Hi both,

Two bills are set for introduction tomorrow both from the finance minister and we will proceed with bill 2 in committee stage.

As mentioned earlier this week, GHl has been considering a motion (possibly by leave tomorrow morning) for ToR to review Private Member Time with a Special Committee. This is not confirmed as it's short notice, and I will connect in the AM for confirmation and share the text of motion.

As you can see – we also could end early tomorrow and spend an extra long weekend with our lovely families 😊 talk soon, let me know if you have any questions.

Thursday Feb 16	MORNING (11:00am to 12:00pm)	INTRODUCTION of BILLS  Bill 8 – FIN (MKC)  Bill 9 – FIN (MKC)  COMMITTEE of the WHOLE  Bill 2 – Truth and Reconciliation Day Act – LBR (MHB)

Hi both – sorry for the late email but I completely imagined sending this email 2 days ago and then checked my folder and realized I hadn't! wah wah.

Nothing too exciting for next week – as expected 2nd Reading debate is scheduled on our outstanding legislation in the morning and afternoon tomorrow. Further to note, and with your sides agreement, GHl is looking to move the updated ToR motion for the Finance Committee on Tuesday as the Clerks have noted is urgency (attached background note again). There has also been a request for a Ministerial Statement recognizing the 1-year anniversary of Russia's invasion of Ukraine and we will likely schedule that on Thursday, the 23rd. I think that is all for now – talk more tomorrow!

Hi all,

Schedule for tomorrow is below. In the afternoon the House Leader is planning to move the motion to discuss reforming Private Member Time. We will continue Bill 7 for the morning and maybe into afternoon. As well, Minister Kang will be giving a Ministerial Statement on the one-year date of illegal invasion of Ukraine.

On another note – <sup>s.22</sup>

In my absence, my excellent colleague Ravi Parmar will be doing the heavy lifting and supporting the House Leader. I have copied him into this email as well as both Jennifers who I regularly deal with.

Can you please assist Ravi where needed with any process and house details - and we have been very happy to be provided scripts for most things happening as the House Leader is still figuring it all out. Thanks again and see all soon!
