Hi Danielle,

Just fyi - attached is the invoice that I submitted tonight to GCPE Finance for the period Nov. 19-Nov. 29, 2018. This finishes off that contract, so everything going forward is under the Standing Offer contract.

Thanks!

Hi Jen,

Danielle added a few pieces about the Fair PharmaCare deductibles to this MSP Op-Ed, so it's over to you for a final approval. Tyler, please send this updated version to the translators to translate from scratch, and I will highlight edits from Jen, if she has any. The photo is also attached, and the caption is still:

The elimination of MSP fees will be one of the largest middle-class tax cuts in B.C. history, putting $1,800 per year back into the pockets of families like this.

Thanks!

Thanks Erin. I kind of think the one with John and the family saying something like,

"The elimination of MSP will be one of the largest middle-class tax cuts in B.C. history, putting $1,800 per year back in pockets of families like this." Or so on...

Thanks, Jen!

Please see the revised op-ed attached. I've attached a couple more photo options that are related to big affordability announcements that aren't mentioned in the op-ed. Maybe a good way of getting them in there, without increasing the word count. Suggested captions:

1. 26283382418_fcb8b95b4f_o

In 2018, the BC Government announced that the province's lowest-paid workers will earn a $15-an-hour minimum wage by June 2021. This will make life more affordable for 400,000 workers and will help build a strong, stable economy.

2. 30862492097_7ee2fd3229_o OR 44471387422_d91343a14c_o

The BC government is moving forward with 53 prototype projects around the province to deliver child care that will cost families a maximum of $200 per month per child.

Let me know what you think, or if you'd rather go with the podium shot you sent and a caption about MSP.

Thanks,

Thanks, Erin. Made some edits. Can we use one of the photos (or something similar) I've attached here? Would rather have him and families or making life affordable podium or something instead of finance minister.

Hi Jen,

Please find the attached draft MSP op-ed. I've also included a couple of photo options. Unfortunately, I couldn't find any photos of PJH and MCJ together for an MSP announcement, so I think one of these will have to suffice. Unless there's somewhere else I should look? Suggested caption:

Finance Minister and Deputy Premier Carole James announces the elimination of MSP premiums by January 1, 2020 in Budget 2018. Budget 2018 carved a new path to shared prosperity for all British Columbians, with a made-in-BC child care plan, a comprehensive housing plan and record levels of capital investment in every corner of our province.

Thanks!
