Hi all,

As requested, notes from Ontario presser on 're-opening' economy copied below. No dates, and generally quite light on details.

Their full document referenced is here: <https://files.ontario.ca/mof-framework-for-reopening-our-province-en-2020-04-27.pdf>

Also of note: Quebec reportedly will be announcing at 12:30PM PST today that elementary schools and daycares outside Montreal will re-open May 11, with Montreal elementary schools to follow May 19. High schools and universities will be closed until the fall. News article here. Ontario announced today that all K-12 schools will remain closed until at least May 31st, with another update to come closer to that date.

Hi Greg and LAPS,

FYI --- Protests are planned for both Saturday (Surrey) and Sunday (Vancouver) at 2pm.

On the facebook page link below they are encouraging people who cannot join in person to create one in their own community - it reads like something may get organized in Vernon or Kelowna.

The local MLA offices and local police (where the two protests below are being held) are aware.

Regards, Susan
