Hi Stephen,

I'm going over to Richmond on Tuesday, Jan.2 for an event with the Minister on Wednesday, Jan.3 and we are planning to shoot a video. We have our own lav mic now, but can I please borrow the monopod if it's available? I'll need to come get it Tuesday (Jan.2) afternoon and bring it back Wednesday (Jan.3) end of day.

Please let me know if it's available and I'll swing by.

Thanks,
Meaghan

One challenge - for December 2017 invoice

I rented items from a rental house for 2 days, that I used for both a BC Government shoot as well as a different client. Not all of the items were used for the BC Government shoot, so I can't split the rental receipt in half easily - I'd have to calculate the specific items and then take 50% of their value specifically, then calculate taxes.

Is that going to be an issue for finance ? Anyway I can present that for them?

Did you know the humble Apple iPhone can shoot professional quality video? Here's how:

- Find a bright outside window (natural light is great, especially on a cloudy day)
- Face the window
- Hold up your iPhone (if shooting a selfie) while you are facing the window. If a friend is helping you, have them hold the camera very steady with their back to the window, careful not to block the light. iPhone 7, 8, and 'X' work best, but the 6 can also create fantastic video
- Shoot your iPhone video clip
- Review and share (on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.)

Do you all think that calling it a "Poverty Reduction Tour" is a little too much like a rock concert, and a bit of 'inside baseball'? I mean, we use the term 'tour', but the general public perceives it as something almost 'celebrational'. I'd want to utilize some sort of line like "Working to Reduce Poverty in Prince Rupert" ... Implies the Government/Ministry is 'working' for a solution, and still focuses on poverty reduction.

Thoughts?

Hey Karl - Happy New Year!

As you know, our Poverty Reduction Strategy tour is going to be in the Northwest next week.

Our GCEP team has done up some suggested social media content for the Minister and for the local MLAs but I would like to include a graphic of some kind.

I put together the attached and wonder a) how you feel about it, b) is your team able to do something better, c) has your team already got something in the works, d) do you have any feedback, and e) if you like it and you have nothing else prepared, is it something you might tailor to the main government accounts?

Thanks Karl. I'm around tomorrow if you want to chat.

Welcome back, I hope each of you had a chance to take a break and unwind over the holidays.

Thanks to all of you for getting the ball rolling on this; it's great to return to a project of this scale when it has already been set in motion.

Paula, Niki, Mira, and Charlotte -- I spoke with Karl this afternoon and he briefed me on the ideal validator candidates. I'd love to connect with you to begin identifying and contacting specific individuals. I'm free to speak over the phone today until 5:00pm today s.22 so it will be best to reach me via email until mid next week.

Karl gave me a good overview of where we ended off before the break but if any other progress has been made that you think could help, I'd love to hear about it.

Thanks again, I can't wait to get started!

s.22 Paula, and thank you very much for your feedback. I agree completely. Making sure we represent the diversity of the province is always a top of mind objective when we work on these projects, and I think a First Nations perspective is important to include, so I would say that we would add that in as a fourth validator, or have a standalone profile for this piece.

Great, I will send a meeting invite for a phone call at 2pm tomorrow with Mira and Niki and Heron from my team, s.22

Thanks, Karl. I think it's a great idea.

I'd like to work with you on getting a major business speaking who has not yet been a spokesperson on this issue. It would be great to talk about the possibility of targeting these videos to different audiences if possible.

2pm is the latest I can talk tomorrow – s.22

Thanks, all.

Hi Karl,

Thanks for this. I like the approach too.

We have been engaging with many people, so it should not be a problem locating people you requested.

We should talk about demographics and regional representation when decide who to choose.

How about a phone call tomorrow afternoon around 2:00?

I'm just following up on our meeting earlier. Here's what I'm thinking (thanks to Mira) in terms of validators for a video product related to childcare:

Someone, like an employer, who can speak to impact of cost of or availability of childcare on staff people

Someone who is experiencing the problem themselves

Someone who can speak to need for a longer term plan

Here's the video we already put together as an event recap, but can go back to for clips or follow-up interviews:

My proposed treatment would be to blend the narratives of these three people together into a Connect, Contrast Solution arc. The big challenge will be telling the story succinctly, and to find the right people.

Definitely interested in your thoughts and ideas, and whether you think there is a better approach to this. Shall we setup a quick follow-up call later this week? Possibly after our next group check-in?

Thanks so much,
Karl

Hi Charlotte,

I'm trying to remember if we've been introduced yet - I think we might have been at Canada Place a month or two ago – but in any event, s.22

Karl recently briefed me on a video project that I'll be diving into over the next few weeks in anticipation of the upcoming budget. We're looking to identify and tell the stories of six validators, three of which will speak the issues of housing affordability and three to the issues of childcare affordability.

I'd love to speak with you about working together to begin our selection process. If you're available to speak at some point today, let me know and we can arrange a call. If not, I'll be available via email early next week, but unable to chat over the phone (as I mentioned in my group email, s.22

Thanks so much, I'm really looking forward to collaborating on this project and creating something that will really resonate!

Hi David, Karl,

I just met with Tanya and the GovTogether team to discuss the ICBC Rate Fairness Design public engagement. The engagement process launches on February 6th, 2018.

They would like to produce (an) animation(s) for the engagement process.

The ideal deliverables would be:

- 45 sec. – 1 min. explainer that will appear on the landing page (most important and highest priority)
- 2x 15 sec. "teaser" clips that will drive people to the engagement site (secondary assets – if achievable, we would like one to complement the 45 sec. piece at launch, the 2nd teaser can launch mid-way through engagement process)

The key concept to describe is that ICBC is changing the way they set rates for individuals, NOT raising rates across the board.

I've attached the engagement strategy document here for you to look over.

We'll have to discuss how the fits in with the Climate Action Committee video and any products that might have to be produced for budget. We should figure out if this is even possible given the timeline.

Tanya and the team will be meeting next week and they'd like to include you in that process.

Thanks,

I spoke with both Karl and our animator, David (who is now working in house – come say hi!), about this project.

We're a bit concerned about timeline, but it could be possible. We just have to consider how much work it will take to produce and how that work will fit into our team's schedule, which could get filled up with work for the budget.

As a first step David would like to have the script so we can talk about treatment for the animation. I'd like to invite David to the script review meeting on Monday – is that alright with you guys?

Did you know the humble Apple iPhone can shoot professional quality video? Here's how:

- ? Find a bright outside window (natural light is great, especially on a cloudy day)
- ? Face the window
- ? Hold up your iPhone (if shooting a selfie) while you are facing the window. If a friend is helping you, have them hold the camera very steady with their back to the window, careful not to block the light. iPhone 7, 8, and 'X' work best, but the 6 can also create fantastic video
- ? Shoot your iPhone video clip
- ? Review and share (on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.)

Hi Karl,

I just learned that our Minister will likely receive the report from the Fair Wages Commission on how to achieve a $15 minimum wage on Wednesday morning, 9:30 am in Vancouver.

Would we have a photographer there to capture this? My MO takes very bad cell shots.

It would be a great resource when we pitch to media our event at the end of the month announcing government's plan (will not likely have the Commission Chair there for the event, so this ties it back in for us). As well, it would help bolster our social media assets.

I know this is a very last minute request, but if you can provide any help I would be most grateful!

That being said, please have a look and let me know what you think. Maybe the questions aren't specific enough? Should it be even more technical? This is a new space for me in terms of the due diligence required when respondents apply and we need to make sure its focused enough so we don't get every guy and his dog applying.

Hi Susan,

We have been becoming more aware of a particular aspect of the housing crisis in Castlegar and surrounding area. Castlegar has a large international student population as part of the Federal Government International Student Program which enables international students to complete a program to become employable and then qualify for permanent residence status.

Many of the students have trouble finding accommodation. They arrive without realizing this and are often left desperate. Many are living up to ten in a small apartment, sleeping on floors, etc. They are vulnerable to being taken advantage of due to their not knowing the local laws.

Are you interested in hearing from that kind of demographic?
I haven't approached any students to ask if they are interested, but may be able to find someone.

Not only are these students challenged by the housing crisis, but the locals have fewer rental options available as a result.

Hi Charlotte,

Yes, Susan has been a huge help; she has forwarded me a few leads already. She had also given me a few leads that I held onto from our previous search.

As far as help from Minister Robinson's office goes, I had reached out for the previous housing project and have on lead that was generated by Daren Harbord, which I will be following up on, but I have not reached out to Craig or Daniela directly.

Regarding organizations to connect with, I think it's a great idea, and some are more receptive than others. BC Housing has been a bit of a challenge to work with in the past, but if we had the right contact there, it could be worth investigating again. Which other orgs did you have in mind?

I spoke with Mira about her potential validator for the Business perspective of childcare and we are seeing if she fits the bill.

And if you don't mind, I'd appreciate if you could connect with some outside groups to see if they can be of any assistance.

Hi Stephen,

I asked Susan Vasilev to reach out to CAs to see if constituents had come in with the types of concerns noted in the video project description. Anything they know of should have come straight to you. Did it yield any leads?

Apologies if this is duplicative, but not sure what work has already occurred- Have you already reached out to Craig and Daniela in Minister Robinson's office to see if anyone has self-identified to them? Have you tried to connect with community organizations that receive this kind of feedback? I also have some thoughts about organizations who may have been approached by folks that would fit the bill, but I'm not sure about the normal process of working through Associations. I think the organization would need to reach out to people who fit the bill who have identified themselves and invite the private individual to reach out to government (i.e.: orgs can't pass the contact info along directly).

Apart from that, we don't yet have tracking systems developed so I don't have any other housing validators waiting in the wings unfortunately. I know Mira has someone in mind for Childcare #3.

I'm happy to connect with outside groups to try to identify additional folks, but there are a few people I'd need to check in with re: process and privacy.

Just let me know where things are at! Happy to help, but unfortunately don't have any names for you in this moment.

Thank you for this Stephen. Assuming Robb is aware and approves? I am not sure if Robb has been informed of this request, but I will confirm with Karl.

The 2017/18 capital budget for GCPE is presently fully committed. Options are limited, and there are also a few other capital requests that have come forward. We may be able to receive some additional funding from Ministry of Finance Corporate, but won't know until January.

Can you confirm the urgency of the request? Could it wait until after April 1, 2018? This is not an urgent request, but it would help significantly.

Also, here is the list of inventory for Digital Comms that I received from the service desk. Can you please review and confirm that this is all correct:

- 2 Canon 70Ds - I have only seen one
- 1 Canon T2i (older DSLR) - Correct
- Canon 18-55 Lens – We have two of these lenses
- Canon 75-300 Lens - Correct
- Canon 17-55 F 2.8 Lens – Correct (although needs repair)
- 1 Canon EOS C100 with 24-105L F4 Lens – We have the camera, which was found by my colleague, Herman Thind in Vancouver, but he could not find the lens.
- 2 JVC GY-MH200U Camcorders
- 1 Canon 30D

Subject: Canon C200 Invoices, Purchase Justification

Hi Karl, Raman,

As discussed, here is the quote for the Canon C200 (attachments included). One quote is for the camera and lens, the other is for the media and batteries.

Raman, as I mentioned to you when we last spoke about this, Matthew, the sales rep from Canon informed me that Canon does offer a direct sales program, with a Government discount pricing structure. If I were to ask three other retailers for a quote (offer a tender), it could cause a bit of an uncomfortable situation for Matthew as he represents the direct sales division and dealer relations. Matthew has said that if the offer goes to public tender, he cannot offer us the government pricing, which would be lower than any retail pricing – hence my lack of competitive quotes here.

Here is my justification for the purchase:

Given the climate of savvy media consumers and their desire for compelling visual content on platforms like Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and others, the need for professional-looking, engaging and visually rich video is more important than ever. With the ambition of producing content that will draw in new audiences and help them to engage effectively with various Government departments, there are few avenues that can offer the same impact as a revitalized video program — and the success of that program starts with colourful, lifelike images.

The handheld cameras currently in our possession ($7,048 – 2x JVC handheld camcorders capital, $3,596 – 8 batteries, 2 dual charges and 16 I-cards capital; >$10,000 for the package) were built for broadcast style production and are incapable of producing the high-quality video that our target audience will appreciate. These cameras produce a poor image that is not of current broadcast/online quality, the files are very inflexible in post-production and the images they produce do not age well. It's my assessment that a $10,000+ investment should not become obsolete in less than 3 years.

The Canon C-series lineup has proven to age extremely well. The aging Canon C100 (one of which we currently own) is over 5 years old and still competes well within its competitive range. The C200 that I am proposing to purchase improves on this camera ten-fold, and includes features that will carry our production team well into the next 5+ years (eg. 4K video, world's best auto-focus, flexible codecs, RAW video - the gold standard for professional production). One feature that should be specifically noted is 4K resolution. Often when shooting events, photographs are missed when the operator is shooting video. The 4K resolution allows us to pull stills from the video and use these images as substitute when a photograph isn't available; although not a replacement for high quality photography, this is a helpful benefit of the 4k resolution, something not possible with older HD technology.

The C200 would complement our C100, allowing for a consistent look between our Vancouver and Victoria based videographers and would suit all of our production needs from live production, to in-studio, to rugged in-field shooting scenarios. Another benefit is that we could utilize some of the equipment we currently own, including SD cards and some lenses.

This purchase would set our team up for many years, and would allow us to create the kind of content that will draw in many new viewers, and open new possibilities for content creation.

Thank you,

Stephen Hargreaves

Hi Kate,

Thanks for the quick response. We'd ideally love to get participants selected by Wednesday, January 17th. We're currently working on getting our treatment approved, and I can send that along for internal reference as soon as that's available.

Ideally what we're looking for is someone who can help contextualize the different issues around access and affordability within BC. This will be part of a paid Government social media campaign.

Aside from BCH, are there any other orgs you'd recommend reaching out to?

Hi Kate,

I'm not sure if you've been informed about this yet but we have a video project coming up shortly that will address affordable housing.

We're looking to speak with subject matter experts in the BC housing world, and to speak with real people that are affected by affordability issues.

I'm wondering if you can recommend any organizations to reach out to that might be able to contribute to this piece, who then in turn might be able to reach out to people interested in sharing their story.

If you'd like to chat about it further, please feel free to give me a call at any point today.

Hey Rick,

Karl and I have been discussing the issue of photo releases from events recently. I know that from past events Marlene and a few other have gone ahead and arranged photo releases at school events before we arrive, and that's great!

I've heard from Don that in the past, we have relied on the releases that the school provides, but Karl let me know that those aren't sufficient for Gov purposes. We must get our photo releases signed in order to capture those events. I just wanted to pass along that info, because it will impact our ability to capture images at the upcoming (and future) school events.

Hi,

The Premier is scheduled to visit Prince George next Wednesday- he will be delivering a keynote speech at the BC Natural Resources Forum and announcing the kickoff to the Mining for Miracles Campaign. As part of this, he will be meeting with a family who benefited from the BC Children's Hospital and doing a brief photo opp with them.

I'm unsure whether there is currently a plan to send someone up to take photos- can you please let me know if someone is available? If not, the Mining for Miracles Chair will be hiring one and has offered to share the photos.

The delegation will be flying up early in the morning and returning on a 5:30 flight.

Hello Digital and Events Team,

We are hoping to request a photographer/videographer for 2 events on Friday January 19th in Kelowna.

We have a Community Engagement Partnerships (CEP) announcement at the local YWCA planned and are working with the events teams on the details. Also if we are in the area, we have another opportunity to film a CEP project where a participant developed a Greenhouse Education Project and Indigenous Garden, a really unique story.

Ideally someone who could do both video and photography would be a great fit for these events if available.

As soon as we know if a resource is available, we would be happy to send along the creative brief.

Thanks kindly
Carla

Hi Greg,

Thanks for info. We're still in pre-pro, finalizing strategy for these pieces, so I'll let you know once things solidify.

On another note, our marketing team is looking to produce a series of ads and they were curious if you would be able to facilitate full production services, from pre- to post?

I wasn't sure if you did full suite production, or just preferred to do the shooting nowadays.

Let me know and I'll put you in touch with them directly if you like.

Hey Greg,

How's it going? Did you have a chance to put down the camera and relax over the holidays?

I'm reaching out because we have a big video series coming up and I'd really like to get you on board to shoot it.

It would be similar in style to the pieces we shot in August, likely totaling 6 segments all in.

We are hoping to begin shooting by mid to late next week (eyeballing Jan 17th as our end of pre-pro) and looking to finish up by Feb 9th.

At this point we have no dates confirmed yet, but I just wanted to get a sense of your availability.

Look forward to hearing from you!

I need to do a video of Christine Massey speaking as an address to the CYMH conference in Richmond on Thursday. 3-5 minutes. I have an iPhone 7 with adapter for external mic to plug into. We don't have an external mic here. Do you have one I can borrow that would work with the iPhone 7.

I need to do the video tomorrow, Tuesday. I could just walk over to wherever you are and pick it up.

Sorry for the late reply, it was a very busy day with many decisions made that affected my schedule.

I will be at tomorrow's event. My plan is to roll video of the announcement while taking photos.

Kate – from the description I've read through in the event plan, it doesn't sound like there will be many opportunities for visuals beyond the podium shot, so I'm more inclined to focus on getting some good photos. Please let me know if there is something I am missing.

Hi Darren,

I think my name was entered as a placeholder, I am still seeing if someone from my team can attend. We have a number of pre-existing conflicts on the 16-18.

That said, you can connect me. I would like to be in touch with the BC housing person whether I am able to send someone to the event or not to make sure we get the best shots – I am fairly sure that a photographer will be sent to it.

Thanks

Rick

Hi Rick, are you taking this one on? I saw your name pop up in the calendar entry.

If so, I can put you in touch with the BC Housing events person who's been working on logistics, if that works for you?

Latest EP is attached.

Hi Charlotte,

Sorry for the delayed response. Thanks for the idea, I'll certainly get in touch with Susan about that.

So you know, this project has been reimagined; initially we were looking to have all pieces complete before the budget, but now it's likely we will produce them after budget.

So not necessarily tools down at this point, but at this point it doesn't have to be a priority.

Thanks again for your help with it!

Subject: Affordability Video Project - Validator Identification Update

Hi everyone,
First off, I want to thank you all for putting a fantastic effort behind this video project; your contributions are helping us get through the most challenging phase of production. Starting last week, we've begun identifying and reaching out to potential participants/validators to take part in this project. At this point we are casting a wide net to gather as many options as possible and are beginning to assemble basic information about each of these potential participants. I've compiled a tracking spreadsheet (attached to this email) that gives a basic rundown of the participant's info, a basic description of their story and any further comments/actions to follow up on. Under "Candidate Types," I've included a label and number, one corresponds to the housing piece of the project and the other to the childcare piece, the numbers correspond to the legend on the side of the spreadsheet, which describes the specific stories/aspects of the project we would like find participants for.

It would be incredibly helpful (for those who are directly engaged in the searching process) to either provide me with this information so I can update the sheet, or, better yet, update a version of this sheet yourself and forward that to me to combine with the master sheet.

The most important piece is to get a brief sense of who this person is and what their story is so we can determine how they will fit into this project.

Any questions, comments or feedback, please let me know. Again, many thanks.

Thanks Stephen,

Did they request that we check with them before publishing the photos? I think it's more that we need to check with shops on anything outside of the 'ordinary' like custom graphics, animations or videos.

I published the photos and added one to the news release.

Hey Andrew,

The address is 540 Athabasca Street West.

Regarding a shot list, it will be a bit loose, but here are a few key considerations:

- Minister at podium (wide with stakeholders & podium board visible, CU, profile CU)
- Key stakeholders at podium (same variations as minister)
- Group photos as requested
- After announcement, any one on one conversations the Minister may have with people (as long as it is still in public space)
- During tour:
 - o Minister with any workers,
 - o Interacting with individuals/product/machinery (if there is an opportunity presented)
 - o Some 'colour' shots of the manufacturing facility
 - o Minister and stakeholder walk and talks

Hope that helps! See you tomorrow.

I would only like videos in .mp4 or .mov format.

If other formats gets sent along they can be the exception, but the rest of these formats are basically obsolete or are rare and application specific.

Here's the part of the process doc I need your feedback on:

Note: Please do not put videos on Vimeo – we use YouTube

Ensure that the finished product is in one of the following formats:

1. MPEG4, 3GPP and MOV files - Typically supporting h264, mpeg4 video codecs, and AAC audio codec -- PREFERRED
2. WebM files - Vp8 video codec and Vorbis Audio codecs

3. AVI - Many cameras output this format - typically the video codec is MJPEG and audio is PCM
4. MPEGPS - Typically supporting MPEG2 video codec and MP2 audio
5. FLV - Adobe-FLV1 video codec, MP3 audio

I already deleted a bullet that said we'd take wmv file formats. Is there anything that needs to be modified here?

Thanks

Did you know the humble Apple iPhone can shoot professional quality video? Here's how:

- Find a bright outside window (natural light is great, especially on a cloudy day)
- Face the window
- Hold up your iPhone (if shooting a selfie) while you are facing the window. If a friend is helping you, have them hold the camera very steady with their back to the window, careful not to block the light. iPhone 7, 8, and 'X' work best, but the 6 can also create fantastic video
- Shoot your iPhone video clip
- Review and share (on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.)

Yeah, about an hour and a half in the wrong direction. That's too bad.

If we really want a shot, I'm sure I could get Andrew Snuchins to help us out!

Thanks,

Did you know the humble Apple iPhone can shoot professional quality video? Here's how:

- ? Find a bright outside window (natural light is great, especially on a cloudy day)
- ? Face the window
- ? Hold up your iPhone (if shooting a selfie) while you are facing the window. If a friend is helping you, have them hold the camera very steady with their back to the window, careful not to block the light. iPhone 7, 8, and 'X' work best, but the 6 can also create fantastic video
- ? Shoot your iPhone video clip
- ? Review and share (on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.)

We are seeking a videographer (preferred) or photographer for an event coming up on Friday, Jan. 19, at the Caledonia Nordic Ski Club in Prince George. The event runs 12:15 – 1:00pm. Full EP attached for reference.
Event summary: Minister Robinson celebrates a $175,000 Capital Projects community gaming grant for the Caledonia Nordic Ski Club's snow-making system. On behalf of Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture Lisa Beare, Minister Robinson also announces $175,000 in Tourism Event Program funding for the ski club, supporting the 2019 World Para Nordic Skiing Championships.
School groups will be on site from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. Following the announcement in the lodge, the minister will have the opportunity to try out a sit-ski (equipment for para-Nordic sport) with the kids as part of this event.
Desired shot: Clips of remarks during the speaking portion of the event (indoors); footage of Minister Robinson and a child using sit-skis/Minister Robinson interacting with kids (outdoors).

Hi there ... hoping to request a videographer to tape a brief clip with Minister Sims next week – this is to follow a major connectivity announcement this week to sustain the momentum.

On our end, we could do:

- Wed., Jan. 24 between 1:45 and 2:00 p.m.
- Wed., Jan. 24 at 4 p.m.

Please let me know if one of these times is possible and I will send a meeting invite.

Thank you in advance! Joanne

Hi James,

I'm Stephen, the video producer here at GCPE. I manage all bookings for media, and Clare was sitting in for me while I was away from the office.

Regarding Friday, here is the plan:

PRINCE GEORGE - Media are invited to join Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing Selina Robinson and acting mayor of Prince George Susan Scott to celebrate funding that supports the Caledonia Nordic Ski Club and the lead up to the 2019 World Para Nordic Skiing Championships.

Event Date: Friday, Jan. 19, 2018

Time: 12:15 p.m.

Location:
Caledonia Nordic Ski Club
8141 Otway Rd.
Prince George

Contact:
Lindsay Byers
Media Relations
Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing

250 952-0617

School groups will be on site from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. Following the announcement in the lodge, the minister will have the opportunity to try out a sit-ski (equipment for para-Nordic sport) with the kids as part of this event.

Desired shot: Clips of remarks during the speaking portion of the event (indoors); footage of Minister Robinson and a child using sit-skis/Minister Robinson interacting with kids (outdoors).

Hi Stephen – Last bit of feedback (both VCH and program have looked at it) and then good to share with the MO – whenever you are ready!

Program Feedback:

- The music....reminds me of Harbour Air :)
- Suggest we change the word "several" from SCS/OPS clip, and say "over two dozen" (I leave it to you to edit as you think best)
- And it should say supervised "consumption" not "injection".
- The text box going across the screen on the last shot with MJD is a bit distracting.

Thanks,

Lori

Hi Stephen – I think you’ve done a great job on this video. The only thing that jumps out at me is the drug checking program -- the sequence of events is a little off:

- Drug Checking Strip pilot project implemented in VCH.
- Then spectrometer.
- Then we rolled out the strips across the province.

I think if you are leaving the video as it is now, it is important to indicate the pilot project as the “machine”(see script I sent you).

Also, we may need to adjust Patty’s titled.

Let me get a couple of other opinions before you make any edits.

Get back to you in the next couple of days.

Thanks,

Hi Lori,

Thanks for all this information. Making note of the new sites going up was a must for this video.

Here is a link to the latest version of the piece: <https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/23UnJvUulv>

I attempted to incorporate your notes on the script, but I had to avoid overwhelming the screen with text. To shore up the gap in details, the social media team can include a link with the post that directs viewers to the MMHA news page, or another link of your choosing.

I'd love to hear your feedback.

Hi Stephen – Thanks for the chat today. Attached is the IN on Supervised Consumption Services and Overdose Prevention Sites. Sorry for not getting this to you sooner!

As a point of interest below is an estimation of the Supervised Consumption Sites that have been approved since gov't was sworn in on July 18, 2017. Two were approved the day gov't was sworn in. If we wanted to be specific in any way, I would need to get the numbers confirmed by program.

Kamloops: July 18, 2017

Kelowna: July 18, 2017

Vancouver Lookout: July 27, 2017

Victoria Pandora: Aug. 3, 2017

Victoria Johnson St.: Dec. 12, 2017

All of these are currently offering services, with the exception of Victoria Pandora (Pandora Community Health and Wellness Centre) – they are exempted, inspection pending, site undergoing renovations.

Overdose Prevention Sites:

- Sept. 18, 2017: The Cowichan Valley overdose prevention site opened.
- Sept. 15, 2017: Vancouver Coastal Health, in partnership with the PHS community Services society, opened an overdose prevention service in the Downtown Eastside.
- Sept. 12, 2017: Overdose prevention services opened in Duncan.

Thanks,

Lori

Hi Lori,

Thanks so much for your feedback.

The challenge here is keeping the on-screen text to a minimum, as the idea is to give the viewer an overview, and hopefully encourage more inquiry. I'll do my best to see how I can incorporate your notes.

Regarding the opening of Supervised Consumption and Overdose Prevention sites, are there any news releases you could point me to that highlight this?

Hello,

Hey Don,

I'm well aware this request is a bit much, but I'll ask before seeking other options.

We're looking for a photog for an MMHA event in Abbotsford tomorrow – any chance of having you there?

Thanks,

Yeah, it's awesome! Super friendly and efficient staff too.

I made two comments on the video, but don't worry about them. I sent it to the MO for approval, so we'll see if they have anything to note.

I think this song fits for this video...could you please download and send me the clean track? I like the alternate version, without piano and ukulele, please.

Hey Stephen,

Just checking if you have a music library for these types of videos. We often license tracks from Audio Jungle or Premium Beat and I can do that for this as well, but that will be an additional expense. if you have access to music you've already licensed for these, please let me know.

We didn't used to put music on these videos when I worked on them under the last government

Hello all,

I have edited a short summary of the Organ Donation/Transplant event footage from Nanaimo on Monday, as requested.

It is longer than the one minute that was requested, so please let me know if this is an issue. There were many good things said and several speakers.

If you do require a revision, you may make comments on the video in the review interface at the link below. If not, you may download the video from the review interface for use on your youtube or social media channels.

Did you know the humble Apple iPhone can shoot professional quality video? Here's how:

- Find a bright outside window (natural light is great, especially on a cloudy day)
- Face the window
- Hold up your iPhone (if shooting a selfie) while you are facing the window. If a friend is helping you, have them hold the camera very steady with their back to the window, careful not to block the light. iPhone 7, 8, and 'X' work best, but the 6 can also create fantastic video
- Shoot your iPhone video clip
- Review and share (on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.)

Hello,

I am still waiting to hear on Photographer and Videographer for Feb 1st Opioid event in Abbotsford. The minister will be doing a tour of the treatment facility and a meeting with Abbotsford's Fentanyl working group. Ministry is really pushing me to get an answer on this.

Also waiting for Feb 5th Innovation commissioner event. The Ministry has requested a photographer and videographer. There push to me today for the videographer was that they need to get footage for a BC Tech Video to be shown at the BC tech Conference. Minister Ralston and the new Commissioner will be demoing Virtual Reality stuff.

If you can let me know ASAP it would be greatly appreciated. Also please let me know if you need any details resent or have any other questions.

Contact: Darrel Letendre, Interior Heavy Equipment Operator School, s.22

Darrel will meet you at the head office at 10:00 a.m. and take you to the training site facility (will need to drive there; he will show you where to go).

Hi Stephen,

The school is on it. They've sent forms home with all the kids who will be part of the Premier's visit.

Just to clarify again - I know I'm always asking this - do all of the people speaking at the podium need to sign forms too?

Hi Jane,
Thanks for this update. I've had Don Dixon (our photographer) look over it and we have a couple of alterations to make:

- Remove the "Priority" field
- Change "Approvers" to "Sign off to be provided by" (optional)
- Change "What is the story?" to "Event Description/Overview"
- Change "Date & time for event" to "Event Date and Time"
- Change "What date and time is the final version required by?" to "Final product due date and time"

Add a new Heading that reads: "For photo requests, please fill out the following information:"

- Add text box: "What are the expected visuals?"
- Add text box: "Who will be featured in these photos?"

Add a new Heading that reads: "For video requests, please fill out the following information:"

- Keep all text current text fields

A few small revisions:

- Change "Title" to "Project Name"
- Within priority, allow only three options: "Severe, Moderate and Minor"
- Delete the field "When will the video end?"
- Change "Date and Time" to "Date & time for video shoot"

- Change "Shoot location" to "Shoot location (including room/office number)"
- Change block text input box to single line input for "What is the expected length of the video?"

Otherwise, it looks great!

Good afternoon,

I have been working with the Moose Hide Campaign team on the corporate communications related to employees in the BCPS. Sharon sent me your email info as she thought it would be good if we connected.

We had arranged to have our videographer there so that we can live stream the proceedings to employees in the regions – particularly the first part which is taking place at the VCC.

The second part of the event is taking place on the steps of the Legislature, likely featuring the Premier. I understand you will also be there Stephen, and I was hoping we could sort out the logistics to live stream this part to the regions as well.

We are working with Dan Nevin on this project, but want to make sure we are coordinated and aligned.

I'd like to set up a meeting next week to discuss, but wanted to send a quick email introduction first. Please let me know if I need to connect with someone else!

Thanks,

Zac

Hi Zac

As promised, here are digital communications contacts for GCPE that would be useful to connect with re the live stream for the Leg steps portion. My main concern is what impact using Stephen's camera for the livestream will have on his ability to be nimble and mobile if he wants to move about. Also, at some point he's likely going to want to do pieces to camera interviews with participants, and that could have an impact if we're trying to get him to livestream through his camera. Just a flag. I will also raise that question with him.

I'll play with it and figure something out.

Hi Lori and Chris,

Here is a link to a video for social that is a quick snapshot of the joint announcement from earlier this week:

<https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/tWAbaYTCJL/c3RlcGhlbi5oYXJncmVhdmVzQGdvdidi5iYy5jYQ==>

The intent is to give people an idea of what the campaign is about and who was involved at the launch. It is still a rough cut and requires tweaks, but I just wanted to get your feedback on the contents of the video (ie. speaking points, text descriptions) before moving much further with it.

Please let me know what you think, and I'll get to finishing it up asap.

Thanks,

Hi Stephen,

I just got back from my shoot in Abbotsford. Here is the link to the whole Dropbox folder from yesterday:
<https://www.dropbox.com/sh/rkkt6e6d3xky6jc/AADtxlk2mp2i1iPpyMCZTRcWa?dl=0>

I had inadvertently uploaded the files to a previous CFO event folder. I've moved them over to the proper location. My sincere apologies for the delay and for any inconvenience.

All my best,

That's what I was looking to determine. We don't have a lot of capacity to put a video together this week, so I was thinking photos could suffice for social media share from this event.

We will be able to put the b-roll pack together this week.

Does this work?

Hi all,
I'll be taking photos and recording video at the Innovation Commissioner event tomorrow, and I just wanted to confirm the products that you're expecting.
As per Jarrett Hagglund's initial request to us, the request is for some photos and video b-roll for use later:

"...need to get footage for a BC Tech Video to be shown at the BC tech Conference. Minister Ralston and the new Commissioner will be demoing Virtual Reality stuff."

Can I confirm that after the event, I will deliver photos for social media purposes and a b-roll pack of footage for use at a later date?

Hi Karl

We aren't sure exactly what we need (until we see what you have), but having options of using real people in different scenarios would be nice. Could be them at work, at home — then we might lay supers over it. Like we had with 'Enough'.

We have't developed all the concepts fully yet - but know what we have access to is helpful to the process.

I also asked Robb if he might have anything else other than this that we could access.

Hi guys,

Our Public Education Team is looking to film some students at an upcoming event they're hosting. They can handle the filming themselves, but I'm wondering if there might be a new consent form they can use.

The one I have on file is attached. Hopefully there is a simpler version that can be sent home to parents...

Good morning Heron,

I've received a video from our youth program team that they would like to post somewhere externally:
https://drive.google.com/file/d/1_JNCcbO_g0ju1Wfj_JQWLpb8pAFiU26x/view?ts=5a77f8ec

They have put this video together for a couple of engagement sessions that are coming up in the Okanagan region. Youth in care will be invited to share their thoughts on how the foster system might be improved. This video will go out with the email invitations. The next session is Feb 13th, then there is another in April.

Please could you help with a few questions:

- Would it be possible to post this video on the government youtube channel, so that it's accessible to the youth/program team?
- If so, does it need the BC government branding on it?

One potential issue that we've seen is that Guy is wearing a Representative of Children and Youth hoodie. Given the relationship the Ministry has with the RCY, and the fact that it is supposed to be an MCFD/government video, would it be an issue releasing the video in its current form?

Thank you,

Brendan

If you just want to provide the footage to the media, YouTube is probably the least preferable way of going about that, they'll likely want the actual files. I can upload it as a Media Asset to your NR – providing the Hub doesn't have a size limit that would restrict this.

Marielle could you advise on the best way to provide b-roll to media sources? We have rarely handled this.

As for photos, yes if you can provide a title, description and tags for the photos and upload them via the Flickr upload process that would be great. Media can access them from there.

Hi Stephanie. On Friday, we have an NR going out about an innovative horse program at the Okanagan Correctional Centre. We will have B-roll and four pics to accompany the NR online as media assets. The B-roll will not be edited for Youtube use – we just want it available to media since they cannot enter the prison with recording equipment. Similarly, the photos of the horses and their facilities are just for media use and will not feature our Minister. As such, do you need captions or anything else for these assets?

Hi all,

We've looked at our capacity throughout next week and it doesn't look like we're going to be able to send a videographer to this event in Kelowna. But we will be able to send a locally contracted photographer to capture plenty of stills, with which we can create an explainer video containing those photos and text that describes the event.

We also shot a clip of the Minister speaking about the "Connected Coast" program yesterday, which we could incorporate into this video.

Here is an example of what we could produce (please do not share this with anyone, as it has not yet been published and is still in draft): <https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/b4MnqBrqEz/c3RlcGhlbi5oYXJncmVhdmVzQGdvdj5iYy5jYQ==>

This format of video is quite prevalent on Facebook these days, so it could be a great way to introduce new audiences to the program.

Let me know what you think about this plan!

Subject: videographer request Feb 1 or 2 - Kelowna

Hi Karl; following up on a request from our MO regarding doing a video with Minister Sims in Kelowna either Feb. 1 or 2.

Request:

We are looking to do a video clip with Minister Sims and the proponent of a Kelowna company called ispeed Communications, which received provincial funding under CITZ' Connecting British Columbia program to improve connectivity to about 3,100 rural households and businesses in the surrounding areas. In addition, we are hoping to get some b-roll of one of the companies that has benefited, which is about 25 mins drive away in Winfield – the company is called Interior Heavy Equipment Operator School. Can you let me know if this is possible? Thanks much - Joanne

Additional background information:

Connecting British Columbia project milestone/completion: ispeed Communications (Kelowna)

$185,00 grant benefitting approximately 3,100 rural households and businesses in Mara, Grindrod, Enderby, Trinity Valley, Armstrong, Parker Cove, Vernon, Coldstream, Lake Country, rural Kelowna, Ellison, rural West Kelowna, rural Peachland and Westside Road between Kelowna and Vernon.

Interior Heavy Equipment Operator School offers site tours and a variety of training programs for people (including international students) who are interested in pursuing a career in one of many fields in heavy equipment operation (cool visuals). The ispeed project has upgraded their internet to high speed, which would be a benefit to the business they operate and the training programs available. Would MO be interested in looking at this as a potential event site given it's a 25 minute drive away? Dave at ispeed is also open to sitting down for a coffee to talk about how the investment has enabled his company to expand internet access to these rural areas (something we touched upon as a possible option during our last planning meeting).

Hi Kate,

Thanks for the feedback.

I've corrected the "Much-needed" typo.

But on the proposed copy at 0:30, I do think it is a bit too much text for an overview video. If it is something that we must include in the social posting, I proposed that we can include this in the post copy.

Here is what it would look like in the video:

More than 300 of the units will be at social assistance and pension rates of $375 per month, with the rest at Housing Income Limit Rates.

Let me know what you think.

Hi Stephen,

Just a few edits for our MO.

Off the top - Much-needed needs a hyphen
@00:30 – Can you change that to read: More than 300 of the units will be at social assistance and pension rates of $375 per month, with the rest at Housing Income Limit Rates.

Thank you

Confirmed with BCH that more than 300 of the units will be rented at $375. They can't say what the range will be for the remainder, because it will depend on the tenant's income.

Good afternoon. Wondering if we can have a videographer for next Thursday.

I am not looking for a podium / news conference video but rather an informal video of the minister meeting and engaging with students outside of the LM.

Minister Mark has two tours: an animation classroom in the early afternoon that is funded through our tech talent announcement followed by a tour of apprenticeship in the aerospace industry.

My AEST DM suggested we need informal footage of the minister engaging with people. I think it's good idea but pointed out our resource issue.

Hi! I understand GCPE has approved a the hiring of a contractor to work on a 90 second introduction video of Minister Popham for the ALC Revitalization Consultation site which will launch on Monday morning. The contractor will be asked to record a 90 second msg from MLP and then using GCPE photos create a visual montage with MLP providing voiceover. In a perfect world, it would be all complete tomorrow so it could be on the consultation site when it launches, if not, we could always add it after the site launches. Please let me know if a contractor or videographer is available to help.

Hi Lisa,
Hope you are doing well.

This is a bit of a rush-type request.
We are looking for as many photos as possible of various types of housing across B.C.

Regular housing, affordable housing, subsidized housing, condos, townhomes, etc.
Less focus on Vancouver. More focus on communities, towns and cities across B.C.
Also, if possible anything that also collaborates with first nations.

Anything you find will be very helpful.
I am sure you know what we are using it for.
Please call me when you have a moment so I can explain.

Deadline: I will need everything by end of day Thursday, Feb 8.

I would still totally love the time lapse If you are energetic enough for it and you feel it's worth the delay in Fair Wages (Karl or Heron may have a strong opinion on that one).

I'm on call tonight if the video is finished processing before the night is out.

Hey all,

I'm staying in Van overnight, so I could run out to get the time lapse of the cauldron lighting if we still want it. The only caveat is that it will take me a few hours to process after I finish shooting, and it will delay me in editing the Fair Wages piece.

Thoughts?

Hi Don,

That's great that you'll be able to go! Here's the time and place:

Time: 12:30 p.m., Friday February 9, 2018.

Location: Gymnasium

Berwick Child Development Centre (run by the Developmental Disabilities Association of BC on UBC site)
2765 Osoyoos Crescent
Vancouver

www.develop.bc.ca/programs/children-and-youth/

We don't have an Event Plan for this one, but I've attached the news release to give you a sense of what's being announced. We're keeping things high level so that we can roll out more specific elements of the plan provincially over the coming months.

Marlene Behrens (cc'd) and Rick Devereux are working on the logistics and we hope to have an itinerary shortly. Stephanie Sherlock will also attend and help with media.

Here's a summary from Marlene's site visit yesterday (photo attached):

- the podium will be in front of the wall with the mural on it, and the signing table off to the side.
- The little fort area on the right of the photo would stay, but would be locked up to keep the kids from climbing on it.
- Otherwise, the blue carpeting will be cleared to the other side of the room, so they will be standing on gymnasium floor.
- This would enable us to make the other side of the room the main play area for the kids when they arrive.
- The staff recommended having three separate play areas for the kids with 3 activities, to keep it a bit more balanced. There is a music room immediately adjacent that we can use as a green room as well.

The general flow will be:

- Announcement - Minister Sajjan, Minister Conroy and Minister of State Chen will provide remarks
- Q&A – media in the room and on the phone
- Signing – “staged” signing of the Early Learning and Child Care agreement – photo op with all three ministers; kids will be brought into room at same time
- Interacting with kids – opportunity for more candid shots with ministers and kids as they play, chat, etc.

Hope this helps.

Hey Meghan,

I'm almost 100% sure we have b-roll, and we'd be happy to share it. Stephen's on location today, but will be back in the office tomorrow I believe.

Cheers

Hi Karl/Heron,
As per below, are we able to share any video footage that we have from Ag Day with the BCAC?
I'm not sure if Stephen had captured the Premier's speech in its entirety.

Thanks
Meghan

Hi Meghan,

Happy Monday – I hope you had a great weekend ☺

I have a question for you...Do you think we would be able to use some of your b-roll from the proclamation? Specifically the Premier's speech.

What I'm after: I would like to listen to his speech again and, if possible, request two or three sound-bites out of it to add to our exiting Ag Day re-cap video (the same one that lives on our website).

We had only hired a videographer for the reception so we didn't have any video coverage for the proclamation. An oversight on our part for sure!

Let me know your thoughts on this.

Regards,

Danielle

Hi Jenny,

My name is Stephen and I'm with the province's digital communications team.

I had a mixup on the timing of today's event and our videographer was unable to get down to the event in time, but I was hoping he might be able to go on the Private Stakeholder's Tour at 12.

His name is Riel McGuire - would it be possible for him to be added to the list for the tour?

Thanks,

I'm very sorry, but I had a mixup on the time for this event and my videographer was set to be there for 12.

He is on his way over now, but I'm sure the event will be wrapped up on his arrival.

I have asked him to prioritize getting any video of the students, and he will try to do so.

I've also asked that he be put on the list for the private stakeholder's tour at 12 and I am waiting to hear back about that.

It would be great if I could get the contact information of the City of Van videographer to get their footage.

Again, my sincere apologies for the mixup.

Hi Abigail,

I'm Stephen, the video producer with the province. I just spoke with our contract videographer, Riel McGuire about the tour that he attended.

I'm aware that he was not on the list for the tour, and I had requested, at last minute this morning, to add him to the list through the email address on the event itinerary.

I apologize for the mixup and wish that I could have given your team notification in advance, but I just wanted to confirm that he is indeed with us, and thank you for accommodating him.

Did you know the humble Apple iPhone can shoot professional quality video? Here's how:

- Find a bright outside window (natural light is great, especially on a cloudy day)
- Face the window
- Hold up your iPhone (if shooting a selfie) while you are facing the window. If a friend is helping you, have them hold the camera very steady with their back to the window, careful not to block the light. iPhone 7, 8, and 'X' work best, but the 6 can also create fantastic video
- Shoot your iPhone video clip
- Review and share (on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.)

I've put in a few different perspectives of each short-listed shot. The rain was pretty bad, and you'll see what looks like lens flares or starbursts (from the raindrops that pick up diffracted light from cars, streetlights, etc.). They actually add a nice effect in places, and look 'natural', for the weather conditions, I guess. I'd prefer editing images myself, but here they are... I typically shoot wider than the shot I want, in order to crop in later (in case I accidentally cut out something important, lol). Especially with angles/etc.

Hi Stephen,

Our MO has requested a few minor changes to the speaking notes.

Is it too late to update the teleprompter? If it is, not a big deal, the changes were really minor, and we can stick with the version from this morning.

Thanks,

Hi Stephen,

Have a look at the attached Schedule B, and make any necessary changes you feel required. I have incorporated the half/full day descriptions, the camera equipment description, along with the overtime hourly rates, in order to make the schedule clear and alleviate questions in invoicing.

Hi Stephen

I managed to get a separate receipt from Gearbase just for the bc gov gig portion - see attached doc. $252 + taxes

Your idea for the quick amendments now and waiting until new contract after March is good with me

Only changes I'd say:
Instead of "Video production @ $40/hour" have it say "Video Pre-Production @ $40/hour"

Photo services (including equipment, editing and delivery)
$200/hour
(the Childcare event was a 2 hour shoot & edit, total = $400)

I'm good with that so we can get the November & December invoices processed

Thanks for your help with this !

Hey Nathan,

Sorry for the slow response – it's been busy getting back into the swing of things.

We're having quite a bit of difficulty working through the amendments on your contract and we're seeking the best options to wrap them up.

At the moment, our priority is to settle your outstanding invoices, specifically invoices number 2017-168 and 2018-101. Below are issues with the listed invoices that need attention:

For the 2017-168 invoice

- * The line item: "Video Producing: Pre-production. Hourly rate" 3x $40 = $120
- * There currently isn't a place to settle that into your schedule B

For the 2018-101 invoice

- * The line item: "Photography: December 4, 2017. Photography for Childcare Capital Announcement, including same day edit and delivery of selects" 1x $400 = $400
- * There currently isn't a place to settle that into your schedule B
- * The line item: "Video Editing: Additional hourly editing (beyond December. 4). For Childcare Capital Announcement revisions" 3x $40 = $120
- * There currently isn't a place to settle that into your schedule B
- * The line item: "Expense: Equipment rental from Gearbase Camera Inc. Partial amount from the included rental receipt"
- * The description of the expenses is not satisfactory, we need to know exactly which items were used for the shoot. If you are able to obtain a restructured invoice from Gearbase for only the equipment used for our shoot, that would be the best option

As the current term for direct award contracts ends at the end of March 2018, I suggest we make some simple amendments to your current schedule B to settle these invoices:

- * Add the following terms under the heading of Video Services:
 - * Video editing @ $40/hour
 - * Video production @ $40/hour
- * Add the following term under the heading of Photography Services:
 - * Photo services (including equipment, editing and delivery) @ $100/hour

Please let me know if these terms work for you, and I'll make sure the amendments are made to your schedule B. Once those are set, you can resubmit these invoices to reflect the changes made to your schedule B, and get you paid.

My name is Stephen and I'm the video producer here at the Province of BC, Government Communications and Public Engagement (GCPE). I had the pleasure of attending the Government's announcement with its housing partners earlier this week at 250 Powell Street.

I'm now putting together a short video that will describe the projects that have been funded and I'm looking for a few photos that could illustrate what these new projects could look like. Hi Sean,

Attached is the BC video logo for 2018.

If your editor has the capacity, I typically dissolve this logo for 15 frames over top of the video clip.

If you have any questions, please let me know!

Thanks,
Stephen

Hello Craig and Sean,

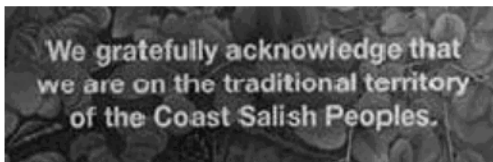

I have a couple of questions and hoped that you would be able to answer them or at least point me in the right direction.

As part of our work we have contracted with Shelley Moore to create a series of videos. We are wondering if there is a graphic that needs to be included in them to show they are Ministry of Education videos. We noticed that there doesn't seem to be anything on the SOGI videos, so the questions are:

- 1) do we need to include a graphic to designate them as EDUC videos? If yes then,
- 2) where do we get this graphic?

Thanks in advance,
Jennifer

Hey Rick,

I'm thinking this one would be best served with just photos, as interviews with the transplant recipients would be a bit odd in the Service BC atmosphere.

We could send someone to take photos of the event itself and take portraits of the recipients and get their stories for a HONY-style story share.

What do you think?

Thanks,
Stephen

Here's the event Monday morning at which Citizens' Services would like photo video from.

Currently taking place 9am on Monday in Nanaimo. In addition to the Minister, speakers will include a leadership person from BC Transplant, and two people who have benefitted from receiving transplants – one directly, and one a member of her family. The location is a Service BC office in Nanaimo.

Not a great visual, but perhaps we can get something compelling in someone telling their story about receiving a transplant. I will be driving up Monday morning and could give someone a ride if you wanted to send someone. The Ministry DComms did say that the Minister was particularly keen on having photo and/or video from the event.

Also, the BC Transplant people wanted to facebook live it from one of their iPhones.

Let me know what you think.

Hi Andrew,

We've made an update to the BC Video Logo (it's been recreated from vector files to smooth out the edges, the music has been removed because we typically use different pieces of stock music for social media pieces and found it conflicting, and lastly, I've made a much smaller .h264 file so it's easier for people downloading it to work with).

I've attached the file here to this email.

If this works for you and your team, we would love it if it could be updated on this site:

http://www.corporate.gov.bc.ca/print-ads/BCID_Video/stings.html as this is where we typically send folks when we get this request.

Hi Carol,

Oh wow, I didn't know you were going to such an extent for these. We appreciate it even more so! We do have a very quiet room here at GCPE headquarters if that makes it easier. It isn't a pro booth and we're only working with a Zoom mic setup, but we could make use of it to make the barriers to entry on these recordings lower.

If it's possible, we would love to work with an iPhone recorded scratch track beforehand, something close to what the final read and recording would be, just to get our animator moving. Our priority is the renter's infographic script, but if you're able to give us a scratch track for both, it would be great because we could see how the reads fit with each piece.

Let me know if this might be possible, and again we really appreciate your help!

Hey Stephen,

No problem. A question for both scripts: what kind of a tone are you looking for?

For this one, I'm thinking a bit serious for the first line, and then comforting, upbeat, helpful sounding for the rest. Sound good? Pacing-wise, do you have a time-frame? Or just do what's comfortable?

That fights climate pollution, help families get ahead.

And get our province on track to meet our climate goals.

Also, should this be, "That fights climate change, helps families get ahead. And gets our province on track to meet our climate goals."?

Thanks,
Carol

While we've got you helping out on the "renter protection" animation, I'm wondering if you'd be able to take a crack at another short VO spot.

I've attached the script with treatment to this email. I hope this isn't too much of an ask!

Actually if we put a cable tuner card in a computer and then pushed that to an encoder somehow, then we'd not have to coordinate with Hansard at all, it would be just like connecting a TV and watching the cable show timing wise.

We'd control when the encoder was pushing on or off and the FB publish piece as well of course.

This might greatly simplify our efforts.

HNY Stephen. I did and hoped you did as well.

I was thinking rather than re-streaming through Hansard which hasn't always been great, why we couldn't take a cable feed and stream/encode that to BC Facebook.

Robert was thinking that that would be more foolproof.

We get the Hansard feed in SD on coax. We have it on satellite with hdmi but we don't have a spare box. We could wire it as a one off assuming the event does not happen between noon and 1pm and/or after 4:30pm Sun-Sat.

Good day,

Please find the current version of the TNO Speech-to-Text Upgrade Proposal attached.

Today's News Online is the BC's government media monitoring service and part of GCPE.

TNO is a full-service media monitor capturing print, broadcast, online, social media and live event coverage.

TNO monitors some 11 radio and 13 television stations. The content is currently captured by an in-house system. The audio/video material is subdivided by program and/or duration, summarized and/or transcribed and posted to our website. <http://tno.gov.bc.ca>

Currently all the content is transcribed manually by TNO staff. We want to explore the possibility of using the Azure API to shift some of that workload. We also want to test the possibility of using the Azure translation service to monitor two Cantonese and two Punjabi radio stations.

As mentioned, TNO only monitors publicly available content.

I will confirm with MS that the audio-to-text API, the voice recognition module and the various language translation modules are all part of the Azure suite.

Please let me know if you require any additional information.

More info for you:

The Interior Heavy Equipment Operators School and Dave Bradich from ispeed have confirmed that Feb. 1 at 10:00 a.m. works best for them in terms of a tour of the school and videotaping with the Minister.

Darrel Letendre is the Site Supervisor for the school and will be onsite to facilitate; he can give us a comment for the video on how the investment into ispeed has benefited their business. Students will also be there to meet and speak with the Minister.

It is recommended that the Minister and Karl have boots as it will likely be muddy.

Location:

#2 - 10058 HWY 97 North, Winfield: they're in Lake Country and have confirmed they are about 15 minutes from Kelowna. Map with directions to follow.

Some additional info on the school.

They have been in business since 2005; they started with 1 piece of equipment, 1 instructor and 1 student. Today they have 4 training sites across Western Canada, and run a fleet of over 70 pieces of equipment.

The school provides training to employment by offering a hands on practical approach to Equipment Training.

They train on the following pieces of equipment:

- Excavator
- Dozer
- Articulated Rock Truck
- Grader

- Loader
- Rubber Tire Backhoe

They offer a variety of courses from 3 week up to 12 weeks in length.

They get some students internationally, however, their focus is on training under skilled people to attain the jobs locally. They have seen a recent surge in hiring from all sectors (Oil and Gas, Civil, Forestry), which is leading to more individuals enquiring about training. They also host numerous career fairs for employers looking to hire our students throughout the year.

Hi, Stephen

We have now confirmed that the Minister will visit the Interior Heavy Equipment School on Thursday Feb. 1 at 10am. They recommend bringing boots as it can be muddy.

Contact at the school is the manager, Mike Hansen, but he won't be present for the tour as he has other business. His office number is 250-766-3853 (you'll get his assistant by calling). They plan to have an advisor and site supervisor available for the tour.

Dave Bradich from iSpeed communications will also be attending. He's at 250-469-9342.

There should be a number of students around that day as well.

Some driving instructions:

-Trip from Kelowna; we're right in lake country probably 15 minute drive from Kelowna to lake country then just down beaver lake road, 5 minutes off the highway. It's a gravel road you turn off beaver lake road

I just wanted to touch base about this event; I'm just sorting out the details on getting everyone into the building, and Mat mentioned you'd want to come in early to set up- can you please let me know what time you were thinking? Hey Karl and Heron,

I just spoke with Rob over at Hansard and he expressed some apprehension about publishing the Hansard feed over Government of BC channels, but he was also excited about the idea of reaching new audiences.

I'd like to clarify what exactly our output channels will be. Is the plan to publish an embedded web-player on our Throne Speech micro site, as well as publish the livestream to Gov of BC Facebook page?

I think they're all very excited about the possibility of creating new channels for new audiences, but they just want to make sure it's all above board, as do I.

Hi Stephen,

I've spoken to the Deputy Clerk, Kate Ryan-Lloyd, about your request, and we are certainly open to the idea of providing you with the live stream. My one concern has to do with the branding on the video player. We would like to maintain the Legislative Assembly's visual identity.

Please give me a call when you have a moment and we can discuss this more fully.

Hello,

Attached is an event plan for an event Feb 2nd at 10:00am in Abbotsford. Venue will be finalized Monday but we are trying to do it at a addiction treatment facility. EP attached.

We are hoping to have a tour or a meeting with Abbotsford's Fentanyl working group in addition to the announcement but we are figuring that out depending on the time the Minister has available.

Hi Carol,

Thanks so much again for providing these scratch tracks, it really helped us get the videos to the next stage.

After working with the VO, our animator had just a few suggestions for this VO recording:

- 1) At 0:18, the VO should read "5.7%" - it currently is read as "5%"
- 2) At ~0:26 the break between "We are... investing..." shouldn't be there, please read as "First Four Months. We are investing..." (I know this was written in the script with an ellipsis, but it should be read as a direct sentence.
- 3) Overall, he asked for the tone to be slightly more informal, as the content is quite statistic heavy and a bit dry.

Here is a link to the draft of the video (please keep to yourself):

<https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/xysjK9TR25/c3RlcGhlbi5oYXJncmVhdmVzQGdvdi5iYy5jYQ==>

I've also CC'd our animator on this if either of you would like to clarify.

Overall we were so pleased with your work. We're really excited about the finished piece.

If so, do you have the uncropped version that shows the whole screen?

The content on the screen was very important and the idea is to capture both the AG with that information in one image. And we're just hoping to have one that fits this need.

Wouldn't have bothered with photos that included the media, and full podium shots were not very helpful either. With respect to the photographer though, does look like it was a challenging setting, looks like there were no validators or anyone BUT the media for Eby to interact with. Looks like Eby had a very serious expression the whole time, not sure if he was too animated in relation to the screen (eg. pointing, clicking through different features, etc).

Hello,

I was wondering if it would be possible to make some changes to the Corp Cal form.

I'd like to add a section for Photographer (in addition the pre-existing Videographer entry).

And I'd like to make some changes to the available selections for each field – I can give you the full list of my proposed changes next week.

Looking forward to seeing what's possible!

Sorry Mark,

EVENT SUMMARY: Minister Sims speaking at Service BC Nanaimo event with BC Transplant regarding partnership that helps citizens who want to register as an organ donor. Staff at all 62 Service BC centres in communities throughout the province provide information on organ donation and help residents register their decision on-site.

In short, Minister Jinny Sims and MLA Leonard Krog will be interacting with members of Service BC in celebration of a successful donor transplant program.
There will also be an organ recipient at the event.

It would be great to get photos of the Minister interacting with Service BC members and the donor recipient. As well, if there are any opportunities to get photos of the minister with logos or signage that make it clear what event she is at, that would be terrific.

Hi all,

We've looked at our capacity throughout next week and it doesn't look like we're going to be able to send a videographer to this event in Kelowna. But we will be able to send a locally contracted photographer to capture plenty of stills, with which we can create an explainer video containing those photos and text that describes the event.

We also shot a clip of the Minister speaking about the "Connected Coast" program yesterday, which we could incorporate into this video.

Here is an example of what we could produce (please do not share this with anyone, as it has not yet been published and is still in draft): <https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/b4MnqBrqEz/c3RlcGhlbi5oYXJncmVhdmVzQGdvdj5iYy5jYQ==>

This format of video is quite prevalent on Facebook these days, so it could be a great way to introduce new audiences to the program.

Let me know what you think about this plan!

Subject: videographer request Feb 1 or 2 - Kelowna

Hi Karl; following up on a request from our MO regarding doing a video with Minister Sims in Kelowna either Feb. 1 or 2.

Request:

We are looking to do a video clip with Minister Sims and the proponent of a Kelowna company called ispeed Communications, which received provincial funding under CITZ' Connecting British Columbia program to improve connectivity to about 3,100 rural households and businesses in the surrounding areas. In addition, we are hoping to get some b-roll of one of the companies that has benefited, which is about 25 mins drive away in Winfield – the company is called Interior Heavy Equipment Operator School. Can you let me know if this is possible? Thanks much - Joanne

Additional background information:

Connecting British Columbia project milestone/completion: ispeed Communications (Kelowna)

$185,00 grant benefitting approximately 3,100 rural households and businesses in Mara, Grindrod, Enderby, Trinity Valley, Armstrong, Parker Cove, Vernon, Coldstream, Lake Country, rural Kelowna, Ellison, rural West Kelowna, rural Peachland and Westside Road between Kelowna and Vernon.

Interior Heavy Equipment Operator School offers site tours and a variety of training programs for people (including international students) who are interested in pursuing a career in one of many fields in heavy equipment operation (cool visuals). The ispeed project has upgraded their internet to high speed, which would be a benefit to the business they operate and the training programs available. Would MO be interested in looking at this as a potential event site given it's a 25 minute drive away? Dave at ispeed is also open to sitting down for a coffee to talk about how the investment has enabled his company to expand internet access to these rural areas (something we touched upon as a possible option during our last planning meeting).

Hey Mark,

I just got an additional request for video for the event on Monday.
Would it be possible to capture some footage as well as photos?

Here is a description of what the Comms shop is looking for:

- Footage of validators giving quotes sharing their stories and the importance of organ donation
- Minister Sims at the press conference giving her speech
- An interview with Minister Sims about the importance of organ donation
- B-roll footage of the event

Let me know, thanks!

Steve

Hi Stephen,

I was hoping to talk to you about this today, but I got tied up before you left – Karl said to ask you about it.

The Ministry of Citizen Services is hoping that the photographer on Monday can also shoot some video – a few of their hopes below. Can this be done? We have a few people coming who have benefitted from transplants and should be able to get shots of the Minister talking to them, and touring the Service BC Office.

Let me know
Thanks

Hey Joanne,

Just to let you know, I have reached out to Media One, the company that shot photos and video at the event yesterday, about editing a video.

They said they could do this, and will get to it beginning later this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

If you have a moment, I'd like to touch base about this as it seems like there was some miscommunication between our shops about the expected deliverables.

Thanks,

Subject: Editing Test Instructions - Final Draft for Review

The task is to edit a 45 second to two minute finished video product for the Minister's social media channels (ie. Facebook and/or Twitter). The goal is to create a piece that includes all necessary messaging, but to keep it consumable for an online audience (ie. the shorter, the better). In order to maintain the feel of the online brand, please refer to the Government of British Columbia's Facebook videos.

The output resolution of the video should be 1080p and should be delivered via unlisted YouTube link.

The time allotted for this edit should not exceed more than five hours.

Please also include a brief note about what you would have done if you were shooting this event.

The materials for this edit can be downloaded from the following links:

Video - <https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/gwbspC60ZW>

Additional Materials - <https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/Qm7tSlQ4Zr>

The materials included are:

- Four complied video files:
 1. A-Cam from the press announcement (Canon C100)
 2. B-Cam from the press announcement (Sony a6500)
 3. "Aside" interviews with key figures from the event (Canon C100)
 4. B-roll from the OERC room (Canon C100)
- Additional Materials:
 - A few choices of music (feel free to use something else)
 - Lower third "name key" files and fonts (including Premiere Pro project file and XML), BC video logo end card
 - News release from the event (alternatively, use this link: <https://news.gov.bc.ca/15986>)

The technical specs for the footage are as follows:

Canon C100:

- 1920x1080p resolution, 23.976 fps, shot with Canon Cinema Locked colour profile
- Shotgun mic on Channel 1

- Lav or podium mic (where applicable) on Channel 2

Sony a6500:

- 3840x2160 (4k) resolution, 23.967 fps, shot with Sony S-Log2 colour profile
- Onboard mic only

Hi all,

We've looked at our capacity throughout next week and it doesn't look like we're going to be able to send a videographer to this event in Kelowna. But we will be able to send a locally contracted photographer to capture plenty of stills, with which we can create an explainer video containing those photos and text that describes the event.

We also shot a clip of the Minister speaking about the "Connected Coast" program yesterday, which we could incorporate into this video.

Here is an example of what we could produce (please do not share this with anyone, as it has not yet been published and is still in draft): <https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/b4MnqBrqEz/c3RlcGhlbi5oYXJncmVhdmVzQGdvdi5iYy5jYQ==>

This format of video is quite prevalent on Facebook these days, so it could be a great way to introduce new audiences to the program.

Let me know what you think about this plan!

The video we produced about this is below for reference:

I could see it being similar, and featuring interviews with the at students/instructors/owners of the heavy machinery school, as well as the iSpeed service provider.

How does that sound?

Subject: videographer request Feb 1 or 2 - Kelowna

Hi Karl; following up on a request from our MO regarding doing a video with Minister Sims in Kelowna either Feb. 1 or 2.

Request:

We are looking to do a video clip with Minister Sims and the proponent of a Kelowna company called ispeed Communications, which received provincial funding under CITZ' Connecting British Columbia program to improve connectivity to about 3,100 rural households and businesses in the surrounding areas. In addition, we are hoping to get some b-roll of one of the companies that has benefited, which is about 25 mins drive away in Winfield – the company is called Interior Heavy Equipment Operator School. Can you let me know if this is possible? Thanks much - Joanne

Additional background information:

Connecting British Columbia project milestone/completion: ispeed Communications (Kelowna)

$185,00 grant benefitting approximately 3,100 rural households and businesses in Mara, Grindrod, Enderby, Trinity Valley, Armstrong, Parker Cove, Vernon, Coldstream, Lake Country, rural Kelowna, Ellison, rural West Kelowna, rural Peachland and Westside Road between Kelowna and Vernon.

Interior Heavy Equipment Operator School offers site tours and a variety of training programs for people (including international students) who are interested in pursuing a career in one of many fields in heavy equipment operation (cool visuals). The ispeed project has upgraded their internet to high speed, which would be a benefit to the business they operate and the training programs available. Would MO be interested in looking at this as a potential event site given it's a 25 minute drive away? Dave at ispeed is also open to sitting down for a coffee to talk about how the investment has enabled his company to expand internet access to these rural areas (something we touched upon as a possible option during our last planning meeting).

Thanks for your feedback in our meeting yesterday! We have a couple of Education events coming up that I wanted to flag. Please let me know if it would be possible to get a photographer out to one or both of these. We're still hammering out the details of the second announcement, but here is what I have so far:

- Tuesday, January 30th, 10:40 a.m., Port Coquitlam
 - Irvine Elementary School, 3862 Wellington St, Port Coquitlam
 - School replacement announcement
 - Minister Fleming, Minister Farnworth, School District Chair, Superintendent, and Principal
 - Visuals/Activity: podium announcement in school library. Following announcement, Minister Fleming will participate in student demo of Micro:bit coding robots.
- Thursday, February 1st, 1:00 p.m., Lake Country – a lot of these details are up in the air, but I wanted to get it on your radar. I'll send more details as they come.
- Davidson Road Elementary School, 2115 Davidson Rd, Lake Country.
- New middle school announcement
- Minister Fleming, School District Chair, Superintendent, Principal, parent.
- Visual/activity: location in school and activity still TBC.

Thanks!

Hi all,

Here is the game-plan for getting photos at both events on Thursday, Feb. 1st. I'm directing this mostly to Andrew (our contracted photographer), but also so everyone can be on the same page for this busy day.

Here is how I see the day going:

Event 1: The Interior Heavy Equipment Operators School

Location: #2 - 10058 HWY 97 North, Winfield, BC

Start: 10:00am

End: 11:30am

Key Subjects: Citizen Services Minister, Jinny Sims; Darrel Letendre (school Site Supervisor); Dave Bradich (iSpeed)

Event Lead: Karl Riley

Event 2: Lake Country School Announcement

Location: Davidson Road Elementary School, 2115 Davidson Road, Lake Country, BC

Start: 1:00pm

End: 2:00pm

Key Subjects: Premier John Horgan; Education Minister, Rob Fleming

Event Lead: Jarrett Hagglund

In order to allow Andrew the most time and energy to get great photos, it would be great to get a hand from any event/comms/ministry staff to collect photo releases. I've attached the consent for to this email.

Please let me know if anyone has any issues.

Hi Sharon,

You are quite right. Live is something that can often be complicated enough on its own; if the desire is to come away from this event with something similar to the Orange Shirt Day video, I will not be able to manage both.

What would your priority be?

Thanks,

Hi Stephen, I hope you're doing well

I believe you'll be doing the video for Moose Hide Campaign Day on Feb. 15. I have a question for you. Zac Kremler from the PSA is likely going to contact you to see if they can use you to live stream the event at the Leg. steps when the Premier gives out the one millionth moose hide.

Firstly, I don't know if that's possible? Secondly, if it was, how does this impact your ability to be mobile if you want to move around to get the shots you want, and also to do pieces to camera with participants for the video. I'm just a little concerned that using you to livestream would impact your ability to get the shots you want for video. I'm not technical at all, so I'm just raising the question and would welcome your thoughts.

Love to chat to you about this.

Thanks
Sharon

Elena!

The Lowdown is incredible!

Is the interview with PJH/MRF something they could get to us the day of, or shortly after?

We would love to get the interview with the full graphics pack and all to repost on Gov/potentially PJH and MRF's channels.

I think that would be a huge hit, not to mention a great amplifier for the school.

Let me know!

Hi Stephen, Heron,

The draft itinerary is attached. I've also attached some info from the school on the activities that will be taking place in the collaborative learning space.

The announcement and the student interview will take place in the library. The Premier and Minister will probably be seated with two grade 5 students who will conduct and interview (for this show, The LowDown!, if you're interested).

They will then proceed to the collaborative learning space downstairs to stop by different stations to interact with the kids.

Photos of the rooms are attached.

Please let me know if you need anything further. I don't have an event plan from the Ministry on hand but can get one for you tomorrow.

Thanks,

Elena

Hello,

Just following up on this request. I have a few more details on the Lake Country school announcement - the proposed activity is to have the Minister interviewed by two students who host a morning broadcast at the school, and then to possibly proceed to an activity room to participate in art activities with students from different grades.

Please let me know if it's possible to have a photographer out at these events or if you need further info.

Many thanks,

Hello!

Thanks for your feedback in our meeting yesterday! We have a couple of Education events coming up that I wanted to flag. Please let me know if it would be possible to get a photographer out to one or both of these. We're still hammering out the details of the second announcement, but here is what I have so far:

- Tuesday, January 30th, 10:40 a.m., Port Coquitlam
 - Irvine Elementary School, 3862 Wellington St, Port Coquitlam
 - School replacement announcement
 - Minister Fleming, Minister Farnworth, School District Chair, Superintendent, and Principal
 - Visuals/Activity: podium announcement in school library. Following announcement, Minister Fleming will participate in student demo of Micro:bit coding robots.
- Thursday, February 1st, 1:00 p.m., Lake Country – a lot of these details are up in the air, but I wanted to get it on your radar. I'll send more details as they come.
- Davidson Road Elementary School, 2115 Davidson Rd, Lake Country.
- New middle school announcement
- Minister Fleming, School District Chair, Superintendent, Principal, parent.
- Visual/activity: location in school and activity still TBC.

Thanks!
Elena

Did you know the humble Apple iPhone can shoot professional quality video? Here's how:

- Find a bright outside window (natural light is great, especially on a cloudy day)
 - Face the window
 - Hold up your iPhone (if shooting a selfie) while you are facing the window. If a friend is helping you, have them hold the camera very steady with their back to the window, careful not to block the light. iPhone 7, 8, and 'X' work best, but the 6 can also create fantastic video
 - Shoot your iPhone video clip
 - Review and share (on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.)

I spoke with Sharon about this yesterday, and as her team has requested that I produce a video during the event, it would be difficult to manage both a livestream and their request.

In addition to the my prior booking, we are still waiting to receive our livestreaming equipment, which is unlikely to arrive in time.

I would be happy to advise, but Daniel Nevin is also an excellent resource to tap into.

Good afternoon,

I have been working with the Moose Hide Campaign team on the corporate communications related to employees in the BCPS. Sharon sent me your email info as she thought it would be good if we connected.

We had arranged to have our videographer there so that we can live stream the proceedings to employees in the regions – particularly the first part which is taking place at the VCC.

The second part of the event is taking place on the steps of the Legislature, likely featuring the Premier. I understand you will also be there Stephen, and I was hoping we could sort out the logistics to live stream this part to the regions as well.

We are working with Dan Nevin on this project, but want to make sure we are coordinated and aligned.

I'd like to set up a meeting next week to discuss, but wanted to send a quick email introduction first. Please let me know if I need to connect with someone else!

Thanks,

Zac

Hi Zac

As promised, here are digital communications contacts for GCPE that would be useful to connect with re the live stream for the Leg steps portion. My main concern is what impact using Stephen's camera for the livestream will have on his ability to be nimble and mobile if he wants to move about. Also, at some point he's likely going to want to do pieces to camera interviews with participants, and that could have an impact if we're trying to get him to livestream through his camera. Just a flag. I will also raise that question with him.

Hi,

This event was in progress before our call this week, so I don't think the comm.s staff has reached out to you.

The Solicitor General will be unveiling a vehicle in support of the Surrey Gang Enforcement Team. We will be doing a podium announcement (with the vehicle) at Queen Elizabeth Secondary in Surrey, and it'll be a good opportunity for photos with the vehicle, as well as of the Minister interacting with Surrey students, etc. We are also trying to see if there is some sort of activity the Minister can do with the students.

I've attached a draft EP. Can you let me know if it will be possible to send a photographer and/or videographer? Although it's not a huge announcement in itself, I think the Ministry is hoping to get some general footage for anti-gang initiatives.

Subject: ELCC Announcement - shot list

Hi Stephanie,

Thanks for reaching out re: photographer for tomorrow. Apologies on getting this to you late, but here's a shot list that will hopefully help:

- Minister Conroy, Minister of State Chen, Parliamentary Secretary Wilkinson together (more formal, posed)

- Minister Conroy, Minister of State Chen, Parliamentary Secretary Wilkinson together (with kids in the background)
- Minister Conroy with kids (candid, interactive)
- Minister of State Chen with kids (candid, interactive)
- Minister Chen and Conroy with kids (candid, interactive)
- Just kids (we need to build up our child-care photo bank)

Do we have the time blocked out for Minister James' visit in PG? Last conversation I had, there was only the date.

If you've got any other details like location, etc. That would be very helpful.

Hi James,

Here is the most up to date info that I have about tomorrow. Would you be able attend any of these meetings?

Three things, all at the coast inn of the north, 770 brunswick street.

9:30 and 10:30 are meetings with the leadership of two different First Nations. 11:30 is a budget talk to the public promoted with the chamber of commerce.

Please let me know!

Hi James,

How are you?

I'm looking to book a photographer to cover a couple of events happening next weekend in Prince George, Saturday Feb. 24th to be exact.

Would you be available during the day to take some photos?

Thanks,
Stephen

I just connect with James Doyle, our PG-based photographer, and he unfortunately cannot attend any of the meetings on Saturday.

Short of me going up there, I don't think it will be possible to book someone.

What are your thoughts, should we try to get someone up there, or can we decline?

Hi guys

We should find time tomorrow to sit down and talk through the events of the 10-12 days post budget. That said, if I am going to make something happen for MCJ in Prince George next Saturday I will need to move quickly. They are asking if photography would be possible. Would you have interest and ability to send or hire someone if she was meeting with the chamber and also First Nations groups?

Let me know

Thanks

Hi All,

Just wanted to check in on this request for UVic again. Let me know if you just want me to decide, happy to do so. I assume the Minister is ok taking a few questions, and I'm also fairly sure I can pick a venue if you don't have a preference.

REGARDING PRINCE GEORGE: I have spoken to both Minister Fraser's office and Don Bain about the local First Nations Leadership. There is a Friendship Centre, and two Tribal Councils, all three of which are separate from each other, and Don's advice (he is from PG) is that we should not combine meetings, and offer a 30 minute meeting to each of them. Is that something you want me to pursue?

Was the Minister planning to spend the day in PG? If she flew up the evening before after her day in Vancouver, she could take a flight home to Victoria leaving PG at 530, connect through Vancouver and arrive in Victoria at 8:05 pm. If she was in town from the morning until 530 I am sure we could organize a Chamber event and potentially 3 First Nations meetings (they might not all be available when we ask).

Are you ok if I try that?

Let me know
Thanks
Rick

Hi again,

A very thorough proposal for the Minister to visit UVic on the 26th at lunch.

Let me know if you want to weigh in on particulars – namely:

- Choosing among the venues they have suggested
- Format – whether it should be a speech, speech with a Q&A, or a fireside chat format with someone interviewing her.

Thanks

Re: Minister James presentation on campus (tentative February 26)

We would be very pleased to host The Honourable Carole James, Minister of Finance, at the University of Victoria on Monday, February 26, from 12:30pm to 1:00pm, for a presentation regarding the provincial budget. Please find below some options of where this event could occur and proposed formats for your consideration. As I know the Minister would understand, First Peoples House is primarily utilized for events related to the customs and cultures of Indigenous peoples and, in honouring those traditions, we would not be able to accommodate a presentation in that space within the time available. To that end, we have identified the following venues (subject to confirmation of availability) that we believe are well-suited to a student audience.

Venue:

1. Cadboro Commons:

There are the types of rooms available within the Cadboro Commons building that could work well for this presentation. As well, depending on outcomes of the provincial budget, this space may be a site for future student housing expansion.

Haro Room Campus View Room

2. Student Union Building:

Within the SUB, there are excellent meeting rooms that can accommodate this presentation. This is a gathering place on campus and therefore, would allow for easy access by the student body. Should the provincial budget offer insight to funding for enhanced student services and support, this venue would be well-aligned with that outcome.

Upper Lounge Upper Lounge

Vertigo

3. Fraser Law Building (could be Foyer or Library) – we are trying to get our hands on some good photos but this could be a very good space and has some amazing Indigenous art as backdrop.

Format:

1. Prepared remarks by Minister followed by a short Q&A facilitated by a senior member of the university's executive.
2. Town Hall presentation that would include an introduction of the Minister by a senior member of the university's executive and then an open forum for questions from the audience.
3. 'Fireside Chat' – in conversation with a senior member of the university's executive with some time for questions from the audience.

Audience:

1. By Invitation only – we would target student clubs and organizations on campus that would be aligned with the topics of interest within the budget.
2. Open to the campus community – we would promote this event via our internal communication channels, including social media, to leave it open for anyone to attend.

Thank you for allowing us the opportunity to host Minister James on our campus. We hope the options outlined above will serve your needs. We look forward to working with you to finalize the plans to ensure a successful event.

I am available to connect at any time, best to reach me by cell at 2580-812-6175.

Hi Jennifer,

One thing I wanted to note for you while you prepare a few ideas. I'm wondering if it is possible for the event to be in the First Peoples House. Let me know if that would be possible. Also, just so you know exact timing, the Legislature breaks from 12Noon to 1:30pm, so it would probably be ideal to invite people for 12 or 12:15 and start at 12:30. The Minister will need to leave by 1pm or shortly after, so we would have about a half an hour, maybe a bit more. We can discuss exact timing, but I just wanted to give you an idea.

Thanks

Same day edit might be tough as we have a busy afternoon. We'll strive for it though.

I think I will send Nathan Stevens to shoot, since he'll have the time to do the editing. He's a good shooter, but hasn't done much in the way of news. He is on the list of people we have had approved to shoot for GCPE though.

SW AV will be onsite as usual, I assume? to get a feed of the podium mic.

The minister will be looking at an electric vehicle which will be on site. Hey everyone,

I just spoke with Karl about a video project that was proposed by Jonathan Sas to support the Indigenous language preservation budget allocation.

The idea for the video would be to involve speakers of a few languages to deliver a short message direct to camera and string these all together.

I think this would be an incredible opportunity to highlight the budget measure and invite others into the project while promoting these languages.

I would love to work with your Ministry to get started on finding some willing participants.

In terms of photos to capture – anything with the Minister interacting with the stakeholders. If there's a way to capture him on stage looking out to the crowd, that would be great. This is a big event and would be nice to reflect the importance/size.

The Minister will also be presenting the Premier's People's Choice Award after his speech and so a shot of him and the winner would be great.

Hi Andrew,

I've booked our contract photographer, Laura, who is copied on this email.

She has the time and venue location, but do you have specifics about the venue (ie. which room, if credentials needed at a check-in)?

And also, please let us know if there are any key visuals you would like captured.

Thanks,

Hi there,

I'm hoping to book a photographer booked for Min. Ralston's attendance at the Small Business BC and Open for Business Awards at the Vancouver Convention Centre. The event begins at 7:00 p.m. and should last until around 9:30.

There is a chance that the Minister may be announcing the new chair of the Small Business Task Force, but details are TBC.

Yes I did get the solution. There is a plugin that we need to get back on track with. However, it expired last July and I have not been able to get the necessary funding/approvals for it.

Our cost now would be $1,250. As it has expired.

Still trying to get it approved. Your service desk might be the saving grace for it.

Hi Sarah,

Regarding number two, I'll explain that it's an open-ended question – it could be answered like, "My language is over 500 years old and was taught to me by my great-grandmother" or "...is only spoken by 50 people." The idea would be to have all their answers start the exactly the same for comparison and to be able to string together the common theme.

As part of the introduction, we will have the participant tell us their name and their language.

And when I mentioned the translation, I don't see that as part of the interview, but rather to sit down after the interview to review and translate the footage.

Thanks,

Stephen Hargreaves

Hi Stephen – sounds fine to me.

What are you looking for with #2? The name of their language – what it's called? Or more what their language means to them? You will want to make that clear, as you may get varying interpretations in completing the sentence.

In addition to getting translation as part of the interview, I would also suggest that you get the spelling in their language, if you think that you will want to have any supers on the screen with the spellings. That would also be very difficult to recreate after the fact.

Anne, did you have any luck finding out from Chief French if he has time before his 5pm meeting with the minister to do an interview?

Thanks,
Sarah.

Hi Sarah,

Thanks for this!

After discussing this further, we've thought of another approach that incorporates what I think you're looking to achieve, but with a different method.

We're thinking we could conduct the interview tomorrow (and repeat for future recordings) in three segments:

1. In order to start things off light, and hopefully entertain the participant and viewer, it would be great if they could offer us an idiom, or a joke in their language. I think this could be a great icebreaker and has the potential to make this campaign fun and informative. For example, here is a great Swedish idiom from TED:

The idiom: Det är ingen ko på isen

Literal translation: "There's no cow on the ice."

What it means: "There's no need to worry."

2. Next, we can get to the heart of the message. We will ask the participant to complete the following sentence in their language: "My language is..."
3. And lastly, we can ask a couple of questions in English:
 - a. What does your language mean to you?
 - b. What would language preservation/revitalization mean to the children and youth in your community?
 - c. What do you do to keep your language alive in your community?

And finally, as translation will be the most challenging piece of this production, we would ideally have the participant stay on site to complete a translation right away.

Let me know what you think and we can start planning for a possible shoot tomorrow!

Stephen Hargreaves

Subject: FOR REVIEW: Language video prep

Hi all,

The concept that we've been discussing for the video is having a number of different language speakers say the same particular phrase in their own language, that can then be knitted together as a montage. They would also answer a few questions as part of the interview as well.

Here are a couple of ideas for phrases that we're interested in getting your feedback on:

The survival of our language is the survival of our people.

Language is our connection to our past and our future.

Other options could be along the lines of:

Our language is our very survival.

Language is the strength of our people.

Our language is our future.

Our language is our culture.

Draft Interview Questions:

- Who did you learn your language from?
- Why is Indigenous language preservation and revitalization so important?
- What do you do to keep your language alive in your community?

Please let us know what you think. Time is of the essence, as we do have someone meeting with the minister from up North who speaks his language fluently, so we'd like to shoot the first interview tomorrow. We are just trying to nail down a time.

Thanks!

Sarah.

Hi Stephen and team,

Re: PSSG-85079

We are hoping your team can pop over to the PSSG MO office next week to record a short video message with Minister Farnworth, for posting to go live on Monday, March 5. Let us know if a day and time works best and we will help coordinate with MO.

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the Stop the Sexual Exploitation of Children & Youth Awareness Week, from March 5 to 11, 2018, and the video message will be concerned with this. See attached script that we will be sending to MO for approval.

Video to be posted on web page and on you tube/social media as recommended:

<https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/safety/crime-prevention/community-crime-prevention/exploitation>

We have also drafted up some social media posts for the awareness week and would appreciate some help from the digital team in distributing these during the week.

Jason

Hi Richard,

My name is Stephen and I'm the video producer for the Gov of BC. I also coordinate most of the photography work we engage in.

I'm looking for a Vancouver-based photographer to work on a contract basis with us to cover various events in the Lower Mainland, and you came highly recommended by our in-house photographer, Don Craig.

I'm wondering if you'd be interested in this opportunity? It would require some paperwork to get you all set up, but once that's out of the way it's fairly standard invoicing protocol.

Hi Greg,

My name is Stephen Hargreaves and I'm the video producer with the Government of British Columbia. I'm going through the procurement process here in order to purchase a new camera system.

I'm wondering if your group sells Canon C200 system?

If so could you please send us a quote with the following items:

- * C200 Camera body with handles

- * Canon EF24-105mm f4L II IS USM
- * 1x 128 gb CFast card Sandisk
- * 2x BP-A60 Battery (w/ level meter) 6400mAh 14.4V
- * CFast card reader Sandisk

Hello,

Just a quick follow up on this request.

Is someone from the digital team able to do a quick video shoot with Minister Farnworth this week? It should only take about 10 mins (script attached).

Let me know if a day/time works best and I can coordinate with PSSG MO.

In terms of social media support for the week of March 5-11, see below for tweets/FB event posts, linking to: <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/safety/crime-prevention/community-crime-prevention/exploitation>

Tweets:

- Did you know that out of 100,000 children in B.C., 192 are sexually exploited? Learn the facts. Link.
- Are you suspecting a child is being sexually exploited? Don't take matters into your own hands, call 911. Link.
- Do you really know who your online friends are? Link.
- Did you know that 88% of victims of sexual exploitation know their offender? Help raise awareness. Link.
- Do you know how to recognize the signs of a victim of sexual exploitation? Learn how to be aware. Link.

Event Tweets:Abbotsford, Public Rally, Tuesday, March 6

Event Facebook Posts:Abbotsford, Public Rally, Tuesday, March 6

- Do you want to make a stand against the sexual exploitation of children & youth? This year marks the 20th annual Stop the Sexual Exploitation of Children & Youth Awareness Week. From March 6 – 11, make your voice heard. The Fraser Valley Community Action Team (FVCAT) is hosting their annual public rally on Tuesday, March 6th. At 3:30pm, come and make your voice heard and show your support to all the victims of youth sexual exploitation. It's time to take a stand and end the violence. Link to Facebook event (or event online).

Vancouver, “Be the Change” – A Free Youth Event on the Issue of Sexual Exploitation, Thursday, March 8

- If you are a child who wants to redefine the rules and take a stand, or a parent who wants to help educate your child on the dangers of sexual exploitation, join the Vancouver Community Action Team (VCAT). On Thursday March 8th, VCAT is hosting two events to educate youth. The event will feature two workshops: “Redefining Manhood” and “TCO2”. If you want to learn more about how to speak against male exploiters, or how to take care of yourself and others to be more aware, RSVP to the day-long event. Lunch and snacks are provided. Link to Facebook event (or event online).

Hi Stephen and team,

Re: PSSG-85079

We are hoping your team can pop over to the PSSG MO office next week to record a short video message with Minister Farnworth, for posting to go live on Monday, March 5. Let us know if a day and time works best and we will help coordinate with MO.

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the Stop the Sexual Exploitation of Children & Youth Awareness Week, from March 5 to 11, 2018, and the video message will be concerned with this. See attached script that we will be sending to MO for approval.

Video to be posted on web page and on you tube/social media as recommended:

<https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/safety/crime-prevention/community-crime-prevention/exploitation>

We have also drafted up some social media posts for the awareness week and would appreciate some help from the digital team in distributing these during the week.

Jason

Hi Catherine,

I can have the URL dropped in to the end of the video, but no, it will not be a clickable URL, that's just not a possibility with video. The hyperlink can be added in the post copy, or add, and I suggest that as the best option to post and drive participants to the site.

Do you want some text to accompany URL in the video? Something like, "Visit engage.gov.bc.ca/ratefairness to have your say."

Hi Stephen -- can you make another copy of the video and at the end of the video add a the address of the engagement site engage.gov.bc.ca/ratefairness -- Can that actually be a hyperlink -- is that possible?

Reason is we will use the first video for the engagement site itself but we will release the other video (with the address) with the news release we're issuing on Monday. That's why the address would be helpful.

Let me know if that works.

Hi Raman,

Stephen is going to need to submit a requisition through iProcurement, required when purchasing goods over $5000, directions below:

For goods valued at over $5000, ministries are required to submit a requisition to Procurement Services as follows:

- Ministry of Transportation should complete this eForm requisition - click on Assets/Purchasing and then on Purchasing Requisition.
- All other ministries should complete a non-catalog request in iProcurement (CAS), following the instructions found in the iProcurement Sourcing via BC Bid Quick Guide. Procurement Services will manage the solicitation process (usually through an Invitation to Quote \(ITQ\), unless a reason for direct award exists), and once approved by the purchasing ministry, will issue a purchase order to the lowest-priced compliant bidder.

Often, goods can be clearly described through detailed specifications, and price will be the only variable. In these cases, an ITQ is usually used as the solicitation process. However, sometimes it may be more appropriate to base the award decision on more than just price. For example, sometimes a ministry may determine that it requires ancillary services, such as a better warranty or faster installation, or a higher quality standard, etc., in which case the solicitation may include evaluation criteria. Refer to Award to the Highest Score for more information on the options available if price isn't the only deciding factor.

Refer to the Sufficient Time Posting Guidelines to assist in planning for the time that a solicitation process may take.

Refer to Mandatory and Weighted Criteria to learn how mandatory requirements in solicitations are crucial for both the government and for vendors.

Please email CAS for help with requisitions.

- All other ministries should complete a non-catalog request in iProcurement (CAS), following the instructions found in the iProcurement Sourcing via BC Bid Quick Guide. Procurement Services will manage the solicitation process (usually through an Invitation to Quote \(ITQ\), unless a reason for direct award exists), and once approved by the purchasing ministry, will issue a purchase order to the lowest-priced compliant bidder.

Often, goods can be clearly described through detailed specifications, and price will be the only variable. In these cases, an ITQ is usually used as the solicitation process. However, sometimes it may be more appropriate to base the award decision on more than just price. For example, sometimes a ministry may determine that it requires ancillary services, such as a better warranty or faster installation, or a higher quality standard, etc., in which case the solicitation may include evaluation criteria. Refer to Award to the Highest Score for more information on the options available if price isn't the only deciding factor.

Refer to the Sufficient Time Posting Guidelines to assist in planning for the time that a solicitation process may take.

Refer to Mandatory and Weighted Criteria to learn how mandatory requirements in solicitations are crucial for both the government and for vendors.

Please email CAS for help with requisitions.

Hi Raman and Walter,

Excellent news. I am just checking with the various parties to ensure we still have time to complete all the related work by the end of fiscal.

I am confident the Azure work can proceed. Before I commit to the A/V equipment, who is a good person to speak with about expediting approved purchasing procedures?

The reason I ask, the A/V quote is from a single gov't approved supplier - MVCC. I secured the original quote in June. It was updated in October. When I managed the press theatre upgrade, we had to allow two other approved gov't suppliers an equal amount of time to table a bid. We obviously can't wait six months.

The total cost of the A/V equipment is $56,791.14. My understanding is, as a single project, it would all be capital.

Hi Scott,

It looks like we may get support from Min of Finance for the A/V equipment. Yay!

Can you confirm that the $57K amount is still valid? Is this all capital?

Walter and team are working on funding the Azure items from the remaining IM/IT budget we/GCPE have for this year.

The Studio lights will mostly likely have to be purchased in 2018/19.

Hi Walter,

I subdivided the project into two phases - Recorded audio and Live audio.

I had originally planned to proceed with both phases in the same fiscal year. When it became more obvious that capital was in short supply and Garrett Cormack was struggling to secure a gov't Azure account I decided to move to a more staged timeline.

Phase one in 2017/18

Phase two in 2018/19

Given that we will make no progress on phase one this fiscal, I will recombine them as one project when re-presenting it in 2018/19 and beyond. Please note, phase two is somewhat dependent on the approval of the event equipment hardware. I mentioned it in a previous e-mail to you and Raman.

The quicker I can get confirmation of capital approval the better. As I mentioned, Garrett still needs to secure a gov't account but cannot proceed until the project is approved and Microsoft will not hold those credits for us past the end of the next quarter.

FYI - The last total I gave Rick for the AV equipment was $56,791.14 including taxes.

As well, please add $40,000 to the capital list for new studio lights in the press theatre.

The Azure upgrade is my top capital priority.

Hi Stephen and Don, happy Tuesday

I believe you're both on point for video and photography on Thursday for Moose Hide Campaign Day. I'm sure you are aware, but just in case you're not, PJH is going to be marching with the campaign at 12.00 pm on the 15th from Thunderbird Park along Belleville (which will be closed off) to the Legislature steps. So you might want to get some coverage of the march on the way to the steps as well as the event at the steps itself. Don – you'll remember they did a similar march last year.

The running order as it stands at the moment is

12:00 – 12:15 p.m.	March to Legislature (Premier will arrive at Thunderbird Park at 12:00 pm – march will start immediately he arrives)
12:15 – 12:45 p.m. Timing approximate	Event on steps of Legislature <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Opening protocols • Premier Horgan remarks and presents 1 millionth moose hide patch to Lorelei Williams (TBD) • Butterflies in Spirit dance • Minister Fraser remarks and presents framed copy of presentation to Paul and Raven Lacerte • Media avail Note: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Premier will have to leave by 12:45/12:50 p.m. • No dignitaries should leave the steps while Butterflies in Spirit are performing

I'll flip you any more detailed info that I get that will help your set up. It will be men only on the steps. Butterflies in Spirit will dance on the flat walk way in front of the steps. At the edge of that there will be three tents – one for media, one for the PA and one for Elders – just so you can visualize the set up. Still need to work out where female MLAs will stand.

Cheers
Sharon

They are also wondering about the feasibility of bringing a videographer to selected stakeholders in Vancouver tomorrow, (or if not tomorrow, Thursday).

These would be optimistic messages celebrating the announcement and what it means for B.C.'s future – I reckon it could also be good b-roll for the BC Tech Summit coming up.

Is it possible to have a videographer available on short notice. The MO is ready to start reaching out to the stakeholders directly.

Hi Stephen,

Thanks for your work on this. I am wondering if there was there any footage of the website in the HALO of the arena? I am concerned that the URL doesn't appear on the digital screens (of blue girl/ yellow guy) in the video and seems absent overall.. After all it is the main call to action.

Thanks for considering,

Eric

Hi all,

Thanks for the feedback all.

Good notes in here.

The only thing I would advise against is including a URL in the video. That's a point of preference, but as we've discussed in our shop, it's unlikely any viewer will actually read the link URL, and manually type it into their phone or in their browser address bar. I would suggest including it in all post copy, so that it's an actual clickable link. I'm fine to include it though if it is a must have.

Thanks,

Overall I think it looks really well put together. It does an nice job of featuring the event, but could go further to highlight the campaign.

- Curious why only one of our creative images is featured / since the campaign is referenced wondering why both images aren't shown?
- Can we add the website as one of the end slates to encourage people to get more info, again as part of the campaign www.stopoverdoseBC.ca
- In the slate where it says "The Canucks Saluted the change-makers..." wondering if it should be changed out of the past tense... "The Canucks salute the change-makers.." so the video is not time bound

Hello,

I've got a nearly complete cut ready for final approvals, after one last addition.

Here is the link: <https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/OLKbBoimTI>

I currently have Stephanie McCune's lower third as "lost bother to overdose," because I'm not sure how she would like to be addressed, as she did not give a title during interview, and I see she has several possible titles on Linked In. Does anyone know what she might like to have listed, or if not, do you have her contact information so I could ask?

Besides that, let me know what you think and we'll get posted asap.

Thanks,

Absolutely. You can leave the bridge announcement basically as soon as the main part of the announcement is over.

The premier is scheduled to leave the event by 9:45am, so you can leave by then at the latest.

If you feel you got enough shots to cover the event though, you can leave earlier.

We really need coverage of both events, and the bridge announcement is higher priority.

I understand that it could be a bit hectic getting from one event to the other, but we do have a bit of leeway. The Premier (who is the subject of both events) will be on the same schedule and has some buffer room.

It would be very helpful if you could make both events on Friday work. Let me know!

Hi Mark,

Next Tuesday is budget announcement day and there is a chance we could require another shooter to capture something. Are you available? If so, could I please pencil you in for now (I'll confirm once more details become clear).

This looks great to me. The only thing is when you have the Minister and Premier titles- you have Hon. Harry Bains and Hon. John Horgan. For our communications materials, we don't use Honourable ... that is supposed to be reserved for Federal MPs only. Shouldn't we be consistent with our news releases, etc?

Thanks, M

Hey Riel,

Looks good.

A few tweaks:

- * Overall could lose a couple decibels in the music, so the voices are more distinguishable
- * Overall, could we add a bit of a shift away from blue (warm up a bit) in the IV/podium footage – if that looks whacky, don't work too much on it
- * Please remove all "Hon." in front of names
- * Please change Premier's title to "Premier of British Columbia"
- * In the opening drone shot (and subsequent uses), could you reduce the saturation, maybe shift a bit to blue, so it doesn't look quite as jarring?
- * The archive photos of the bridge being built – where does that come from? Can only use if it is CC, and if so, it may need accreditation in the bottom corner (love the transition to the footage though – great cut!)
- * In all the interviews, the sounds is quite flat in comparison to the podium - could you put on multiband compressor (track effect) and Parametric EQ (track effect) with "Vocal Enhancer" preset, to hopefully roll off a bit of the boxiness (very hard to make out at 0:55)
- * In the interviews, could you add a bit of sharpening?
- * You can lose the lower third for Selina at the podium, it just looks a bit too busy
- * Instead of cutting at the end then fading up the logo, please use the logo attached here and crossfade the logo overtop of the footage for 13 frames

I know these are in the weeds a bit, but it's all great structurally!

Did you know the humble Apple iPhone can shoot professional quality video? Here's how:

- Find a bright outside window (natural light is great, especially on a cloudy day)
- Face the window
- Hold up your iPhone (if shooting a selfie) while you are facing the window. If a friend is helping you, have them hold the camera very steady with their back to the window, careful not to block the light. iPhone 7, 8, and 'X' work best, but the 6 can also create fantastic video
- Shoot your iPhone video clip
- Review and share (on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.)

Thanks Stephen. How is it shareable on Twitter when it has a password? Can it be posted somewhere where the minister can share it via Twitter?

Hi again Stephen - other than that one small thing, we are good to go. If there is no easy fix, as I mentioned, it's not a huge deal so we can finalize regardless. When you have the final version if you can share the link for us, we can put it out on the ministers social media channels.

Thanks so much for your work on this!

I'm sorry about the Minister not being featured quite as prominently. I really only have a clip or two of the Minister that I could drop in, unfortunately. Let me see if I can take a crack at getting him in earlier.

Thanks,

Hi Stephen - generally looks good from our perspective, though still waiting to hear back from our senior MA.

The main comment so far is noting how late Minister Fraser appears in the video. Totally get that it was a premier's event, so the Minister is playing second fiddle, but wondering if you have any b-roll of him marching, drumming, doing anything interesting that you could add in a short bit of earlier in the video to assuage that concern? The way it flows now content-wise for the narrative, it does fit well where his clip is, but maybe a short flash of b-roll of the Minister would be a quick easy fix if you have any such footage?

I'll let you know when I hear back from the other person we are waiting on in the MO.

Thx!

Did you know the humble Apple iPhone can shoot professional quality video? Here's how:

- Find a bright outside window (natural light is great, especially on a cloudy day)
- Face the window
- Hold up your iPhone (if shooting a selfie) while you are facing the window. If a friend is helping you, have them hold the camera very steady with their back to the window, careful not to block the light. iPhone 7, 8, and 'X' work best, but the 6 can also create fantastic video
- Shoot your iPhone video clip
- Review and share (on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.)

No problem, Karl. I'll check with the MO on schedule and see what times are available. Hoping we can use some Ag Day B-roll and any other b-roll (British Columbia agricultural landscapes, etc) if possible. I can at least get some suggested times for filming the Minister's on-camera part.

Hey Karl,

I connected with Duncan in Finance last week regarding a few expenses^{s.22}
s.22 – two services, Soundstripe (for music) and Motion Array (video templates).
Duncan needs your approval to move forward on putting these through:

Soundstripe costs $15.00/mo USD (roughly $20 CAD). I'm wondering if that can be transferred to a GCPE payment system,^{s.22} s.22

There is also another service that both David O and I have used since I've been here called Motion Array. It provides video projects templates for graphics, design and transition for video. It costs $19/mo. (USD).^{s.22}

Hi Don, would you be able to tackle this?

We would be very pleased to host The Honourable Carole James, Minister of Finance, at the University of Victoria on Monday, February 26, from 12:30pm to 1:00pm, for a presentation regarding the provincial budget. Please find below some options of where this event could occur and proposed formats for your consideration. As I know the Minister would understand, First Peoples House is primarily utilized for events related to the customs and cultures of Indigenous peoples and, in honouring those traditions, we would not be able to accommodate a presentation in that space within the time available. To that end, we have identified the following venues (subject to confirmation of availability) that we believe are well-suited to a student audience.

Hi Laura,

I'm wondering if you'd be available to take some photos at an event on Friday night?

It's the Small Business BC and Open for Business Awards at the Vancouver Convention Centre.
The event begins at 7:00 p.m. and should last until around 9:30.

The main figure to capture is Min. Bruce Ralston who will be speaking.

Please let me know if this works!

Hi team,

Just flagging this one for you – it was originally scheduled for Feb 9th but got postponed. Don Craig was slated to attend, but just want to reconfirm if he's still able to cover this one.

8:45am in Vancouver, exact location tbc
Event plan attached.

Please let Jarrett know who will attend.

Thanks,

Let's test this at 1:30, you'll need to find an Ethernet port. I got Shafiah Saban's name from Scott Ryckman and he manages facilities at the Leg.
I'll start a conversation with him.

Hi All,

Here are the details for the Childcare visit on Friday.

2:30 PM

Collingwood Neighbourhood House

5288 Joyce Street, Vancouver

Parking available underground of Euclid (for free).

The name of the program is Collingwood Early Learning & Care Centre. It is licensed for 25 children. Has 4.5 early childhood educators working there and is always fully enrolled. The program manager is Kalvinder who recently won an award from the United Way for her creative leadership in child care.

We will have no AV set up, same approach as Monday at the Y in Victoria.

Sharon Gregson will be in attendance as well as 6-8 parents who have worked with her, at least three of whom have kids at this space.

The Minister can meet with the kids, talk to Sharon and the parents and do some crafts with the kids. I will confirm what the exact activity is. I will be on site, FYI.

Sharon says that she and the parents would like 5-10 minutes afterwards with the Minister if that is ok, for a brief discussion – they will have a private room for that.

Should I contact David and Sonja about a media advisory?

All the kids will have signed waivers.

Thanks

Rick

Our policy is that we make firewall changes at 8:00am. Firewalls can be touchy, and that gives us time to recover if something breaks. So, if you can let me know either the day before, or that morning, that would be acceptable.

No. It's just to do an audio recording where I was going to put a lapel mic on Minister conroy on Sunday and then just hook the end of that with an adaptor or whatever I previously used to hook that mic into my iphone. Someone over at GCPE HQ gave me that last time I did a video recording.

But Phyl Modyl suggested just putting my iphone on a podium while the minister speaks for 10 minutes might do the trick just as well.

Hey Spencer and Gayle,

Is this in order to do an iPhone video recording? If so, feel free to get in touch with me directly!
I can help with that today if you'd like to stop by 4th floor at 617 Government to pick it up. You can ask for me at front desk.

Thanks,

Hi Stephen,

Gayle Mavor, at CFD has asked for a Lapel Mic w/ Long Cord for a speech taking place tomorrow afternoon. Is this something that you would have, that we could borrow for an afternoon?

Please let me know when you can.

Cheers,

Hi Mark,

We are planning to do a three-camera livestream of Dave Barret's memorial service coming up on Saturday, March 3rd.

Wondering if you'd be able to provide to shooters with Canon C cameras? If so, could you give me a breakdown of cost?

Please let me know, and I will provide you with more details.

Thanks,

Stephen Hargreaves
