Hi again – I'm really sorry, I thought this was about: TRAN-85581. Whoops!

This event is not confidential at all. Very straight forward, in fact. I can definitely go in and add some more details. In short, no provincial rep can attend, but there will be a ministers quote in BC Transit's news release.

Sorry about the confusion! You just happened to message me within a minute of Lianne adding the new entry, which is a bit more complex.

Thanks,

Alex

Hmm, good to know. Wondering in that case since we weren't aware of that part, if we should tone down the description on the Look Ahead? In future, suggest adding a "CONFIDENTIAL" notation in the description so that we can see it over here as a flag when we are processing and setting up the executive summary on it.

Hi Alexandra, I'm unclear on this one who is attending – is there going to be a provincial rep there at all? Minister's quote in BC Transit NR? If you could update some of the details, that would be great as it doesn't really indicate what's happening at the event or who will be there:

Subject: May Observance Days

Hi Robyn / Michael.
Attached is my Observance chart for May.

Couple things I've noted, (based on the list you provided me on the 23rd):

- May has been declared by Federal Government as Asian Heritage Month and it's on BC Proclamation list for May, though I didn't see an entry. This could be something for PO and TAC (Multiculturalism).
- International Internal Audit Awareness Month is listed on BC Proclamations – there isn't a corp cal entry (FIN)
- Multiple Sclerosis Month – Health has two entries for this day 87246 and 86993 – just wanted to point out the duplication.
- Invasive Species Action month – FLNR-85739 – entry said pending proclamation – the proclamation is posted to BC Laws (fyi)
- Social Enterprise Month – SDPR-87181 – proclamation isn't on BC Laws just yet (fyi)
- May 1 is "May Day" / "International Workers Day" and is listed on BC Proclamations – potential opportunity for LBR
- May 2 is World Tuna Day – just an FYI for AGRI and TAC (for the tourism/recreational aspect)
- May 3 is World Press Freedom Day – an UN Observance Day – I don't think anything needs to be done – listed just as an FYI. PM did do a statement in 2017.
- World Password Day – CITZ-82051 – the list you provided me on the 23rd had the wrong day – it's May 3 for 2018.
- May 5 – BC Midwives Day – Proclamation isn't up on BC Laws yet (fyi)
- May 6-12 North American Occupational Safety and Health Week – two entries for the same awareness day (LBR-87171 and HLTH 87247)
- May 7 is proclaimed Music Monday. No entry – based on the proclamation – EDUC should enter.
- May 7 Child and Youth Mental Health Day – CFD-84666 (not sure if MHA is tagged in entry)
- May 7 – Family Caregiver Week – two entries for same awareness week HLTH – 85589 and SDPR 87064
- May 8 – World Red Cross Day – Health has entry, but perhaps EMBC should be tagged (if not already)
- May 9 – Europe Day – I've added that information to IGRS-84517 as that day we'll have a visiting delegation.
- May 10 – Healthcare Auxiliary Day – there are two HLTH entries – 85591 and 87249 (one can be deleted)
- May 13 – Tzu Chi Day – listed on BC Proclamations – no entry – likely TAC (Multiculturalism) is best lead.

- May 13-20 - BC Museum Week – listed on BC Proclamations – no entry – FLNR and TAC
- May 14 – Anniversary of the Repeal of the Chinese Immigration Act – TAC (Multiculturalism) should be aware of this date.
- May 14-21 – BC Boating Week – listed on BC Proclamations – no entry – likely TAC (recreation)
- May 15 – International Day of Families – UN Observance Day - PO / MCFD opportunity
- May 15 – Ramadan – PO opportunity
- May 17 – International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia, Biphobia – PO opportunity
- May 18-24 – National Impaired Driving Prevention Week – Federal Minister Goodale designated – 2018 is the FIRST week of it's kind. PSSG has National Impaired Driving Enforcement Day in corp cal (PSSG-84320) – not sure if they are aware of the WEEK.
- May 20-26 – National Public Works Week – listed on BC Proclamations but no entry.
- May 21 – World Day for Cultural Diversity – a UN Observance Day – which might be a good opportunity for TAC (Multiculturalism)
- May 22-27 – RVing and Camping Week – listed on BC Proclamations but no entry – could be ENV for campgrounds and/or TAC for recreation
- May 27 – Bereavement Day – BC Proclamation has it listed as May 27; HLTH-84349 had it entered as May 21
- May 27-June 2 – Tourism Week as per BC Proclamations. Needs entry by TAC
- May 28-June 3 – National AccessAbility Week – This is a federal week to promote inclusion and accessibility – opportunity for SBSI

Subject: Review of all CC entries required
Importance: High

Good morning,

By tomorrow mid-afternoon, can you please ensure someone in your shop does a thorough review of all entries you have listed are current and up-to-date? We have noticed significant discrepancies at the Friday planning/pitch meetings between info your MOs have and what is in CC. This involves everything from completely different dates (or date ranges), to activities and details that are missing entirely from Corp Cal.

All entries should be updated as soon as new info has been received and, with the exception of late/emerging issues, everything should be entered no later than 3:00pm daily as it alters reports being run for final approvals when things are added or changed after that, and we are extremely busy towards the end of each day.

In the next few minutes, I will send each CD & MGR a Planning Report run from the system earlier this morning by ministry (PDF format). If anything is missing, out of date, or incorrect, please ensure a staff member updates the details. This includes awareness dates as well through to the end of the year. If you have entries that are a current or potential issue in the media, make sure this has been tagged as an issue or it will be completely missed in any issues scans. If you prefer a different format ie 30/60/90 or an Excel export, pls let me know.

The Corporate Calendar remains the official record of all proposed and approved ministry events and NRs.

Many thanks,

P.S. Current number of active entries in the system right now is 926, with ministry comm shop numbers shown in screen shot below:

Subject: CC - Release Type section (compromise)

Hi Anne, given that we are continuing to have multiple occurrences of people missing either the Comm Materials field on the left side of the screen, or the Release Origin & Distribution fields on the right side of the screen, I would like to propose an easier fix than my previous request to split these up and forget about that radio button selection list I had talked to you about.

Now that we know Services is being removed I would like to propose the following – just add one more Drop Down list in the RELEASE section as shown, called "Type", and move the top 5 or 6 choices that are appropriate there off of the Comm Materials list, and onto its own drop-down list here:

Info Bulletin, News Release, Opinion Editorial, Report, Statement. NOTE: The Origin field should ideally then be mandatory if they have selected something from the new Type field. That will prevent people skipping over that key info we need.

Release
→ Type:
Origin:
Distribution:
Sectors:
Themes:

Rename this one on left-side of screen to "Other Materials" and whittle down (and re-order) that list:

☒ Comm. Materials:

The selections from from both of these fields (Other Materials and Type) can still show together in the grid view under "Comm Materials" column as that makes sense to combine and display them there all in one place.

Hope that all made sense and is hopefully doable soon!

Thanks,
Robyn

Subject: Can EMBC-87841 go tomorrow at 8:15 instead of today?

Hi Daisy, given that FLNR is doing a May long fire precautions release tomorrow morning, may I suggest this one of yours for flooding also go tomorrow morning as well (Thurs) and issue it at 8:15am, just before theirs goes out for wildfires? Corporately, it may make sense to put these out back to back.

Also, next week is very full – is this something that could go out another time? There are no further notations about why this date has been selected so a few more details would be great. Adding Cara in for her input as well.

Hi all - some additional context. BC Transit reached an agreement with the service provider that allows people without credit cards to book trips on the new service through the call centre and pay by debit on board - a huge step for accessibility. The ability to pay by credit card only was (understandably) generating a fair amount of concern as a barrier for people in the north.

This is new information I recommend getting out as quickly as possible - the MO and PO have also requested so also.

Good Morning,

Please find the attached the standard draft eApprovals MOU for the 2018/19 fiscal year. We have updated the salary and benefits to reflect the current grid, and added a clause to specify that the MOU and JV are annual processes (wording has just been added for clarity as some financial units questioned if the charge was a monthly charge). Otherwise, the basic agreement and schedule of services remains the same.

If you choose to maintain the present MOU with the Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction (SDPR), please complete the attached word document and return a signed PDF to the iCollaborate mailbox.

If you have any concerns or questions, please email us at: iCollaborate.

We look forward to continuing our partnership with you.

Thank you.
