Grace Islet Confidentiality and Site Conduct Acknowledgment

Due to the sensitive nature of the project there can be no discussions about the project to anyone other than the Project Manager, General Contractor, Project Consultants (Archaeological, Ecological, Architectural, and Engineering), your fellow workers onsite, the Home Owner or the Construction Manager.

If there are any outside questions about the project posed to you, they need to be redirected to the Project Manager, General Contractor, Project Archeologists, the Home Owner or the Construction Manager. Additionally, you are to immediately notify The Project Manager (Dan Dubé, S.22 dan.dube@cornad.ca), General Contractor (David Yager, 1-250-883-6220, west.terra.projects@gmail.com), or the Construction Manager (Paul Pasutto, S.22 ppasutto@innocent.ca).

This is acknowledgment that you have read and understand the Archaeological Management Plan and the Construction Phase Rules and that the plan will be followed.

This is acknowledgment that you have read and understand the Ecological Protection and Management plan and that the plan will be followed.

This is acknowledgment that you have read, understand and signed the Site Safety Guidelines from West Terra Projects and they will be followed.

Smoking will only be permitted in designated areas and cigarette butts will be disposed of in proper containers.

You acknowledge that failure to adhere to any of the above rules and regulations may result in your immediate dismissal, with cause, from the site and the project.
