Hi Maria,

I also wanted to note that the Minister of Finance will also need to sign off on the tagged order along with Minister Ralston. If I can get your help to get that sign off from their MO after Minister Ralston please? Again, I'll need it back before January 14th at noon.

Thanks,

Monica.

Hi Robyn, a quick bargaining update for you and Minister James...

The first tentative agreement amongst the research universities was reached last night – UVic has signed an agreement with their Professional Employees Association (PEA) bargaining unit, covering approximately 900 employees.

The agreement is consistent with the 2019 mandate, and includes some modest employer priorities around exclusion of supervisory and confidential roles from the bargaining unit, “critical skills” adjustments to assist with the recruitment and retention of key staff in IT and project management, and improved scheduling and leave flexibility.

This agreement is also notable as it is our first with the PEA under this mandate.

There’s no other bargaining going on between now and the New Year, so this should be the last update from us.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thanks,

Chris

The 43rd edition of the international tournament will be co-hosted by Victoria (Save-On-Foods Memorial Centre) and Vancouver (Rogers Arena). The tournament will begin on December 26, 2018 and conclude with a gold medal game on January 5. Ten countries will play a total of 31 tournament games (excluding pre-competition games which will take place from December 18 to 23).
