Dear Parliamentary Secretary Kahlon,

I hope this email finds you well.

I am following up on a request I sent a little while ago to your constituency email address regarding meeting with Human Rights Commissioner Kasari Govender. My apologies if I should have sent it to this email address instead. Kasari would very much like to meet with you to discuss your previous work as PS for Multiculturalism. Our office was also interested in the recent letter you sent to Hon. Farnworth, Solicitor General, regarding public incidents of racial hatred and would love to hear more about this.

Kasari is based in Vancouver, and our offices are on the same floor as the VCO at Canada Place. If you are available to meet in January Kasari would be happy to meet in Vancouver or in Victoria, on one of her regular trips to the capital if that suits you better.

Thank you for your time and I look forward to hearing from you or a member of your staff.

Warm regards,
Haida

Subject: Meeting Request from Human Rights Commissioner Kasari Govender

Good afternoon,

I hope this email finds the constituency assistant team doing well!

I am writing on behalf of Human Rights Commissioner for B.C. Kasari Govender. She asked that I reach out to try to schedule a meeting with Parliamentary Secretary Kahlon. Given MLA Kahlon's role as the former PS for Multiculturalism and author of the report that led to the successful creation of the Office of the Human Rights Commissioner for B.C., Kasari would appreciate the chance to connect with him.

Our offices are in Burnaby (150 - 4664 Lougheed Highway), so if PS Kahlon is available to meet here or at the Caucus offices in downtown Vancouver that would be wonderful. Alternatively, perhaps we could schedule a meeting for Parliamentary Secretary Kahlon and Commissioner Govender for a time when they are both in Victoria?

Thank you for your time.

Warm regards,
Haida
