did not subside , called parents and then 911.
201559	03-09-2018 12:00:00	03-13-2018 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Classroom	Student had an allergic reaction after eating a cookie. He is allergic to tree nuts. Gave epi-pen in left leg.
201700	03-15-2018 10:00:00	03-15-2018 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Hallway/ Locker	Student took one bite of bake sale brownie. PAC parent brought her to the office after CS said she is allergic to peanuts. Uncertain if brownies may have been prepared in a peanut free environment. Observed CS for 20 minutes before sending back to class.
203656	04-04-2018 11:45:00	04-25-2018 00:00:00	SD41 - Burnaby		Classroom	s.22 had an allergic reaction which started in the classroom at 11:45. He had hives and went to the hospital for a follow-up, after initially taking Benadryl.
204775	04-18-2018 13:00:00	05-09-2018 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan		Play area/ Park	s.22 was outside playing tag on the grass fields at lunch. She came to first aid at 1:00 today with a rash on her face and left side of her neck. No pre-existing allergies known.
203416	04-20-2018 03:10:00	04-23-2018 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	Accidentally ate a granola bar with nuts in it and had an allergic reaction.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
208461	04-24-2018 13:35:00	07-10-2018 00:00:00	SD23 - Central Okanagan	s.22	Classroom	Allergic reaction to sesame seed cracker. As history of anaphylaxis to nuts but no indication of sesame seeds until this incident. After 20 min observation, student returned to class. Advised to return if symptoms worsen. Student does have epi-pen.
203679	04-25-2018 13:09:00	04-25-2018 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Athletic Field	Outside on the field, remembered she is allergic to grass. Came in complaining of itchiness. Eyes appeared irritated, no sign of redness on arms or face. Advised her to thoroughly wash full arms, face & neck with warm soapy water.
204150	04-30-2018 12:55:00	05-01-2018 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Classroom	Student ingested allergen, epi-pen used. First responders arrived and took her to Richmond Hospital. Parents advised, kept at hospital for two hours for observation and returned to school next day.
204292	04-30-2018 14:30:00	05-02-2018 00:00:00	SD69 - Qualicum		Classroom	Potential exposure to nuts in foods class. Highly allergic Administered first aid, contacted parents who took him to urgent care in PV. Treated and released.
207803	05-04-2018 14:15:00	06-20-2018 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Classroom	s.22 cross contaminated via a pencil or door knob then touched his eye causing his eye to swell. Severe allergy. Gave student Benadryl
204903	05-10-2018 10:00:00	05-10-2018 00:00:00	SD35 - Langley		Gymnasium	Got stung by a wasp in the Gym, went into shock. Parents called as we were worried he was having an allergic reaction. He was picked up at 10:40.
205509	05-16-2018 10:40:00	05-17-2018 00:00:00	SD57 - Prince George		Athletic Field	Student was stung by a wasp on the left forearm. No history of allergy.
206987	05-17-2018 11:45:00	06-08-2018 00:00:00	SD67 - Okanagan Skaha		Classroom	Student had an allergic reaction. An ambulance was called.
205828	05-23-2018 13:25:00	05-23-2018 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Athletic Field	I was sitting on the turf field at lunch by the bleachers and had a reaction to the grass' No previous allergies. First aid: both right/left thigh area, hives/red streaks, breathing good, pulse normal, no swelling, rinsed, applied ice, suggest antihistamine

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
207160	06-07-2018 12:40:00	06-12-2018 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey	s.22	Classroom	Student was mistakenly reported as in anaphylactic shock, 911 was called. Level 2 FA attended, determined stdt was not anaphylactic but ambulance had been dispatched. Std is non-verbal; it was determined that he had choked on his food. Student was fine.
206871	06-07-2018 13:40:00	06-07-2018 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Gymnasium	Student noticed that her nose felt stuffed and got itchy eyes. Possible allergic reaction / irritation.
207164	06-11-2018 10:43:00	06-12-2018 00:00:00	SD85 - Vancouver Island North		Fieldtrip - Other	stepped on a wasp nest while harvesting cedar bark. Multiple bee stings to s.22 left lower calve upper ankle. According to s.22 he is not allergic to bee stings. □ Minor first aid was performed.
207066	06-11-2018 12:10:00	06-11-2018 00:00:00	SD93 - CSF/FEA		Classroom	Student has severe allergy to eggs. He accidentally took a mouthful (but did not ingest) of mayonnaise. Teacher immediately gave him his EpiPen injection. Had no visible symptoms. Mother was called, picked him up and has gone to hospital with him.
207306	06-13-2018 12:30:00	06-14-2018 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey		Classroom	s.22 has a peanut allergy which she manages (cannot eat or touch it) but while rinsing the peanut butter bowl (she didn't touch it, had gloves on) she had a sudden reaction. s.22 took her to the hospital in case her Benadryl was not sufficient.
207831	06-20-2018 10:00:00	06-21-2018 00:00:00	SD37 - Delta		Offsite	Stung by wasp in PE. Playing man hunt in the forest. Swelling on lip. Applied ice. No known allergies.
208370	06-29-2018 16:30:00	07-03-2018 00:00:00	SD93 - CSF/FEA		Grounds	s.22 was stung by wasps. Two on the right cheek (got swollen), one on right leg and one on left arm. She took a benadryl after the incident as she used to have a more severe allergy to wasps. The swelling on the face persisted for a couple days.
208688	07-30-2018 08:00:00	07-30-2018 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Classroom	Student had an allergic reaction nuts. Gave EpiPen felt better after a couple minutes. Parent picked her up and advised to go to hospital immediately.
209397	09-13-2018 10:05:00	09-13-2018 00:00:00	SD33 - Chilliwack		Playground Equipment	Playing on equipment student was stung on left pinky finer. Did not have any signs of an allergic reaction. Swelling, redness in sting area.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
209643	09-14-2018 07:30:00	09-18-2018 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver	s.22	Play area/ Park	Bee or Wasp sting on posterior lower leg resulting in small swelling - thumbnail - increased in diameter over the hour to plum size. Applied "After Bite" and ice pack for 15 min intervals on and off. No allergic reaction
209501	09-14-2018 09:00:00	09-15-2018 00:00:00	SD42 - Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows		Offsite	Swollen right eye. swelling began in morning when at home. no allergy, no trauma, never hit head. swelling began to subside while in first aid. checked for debris. none present. sent for medical check at clinic.
209775	09-17-2018 02:20:00	09-19-2018 00:00:00	SD42 - Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows		Road/ Street	Student stung by a wasp with allergic reaction. Swelling redness and blotchy skin. clear airway, breathing normal. Referred to medical aid. Stung while waiting at bus stop at front of school.
211905	09-17-2018 09:00:00	10-17-2018 00:00:00	SD59 - Peace River South		Classroom	Student advised at beginning of day about a possible allergic reaction
209685	09-17-2018 12:32:00	09-18-2018 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Hallway/ Locker	Students ate a piece of watermelon that was touching pineapple and the student is allergic to pineapple. Student was in respiratory distress, did not have an epipen, ambulance was called.
209583	09-17-2018 13:30:00	09-17-2018 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Stairs/ Sidewalks - Exterior	Was stung on finger, no visible stinger. No allergy history. Slight swelling at site of sting. Applied anti-sting wipe, bandaid, gave ice pack. Advised to return to 1st aid/seek medical aid if she develops hives/difficulty breathing/finger swells more.
209796	09-19-2018 11:15:00	09-19-2018 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Athletic Field	Student got stung by a bee on right elbow during outdoor PE class. Slight swelling - no allergic reactions. Applied after-bite.
209902	09-19-2018 13:00:00	09-20-2018 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Grounds	Stung by bee - left index finger. Applied ice, phoned home, mom picked up - mild allergy.
211089	09-20-2018 13:25:00	10-05-2018 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Classroom	s.22 had an allergic reaction with his face becoming red and some welts. First aid - lightly iced and dad was contacted right away (he said he wanted to give Benadril). Dad arrived and gave Benadril. Said he would check with doctor to see if needed Epi
211715	09-26-2018 12:30:00	10-16-2018 00:00:00	SD39 - Vancouver		Fieldtrip - Other	s.22 who is allergic to sesame, ate some hummus, and had an allergic reaction. She took some anti-histamine, and was brought back to camp that afternoon from her out-trip to stay under supervision.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
210377	09-27-2018 12:45:00	09-27-2018 00:00:00	SD36 - Surrey	s.22	Gymnasium	s.22 was in the gym with her class when her mouth started swelling, welts on body. Teacher suspected allergy to nuts; school first aid attended; 911 called for direction; epi-pen administered on advice of 911; parent called; child taken to hospital.
210513	09-28-2018 10:00:00	09-28-2018 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Classroom	Student with nut allergy broke out in hives after eating lunch. Student was sent to the office. Breathing became labored. Administered epipen. Called parent to come and pick-up. Symptoms subsided. Suggested follow up with family physician/clinic.
211091	10-04-2018 10:30:00	10-05-2018 00:00:00	SD44 - North Vancouver		Athletic Field	I'm apart of the s.22 for the Terry Fox Run. I was on the bleachers outside on the turf field and I felt something crawling on the back of my right calf and I got stung by a wasp. No known allergies, first aid:applied Benadryl after bite to area
211563	10-11-2018 01:40:00	10-15-2018 00:00:00	Clarence Fulton Secondary		Classroom	s.22 reported a suspected allergic reaction to peanuts while in classroom.
211402	10-11-2018 11:50:00	10-11-2018 00:00:00	SD83 - North Okanagan-Shuswap		Grounds	s.2 was in the playground at lunchtime. A hazelnut hit the palm of her hand. s.22 has a nut allergy, but hazelnut was not included as an allergen. The palm of her hand did swell up. The swelling is monitored, carefully.
211851	10-16-2018 14:00:00	10-17-2018 00:00:00	SD34 - Abbotsford		Fieldtrip - Other	Student was on school field trip to s.22 when she was stung twice by a wasp. She had a mild allergic reaction and swelling. Was given Benadryl by school first aid staff.
212100	10-18-2018 10:55:00	10-22-2018 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Hallway/ Locker	s.2 had a bite of a friend's cookie to find out it had cashews in it. s.2 has a life threatening allergy to cashews. s.2 forgot her epipen and Benadryl at home. Mom came quickly and gave her Benadryl and took her home for monitoring.
212102	10-18-2018 13:53:00	10-22-2018 00:00:00	SD38 - Richmond		Athletic Field	Student felt tingling in hands that started spreading following a mile run in 2nd block. Reported to FA during last block as it started hurting to a minimal extent (dull, annoying). Suspected allergy. Advised to seek medical treatment.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_DATE	INCIDENT_REPORTED_DATE	REPORTING_LOCATION	EVENT_LOCATION	LOCATION_TYPE	REPORTER_DESCRIPTION
212368	10-23-2018 13:15:00	10-24-2018 00:00:00	SD43 - Coquitlam	s.22	Offsite	Student was out on a community run in her PE class when she experienced an allergic reaction to some airborne pollen (according to the student)
212419	10-24-2018 14:00:00	10-25-2018 00:00:00	SD61 - Greater Victoria		Classroom	s.22 had a heavy nosebleed that continued for 20/25 minutes. Concern over amount of blood, duration, and severe allergies led to a 9-11 phone call. Mom came in and decided with paramedics to bring into hospital for further care.

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
059147	No reason, student felt something in his right eye. Student does have allergies to dust, pollen, cats, etc. Has felt this was since previous night.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
058574	Student had hives on her hand (right) complained of a "thick" tongue and itchy throat. Very red face and a sick stomach (egg allergy on file).	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
059940	Student reported that her throat closed, she couldn't breathe. She said she ate a chocolate chip cookie at recess. She said the only allergy she has is apples. She said it happened 2x in class, 1x in medical room. Mom called twice, 2nd time she came in	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
059356	Student felt a hot, burning rash on her neck. Swollen, bumps, red. More pronounced on rt side. Travelled up to ear, jaw and chest. Applied ice. Called mom to come. Had Vente starbuck vanilla bean latte & banana bread at lunch. Possible allergic reaction.	1994		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
059942	Student came to the office during recess saying he ate something & his throat was itchy. His lips were starting to swell. We determined he ate a cashew offered to him by another student. He has a peanut allergy & mild cashews, called parents & 911.	2003			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other
059518	Student passed out while on field trip to Fire Hall. Student has anaphylaxis. Concern re allergic reaction. Firefighters administered oxygen and called 911. Transported to hospital. Checked and released.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
059576	Student came in from lunch complaining that his eyes were itchy. He stated he was allergic to pollen. His eyes became very swollen very quickly. His throat felt scratchy and was coughing. Ice was applied and he was monitored until mom picked up.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other
060575	Student appeared to be having al allergic reaction to some Trail Mix she ate. She had swelling in her mouth, was cold to the touch, nauseous and developed hives. Her father was telephoned, an ambulance called and she was transported to hospital.	1994		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
060357	Student struggling with anxiety.. Student thinks throat closing due to allergy, student is on anti-biotics for sore throat, no signs of swelling or redness. Student's mom indicated it's anxiety. Student will lay down and relax for a while.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
060521	Headache began in 4th period, worsened upper sinus's very tender - pain radiates up scalp. Sinusitis. Benedryl given for allergy and swelling sinus.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
060725	Student had a strong allergic reaction to something he ate. He was having a hard time breathing, he was itchy everywhere, with hives on his torso. He was very scared and kept saying "I can't breathe" We administered his epi-pen and phoned 911.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other
061668	Student was having an allergic reaction. Her eyes were itchy and swollen. She complained of an itchy neck. (Face, eyes, neck swelling)	2004			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
062359	Student came to office saying he was allergic to nuts and requested his EPEN--he had ingested a muffin and his throat was feeling tingly.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
062360	Student ate sunkist fruit snacks and developed hives on the back of her right hand. Complained of itchy hand--she has an egg allergy.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
063094	Had an allergic reaction to something in the air (she is allergic to perfume and environmentl allergies)	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
063614	student had an allergic reaction to nuts. He was eating a cookie with peanuts in it.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
063395	During Foods class, student ate the food they had prepared. She noticed difficulty with her throat and has a history of severe allergic reaction to peanuts/sunflower seeds.	1993		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
063968	Student had an allergic reaction at the Aquatic Center. First Aid flushed his eyes.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
063639	Student's eyes swelled up after eating his lunch, apparently an allergic reaction. Parents were called to come and get him immediately, and they took him to medical aid.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
063702	Student informed his teacher that he wasn't feeling well after having ingested a breakfast bar containing peanuts. Student informed teacher that he has a peanut allergy. School was not aware of this student's allergy -parents had not provided info/meds	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other
063818	Nose just started bleeding. Nose bleeds quite common - due to allergies. Last nose bleed - boxing.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
064986	Student washed her hands, had an allergic reaction. (Rash on arms)	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
065528	Student ate a cookie containing pecan, which he is allergic to. Had a seizure, administered his own epi-pen	1994		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
066123	Student was stung by a bee. Student has extensive allergies, although unknown to bees, carries epi-pen. Lower lip was very swollen and increasing rapidly. Mom was contacted, told to take Benadryl. Waited in the office and dad picked him up.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
067205	2 students' allergic reaction, itching, pink eyes, to 'Neutral' disinfectant in longhouse during scheduled First Nations program at Museum of Anthropology, UBC. Immediately rinsed students' eyes with water; then treated/released at UBC Hospital.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other
067402	Student ate cookie with nuts. Highly allergic. Tongue & throat swelling up. 1x Benadryl given. Upon order of 911 operator, EPI pen administered. No problems breathing. Ambulance attended and took her to the hospital. Grandpa followed. Mom going.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
068506	Student was stung on right little finger by a wasp...no sign of allergy	1994		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
069044	While playing basket ball student had a severe allergic reaction.	1993		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
068613	bee sting. no allergy	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
068633	Student was stung by a bee/wasp. Student was taken to hospital by Vice-Principal, due to possible life-threatening allergy to bee stings.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
068829	Student was stung by a bee in Science class. She is moderately allergic, but her mother is anaphylactic to bee stings.	1994		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
069618	Student was feeling very sore and achy. there was a sensation of numbness in his feet and it spread to his face and tightness in his throat. He has a peanut allergy.	1994		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
069819	Student came in saying that she ate a bun with egg in it. Extreme allergy to eggs, had EPI pen did not need it as Dad was bringing Benadryl. Dad arrived gave her Benadryl and took her home to rest.	1994		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
069746	Student came to office having an allergic reaction. She took Claratin waited 10 min. Claratin not working, she gave herself Epi-pen. Trouble breathing. We telephoned 911, s.22 mother, Put s.22 on oxygen. Transported by ambulance to hosp.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
069894	Stud ate some trail mix offered by another student, he is allergic to nuts. Student though he would "try" some to see if he was still allergic. Mom was called and stated she will talk to him about NOT experimenting with nuts at school. Given Benadryl	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
069878	Rash, from neck down. Itchy. s.22 suspects allergy to grass, as this occurred previous day as well after sitting on grass. Advised to see doctor.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
069966	Student was standing by another student who was eating peanut butter. He began to feel the effects of his allergies. He was brought to the office by a teacher then he went to his locker to get his allergy pills and took one.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other
070484	Student ate a cookie at morning break. Did not know it had peanuts. She is very allergic to peanuts. Student came to office. Student forgot epipen at home. First Aid student attended. Ambulance and parent called. Student was taken to hospital.	1994		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
070463	Student possibly had an allergic reaction to grade 9 immunization.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
070390	student had an allergic reaction to something, tingling in mouth, breathing raspy, scared, gave herself epipen. 911 called parents called - transported to hosp by ambulance. See attached report.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
070516	Student came to office after lunch complaining of "feeling really weird" and had quite prominently broken out in hives (swollen eyes), had itchy throat. Concern possible anaphylaxis, so ambulance and parent contacted.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
070603	Student had a skin reaction in foods class (possible allergy) while kneading bread dough.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
071293	Teacher went to Dr. for medical issue & was given antibiotics. She had a severe allergic reaction (hives/tightness of chest). Hospital contacted & advised her to go to hospital immediately. She was in no condition to drive so ambulance was called.			Employee	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
072026	Student ate a small O'Henry Bar. Student is anaphylactic. 911 called and ambulance took student to the hospital.	1993		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
071597	ingested known allergan during Home Ec class - walnut.□ -lips and throat slightly swollen□ -no medicine with him - called mom to bring med or take to MA□ -mom arrived and told to take to Children's			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other
072437	Student has asthma, has a puffer. Causal Special Education Assistant replacing the regular employee. Replacement employee is a smoker, smell on clothes. Student had an allergic reaction. Student sent home 10:30. Later taken to hospital.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
074009	Peanut allergy? - checked by doctor, no longer has it? Reacted to food with peanuts. Hives, scratchy, red throat	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
072596	Student had allergic reaction Principal administered epipen Called 911 - Fire & Rescue arrived - ambulance arrived Emergency crews monitored child	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other
072849	Student experienced a severe allergic reaction-severe vomiting, stomach cramps, difficulty breathing, change in skin color, swelling on face. He stated that in the past he had had a reaction to fish. Ambulance called; mother called to meet at hospital.	1993		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
073276	During an in-class activity, the students had granola on baked apples.student ingested a small amt. and started to get allergic reaction. (She is allergic to peanuts/shellfish). Mother was called and mom called 911. Student was given Benadryl&sent toBCH	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
076204	Student got to school late and his cheeks were very red, itchy and swollen. He has some red spots on his left cheek. His forehead feels warm. Assessed, iced, questioned for allergies - no known allergies.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
075067	student had a derminological reaction to an allergy shot. Developed hives all over his stomach. Mom was called & took him to the Doctor.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
076962	student injected a cookie that contained peanut butter. He has a slight allergy to peanuts. No medication was left at school for his allergy. His lips and throat were tingling. We were not able to reach any parents or guardians. We called 911.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
080799	Exposed to dust, sawdust, glue - known allergens in class due to current science project. Began to complain of difficulty breathing. Complained of labored breathing, raspy voice and chest, complained of throat feeling tight, called 911.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
080145	Student drank juice with blackberries in it and didn't realize, she began getting very itchy and her tongue started to swell - allergic to blackberries.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
081117	Student shared a snack with a fellow student and unknowingly ingested cantaloupe. This student has life-threatening allergy to melon. Administered First Aid - ambulance called. Student alert when taken to hospital.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
082303	student complains of a sharp pain (constant) in his chest (sternum). He ran 2000m in PE. He also has red rash on legs, arms, stomach. He has a grass allergy.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
082199	student developed an allergic reaction to latex gloves while participating in s.22. It started with large white itchy bumps on his hands and started spreading to other areas of his body. Recommended parent take him to hospital.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
082323	In PE, had difficulty breathing (asthma like), said no allergies, dr advised may develop asthma due to illness she had in the fall. Fast breathing did not slow after 30 min. Contacted mom and called 911. Ambulance took to Langley Memorial.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
082355	Student was in the classroom when she started having trouble breathing and was unable to speak. Teacher thought it might be an allergic reaction to something but wasn't sure so he called the Ambulance. By the time they arrived, she was much better.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other
083312	While demonstrating an apple crisp lab in front of all the students, nutmeg was being used. student (who was known to have an allergy to eating peanuts) had a mil reaction (rash)	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
083849	The child came in telling the clerk that she had injected nuts - her allergy is to nuts. Her throat was very sore and swelling. The clerk administered 10 ml. of benedryl and called the ambulance. When symptoms did subside administered EPEN.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
083705	Ingested mixed nuts and realized after it contained peanuts which led to allergic reaction.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
084716	teacher suffered an allergic reaction to an unknown trigger. Suffered swelling under the eyes and tingling around neck area. Pulse/breathing normal. No redness visible			Teacher	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
084832	Student ate cookies and had an allergic reaction. She took Benedryl but still needed an Epi-Pen	1994		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
086889	Bee sting. Minor allergic reaction. First aid and immediate call to parents for transport to medical care. Parents had to be contacted several times. They had not provided Epi pen. Phone numbers corrected and medical forms and epi pen are on site.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
085552	Had an allergic reaction to something and reported to the office. She has benedryl at the office and it was administered. She had a lot of swelling on her face and the parent was called to pick her up.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
085551	student was playing Capture the Flag in PE and ran into a prickly bush. She had prickles on her knee, lower leg and ankle as well as minor scrapes and some allergic hives.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
085880	Student ate the school offered lunch and at the start of the period following lunch, starting feeling itchy on forearms and trunk area. He is allergic to peanuts but not life-threatening and student did not eat any peanuts (that he is aware of).	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
085964	While on the ferry, heading to a cross country school meet, student was stung by a wasp and showed signs of an allergic reaction. his mother was also on the ferry and was summoned as was the ferry's medical staff.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
086216	student returned from recess - he has severe nut/peanut allergy (Anaphylaxis) - student displayed hives, running nose and eyes - s.22 (SSW) administered Epi-Pen - 911 was call and parents were contacted.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
086159	student was in class when she had an allergic reaction to perfume in the room. Teacher got her to hallway where she took her puffer for asthma attack. She was having trouble breathing. To hospital by ambulance where mother met her.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
086662	student was brought to the school office while suffering from an allergic reaction to perfume in the hallway. she was having trouble breathing. Parent contacted - transported to hospital.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
086401	came to office complaining of numbness/tingling around mouth;highly allergic to tomatoes;epipen administered, ambulance and parents called; sent by ambulance; no loss of airway or consciousness	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
086339	student was using alchohol in Science class and had spilt it on her hands and arms. she has an allergy to alcohol and reacted fairly severely. teacher washed arms and applied ice. Father () was notified. she went to class.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
086796	allergic reaction to something she ate.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
087042	Student thought he may have been stung by a bee. FINDER was puffy. Was also hit by a softball earlier. Called mom - no swelling in any other areas. after 15 min. student returned to class. no anaphylactic symptoms. Middle finger right hand.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
087830	student was on a school fieldtrip to s.22 and had an allergic reaction to something enviromental. He was dealt with by the Camp and our own first aid person and then taken to a doctor at a local medical clinic. He was given antihistamine.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
088015	Student is allergic to peanuts, ate some of a peanut granola bar and was having stomach cramps and his throat felt funny. Parent came and administered an epi pen and 911 was called. Student was taken in ambulance to Children's hospital	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
088310	allergic reaction to air borne peanuts in air Halloween Candy			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
088521	After PE student had unknown allergic reaction, asthmatic symptoms, shortness of breathe, rash. she has epipen, administered and ambulance called. Taken to Cowichan District Hospital and kept for 4 hours observation. Cause unknown.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
088833	Red, itchy skin, shortness of breath, nausea (mainly facial symptoms) - allergic reaction. Will keep benedril at school for allergic reactions.	1994		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
088858	In home ec class. Ate class project with sauce. No flour in recipe but flour had been added to the sauce without teacher or students knowledge. she has a flour allergy.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
089064	Ingested hand full of almonds given by a friend. Not aware of any allergies to nuts. Never tried almonds before. Anaphylactic reaction, given oxygen, called 911. Paramedics came within 5 min., gave her some Benalyn and took her to Bby General.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
090821	Student was tossing a stuffed teddy and missed catching the stuffy and it hit him in both eyes. Eyes red and swelling. May be allergic to the item.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
090749	Student had a severe reaction to an unknown allergen. Red face, welts, swelling, extremely itchy. □	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
090909	Had an allergic reaction to paint that had gone moldy in the container in the Art Supply Room. student administered an antihistamine herself.			Teacher	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
094590	Asthma attack is what he came in saying he was having. Ate a lemon stick which caused a reaction. Highly allergic to nuts, seeds, etc. Called Mom right away.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
094617	asthma attach is what he came in saying he was having. Ate a lemon stick which caused a reaction. Highly allergic to nuts, seeds, etc. Called Mom right away.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
091758	Student had an allergic reaction to an unknown substance. Redness, swelling, itching, and hives. □ Gave student 25 mg of Benadryl and called aunt whoc came and picked him up and took him to the □ clinic.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
091798	she came to school with a slight head ache today which progressed into another anaphylactic reaction with no known cause. She had an anaphylactic reaction to a tetanus shot yesterday morning here at school. She was sent to hospital today again via ambu	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
091908	student placed ring on her finger, finger become swollen, could not remove ring. Staff was unsuccessful in helping her remove it. Mom took her to emergency room, ring was removed. Doctor diagnosed an allergic reaction to the ring as the cause of swelling,	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
092593	Had a reaction to immunization. Had trouble breathing. Not sure if it was anxiety or an anaphylactic reaction. School nurse on site. Called 911. Called parents.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
093066	Student had an allergic reaction (anxiety, shortness of breath) to Benadryl, which had been administered to him at home earlier that morning. Mother took him to hospital.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
093311	had unknown and undiagnosed allergic reaction, took benadryl, didn't help, epi pen administered. Ambulance called. Mother came and accompanied her.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
093771	Anaphalactic reaction with unidentified allergen or cross contamination; epipen administered, ambulance responded; no loss of consciousness or airway	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
094715	Possible contact with peanuts. Left eye itchy & red. Flushed eye. Medical info: Peanut allergy - epipen in office - not needed.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
094879	came in from lunch, told his teacher he wasn't well. It was apparent he was having an allergic reaction. He is anaphylactic. His eyes/mouth were very swollen, and was starting to experience difficulty swallowing. Administered epipen.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
095544	As entered washroom, a strong perfune scent hit her. She was vomitting, Headache, disoriented, blurred vision, tight chest, Difficulty breathing, seasonal and severe perfume/chemical allergy. Epi pen not needed.			Employee	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
096024	had eaten a Dairy Queen blizzard at home and thinks there were nuts at the bottom. She then had trouble breathing and allergy symptoms started.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
096818	Student took a bite of a cookie that had been made earlier in the day in Foods class. She began to experience a scratchy throat and coughing. Probable allergy. Parent advised to give her benedryl & to seek further medical attention if condition worsens	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
097155	Student had an allergic reaction to peanut butter. Treatment: Epi Pen, by FA Advised to seek Medical attention, Emegency Care Provided. s.22	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other

FILE_NUM MBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BI RTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_ TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION STATU S	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
097500	student allergic to nuts/raw carrots ate almonds/carrots. Severe allergic reaction:visible swelling in throat (L side size of a grape, & blisters, R some swelling), some difficulty talking, itchy throat. Ph'd dad, gave 10 ml Benadryl, dad here in 10 min.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
098453	Student ate something from the cafeteria that contained peanuts. Scratchy throat - not any swelling on face. Student has an allergy to peanuts.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
098355	While running the 5K, she had a severe allergic reaction. Rash on arms, slight difficulty breathing which escalated to dizziness, vision problems (sore eyes) and vomiting. Clerical staff was directed to call 911.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
098539	Student was competing in s.22 sports event at Renfrew Pool and Field. While running on field had an asthma attack and suspected allergic reaction to grass. She was coughing, wheezing, difficulty breathing, pale and shaking.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
098709	was stung by a bee. She is identified as anaphylactic. Teacher, administered Epi-Pen to leg. Ambulance was called to school. Student transported to Victoria General Hospital. Mother met at the hospital.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
099191	ate a kiwi fruit from the lunch program. Her throat and lips swoll up. took her to the hospital and the nurse gave her a benedryl and an injection for the allergy	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
099494	had an allergic reaction to ice cream (containing nuts) delivered to the school by her dad. Ambulance was contacted and s.22 was taken to the hospital. Unable to contact parents immediately.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
100408	ran through the bushes while playing fox and hound and had an allergic reaction.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
100328	had a allergic reaction on his way to school. When he arrived at school his eyes were extremely swollen, had a "tickle" in his throat, and started shaking a little. Could not get hold of parents. Called an ambulance & he went to the hospital.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
101312	Student's right arm is very itch. It could be an allergy. Advised to see a Dr. if it gets worse.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
101387	has a peanut allergy and showed signs of anaphylactic reaction (rash on face and arms and swelling of upper lip). Epi pen administered by parent who works in the school. 911 called and ambulance transported to KGH with parent for observation.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
102700	was at her locker, someone sprayed perfume and she had an allergic reaction 40 minutes later.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
101663	student has an allergic reaction to nuts	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
102109	Student offered strawberries in a cup, has severe food allergy to peanuts, with severe seizure disorder.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
102036	s.2 history food allergies - through smell in school's lunch room,activated a reaction,started to sweat, difficulty breathing.In office 12:23 administered epipen herself. 12:25 911,12:33 FD onsite,12:36 Amb. onsite,12:39 to hosp,13:18 notified H&S	1973		Visitor	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
102603	told her teacher after break that she was having an allergic reaction to her sandwich. She was brought to the office. She had anti-histamine medicine to take on her. Parent contacted.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
102658	felt tingling in her throat and puffy feeling in her neck - concerned it may be allergen and has no epi-pen with her. Brother dropped off Benadryl and s.22 went home with him to be monitored.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
102727	approached a supervisor at recess and said she had eaten a peanut but quickly spit it out. has a peanut allergy. Was brought to first aid room to get her epi-pen. 911 called, student given bendryl and returned to class.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
103049	woke up with red eyes, has environmental allergies	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
103947	arm was itchy and when she scratched it the itch spread, her arm became red and bumpy. Skin is inflamed - has penicillan allergy.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
103988	Minor hives developing on left arm. More severe hives last night (took benadryl). Returned to class. Recommended trip to doctor for allergy testing.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
104285	Student was in science class & doing a lab on handwashing. Class used mineral oil base w/a plastic resin to wash. After washing & drying student developed an itch & red rash. Felt fine, returned to class. Does have allergies but not to solution.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
104605	noticed @ 7:45 that her tongue felt numb and thick - blisters and swelling beginning inside her cheeks and lips - suspect allergic reaction but she doesn't know to what.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
104600	Student who has allergies to food must have ingested something that caused an allergic reaction. She felt nauseated, light headed, was shaking, and her heart was racing. An ambulance was called, paramedics checked her out, and she felt better.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
106492	Right eye inflamed. No findings on examination allergic to cats			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
106625	Came to school, slight itchiness, mild irritation. Got worse as morning progressed. Felt warm. Possible allergic reaction.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
106033	had an anaphylactic reaction to nuts. It happened at break time, 45 mins later, had a rash and the shivers.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
106230	has a peanut allergy and ate a chocolate chip cookie with peanuts.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
106308	Student showed symptoms of anaphylaxis and hyperventilation. Had already administered her own epipen @ approx. 10:15 a.m. remained conscious throughout - 911 called - transported to ARH @ 10:40 a.m.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
106268	Student received s.22 HepB vaccine in the morning. Outside at recess student became faint and had a slow collapsing fall and hit head. Student has asthma and allergy issues. Parent contacted and student went home as a precaution.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
106296	seemed to experience an allergic reaction during class after lunch. Rash on her skin and her throat was itchy and seemed uncomfortable. Mother contacted.	1996			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
107176	Staff member had an anaphylactic reaction to a medication she took. First aid was administered on site and an ambulance was called. She was taken to NRGH by ambulance and later released after treatment.	1972			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
107583	Student ate come candy containing peanut butter in classroom. He has a known peanut allergy so he administered his own epipen. (respiratory-anaphylactic reaction). Student was taken to KGH following 1st aid for follow-up. EMT called. Parent notified.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
108245	Student partially ingested a Snicker's bar (spit most out); felt faint while smoking, fell over - brought inside & school called 911 (known allergy - no Epipen with her); monitored vitals, emergency attendants administered care. See report in file.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
109195	Trouble breathing□ thought it might be an allergic reaction - tickle in throat, trouble taking deep breaths□ gave oxygen checked brathing sent back to class - told if symptoms got worse to come back to office.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
108505	Student ate soy product / has peanut allergy. Slightly swollen tongue and nausea.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability
110201	Bleeding nose - Prone to them due to allergies	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
109762	Working in computer lab student informed me she was having an allergic reaction.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
109648	Nut allergy, student ate chocolate with peanuts in class. Severe allergic reaction. Wheezing during breath intake, tongue slightly swollen, red rash around face and kneck. Ambulance called.□ Ambulance administered epi-pen.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
109736	Student had allergic reaction beginning in first period and continuing until lunch - student took benedril as advised by her father upon which she was feeling a tingling on the right side of her neck and lips.□	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
109805	Minor allergic reaction to apple candy. Swelling of tongue went down with 1 Benedryl. Abdominal pain 30 minutes after. and reduced over time.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
110343	Student reported symptoms of anaphylaxis due to exposure to peanuts. She did not consume peanuts but another student nearby did. She complained of some chest tightness & was pale. Self-administered Benadryl and was normal 25 minutes later.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
111164	Running laps in PE, felt chest pain, shortness of breath. Tried to play soccer and then came to first aid. Called 911. Was instructed by 911 operator to administer 4x81mg of aspirin after determining no allergies.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
117029	Student was sprayed by other student with Sanicare Quat 256 spray. First aid called, face and mouth washed at station, poison control called, etc. Started getting hives in May on body which got worse. Going for allergy testing. Related to spraying?			Student	0	1. New File	Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
111637	ate nutigrain bar and began having allergic reaction. administered medication per emergency plan and contacted parent who took to hospital.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
111787	Severe allergic reaction all over her body.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
111752	Anaphylactic shock from seasonal allergies. EpiPen Used.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
111979	She was having difficulty breathing and was having an allergic reaction from pollen after PE, according to her Dr. She was administered a 10 litre flow of Oxygen to stabilize her until the parent arrived to take her to the family Dr. for a new inhaler.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
112094	noticed blister on the right side of her face, about the size of a dime, called home, she is not on any meds, has no allergies. Spoke with mom, she will take her to the clinic later tonite.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
112861	Reaction to peanut allergy	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
113027	was walking into the First Aid room. She said her pulse was fast and she fell to the floor. She had hives on her neck and chest (allergic reaction). Was a little dizzy. Bumped her head when she fell. Ambulance was called.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
113321	knowingly participated in the collection and harvesting of Crab (a shell fish to which he is allergic)this resulted in a mild to medium reaction, resulting in a hospital visit.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
115692	Student was scratching a pre existing allergen site to her right wrist and came to the medical room to have it redressed. There was an open sore where she was scratching.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
113806	Student was having season allerby symptons. Mom brought him allergy medicine. 10 minutes later he thre up twice/white pale skin/feverish when throwing up. No rash. Parent picked him up to seek medical attention.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
114122	Student complained to classroom teacher about having an itchy throat and tongue. Student is aware that he is allergic to sesame seeds. Complained to first aid attendants that he was having difficulties breathing. Ambulance was called.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
114350	This student has a peanut allergy. He may have come in contact with peanuts. He has an itchy neck, scratchy throat and itchy red eyes.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
115672	Minor allergic reaction to soy.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
115660	Student came to the office and said she ate a cookie with peanut butter and she was having an anaphylactic reaction. Student did not have EPI-PEN. Called 911 Student called parent	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUM BER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BI RTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_ TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION STATU S	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
115429	was stung in neck by bee or wasp. has no noted allergy to bees, however, because of the region of the sting (neck), Grandpa was contacted and advised to take to the Medical Clinic as a precaution. □ Secretary	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
115657	was in the forest - rubbed against salmon oak - allergic reaction on her left forearm - small bruise, hives that were very itchy - cleaned (sting wipe) and wrapped	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
115955	student started anti-biotic for an ear infection and may be having an allergic reaction	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
116035	had an allergic reaction to peanuts when she ate a homemade muffin.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
116947	Student was making bird feeders with bird seed. Student has an allergy to nuts. No listed nuts on bird seed. Allergy symptoms were developing. Allergy symptoms included mild shortness of breath and itchy left arm. Parent was contacted. Puffer/benadryl	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
122808	Hrts Employment/physical disability. Alleges employer failed to accommodate her allergy to mould and dust. (smells/odours making her ill - wcb denial)			Employee	1	1. New File	Closed	Claim-Liability	General Liability - Personal/ Bodily Injury	Schools Protection Program
117419	In the girls change room there was alot of scent and her tongue swelled up. Grandfather was called and we recommended to see a Dr. about allergy.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
117427	Child is anaphylactic. She showed a reaction this morning, after washing her hands, so the teacher laid her down and gave her an EpiPen while we called 911. Mother was called and arrived on scene at the same time as the ambulance, which took her t hospital	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
117918	was outside at lunch and was stung by a bee/wasp (allergic) Brought into office and received an epi-pen injection.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
117980	climbed school fence into neighbour's yard to retrieve ball. Ran into hornets nest. Multiple stings. No known allergies, but went into anaphalactic shock, with parent present. Called 911. Ambulance attended and administered Epi and Benadryl.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUM MBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BI RTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_ TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
117764	Auto Shop...apparently accidental inhalation of gasoline fumes allegedly caused a delayed allergic reaction.	1896		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
117959	Stung on left index finger - unsure if she is allergic or not. Ensured stinger was removed and checked breathing. All clear	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
118150	Student had difficulty breathing - student has severe allergy to peanuts. Student showed signs of difficulty swallowing. Had student seated. Monitored for signs of rash/itch. None. Phoned mom re reaction. Dad will drop off benedryl/student home.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
118306	Student had trouble breathing, tickle in throat; allergic to nickel.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
118356	Student has lunch containing an allergan (he thinks seasame seed), student has allergy. Student a bit fidgety & complains of sore throat. Called mom to bring epipen - monitored student for signs of increased reaction. Mom will pick up student.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
118567	allergic "itchy" reaction after cutting and washing lettuce and whole jalapeno in foods "c" block with anna thor. rash covering arms, chest and upper back, red raised rash. has allergy to insect bites.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
119153	took a drink from stdnts can of lemonade. He was very concrnd afterwords as he thought it may have been cross-contamination with nuts. has a severe peanut and nut allergy. He was very upset and crying - took 30 min to clam down. No contami	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
119198	had a severed allergic reaction to an unknown substance in the sewing room. She administered her epi-pen.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
119199	had a severed allergic reaction to an unknown substance in the sewing room. She administered her epi-pen.	1995		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
119294	Student is congested with flu but is having an allergic reation to tylenol that she took at home. Breaking out in hives.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
119610	was given chocolate milk by a classmate during lunch. was brought to the office by the SSW's. She was throwing up and had early signs of allergic reaction. She was giving an allergy pill.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
119742	was given a planned inoculation by public health nurse and had a mild allergic reaction. Nurse followed protocol and gave her an epi shot, followed by other follow up. As a precaution was taken to clinic via ambulance.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
119641	Student experienced and anaphylactic reaction when coming in contact with allergen. Second epipen was administered as first one wasn't left in long enough.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
119923	Vomited in room 209. Suspected allergic reaction. Called Mom to come pick up student	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
120471	Consumed food (fish) that she is allergic to. Found in hallway after vomiting	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
120511	Student showed signs of an allergic type reaction on her skin.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
121175	Student alerted me "something wrong with " he was on the floor, body convulsing and nose bleeding (he fell out of his chair) Administered Epipen, as he has a peanut allergy	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
121715	Non life-threatening allergy to peanuts...Ate a friend's cookie. Vomitted and had strong stomach pain.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
122209	Student ate something that had peanuts in it. Spit it out, but had a mild allergic reaction (student has peanut allergy)	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
122109	During recess, said that he got stung by a bee/wasp and felt is eye swelling up. He is allergic to bee/wasp sting. Brought to the office for observation. Father came and spent half an hour with . No need to use the epi-pen	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
122306	Feeling chest pain. Ate new type of yogurt, has peanut allergy. Appears to just be heartburn.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
122595	Student came to English class reporting an allergic reaction from ingesting seafood. She wanted to stay in class, but the reaction worsened (laboured breathing, etc). so she was brought to First Aid. 911 called, parent notified, transported by ambulance.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
122724	got an allergic reaction while playing on the swing outside. Her arm were covered with red dots. Both her arms were washed with soap. Within 45 minutes the rash was almost completely gone. Might be a reaction from the recent Immunization vaccine.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
123654	Got out of car. Began shaking, hard to catch breath. Anxiety or allergic reaction? <input type="checkbox"/> Mother s.22) transported to hospital.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
123248	Woke up with swollen ankle (noticed it yesterday). Looks like allergic reaction.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
123314	Student showed u with a very red left ear, thought it may be an allergic reaction but said she may have been bit by a bug on her way to school.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
123590	Itchy hands, red puffy fingers. Possible allergic reaction	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
124311	Came with mom to the office after having an allergic reaction to seafood. Students face was blotched, pimple like, and she was sent immediately to the Dr. who apparently gave her reactine. Student returned to school at 2:45 pm.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
124494	came to first aid today complaining of hives, itchy skin and nausea. Woke up Tuesday am with itchy skin and some hives. Hives on facial area, front chest, upper back. Not at school when allergic reaction occurred. Contact prnts. - admin ice	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
125073	Hand is swollen...perhaps allergic reaction.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
125345	At purchased muffin on way to school. Mild allergy to peanuts. Didn't feel well by the time she arrived at school; vomiting. Parents on way out of town; phoned parents; gave liquid Benedryl as per conversation w/parents. Vice-Principal drove home.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
125550	Noticed her left hand was swelling (possible allergic reaction?).	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
126020	Student was snowshoeing and suddenly felt stuffy. She had a red face, puffy lips, and hives all over her. Student had an allergic reaction (allergic to birch, bark, among other things). She was administered her benedryl and puffer (EPI-PEN was not need	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
126342	Student was tasting food in the foods lab and started to feel like her throat was swollen and experiences a burning sensation. Student is allergic to peanuts. None of the food items contained peanuts, but it was discovered there was a cross-contaminatio			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
126012	Having an allergic reaction or swelling around tonsils and throat. Left the school to take Benedril at her father's house. She was contacted by phone and told to come back. She was diagnosed with tonsillitis.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
125743	At approximately 12:25 pm student went into anaphylactic shock after drinking from a friend's water bottle who had ingested nuts. Student had a swollen throat, shakiness, pale. EpiPen was administered by first aid attendant, transported by ambulance.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
126149	Student exposed to allergie walked into office at 12:20pm not feeling well. Just taken Benadryl. s.22 arrived and administered Epi-pen at 12:25pm. Ambulance call 12:25pm.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
126189	allergic reaction to something unknown "like ants pinching on tongue", itchy eyes, feels like tongue swollen ("feels tight like elastic band") □ Treatment: rinsed mouth out, cleaned hands & face, called parent, monitored until parent came	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
126593	Had mustard spilt on her in cafe class. Is allergic to mustard. Rash started on arm. First Aid attend drove student home to her father as requested by her father, to then seek medical aid.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
126898	ate part of a cookie that contained walnuts in the foods room. Has peanut/egg allergies. No EpiPen with him. Called 911; gave him liquid Benedryl and monitored until fire department & then ambulance arrived. Will bring EpiPen to school.	1996		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
126887	Student had an allergic reaction when she ate a muffin with a nut in it thinking it was a raisin. She self administered her Epi-Pen when her throat felt scratchy and we called her mom to take her to BCCH. She was monitored at the hospital.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
127076	During a classroom experiment with the teacher, using raw eggs, had an anaphylaxis reaction to the egg protein. did not inject the eggs but did touch them. Hives appeared on face and he seemed to be having trouble breathing. Called 911	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
127158	Student had an allergy reaction. Some Wheezing, rash & hives present on arms. Medication to be brought from home - had student sit and relax. Allergies settled, went back to class.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
128563	Student had an allergic reaction to something. Student has hives and red blotches up his arm. Claims his neck and back of neck is heating up. Allergy began last night at home.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
129352	Eyes went puffy. Teacher called office to get a second re allergic reaction. Administered epipen due to anaphalatic reaction to pollen	2008		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
130281	came to FA with an itchy tongue after eating half a granola bar containing peanuts. Student stated that he had a mild peanut allergy. Parent notified and insturcted to seek medical aid for a perscription of epipen.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
129841	Student in class, fainted. Vitals abnormal, non responsive. Twitching. Called ambulance. Vitals q5 min. Became responsive from 0910-0912. No allergies, no meds. Complained of pains in her chest. Ambulance arrived 0915 and transported to hospital.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
130970	Was playing football outside and started to have an allergic reaction, vomiting as well in first aid room. □ Possible allergic reaction to something he ate at lunch.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
131086	Student touched a horse blanket and had an allergic reaction - hives and throat swelling - sent to emergency with s.22			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
131157	Student has life threatening allergy to kiwi. Took a sip of friend's strawberry/kiwi Minute Maid drink at lunch. Now worried he will have reaction. No sign at all of anaphylaxis. Mom said to send back to class.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
130928	had a severe allergic reaction to food at camp. Resulting in a trip to the emergency department of Lions Gate Hospital. He was given ipinephrin twice. Parents were advised and attended at the hospital.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
130783	Student appeared to be experiencing potential anaphylaxis reaction to routine immunization. 911 called.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
130923	There was a distribution of peppers at school and had an allergic reaction. She has a headache,teary eyes , chest pain and itchi throat.We gave her Children's Benadyl with mom's authorization.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
131192	got stung by a bee on the top of his right foot. The bee went in his shoe while playing soccer. Eventhough his allergic, he didn't seem to have a reaction. His dad came by to check on him.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
140534	Bee sting on bottom of left foot. Sting Stop applied and ice pack given to student. Student said she's not allergic to bee stings.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
131400	reported to the office with a red, itchy face after being outside at recess. No history of allergies.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
131711	woke up to small red mark on back of right leg behind knee. approx 20-25 cm patch of red around small puncture marks (?) swollen hot around area. checked, iced, parent called due to possible allergic reaction	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
131647	walked into the chlorination system (Port Alberni city water shed) and walked back out. He has an allergy to chlorine. He became nauseous and blotchy.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
132100	This student (who has multiple food allergies and is anaphylactic) arrived at the office in the morning complaining of shortness of breath. His mother instructed staff to administer epipen and call 911.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
133537	came to first aid with very itchy skin. She has a rash on her upper back and a slight rash on her lower left and right arms. Parent contacted and advised to seek medical aid regarding. She has no know allergies.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
132692	Student had an allergic reaction after visit to pool. First aid treatment was given. Ambulance was called injection given by a paramedic, was transported to the hospital.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
133933	Student was not feeling well at end of 3rd block, feeling like allergic reaction (flushed & anxious). also happened 2 months ago	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
133738	Student presented with mild allergic symptoms including shaking, slight tongue swelling and scratchy throat. Student came back at 13:40 with recurring symptoms. Gave her a 2nd Benadryl. Contacted the father by phone and informed him of the sy	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
133796	Activity induced allergic reaction. was running laps in PE and she started to get hives all over face and her throat was closing up and was having a hard time breathing. She does have life-threatening allergy to seafood, but did not eat any. □ □ □	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
134315	Student had an acute allergic reaction to an unknown substance outside prior to the bell, Mom came and decided to call 911 in case things worsened. Paramedics attended, and Mom took her to Lions Gate for assessment.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
134287	Student reacted to an unknown substance outside in playground at the end of the day, causing swelling, hives, scratchy throat. Mom decided to call 911 in case of anaphylactic reaction, paramedics recommended go to Lions Gate	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
135046	possible allergic reaction to immunization				0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
135050	possible allergic reaction to immunization - ambulance called				0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
135048	Possible allergic reaction to immunization - ambulance called				0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
134576	had a bite of a friends snack (thai noodles) that had peanuts in it. He is allergic. He came into the office. We sent someone to get his epi-pen from his backpack. He had forgotten it. We used an EPIPENjr that we had in the office. Called 911.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
134790	-student is allergic to eggs; she was sitting across the table from another student who was eating an egg at lunch; she came to the office with an allergic reaction (eyes swollen, nose runny, puffy face etc.). Called ambulance & administered Epi-Pen.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
135264	Sitting in class, noticed hand swelling, complaining of numbness and localized pain. Suspected bug bite. No history of allergy. Ice for pain & swelling. Calamine applied	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
134920	was stung by a bee. Not any known bee allergies (grandpa is allergic to bees)	2008		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
135034	possible anaphylactic reaction				0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
134934	Student ate peanut butter. He has a peanut allergy that has been identified as life threatening. He was brought to the office right away. He showed signs of swelling around the right eye. Gave him an epi pen. Called 911. Called parents.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
134954	Student had an allergic reaction. Student has peanut allergy, although student claimed no nuts of any kind were ingested. This has happened once before during the summer. Laboured breathing and rash on both inside forarms.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
135123	experienced an allergic reaction after eating sugar snap peas. After assessing her condition and talking to mom, an ambulance was called. Attendants arrived and administered Benadryl. She was transported to hospital.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
136012	Itchy lips, nose. Difficulty swallowing. History of anaphylactic reaction. Not carrying an epi pen today. Ambulance and parents called. Oxygen by mask. Taken to hospital. Ate chocolate and just had a flu shot at 1:06			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
135943	Was on a walk with his class and came into contact with something on his face that caused an allergic reaction. Very red, itchy rash specifically on the left side of his face and over his eye.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
136361	Ate a cookie with a walnut in it and started to feel tingling in her head (allergic to nuts).			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
137050	Student (with diagnosed peanut allergy) consumed granola bar with peanut content and soon felt symptoms.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
137000	Student ate a Snickers bar and discovered it had peanuts. He is anaphylactic. He immediately reported to the Office. EpiPen was standing by but not administered. 911 called and student was taken to BC Childrens for precaution. Parents were notified.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
137647	When opening a package of salmon, both eyes started watering and face and arms started to itch. Student did not she is allergic to seafood.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
137934	allergic reaction to garbanzo in flour.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
137545	Student took a bite of another student's granola bar and had a mild allergic reaction and was then observed until he felt better. Followed up with Guardian. Apparently is allergic to milk products.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
137803	During Recess, student feels weak and seems lost of conscious outside the office. <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> Student has allergies to peas, eggs,nuts,dogs, cats; epipen in office. No water, No puffer. She is breathing. Call 911 and contact parents	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
137931	Student was in PE when she felt shortness of breath. She used her inhaler. After that she had very bad stomach pains. She has an epi-pen for an allergy to dairy but did not use it. Mom came and took her home.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
138437	had a severe reaction to eating chocolate. Her eyes swelled up, hard to breath, tongue swelling, tightness in chest, swollen legs and feet. She had no allergies listed here at the school. Parent could not be reached, ambulance called.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
138990	Complaining of difficulty breathing, tightness in throat (not chest/lungs). Getting tested for asthma, no medication, no known allergies - was working in PE	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
139138	Student came in claiming to be having an allergic reaction. Currently has no allergies that we are aware of. She had a rash and was quite warm and was getting quite upset. Mom was ok for us to give her an allergy pill. We monitored until no reaction.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
139002	Student with anaphylaxis to nuts consumed a food product containing traces of nuts.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
139247	Came to the school office with "hives", allergic reaction; hot, red rash on chest, upper back & neck. Started appearing at 7:30am the same day. Has no allergies or medical condition but has been taking acne medication for 1 month.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
145338	He had an allergic reaction to an unknown substance. His eyes became itchy and red. <input type="checkbox"/> Parent called. His own Benadryl was given to him.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
140558	at triple sinks, bleach water sprayed up on to left forearm. She is allergic to bleach. , EA, was witness.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
140740	Student ate Kiwi from fruit and veggie program and had an allergic reaction. This was not a known allergy.	2010		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
141045	Difficulty taking a full breath. Cat allergies? Breathing rate: 24 and effective. Was at Mum's best friend's house - has a cat. recommended Benadryl and to seek medical aid if problem persists/gets worse. s.22 will see s.22 again after school.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
141829	Student was drinking cough medicing (Buckley's) off the shelf. Hives formed, has never happened before, no allergies.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
142503	Student ate a chocolate with nuts in it, which he is severly allergic to. He vomited and felt a strange sensation in his throat. Student's mom was already at the school and spent lunch with the student, ensuring the reaction passed. Teacher advised epi pen	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
141743	, EA, gave a piece of fudge which had nuts in it. s.22 has a nut allergy. s.22 started to show hives. Parents arrived with bendryl and administered.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
142532	pinky & ring finger swollen. Began yesterday, pinky only. Today ring finger began to swell. Iced. Mom was called. I was told it was allergy. sent back to class but told to let office know if it worsens. Mom will take to dr after school				0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
142767	exposed to pistachios, minor allergic reaction	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
142717	Epipen administered at 1:52 bydue to allergic reaction from a bite of a chocolate chip cookie. Mother was contacted and directed us to call 911. Ambulance and parent arrived at 2:10pm. Student went to hospital accompanied by Mom.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
143251	allergic reaction at lunchtime	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
146023	is allergic to nuts and legumes. We are not able to pinpoint the source of his allergic reaction but he presented with hives right after lunch. He was sent for first aid. Parents were called. Epi-pen administered by mom. Hospital and discharged.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
143817	Nosebleed in P3 math class due to allergy season, does not know what he's allergic too.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
145814	had an allergic reaction.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
143578	student reported to office that she was experiencing a rash and itchiness possible allergic reaction□ once parent was notified they decided to have an ambulance sent to the school due to previous reactions	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
144215	suffered an allergic reaction while working with dry spray insulation foam. Her parent contacted the teacher to inform her on March 29, 2015. She also informed her that she took to the clinic and got nasal spray and eye drops.	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
144144	'I was running outside during P.E. class and fell and tripped on the gravel outside of the turf field. I do not feel well, and feel like I keep blacking out'. No medical hx. /allergies/sickness. First aid, and went to clinic.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
144613	at a teriyaki chicken stir fry with peanut sauce. Had an allergic reaction. Was given 25 mg of benedryl. School first aid response. Parent contacted. Ambulance called as symptoms became worse. Left in ambulance. Parent (Dad) on site.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
145272	Presenting w/rash to upper cheeks - no prior history, no known allergies, no known cause. Student feeling fine otherwise.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
145225	In foods class, had allergic reaction to peanut butter being prepared at another table-hives, throat tightening.Called mom, injected with EPIPEN student kept in backpack. Mom will pickup & take to ER, admin to discuss no peanut policy in all foods classes	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
145711	had a bite of a friend's cookie with a suspected nut in it and has severe allergies. He came to the office right away and his tongue and lips were starting to swell.	2010		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
145745	Stung by honey bee on r index finger. Anaphylactic allergy to bee stings. Administered Epi pen in L thigh. Called Mom, who instructed not to call 911, as s.22 symptoms had diminished. Dad came and picked s.22 up, admin Benadryl, and took her home.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
145830	redness on top of right hand near thumb-approx 1 1/4 oval. some swelling. has no idea of cause....has no allergies (except penicillin) she is not taking anything. no food allergies, was kneading focaccia bread.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
145913	Itching and complaining of difficulty breathing. Resp's moderately labored. Given epipen dated Feb 15th.Ambulance called and taken to hospital(Mom had called to say was having an allergic reaction that was affecting her breathing).			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
146207	Student suffered allergic reaction to eating muffin from cafeteria with seeds in it. She usually takes benadryl for nut allergy. She took 2 benadryl tablets. Reaction subsided.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
146456	I had a scent-sensitivty allergy reaction to perfume worn by one of the school staff casual workers. <input type="checkbox"/> Faxed additional statement to SBO Health and Safety			Employee	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
146320	'On my way to school this morning, I felt itchy on my arms and neck. This has happened before and I have an allergy to pollen and dust mites. 11:30 am I noticed hives under my eye, on my neck and chest.' First Aid contacted parents to bring to clinic.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
147256	Shortly after arriving at after school grad event, student exhibited signs of severe allergic reaction. He had eaten octopus prior to arriving at event. His face became very swollen - ambulance called. Student was released after examination at hospital.	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
148601	On the grass in PE, had an allergic reaction/light rash on his hand and knee. No problems breathing. Washed and dried affected areas.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
148136	breathing feels "heavy" was running, but not hard, felt like breathing was becoming more difficult. Has had this once before, nothing resulted, no asthma, no medications, does have mild allergies and some anxiety.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
148288	While playing in the bushes (small magic forest), got an allergic reaction to something. His dad came down and gave him some Benadryl in spray on the rashes. Observed for the rest of the day and noticed that the rashes didn't get worst.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
148138	Student allergic to nuts...while in foods class accidentally ate one of the cookies that contained nuts....had a allergy reaction (anaphylactic shock)	1997		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
148313	approached EA with a friend outside during recess & said she got stung on her finger. EA immediately brought her into the school office. was showing signs of an allergic reaction-911 & parent called: treated at school by paramedics	2010		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
148360	advises she has a perfume allergy. Collapsed in MPR - shortness of breath/struggling for breath.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
149645	While in Bio Lab, dissecting a starfish had a allergic reaction to chemical in dissecting fluid or latex gloves.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
148592	Student was watering the garden and got bitten by a bug. It was the size of a nickel so student's parent was advised to take him to Dr. Student is not allergic and was given advice on getting some medication for the arm. He did go to the Dr. & is fine.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
148598	Sore ribs, no injury/no allergies/just uncomfortable	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
148869	Student right eye slightly swollen and running - she came to the office for an ice pack, and when asked what happened she said she had allergies. She told teacher when playing 4-square game another student playing near them accidentally hit her with a ball.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
149019	Out running, student complaining of stomach/abdominal pain. Sharp, twisting pain. Stu history: eaten, no allergies, no presently on cycle, no prior history, no medication. rest and breathing exercises, pain subsided.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
148957	Student has allergies to pistachios and cashews, however, she ate pine nuts (possibly allergic)? Called parent to pick her up. Breathing is under control. Epi-pen is handy but not needed-yet.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
149343	Started reacting to grass allergy waiting for the school bus. Puffy eyes and face, sneezing.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
149609	Student ate a candy then realized it had milk powder in it. Her throat started getting tight and itchy. She came to office and was given a benadryl. The office was given this in her medical package as she has an allergy to dairy. Symptoms subsided.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
150152	Wasp Sting - Student was allergic and an EPI Pen was used and the ambulance was called. Student was taken to the hospital and later released to his family.	2003		Principal/ Vice Principal	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
150114	Student was playing outside at lunch when he was stung on the foot by a bee/wasp. As he is indicated as having an anaphylactic allergy to bee/wasp stings, but did not have an epi pen, an ambulance was called. Student was taken by ambulance to hospital.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
150774	student ate a fruit bar and had immediate allergic reaction. Eyes, cheeks, mouth swelled rapidly. Aaron grabbed his epipen and gave it to the group leader, s.22. Mother was called, gave permission to administer epipen; she advised later he was ok.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
173947	Student was stung by bee while in PE class. No allergic reaction.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
151805	Working in greenhouse and noticed breaking out on both arms. Only known allergy is laundry soap. Itchy and tingly. Right forearm, 6" x 3" and spotty all over forearm. Could be zuccuni.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
154454	While in Drama acting he was accidentally hit in the throat which spurred him into breathing distress - has allergies.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
154209	Severe peanut/all nut allergy. Ate cafeteria meal containing nuts.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
152876	Allergic reaction. History of anaphylaxis. Itchy armpits and "swelling fingers". Anxious and willing to give epipen. Given with assistance at 0840. C/O a tight chest in her chest at 0845. To hospital with ambulance.				0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
153257	gave 1 tsp of Benadryl at 12:05. phone call home at 12:15. vomiting at 12:20. picked up by mother at 12:45. Ate a piece of a friends chocolate bar. Student allergic to peanuts.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
153509	were on a fieldtrip and disturbed a wasp nest. s.22 was stung several times and had an allergic reaction. 911 was call , mother was called, transported to Burnaby General Hospital	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
154531	Student was eating various snacks in English class and began to have an allergic reaction. He broke out in hives/rash on his arms. His throat became tingly. He was given Benadryl and monitored.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
159157	s. felt a tightness in her throat and felt unable to breathe. Possible allergic reaction.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
160026	s. came to FA today very anxious after eating two chocolates that said "may contain traces of nuts". s.22 has an allergy to tree nuts. Student did not exhibit symptoms of anaphylaxis. Puffer was administered by s.22 . Parent notified. Return to cla	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
154571	Ate a raw carrot during her class and her throat felt like it was closing. Became nasal congested, sinuses clogged, eyes red and puffy. Gave student oxygen and called parent to take her to the doctor to see if she has an undiagnosed allergy.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
154204	During class, student brushed something off his hair&felt sharp pain. Poss. spider bite? Reported to office. Middle r.finger slightly swollen. Small dot at poss. bite loc. No history of allergy to insect bites. Ice given. Pain improved. OK to go to class	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
154483	s.22 told me that his lips hurt. I thought he might have chapped lips so I gave him lip chap. He then came back a few minutes later saying his eye hurt. That was when I knew he was having an allergic reaction to something. His eye was red and puffy.	2008		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
154721	Suffering from allergic reaction. Throat constricted and IED, difficulty breathing. Contacted parent - advised s.22 to take Benadryl. If doesn't work - take injection. Waiting for mom. Advised to seek medical treatment.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
154394	Anaphylaxis trigger to nuts. Student may have ingested candy with nuts. scratchy throat and upset stomach, flushed. Student did not have epipen or allergy medication. Sister contacted instructed to go to hospital and have medication with her at all times	1998			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
155202	Student w/ severe peanut allergy shared other's recess snack. SSA noticed student's facial hives & brought her to office. Unable to contact parent, called 911, Principal administered EPI pen, Fire came. Ambulance to Children's Hospital	1960		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
155709	Student is allergic to tomatoes and came into contact with a tomato in the classroom. She was having an anaphylactic reaction and did not have her Epipen with her. Family contacted. Transported by ambulance.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
155887	Skating field trip at s.22. Collided with another student and small cut on his hand from the other student's skate blade. He cleaned it - no bandaids as he's allergic to latex.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
155884	Student tasted a walnut and had an allergic reaction. Student was given Benadryl and then 15 minutes later was injected with an Epipen. I called 911 and the paramedics came and monitored the student and took her to the hospital to follow up.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
156056	Student reported arriving at school with a bug bite. Throughout the day it became swollen and hot and it appeared to be an allergic reaction. The first aid attendant drove student to the Royal Oak Clinic. Parent later gave permission for him to go home.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
156874	Came to med room w/ allergic reaction. Left eye extremely red; face red, swollen; arms red, bumpy, warm; itchy all over. Phoned mom, would pick him up; asked if I could give Benedryl. Gave 2 tsp. Benedryl; mom took to hospital. Waiting for allergist appt.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
156844	Unknown allergy exposure. Hx of anaphylaxis. Presented with raised hives on the L side of face and itchy eyes. No labored breathing, no swollen tongue, or trouble swallowing was AL&Ox3. Epi-pen ready to administer. Parents called immediately and picked up	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
157361	-anxiety, anaphylaxis- Has allergy to nuts, took a bite & realized she ate a walnut. Felt tingling sensation in lips, tongue & throat. Had her epi-pen with her but has never used it. Very hesitant. s.22 took 2-325 mg Benadryl & called mom picked up	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
157239	'I ate a granola bar at the beginning of class, five minutes later I had a scratchy throat' Hx: Severe peanut allergy, epi-pen administered at 12:00 pm, felt relief within minutes. No sign of: hives, difficulty breathing, skin pale/dry. 12:20 mom picked up	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
157517	s.22 was having difficulty breathing in class - had used an Epi-pen on Friday for allergic reaction and had been to hospital Sunday night with breathing difficulties. First aid administered (oxygen). Parent notified and advised to seek med attention.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
159216	Allergic reaction to unknown source; left eye swelled quickly; took Benadryl; recently diagnosed with peanut allergy; was eating peas before reaction	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
157704	Ate granola bar with peanuts. Has an allergy to nuts. Appears to be a "slow" reaction. Some itchiness in legs. Pulse good and strong. Agitated so breathing somewhat distressed. Monitored until parent picked up	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
159945	Student drank energy shake (provided by mom) that caused an allergic reaction. Itchy throat, itchy face. s.22 has Benadryl here on site in the office for allergic reactions. Consent form signed & here in the office. Monitored 10 mi; no other symptoms.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
158436	Student ate some trail mix. Her throat and tongue got itchy. Possible allergic reaction	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
158195	PAST 2015 graduated student had a severe anaphylaxis reaction to something he ate at a restaurant. He did not have his epipen with him and due to his deteriorating condition I called 911. The paramedics took him to VGH Hospital.	1997		Visitor	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
158223	Student ate donut.Has nut allergy.Had reaction.Gave Benadryl as per care plan & contacted parents. s.2 felt unwell/chest pains, called parent & ambulance. Paramedics came, as well as dad & sister. Physician asked for s.2 to be taken to hospital.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
158374	s.22 gave student chocolate, it contained peanuts - he has peanut allergy.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
158612	Bent over in the washroom and nose started dripping; yellowish, clear fluid, no history of allergy or recent cold. No head trauma or headache.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
158933	Student was in class during a science experiment where they were smelling different items. A student sprayed perfume not realizing s.22 was allergic. This instigated an asthmatic attack. Student medicated with ventolin and principal took to EMG.	2004			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
159445	Student has an allergy to bananas (not reported previously). During foods class bananas were being used. Student did not eat or touch a banana, but broke out in itchy bumps on her hands and face. Parent called for pick up.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
159854	Student, who is severely allergic to peanut butter, touched a bird treat outside on the playground that had peanut butter on it. She came inside and washed her hands and returned outside to play. At 12:20 she came in to eat. Staff were unaware until 12:40	2010		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
159855	Possible allergic reaction to vaccine given at school today.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
160444	Student came to FA with a break out of hives (rt. and lft. arms) (face)(back torso area) legs both right and left. Parent notified to PU student to seek med. attention for ive break out. R/O possible allergic reaction.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
162483	Ingested peanuts (allergic) in class from a small cookie. Advised to seek medical treatment.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
163906	s.22 was in class when she ate a cracker that contained sources of tree nuts. She felt a tightening in her throat and itchiness in her throat. She was having an allergic reaction to the trace tree nuts. Paramedics and fire department called.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
163522	While student was in PE on the lower field, the grass had been freshly cut and student has an allergy to grass and was finding it hard to breathe. Was brought to medical room and given oxygen and notified mom to bring her Benadryl for her allergies.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
170110	Ate a piece of meat, has many allergies and felt immediate reaction. Not getting worse. Contacted parents to pick him up.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
164226	Student had a (possibly allergic) skin reaction	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
166570	Student was running in lower field during PE and then collapsed. She blacked out while falling until she hit the ground and was awakened. Student was given oxygen; called mom to pick up to take her to doctor. Possibly due to allergies.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
164838	Student, sitting in field at lunch, came inside with itchy, puffy eyes. Mother took her home and later in the evening had to take her to emerg. with severe reaction. Unknown allergy at this time.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
164973	During a catered lunch, s.22 ate salad that contained peanut oil. She had an allergic reaction to peanuts, first stomach upset then couldn't breath. 911 was called, an epipen was administered. She was taken to hospital.	2000			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
165231	s.22 has allergies and blew his nose and started a nose bleed.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
165105	s.2 came to the office with a red raised rash round his neck. No problems breathing. No known allergies. Phoned mom - she ok'd calamine lotion. Ice and calamine lotion applied. Rash became fainter and did not spread. Back to class.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
165415	Trying to kill a wasp and the desk he was on tipped over. Another student had a allergy to wasp.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
166523	s.22 forgot her puffer at home and her allergies are really bothering her. She was running the 5K and became short of breath and dizzy.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
165774	Student ate 3/4 of a bag of peas during her spare in the hub and started coughing for 10 min. She has allergies but not to food. Had itchy neck; used inhaler which didn't help and was also given oxygen. Ambulance called as breathing was difficult.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
169261	Student had an anaphylactic reaction.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
166171	Student was finding it hard to breathe during her dance class; chest was tightening up. She has two inhalers for allergies which she takes but the one makes her drowsy. She was given oxygen in med. room and parents were notified to pick up.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
166660	Breathing difficulties, went into anaphylactic shock, benadryl given, oxygen, then epipen administered at 3:45	1998		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
166378	Student injected. Had an allergic reaction. First Aid attendant administered epi-pen. Sent to hospital via ambulance.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
166272	s.22 reported an allergic reaction, he took Benedryl(nausea, trouble breathing, numbness right arm, right cheek, vision trouble) we called mom, moved to medical room. Condition worsened but was not typical anaplastic reaction. Ambulance took him to hos	1999			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUM MBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BI RTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_ TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
167030	Stung on left upper bicep. No known allergy. ABC, modified head to toe, applied sting relief which worked. Called mom to inform. Back to class.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
166592	During PE class, 's.22 was running through the bush and had an allergic skin, redness & some blisters, mostly on the exposed areas of his skin but also on torso. Areas washed with antibacterial soap with saline solution. Rash cleared up lunch (11:30 am)	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
167496	Anaphylactic shock. s.22 ate some pasta around 1:15 and began to have a reaction - into full anaphylactic shock by 2:15. No EPI pen	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
167427	Student was outside at lunch today sitting in the grass when he felt his throat getting itchy and swelling. Student has an allergy to pollen. After 25 min. student feeling a bit better. Attempted to contact parent; no response. Student returned to class.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
167417	During Capture the Flag in P.E. student was received several wasp stings when in the forest by the school field. Reported to office. One sting on right arm and two stings on right leg. lced. Parent called for pick up. Student has other severe allergies.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
168424	Hit by cookie on inside of arm and had a possible allergic reaction.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
167757	Possible allergic reaction to eating strawberries in the morning. Throat feels dry but inhaler is not with her. Was given oxygen in the medical room which calmed down her airway tract. Parent contacted to pick up to have a doctor check her out.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
167990	During lunch allergies were aggravated due to the pollens and grass - eyes running, chest hurtings, throat itching and swollen, etc.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
167732	right eye became red and vision blurry. possible allergies or pink eye.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
167925	Left red eye, eyelids slightly swollen and itchy. Possible allergic reaction.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
168688	had an allergic reaction to hazelnut.	1966		Employee	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
168055	Student was coming to school on the school bus when he had symptoms of an allergic reaction. History, ABC, vitals, mod head to toe, called home and informed mom. Student has derma allergic reaction to cashews, itchy. Mom came to administer cream.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
168038	s.22 is highly allergic to all nuts. Another student offered her some popcorn that may have had trace of peanuts on it. She declined but started feeling sick shortly after. She was brought to the office by support staff, condition worsened. EpiPen	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
168268	Student was in class when she became aware of an allergic reaction to right eye. History, ABC, Mod head to toe, applied ice, Student took one pill of Benadryll (of her own) at 9:30 a.m. Symptom did not improve. Called mom.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
168485	s.2 was in PE & running, slipped & landed on a bee or wasp, getting stung on her right calf. Walked to med room. Assessed. Iced. Checked for allergy symptoms - there were none. Called mom. Mom will pick her up.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
168749	Student was running outside and had redness on arms/face/leg due to exposure to sun or allergen. Advised to seek medical treatment.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
168639	While in PE playing manhunt, something got in student's eye and symptoms got worse while in his next class. Right eye is red & itchy. Student was given eye rinse and felt better. Parents were contacted as it may have to do with allergies.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
168644	Possible eye allergy while in PE. Eye became irritated as the grass was just cut and it happens to the student in the spring. Sore throat and face was swollen. Student was given eye rinse which made itch go away. Parents have made apt with dr.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
168991	After playing a soccer game s.22 approached s.22 with shortness of breath. s.22 said it begun during the last activity of the session. Parent was called, s.22 was taken to hospital by ambulance. Possible allergic reaction from allergy medication				0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
168827	Felt something in his right eye, didn't see anything could have been a scratch or allergy - both eyes were quite red.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
168950	Student allergic reaction to pineapple, triggered asthma. Gave o2, called mom for inhaler. Student stable, good vitals. Mom arrived, student became agitated, breathing became labored, mom said to call 911. Paramedics said medically ok, released to mom.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
169317	s.22 came into the office with difficulties breathing. She's allergic to grass and was having a reaction. She said that her throat felt tight. Her heart rate was high. I got her breathing every 3 seconds and gave oxygen to help. Ambulance/Dad called	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
169123	During PE, the class was running through the forest and into a Wasp area whereby student was stung several times. Possible student was also suffering a panic attack and possible allergic reaction. Ambulance was called and then released to Mother.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
169030	I felt something splash on my lower arms just before we finished doing a lab using acids. Also my hands felt itchy while I was vinyl gloves' I have no known allergies. First aid: acquired list of acids used,contacted poison control, flushed/washed	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
169304	Student was eating a salad at lunch and had an allergic reaction. Friend administered Epi-pen. Dad arrived to take s.2 to doctor. Advised to seek medical treatment.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
169314	During a visit to the school vegetable garden, student ate a bean. Has had previous allergic reaction to edamame. Student itchy and throat felt constricted. Reported to office. Student monitored. Guardian called for pick up. No medical alert on file.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
181772	Student was on upper field when student was stung by bee. Student is not allergic to bees				0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
169417	Student believes he ingested milk products and had an anaphylaxis episode.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
169836	Stung by a wasp outside at lunch on right ankle. No swelling observed. Phone mom - no allergy to insect bites. s.22 was attending Kindergarten orientation. She was exposed to chestnuts in the classroom and suffered a severe allergic reaction. Her aunt, who was present, rushed her to emergency at the nearby hospital. s.22 was treated there.	2010		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
169738	s.22 was visiting the Kindergarten classroom. There were chestnuts in the classroom, and s.22 suffered a severe allergic reaction to them. Her aunt, who was present, drove her to emergency at the local (nearby) hospital. s.22 was treated there	2011		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
169735	Having an allergic reaction. Accompanied to get epi-pen from locker. Denies SOB. Itchy all over. Epi-pen give Rt. thigh at 11:44 by s.22 Witness s.22 Ambulance and parent called. Reports much less itchy at 11:52. Taken to hospital.	2011		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
170717	Ate a peach at 10:10 and allergic reaction began right away but just thought he was itchy. Tried washing hands and face, but it made it worse. Parent contacted by student. No previous history of allergies to peaches.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
171581	student was given something to eat (smoothie) reacted to food with strong anaphylactic reaction. Presented with sweating and throat closing symptoms. Ambulance was called - Emergency services responded 8:36 am. Mom administered Epi-Pen.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
171647	Right after lunch, in class, ate a piece of Quaker granola bar and her throat felt like it was swelling up. She took her Benadryl, has a severe nut allergy and epi pen was ready to use. Followed up Oct 3, she is ok-saw her Dr	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
172112	Student was stung by a bee/wasp. Had an allergic reaction.	2006			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
172942	Student came to first aid complaining of a fuzzy feeling in back of throat and palate. s.22 ate a granola bar around 10:00 am that could contain nuts. He has a known allergy to all nuts - student stmt. not on file. Spoke with grandma	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
172750	s.22 ate a Dipps Peanut Butter bar that was packed in her lunch by her mom. s.22 is listed as anaphylactic to peanuts. Her lips were puffed, her throat itchy. She has had a reaction to peanuts before. 911 was called, an ambulance was dispatched.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
173119	Ms. s.22 and Nanny were in the hall asking for help administering an Epipen. The child, s.22 was having an anaphylactic reaction. I took the Epipen and administered it then called 9-1-1. I stayed with s.22 checking vitals while on the	2014		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
172829	s.22 was picking up wood off the floor by the cut off saw area while s.22 was vacuuming the cut off saw area. s.22 moved a board from his vacuuming area and was placing the board in the cut off saw bin hitting by accident Sam.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
172996	Subway restaurant at lunch s.22 had hives erupt on his arms and neck, felt nauseated. No known allergies	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
172974	Student had an allergic reaction for unknown reason. Her breathing was fine, but her face was swollen, red and itchy. Contacted guardian who picked her up.	2004			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
173427	Playing Gym Ultimate outside on field with grass and broke out in hives. Hives on arms and neck. No trouble breathing. Not allergic to anything. Did not eat anything different that morning. Called Mom/Walked 4 minute walk with cell home, Mom expecting him	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
174408	s.22 has a severe peanut allergy. A classmate ate a Reese's Peanut Butter Cup and then touched his arm. His arm is itchy and he is anxious.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
174875	Student came into the office complaining of a sore throat. Mother was called immediately. Mother arrived at school approx. 1:20. Mother administered oral allergy meds. An ambulance was called as mother thought student was having an anaphylactic reaction.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
175263	s.2 ate a granola bar purchased from the vending machine, which after being retrieved by the youth worker and given to the counselor to read, it contained peanuts, which s.2 is allergic to (anaphylactic). Father brought epipen and administered to Joel	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
176188	s.22 touched paint while in the class. She is allergic to dye. She was given Benadryl. She said she felt dizzy and rested in the sick room before returning to class.	2008		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
175788	During lunch s.22 had, poss. anaphylactic reaction. She was administered epi and oxygen at school and transported to hospital via ambulance. It is possible the reaction was to chemicals used in science lab earlier.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
176064	Student is having an allergic reaction - rash, bumps on face & arms. he is allergic to peanuts, seafood and eggs.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
176036	Student developed a rash around both ankles while in wood shop. No known allergies.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
177764	Student ate a cookie with peanuts in it and had a slight allergic reaction.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
177038	Student was vomiting, not very alert and had difficulty speaking. He said he thought he was stung by a bee and he is severely allergic to bees so we administered an epipen and called 911. He was taken to hospital and made a full recovery.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
177365	Came down to office after lunch and complained of hives. Doesn't know what he is allergic to and said it happens frequently. Dad picked him up to take him to the doctor.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
178291	s.2 was attending a basketball practice. She came to me saying she was not feeling well. She felt there was a allergic reaction occurring. We went to the side and she administered her Epipen.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
177919	Reported by office staff 'Student stated she is not feeling well,complaints of a headache and numbness throughout her body,very anxious. Stated she ate almonds this morning'. First aid,no medical history, meds or allergies, hyperventilating-unconscious 911	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
178506	s.22 (not in foods 8) came into the foods room and took a bite of the cake not knowing that it had nuts. Asked if she had epi-pen, said no. Panicking or allergic reaction occurring. Epi-pen given in office. Mom called. Taken to hospital.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
178627	Student was running on the back of the school by portables when student had breathing difficulty. ABC's, History applied 02, Mod head to toe, Vitals all normal. No allergies, no meds.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
179300	s.22 came to FA with an itchy left eye (around the outside of eye- tissue) He has a known allergy to cats. He stated he had been in contact with a cat on 01-19-17 and started to feel itchy. Exam and clean area. Refer to med. aid. Student to be picked up.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
179303	s.22 came to FA with a rash on her neck, and on upper back close to base of neck. She is complaining of the rash being itchy. She has no known allergies at this time. Wash area. Parent asked to seek med. aid for consultation.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
179492	While testing the ice in the school creek, s.22 fell and brushed up against some sort of foliage causing an allergic reaction on his wrist and arm.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
179921	Complained of eye pain/burning, left eye. Nothing seen but used eye cup. Same problem on Wed Feb 8 with right eye, washed that eye 2/3 times, nothing seen. Q: allergies? Mom will come at lunch and look.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
180042	Possible allergic reaction to stage make up used for theatre production. Headache, dizziness, rash. Student was at home when problem developed.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
180425	Probable unknown allergic reaction in portable 7. Left eye, face and neck.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
181912	Student lost consciousness for a short time, fell to ground (off of chair) had troubles breathing. No allergies/medications. Short of breath - breathing erratic. reported body tingling. Called parents and ambulance.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
192291	Student was running a lap when a wasp stung him twice on the inner left bicep. 2 sting marks noticeable, no allergy alert or reaction.	2011		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
182345	Student had an allergic reaction to a banana she ate.			Employee	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
181908	In gym class hit in the head with a ball (left side corner of eye) somewhat blurry vision and a headache (7/10 pain) resulted. No allergies or medications. Ice pack to affected area. Previously had a concussion, no bruising or swelling.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
181125	Unknown allergic reaction. Throat slightly swollen (breathing / airway unimpaired). Advised to seek medical treatment.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
181222	Walking back to school lunch hour, developed rash, covering chest, back. Looks like heat rash or hives. No other symptoms, no allergies. Happened before (Jan) ABC check. Ice to cool, observation, took pictures to show dr. Homestay contacted.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
181982	Student had an allergic reaction to something he ate.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
182073	Student was in his classroom enjoying class party treats when he noticed his lip was swelling. He advised the teacher and she immediately brought him to the office, he said his throat was feeling tighter. No known food allergies.	2008		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
182214	Student threw up twice after eating unfamiliar snack from Israel (contained peanuts). Has had same reaction before but has not been allergy tested. Mom OK'd a Benadryl. Hasn't had throat symptoms in past.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
182477	Student came to office assisted by noon hour complaining about not being able to breath (having allergic reaction) and was panicking. Has allergy to peanut & ate a cookie. Epicene was administered by s.22 and ambulance/parents were called.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
184658	s.22 was stung by a wasp in class on his right palm. Meaty part of the thumb. Administered ice and checked for allergies; no allergies.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
182587	While on a run with her PE class, s.22 had experienced some breathing issues - asthma like symptoms. Student has pollen allergies.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
182727	Student ate a song cake. The sponge cake contained seeds or nuts that initiated an allergic reaction.□ Eli pen used. Ambulance and parents called.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
183193	student ate something he had allergy to	2008		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
184037	Bee stung student's lip. Student showed signs of moderate-severe allergic reaction (tongue and lip swelling, somewhat constricted airway). First aid administered and 911 call. Staff stayed with student for observation.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
184120	Student stepped on prickle while in socks on playing field. Appears to have swelling in foot (possible allergic reaction). Also has pre-existing injury on toe (possible fracture). Parents contacted.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
184292	Student experienced an apparent allergic reaction on skin.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
185167	Student had an allergic reaction to something she ate and needed an epi pen administered.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
184799	In PE after completing a 25 min run, became short of breathe (gasping for air) to degree of almost fainting. Possible allergic reaction or allergies, notified parent for Dr checkup as is second time it happened.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
185190	Student was in the gym. Had allergic reaction to sunscreen another student had on. Mom was called and she took him to the hospital.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
185173	Student had an allergic reaction at s.22 s.2, epi-pen administered and student taken to hospital. Full details unknown at this time as student is currently in s.22			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
186078	s.22 was sent to the medical room by the teacher because she had what looked like an allergic reaction to something. She had hives on her chest. Her father was called and he came to pick her up.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
186170	student had allergic reaction - rash on torso, wheezy breathing. Mother was still on site. Gave Benadryl and took her to emergency. Epi pen not administered. Allergen may have made contact at home or on way to school. Not sure.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
187014	Student has a rash on inner elbows, shoulders, neck and scalp - has allergies and thyroid issues and is on medications.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
186531	Apparently s.22 was exposed to someone who had been touching cheese. Immediately afterwards he had an anaphylactic response, he administered his Epi pen at 10:22, ambulance was called, oxygen applied at 15 and blanket given to treat shock.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
186976	Red spot on forehead between eyebrows - signs of allergic reaction (maybe too many eggs)	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
186653	student ate a granola bar from home that contained nuts. He has an anaphylactic allergy. Mouth became itchy, staff administered epi pen, called ambulance.				0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
186927	During lunch s.22 was in the park and had an allergic reaction to something (hives)	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
188101	Boys in science class touched her neck with latex gloves. She is allergic. She has no Benadryl or epi pen. Itchy throat (subsiding) breathing ok. Called family to bring Benadryl.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
187929	s.22 was coughing uncontrollably and her lips were turning blue. The secretary was called and s.22 was fine when she got there. Guardian was called and came to pick up s.22 She was taken to clinic and was told it was allergy induced asthma.	2010		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
188003	s.22 experienced what appears to be an allergic reaction during a field trip to s.22 She received medical attention by the lifeguards. s.22 was taken to emergency at Richmond General Hospital for observation.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
188012	s.22 experienced an allergic reaction while on a field trip to s.22. His right eye was noticeably swollen. He did not complain of any difficulties breathing. s.22 received first aid from the Richmond Fire Department.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
188013	s.22 experienced an allergic reaction while at s.22. s.22 He was taken to hospital due to shortness of breathing. His family was contacted by the school in the evening and it was communicated that s.22 was at home feeling better.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
188032	anaphylaxis reaction to food	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
188034	anaphylaxis reaction to food	2008		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
189280	Stung by wasp outside, came to office; treated sting, no known allergies. Student reported difficulty swallowing and breathing so called 911; paramedics checked vitals and no indication of reaction. Parent declined transport to hospital.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
189437	Student had an allergic reaction to eating a seaweed snack. He did not know it contained peanuts (has allergy to peanuts - anaphylaxis). Had a mild reaction, swelling in throat, no laboured breathing.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
189657	Student was stung by a bee on his hand while running lap around field. EA brought student to office, he had a wet paper towel on his hand. No allergies listed for bee stings. Student & EA went back to class.	2012		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
189775	Student ate a Japanese cracker with Japanese printed on packaging. Student has shellfish allergy and said tongue felt thick, but fine otherwise. Parent called. Student took Benadryl himself. Parent took student home or to medical care.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
189897	ate a granola bar with peanuts- allergic to peanuts and was not carrying her epi pen	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
190822	s.22 ate peach from classroom. Lips and scalp became itchy. Student then indicated possible mild allergy to some fruit. Student thoroughly washed hands and face. Ab Ed Advocate texted parent. Teacher monitored student back in classroom.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
190074	Student was running outside during PE when she felt a sharp pain on her leg. Student had a bee sting on right leg near ankle. No bee allergies. Advised to seek medical treatment.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
200849	Outside in schoolyard, getting a ball out of the bushes, had a reaction on skin. Mild irritation and bumps, sterilized, applied polysporin. bandages. No history of allergies.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
190264	Student felt allergic reaction during PE; swelling under eyes, itchy throat. Lunch was pasta Mom made; allergic to nuts/dairy/eggs, shellfish. Had a friend offer Benadryl. FA spoke to Mom; advised to supply Benadryl/epipen.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Other	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other	Schools Protection Program
192924	Stung by a wasp on top of left hand - student has a history of anaphylactic reaction to wasps. No evidence of such reaction - 911 called as a precaution paramedics administered benedryl.	2008		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
190496	Student ate a piece of moon cake in his class, and he is allergic to peanuts and eggs. Student did not feel well and was brought to the office. had stomach aches. Administered Benadryl. Student then complained about difficulty breathing. EpiPen given.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
190982	Student had an allergic reaction to a pumpkin seed he ate during classtime. Mom was called and Student administered his epipen while I was calling 911. Student sat next to me in office. Mom arrived at 1:10 ambulance at 1:15. Taken to hospital.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
191405	Student had an allergic reaction (itchy throat) to something she ate at lunch. She self-administered Benadryl with parental permission.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
191230	Had an allergic reaction to dirt while playing with it.				0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
191729	Student was outside during a fire drill and was bitten/stung in the neck by a wasp. Student arrived in first aid, checked the ABC's and medical history (not allergic). Administered an ice pack for minor swelling and the student returned to class	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
191459	Student ate noodle snack that contained peanuts and had an allergic reaction. Tingly throat, difficulty breathing over time, some tongue redness. EpiPen was expired. Paramedics called to take to hospital and administered adrenaline. Parent contacted.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
191999	Student had a chocolate not realizing there was hazelnut in it. Student is allergic - Mom and 911 were called. Fire Department and ambulance arrived. Mom arrived shortly after. Student did not have a severe allergic reaction. No epiPen was used.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
191594	Student has an allergy to nuts and accepted a walnut bar from another child. She began to cough and itch; face became red. Teacher brought her to medical room with her Epi-Pen and our first aid administered her Epi-Pen. Mother picked her up.	2011		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
192223	Having trouble breathing, has allergies. □ Student requested a paper bag to breathe into, called home, student continued to next class.	2001			0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
192154	Student ate M&M candies and now complaining of scratchy throat. Student stated he has a nut allergy. No care plan on file at the school or Epi-Pen at school.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Other	Event_OT (data entry only) - Event-Other	Schools Protection Program
192780	While eating carrots at snack time she had an allergic reaction, lips swollen, throat/neck scratchy - breathing ok and can swallow normally			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
192611	Student was bitten by a wasp on the hand while outside during lunch. Was red and slightly swollen. No allergy on file or any symptoms. Gave ice and returned to class. Student told to return if any symptoms occur.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
192921	During school immunizations, s.22 had an anaphylactic reaction. 991 was called, parents were notified and the student went to the hospital.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
192637	My friend offered me a Witch's Finger cookie that he made in Foods class, I bit into an almond. Medical history: allergy to nuts (delayed reaction), medication epi-pen. First aid:breathing good, pulse strong/easily felt, no swelling, skin warm/pink/dry.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
192960	s.22 piggy backed by s.22 lost footing & s.22 fell off to side hitting top of head. Minor allergic reaction to grass. Assisted to med room. Assessed. Iced. Wind knocked out of him. Small scrape on r side face. Called dad. Returned to class.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
193076	s.22 had an asthma/allergy attack to fragrance in the classroom. First aid arrived she had taken her puffer but was on the verge of seizure. Administered oxygen right away, took vitals contacted home to pick up. She came out of it as soon as given oxygen	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
193695	Another student smeared s.22 shirt with peanut butter. s.22 experienced an allergic reaction. EpiPen administered, parents contacted and they took s.22 to Emergency.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
193569	Student was playing volleyball in PE and later went to the Doctor as pain increased and he was found to have a fractured middle finger on his left hand; he was told to wear a splinter and use ice packs. He is allergic to pain killers but otherwise okay.	1999		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
194688	Student participated in 24 hour fast (only beverages) and ate a cookie and another item after fast. Said he might be having an allergic reaction, but seemed fine as per co-worker. Sent home with aunt and his office EpiPen--reported fine to my knowledge	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
194547	Ate an Asian pear and had a slight allergic reaction, throat itchy and flush from scratching.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
194649	Student reported with blotchy skin, redness on neck and face. assessed ABC's determined allergic reaction to wheat elevated heart rat. no medication on hand at school. contacted mother to arrange pickup and transport to home to take medication.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
194754	s. started eating part of his snack and starting having an allergic reaction, eyes started swelling, Student brought to office with epi pen. Student could still breath, call mom to come pick up. Did not have to use epi pen	2012		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
195095	Had an allergic reaction, hives and redness on right forearm (over an hour).	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
195495	ate a sandwich instead of a salad and had an allergic reaction. She phoned her mother and told me that she was not feeling well so her mother said she could leave. She didn't mention that she was having a reaction to me.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
195860	s.22 ate a bar that had nuts in it. s.22 is allergic to nuts. Epi-pen was given. 911 was called. Paramedics took s.22 to hospital.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
196036	s.2 experienced an allergic reaction and was brought to the office. He had hives and complained of breathing problems. He was given an epipen injection and was attended to by first responders. His mother was instructed to take him to emergency - evalatio	2011		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
196040	Student ate a sweet tart candy, which was given to her in class and had a allergic reaction, it got so bad she had to use her epi pen and then was taken to hospital.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
196121	s.22 at a candy without thinking \, then asked if it might have peanuts (he is allergic) - experienced an allergic reaction - s.22 administered s.22 epi-pen at 11:25, s.22 was sick to his stomach. Picked up by aunt and sister to go to emerg	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
196341	s.22 lost consciousness while standing in class. No allergies, took 6 Advil for a migraine today. Anxiety about pending exam. Elevated pulse 96bpm, in and out of consciousness. Elevated heart rate when conscious. Emergency med transport to hospital.	2000		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
196781	Student has had an allergic reaction to something. Red rash, swollen under both eyes. Mom was contacted. Sister to bring medication.	2004		First Aid Attendant	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
197643	s.22 started to have a rash on arms leg and back - is allergic to fruit with pitts - Eppen at home			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
198915	Student has a slight peanut allergy and is having a reaction. Red face, throat is thick shallow breathing. Called Mom and she gave permission to give Benadryl.	2002		First Aid Attendant	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
197673	student ate granola bar while playing in gym - allergic reaction to peanuts in granola bar	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
198813	Student ate a smores (marshmallow/chocolate) bar in Foods class and had a reaction (hives on lips and mouth). (Student has a peanut allergy). Parent advised student to self administer personal Benadryl.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
198343	s.22 was on a walk with her class, touched a tree with her right hand and developed an allergic reaction: hives and feeling of heat on her right wrist and forearm. s.22 has an anaphylaxis allergy to nuts. Given 2 Benadryl as per parent instructions	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
198930	s.22 is allergic to Kiwi. He was exposed to Kiwi and suffered with hives and red eyes. Took Benadryl.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
198767	s.2 unknowingly ingested some peanut butter in a cookie. s.2 is anaphylactic to peanuts. He was given Benadryl according to his Action Plan and his mother's advice. His symptoms included scratchy throat, eventually an upset stomach.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
198945	allergic reaction - possible nut reaction. Parent picked him up 11:15am, vomited 8 times, he had took a few bits of a granola bar (given by parent) that contains peanuts (Nature Valley). Has a medical alert kit, Benadryl was given and parents called.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
204899	Student had a swollen lip due to an allergic reaction.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
199945	Student felt faint and dizzy. Losing eyesight, blurry, head in pain. could not walk, felt ill sitting, better laying down. Could not move to first aid room, laid down in hall. Has several allergies, only taking one medication: birth control. Prone to faint			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
200281	Student reported itchiness on his back and presented with redness and minor swelling around the face and neck. Could not identify if he had eaten anything with peanuts. He has an peanut allergy. Administered his epipen and called 911.	2012		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
200558	s.22 has allergies to tree nuts, she was scooping cookie dough containing macadamia nuts, causing skin irritation to her right hand and sore throat with slight swelling.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
200588	Student cleaning up after a science lab involving CUCI2, HCl,AL. Seems to be having an allergic reaction on her hand.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
200656	Wasp in student hair, when went to swap it she was stung right middle ring finger. Did not see stinger, student has no allergies.	2012		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
200697	Student came in from playing at lunch - very pale, sweating, complaining of pain in his chest and the inability to breathe. No history of asthma or allergies - when symptoms did not subside, called parents and then 911.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
201559	Student had an allergic reaction after eating a cookie. He is allergic to tree nuts. Gave epi-pen in left leg.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
201700	Student took one bite of bake sale brownie. PAC parent brought her to the office after CS said she is allergic to peanuts. Uncertain if brownies may have been prepared in a peanut free environment. Observed CS for 20 minutes before sending back to class.	2012		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
203656	See add't email - s.22 had an allergic reaction which started in the classroom at 11:45. He had hives and went to the hospital for a follow-up, after initially taking Benadryl.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
204775	s.22 was outside playing tag on the grass fields at lunch. She came to first aid at 1:00 today with a rash on her face and left side of her neck. No pre-existing allergies known.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
203416	Accidentally ate a granola bar with nuts in it and had an allergic reaction.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
208461	Allergic reaction to sesame seed cracker. As history of anaphylaxis to nuts but no indication of sesame seeds until this incident. After 20 min observation, student returned to class. Advised to return if symptoms worsen. Student does have epi-pen.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
203679	Outside on the field, remembered she is allergic to grass. Came in complaining of itchiness. Eyes appeared irritated, no sign of redness on arms or face. Advised her to thoroughly wash full arms, face & neck with warm soapy water.	2008		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
204150	Student ingested allergen, epic-pen used. First responders arrived and took her to Richmond Hospital. Parents advised, kept at hospital for two hours for observation and returned to school next day.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
204292	Potential exposure to nuts in foods class. Highly allergic. Administered first aid, contacted parents who took him to urgent care in PV. Treated and released.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
207803	s.22 cross contaminated via a pencil or door knob then touched his eye causing his eye to swell. Severe allergy. Gave student Benadryl			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
204903	Got stung by a wasp in the Gym, went into shock. Parents called as we were worried he was having an allergic reaction. He was picked up at 10:40.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
205509	Student was stung by a wasp on the left forearm. No history of allergy.	2009		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
206987	Student had an allergic reaction. An ambulance was called.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
205828	I was sitting on the turf field at lunch by the bleachers and had a reaction to the grass' No previous allergies. First aid: both right/left thigh area, hives/red streaks, breathing good, pulse normal, no swelling, rinsed, applied ice, suggest antihistamine	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
207160	Student was mistakenly reported as in anaphylactic shock, 911 was called. Level 2 FA attended, determined stdt was not anaphylactic but ambulance had been dispatched. Std is non-verbal; it was determined that he had choked on his food. Student was fine.	2010		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
206871	Student noticed that her nose felt stuffed and got itchy eyes. Possible allergic reaction / irritation.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
207164	stepped on a wasp nest while harvesting cedar bark. Multiple bee stings to s.22 left lower calve upper ankle. According to s.22 he is not allergic to bee stings. □ Minor first aid was performed.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
207066	Student has severe allergy to eggs. He accidentally took a mouthful (but did not ingest) of mayonnaise. Teacher immediately gave him his EpiPen injection. Had no visible symptoms. Mother was called, picked him up and has gone to hospital with him.	2013		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
207306	s.22 has a peanut allergy which she manages (cannot eat or touch it) but while rinsing the peanut butter bowl (she didn't touch it, had gloves on) she had a sudden reaction. s.22 took her to the hospital in case her Benadryl was not sufficient.			Other	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
207831	Stung by wasp in PE. Playing man hunt in the forest. Swelling on lip. Applied ice. No known allergies.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
208370	s.22 was stung by wasps. Two on the right cheek (got swollen), one on right leg and one on left arm. She took a benadryl after the incident as she used to have a more severe allergy to wasps. The swelling on the face persisted for a couple days.			Employee	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
208688	Student had an allergic reaction nuts. Gave EpiPen felt better after a couple minutes. Parent picked her up and advised to go to hospital immediately.	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
209397	Playing on equipment student was stung on left pinky finer. Did not have any signs of an allergic reaction. Swelling, redness in sting area.	2012		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
209643	Bee or Wasp sting on posterior lower leg resulting in small swelling - thumbnail - increased in diameter over the hour to plum size. Applied "After Bite" and ice pack for 15 min intervals on and off. No allergic reaction	2006		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
209501	Swollen right eye. swelling began in morning when at home. no allergy, no trauma, never hit head. swelling began to subside while in first aid. checked for debris. none present. sent for medical check at clinic.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
209775	Student stung by a wasp with allergic reaction. Swelling redness and blotchy skin. clear airway, breathing normal. Referred to medical aid. Stung while waiting at bus stop at front of school.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
211905	Student advised at beginning of day about a possible allergic reaction	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
209685	Students ate a piece of watermelon that was touching pineapple and the student is allergic to pineapple. Student was in respiratory distress, did not have an epipen, ambulance was called.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
209583	Was stung on finger, no visible stinger. No allergy history. Slight swelling at site of sting. Applied anti-sting wipe, bandaid, gave ice pack. Advised to return to 1st aid/seek medical aid if she develops hives/difficulty breathing/finger swells more.	2005		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
209796	Student got stung by a bee on right elbow during outdoor PE class. Slight swelling - no allergic reactions. Applied after-bite.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
209902	Stung by bee - left index finger. Applied ice, phoned home, mom picked up - mild allergy.	2008		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
211089	s. 22 had an allergic reaction with his face becoming red and some welts. First aid - lightly iced and dad was contacted right away (he said he wanted to give Benadril). Dad arrived and gave Benadril. Said he would check with doctor to see if needed Epi	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
211715	s. 22 who is allergic to sesame, ate some hummus, and had an allergic reaction. She took some anti-histamine, and was brought back to camp that afternoon from her out-trip to stay under supervision.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
210377	s.22 was in the gym with her class when her mouth started swelling, welts on body. Teacher suspected allergy to nuts; school first aid attended; 911 called for direction; epipen administered on advice of 911; parent called; child taken to hospital.	2001		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
210513	Student with nut allergy broke out in hives after eating lunch. Student was sent to the office. Breathing became labored. Administered epipen. Called parent to come and pick-up. Symptoms subsided. Suggested follow up with family physician/clinic.			Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
211091	'I'm apart of the s.22 for the Terry Fox Run. I was on the bleachers outside on the turf field and I felt something crawling on the back of my right calf and I got stung by a wasp. No known allergies, first aid:applied Benadryl after bite to area	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
211563	s.22 reported a suspected allergic reaction to peanuts while in classroom.	2002		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
211402	s.22 was in the playground at lunchtime. A hazelnut hit the palm of her hand. s.22 has a nut allergy, but hazelnut was not included as an allergen. The palm of her hand did swell up. The swelling is monitored, carefully.	2007		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
211851	Student was on school field trip to s.22 when she was stung twice by a wasp. She had a mild allergic reaction and swelling. Was given Benadryl by school first aid staff.	2003		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
212100	s.2 had a bite of a friend's cookie to find out it had cashews in it. s.22 has a life threatening allergy to cashews. s.22 forgot her epipen and Benadryl at home. Mom came quickly and gave her Benadryl and took her home for monitoring.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
212102	Student felt tingling in hands that started spreading following a mile run in 2nd block. Reported to FA during last block as it started hurting to a minimal extent (dull, annoying). Suspected allergy. Advised to seek medical treatment.	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program

FILE_NUMBER	INCIDENT_SUMMARY	CLAIMANT_BIRTH_YEAR	DEATH_DATE	CLAIMANT_TYPE	LITIGATED	ACTION_STATUS	FILE_STATUS	FILE_TYPE	COVERAGE	RMB_UNIT
212368	Student was out on a community run in her PE class when she experienced an allergic reaction to some airborne pollen (according to the student)	2004		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program
212419	s.22 had a heavy nosebleed that continued for 20/25 minutes. Concern over amount of blood, duration, and severe allergies led to a 9-11 phone call. Mom came in and decided with paramedics to bring into hospital for further care.	2013		Student	0		Closed	Event-Liability	Event_LI (data entry only) - Event-Liability	Schools Protection Program